2018 IN REVIEW

The San Francisco 49ers finished the 2018 season with a third-place finish in the NFC West, improving from fourth the previous season. Despite the team's 4-12 record, the 2018 season produced NFL records and franchise milestones from both the team and individual performances. The organization welcomed back the duo of general manager John Lynch and head coach Kyle Shanahan for their second season, as well as newly re-signed QB Jimmy Garoppolo, who led the team to wins in each of the final five games at the conclusion of the 2017 season. In an injury plagued season that included losing starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo and newly signed RB Jerick McKinnon to ACL injuries, the young core of the team stepped up to win two of their final four games in the month of December to close out the season. Over the past two seasons, the 49ers are tied for the second-most victories in the month of December with seven wins.

The 49ers were able to find several contributing members of the 2018 team through both free agency and the draft. The team acquired key pieces such as C Weston Richburg, RB Alfred Morris and CB Richard Sherman, a four-time All-Pro defensive back that helped provide veteran leadership and productivity to the team. With the ninth-overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, the team selected T Mike McGlinchey, who started all 16 games for the team at right tackle. The 49ers then selected WR Dante Pettis in the second round (44th overall), who hauled in 27 receptions for 467 yards and five touchdowns. Pettis' five touchdowns are tied for the second-most in franchise history by a rookie. With their third-round pick (70th overall), San Francisco selected LB Fred Warner, who started all 16 games and logged the third-most tackles (122) among all rookies. The team's late-round picks of DB Tarvarius Moore, DB D.J. Reed Jr., S Marcell Harris, DT Jullian Taylor and WR Richie James Jr., along with undrafted rookies RB Jeff Wilson Jr. and TE Ross Dwelley, also made several starts and provided substantial contributions throughout the year.

Following injuries to both Garoppolo and QB C.J. Beathard, undrafted QB Nick Mullens was able to fill the void and excel for San Francisco's offense after being promoted to the active roster from the team's practice squad on September 26. Mullens started all eight games he appeared in and accumulated the fourth-most passing yards by a quarterback in their first eight career games since 1970 (Patrick Mahomes, KC; Andrew Luck, Ind.; Cam Newton, Car.). In his NFL debut versus the Oakland Raiders on Thursday Night Football in primetime, Mullens threw for 262 yards and the second-best quarterback rating (151.9) by a passer in their NFL debut since 1973. The offense received an abundance of firepower from second-year TE George Kittle, who exploded onto the national scene and set an NFL record for most receiving yards by a tight end in a single season (1,377). Kittle also proved himself as a weapon in the open field, recording the most yards after catch by any player in the NFL since 2010 (870). Kittle earned Second-Team All-Pro honors, as well as his first Pro Bowl selection, after his historic season. On the ground, the 49ers were led by second-year undrafted RB Matt Breida who carried the ball 153 times for 814 yards and three touchdowns, while adding 27 receptions for 261 yards and two touchdowns. Breida finished the season with a 5.3 rushing average, which was fourth-best in the NFL.

On the defensive side of the ball, the 49ers fought through an assortment of injuries that included a different starting lineup in all 16 games, but came together as a unit towards the end of the season as they began to find continuity and success. DL DeForest Buckner led the pass rushing unit by collecting a career-high 12.0 sacks, which was the second-most among NFL DTs behind Los Angeles Rams DT Aaron Donald and the fourth-most by a member of the 49ers since 2000. Ronald Blair III (5.5) Cassius Marsh (5.5) and Arik Armstead (3.0) also provided support in the pass rush and set career highs in sacks on the season. Robert Saleh's unit also proved themselves to be a force against the run, ranking seventh in the NFL on the season with just 4.1 yards per carry allowed.

K Robbie Gould continued to shine in his second season with the 49ers both on and off the field as he was nominated the 49ers' Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. Gould expanded on his streak from the previous season and set the franchise record with 33 consecutive field goals made 10/29/17 to 10/7/18. Gould finished the season leading the NFL with a 97.1 field goal percentage (33-34), which also set a franchise record. Over the past two seasons, Gould leads the entire league in field goals made (72) and field goal percentage (96.0).

FOLLOW HIS LEAD

Kyle Shanahan was named the 20th head coach of the San Francisco 49ers on February 6, 2017. He just completed his second season with the 49ers after spending the previous two seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Atlanta Falcons. Shanahan has 14 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine of the previous 10 as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington Redskins (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09) prior to joining San Francisco. In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), Shanahan directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained. Following the 2016 season, Shanahan was named Associated Press Assistant Coach of the Year, Coordinator of the Year by The Sporting News and Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after a record-setting performance by the Falcons offense en route to capturing the NFC South division title and an appearance in Super Bowl LI. Under Shanahan, the 2016 Falcons set franchise records in yards per game (415.8), points scored (540), net passing yards per game (295.3) and average yards per play (6.7). Atlanta QB Matt Ryan, who was named Associated Press Most Valuable Player, Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year, Most Valuable Player/Offensive Player of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America and FedEx Air Player of the Year, threw for a single-season franchise record and career-high 4,944 passing yards and 38 touchdowns, ranking second in the NFL in both categories. WR Julio Jones recorded 83 receptions for 1,409 yards (17.0 average) and six touchdowns in 14 games played.

FOUR-TIME FINALIST

For the fourth-consecutive season, San Francisco 49ers T Joe Staley has been selected as one of eight finalists for the fifth annual Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award. The award was created in 2014 in honor of the founding owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Art Rooney, Sr. It is presented annually to an NFL player who best demonstrates the qualities of on-field sportsmanship, including fair play, respect for the game and opponents, and integrity in competition.

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979," Walsh said. "He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements."

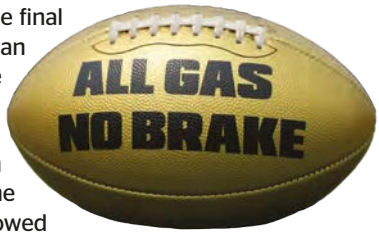
ALL GAS, NO BRAKE

Robert Saleh (SAH-luh) finished his 14th NFL season and second as the 49ers defensive coordinator.

In 2017, Saleh led a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards per play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016-17 (Cle. - 0.76 yards per play; NYJ - 0.72 yards per play). The defense also finished the season holding their opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers streak of holding each of the five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). It also marked the first time the 49ers held five straight opponents to under 100 yards rushing since Weeks 11-15 of the 2012 season. The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing ranked tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage.



Saleh's defense continued to improve throughout the season. Over the final eight weeks of the season, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640), tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62), fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (91.4), seventh in net yards allowed per game (314.4) and tied for eight in rushing touchdowns allowed (four).

In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain LB Paul Posluzny started all 16 games at MLB and led the team in tackles for the second consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, LB Telvin Smith registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles are the most ever by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per attempt, the fifth lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the Jaguars and ranked fifth in the league with 133 tackles, according to game book statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss. According to Jaguars team statistics, Smith registered a career high 128 tackles in 2015.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped in the starting lineup and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles, according to game book statistics, in 2014. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, LB J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions, two tackles for loss and five passes defensed.

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seattle Seahawks. During his three seasons with the Seahawks, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton, Jr., Saleh aided in the development of LB K.J. Wright, LB Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh spent six seasons with the Houston Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). In Houston, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to both rank among the league's top 10 tacklers, according to game book statistics.

Saleh joined the Texans after three seasons working in the collegiate ranks. He began his career as an offensive assistant/tight ends (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line (2003) at Michigan State before spending one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line at Central Michigan and a brief stint (2005) at Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach.

A native of Dearborn, MI, Saleh attended Northern Michigan University where he started at tight end for four years. Saleh and his wife, Sanaa, have five children: four sons, Adam, Zane, Michael and Sam, and one daughter, Mila.

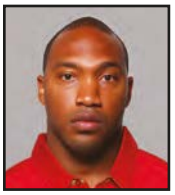
HIGHTOWER OF TERROR



Richard Hightower completed his 12th season in the NFL and second season as the 49ers special teams coordinator. He returned to San Francisco in 2017 after previously serving as assistant special teams coach with the team in 2015.

In 2017, the 49ers special teams units excelled under Hightower's guidance. In his first season with the 49ers, veteran K Robbie Gould had a career year, leading the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and finishing third in the NFL with a career-high 145 points. Gould's 39 made field goals were the second-most in a single-season in franchise history (K David Akers – 44 made field goals in 2011) and tied for the third-most in a single-season in NFL history. P Bradley Pinion set a career high with a 41.3 net punting average and the punt coverage unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing 4.2 yards per return.

As an assistant special teams coach with Chicago in 2016, the Bears kickoff coverage team finished seventh in the NFL in opponent drive start average. Deonte Thompson led the NFL in kickoff returns with 35 and ranked second with 810 yards. Punter returner Eddie Royal scored on a nifty 65-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football vs. the Eagles. Sherrick McManis led the Bears in special-teams tackles and finished top 10 in the NFL, recording 13 stops.

In 2015, Hightower first joined San Francisco as an assistant special teams coach. That season, Hightower helped the 49ers punt coverage unit rank eighth in the NFL allowing just 6.4 yards per return, while working with rookie punter Bradley Pinion. Kicker Phil Dawson was 10th in the NFL with an 88.9 field goal percentage (tied for the fourth highest percentage of his 17-year career).

Hightower spent the 2014 season working on offense in Cleveland assisting with the receivers after working as an assistant special teams coach for four seasons in Washington (2010-13). With Washington, he worked under longtime special teams coordinator Danny Smith. Hightower also spent two seasons (2012-13) as the assistant defensive backs coach with the Redskins. Over his four seasons in Washington, the Redskins were third in the NFL in kickoff coverage, allowing just 21.2 yards per return, including leading the league in 2010 and 2011. Hightower's coaching on special teams helped Lorenzo Alexander lead the NFL with 21 special-teams tackles en route to being named the NFC's special teams player in the Pro Bowl, in 2012. Hightower was also instrumental in the development of first-year kicker Kai Forbath, who broke an NFL record by hitting his first 17 field goal attempts, leading the NFL with a 94.4 field goal percentage.

As assistant defensive back coach, Hightower helped the unit rank sixth in the NFL in interceptions (37) and tie for second in the NFL in interception-return touchdowns (7) over the two-year span. DeAngelo Hall led the NFL in defensive touchdowns (3). In 2012, the Redskins were first in the NFC in passes defensed and had four returned touchdowns.

From 2006-08, Hightower was on Houston's coaching staff as a coaching assistant (2006-07) before being elevated to special teams assistant (2008). In Houston, he served under widely respected then-special teams coordinator Joe Marciano, who has more than 30 years of experience coaching special teams. In 2008, Houston was 11th in the NFL in kickoff coverage (22.3 yards per return). Punt returner Jacoby Jones finished fifth in the NFL and second in Texans single-season annals with a 12.1 average, including a franchise single-season record two punt return touchdowns. Kicker Kris Brown set franchise records for points (124), field goals made (29) and field goal percentage (.879). In 2007, the kickoff return unit featuring Jerome Mathis and Andre Davis became only the 4th team in NFL history to score four touchdowns on kickoff return in a single season.

In between his time in Houston and Washington, Hightower spent the 2009 season as wide receivers coach at the University of Minnesota. Under his tutelage, Eric Decker was named a First-Team All-Big Ten selection that season before being selected by the Denver Broncos in the third round (87th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

A native of Houston, TX, Hightower earned his BA in Marketing from the University of Texas where he was a three-year letterman and special teams standout for the Longhorns. He went to Austin as an academic scholar and later earned an athletic scholarship after walking on. Following his senior season, then head coach Mack Brown and his staff voted Hightower the D. Harold Byrd Leadership Award.

Hightower and his wife, Lanet, have two sons Jaxson and Kaden and a daughter, Reagan.

LYNCH'S IMPRINT

One of the most respected players to ever play the game of football, and a six-time finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, John Lynch finished his second season as the team's General Manager following a 15-year playing career and more than eight seasons as an NFL analyst.

Since coming to San Francisco, Lynch has been aggressive in acquiring the right players to help establish the team's culture. While working hand-in-hand with head coach Kyle Shanahan and the coaching staff, Lynch continues to add players through all avenues to help build the team.

In his first season with San Francisco, Lynch brought in several key players through free agency, including WR Marquise Goodwin, K Robbie Gould and FB Kyle Juszczyk, who impacted the team immediately. Goodwin set career highs in receptions (56) and receiving yards (962), Gould led the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and a career-high 145 points and Juszczyk was selected to the Pro Bowl.

Lynch was also responsible for acquiring G Laken Tomlinson and QB Jimmy Garoppolo in trades. Tomlinson was acquired on August 31, 2017 and started the final 15 games of the season at left guard. He was rewarded with a three-year contract extension through the 2021 season on June 22, 2018. Garoppolo, who was traded to San Francisco on October 30, 2017, started the final five games of the season and posted a 5-0 record while setting the franchise record for most passing yards in the first five starts with the team (1,542 yards). On February 8, 2018, Garoppolo signed a five-year contract extension through the 2022 season.

Lynch joined the 49ers in February of 2017 after serving as a color analyst for FOX Sports from 2009-16. In his final season of 2016 with FOX, he manned the number two broadcast crew alongside play-by-play announcer Kevin Burkhardt.

Prior to his time at FOX, Lynch constructed one of the all-time great NFL careers while with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1993-2003) and the Denver Broncos (2004-07). A four-time All-Pro and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he played in 224 games (191 starts) and registered 1,277 tackles, 13.0 sacks, 26 interceptions, 16 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and 100 passes defensed. Lynch also started all 12 playoff games in which he appeared and tallied 71 tackles, two interceptions and 12 passes defensed. He was a Buccaneers team captain as the squad achieved the crown jewel of team sports, a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII, and has been inducted into the Ring of Honor in both Tampa Bay and Denver.

Lynch attended Stanford University where he excelled in both football and baseball. On the football field, he earned Second-Team All-American and First-Team All-Pac-10 Conference honors as a senior, while playing for Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh. Lynch was later selected in the third round (82nd overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay. Following his career on the diamond for the Cardinal, he was selected in the second round (66th overall) of the 1992 Major League Baseball Draft by the Florida Marlins.

In addition to his stellar play on the field, Lynch is also a pillar of the community. He and his wife, Linda, formed the John Lynch Foundation, which is committed to inspiring young people to become leaders through scholarship, sport participation and community involvement. The Foundation is committed to developing leaders by encouraging dreams, providing programs that assist and motivate, and recognizing achievement and excellence.

Lynch was the recipient of the 2006 Bart Starr Award, which is voted upon by players throughout the NFL and recognizes a player who shows outstanding character and leadership in the home, on the field and in the community. He was also presented with The Byron "Whizzer" White Award, which is given annually to the NFL player who serves his team, community and country in the spirit of Bryon Raymond White.

John and his wife, Linda, have four children – Jake, Lindsay, Lilly and Leah.

LYNCH'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Lynch is a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Ring of Honor (2016) and the Denver Broncos Ring of Fame (2016).
- One of seven players in NFL history to make at least four Pro Bowls with multiple teams (Tampa Bay – 5; Denver – 4).
- His nine Pro Bowl selections rank t-2nd in NFL history among safeties, behind Pro Football Hall of Fame S Ken Houston (10).
- A four-time AP All-Pro selection (1999-2002), Lynch also won Super Bowl XXXVII as a member of the Buccaneers.
- Attended Stanford University (1989-92) where he played both football and baseball. He earned Second-Team All-American and First-Team All-Pac-10 Conference honors as a senior while playing for Hall of Famer and former 49ers head coach Bill Walsh.
- Selected in the second round (66th overall) of the 1992 Major League Baseball Draft by the Florida Marlins.
- In August of 2000, he and his wife, Linda, formed the "John Lynch Foundation" to provide "encouragement and positive alternatives for young people."

SALUTE TO SERVICE AWARD NOMINEE

One of the most respected players to ever play the game of football, the six-time finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame and first year San Francisco 49ers General Manager John Lynch has a longstanding appreciation for the United States military.

As someone whose grandfather and great uncle volunteered for the Army the day after the deadly attacks on Pearl Harbor in December 1941, Lynch has the utmost respect for our military service men and women and has committed time and resources towards supporting the United States Armed Forces for decades.

Since 1998, Lynch has frequented various Air Force bases and military hospitals to personally thank those serving in the military, including MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa, FL, Walter Reed Hospital in Bethesda, MD, and various visits to Fort Carson and Peterson Air Force Base in Colorado. In 2002, the John Lynch Foundation hosted the 'Salute the Stars & Stripes' fundraiser honoring then United States Army Commander of U.S. Central Command Tommy Franks.

"Through my foundation, we've been involved in military appreciation for a long, long time," said Lynch. "Military appreciation is so important to me, because we understand that the unbelievable freedoms, ideals and realities that make America – in my mind – the greatest country in the world are given to us because a lot of people sacrificed for them. To me, no one does so more than the military."

During his last season playing in the NFL (2007), Lynch hosted troops from Buckley Air Force Base (Aurora, CO) during the Denver Broncos training camp at Dove Valley. He visited with and shared a meal with military personnel who had either recently returned from serving in Iraq or were preparing for overseas deployment.

Lynch's military appreciation continues to this day. Every year since 2011, he has hosted military families at the annual Lynch Christmas Party in Colorado and during his inaugural training camp as 49ers general manager, Lynch hosted service men and women during the team's Military Appreciation Day.

HIS CAUSE, HIS CLEATS

The NFL community once again had the chance to share the causes that are important to them during all Week 13 games of 2017 and Week 15 of 2018, as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. General Manager John Lynch took part in the campaign, with custom sneakers in support of the "John Lynch Foundation."

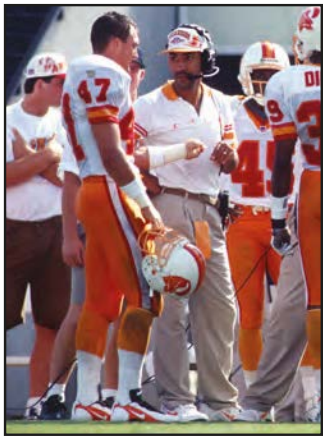
HIGH PRAISE

"I am very excited for John and the opportunity he has with the San Francisco 49ers. He has all the traits you would want in a person to lead your football team. He knows the game and knows what it takes to win. John was instrumental in the turnaround of our Bucs team and he has a vision of how to do that with the 49ers. He's a great communicator and will be able to get his vision across to everyone in the organization. I have no doubt he will do an outstanding job."

- Pro Football Hall of Famer Tony Dungy



EVERYWHERE HE GOES

Throughout each of John Lynch's stops in the NFL, success seems to follow him. In 2016, Lynch was inducted into the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Ring of Honor, having spent 11 seasons with the team (1993-2003) after being selected in the third round (82nd overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft. He was also enshrined into the Denver Broncos Ring of Fame after playing four seasons (2004-07), becoming one of just a few individuals to receive such an honor from multiple teams.

PRO-BOWL CREDENTIALS

In 15 NFL seasons, Lynch earned nine trips to the Pro Bowl, tied for the second-most in NFL history among safeties.

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15. Armstead and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.

- In April of 2018, Armstead worked with Leataata Floyd Elementary and 916 Ink to host a trip to the Imaginarium, where the young students developed their artistic abilities, while learning how to be better at communicating. The event was in conjunction with Armstead's foundation, which focuses on assisting at-risk youth, particularly through the means of education.

ARMSTEAD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Lists his parents, Guss and Christa, as the most influential people in his life. He also gives credit to his grandfather, Willie B. Armstead, an Air Force veteran, for instilling the value of integrity that his parents have passed along to him. "A lot of things he instilled in my dad have carried down to me. Having a family member who is more courageous than you can imagine and who served his country is a huge honor."
- Played both basketball and football at Oregon before focusing only on football in 2014.

- Armstead returned to his hometown of Sacramento this past offseason to host the first charity weekend for his foundation, #91Six, which promotes equal opportunities through education. The festivities kicked off as teammates Richard Sherman, Marquise Goodwin, Jaquiski Tartt and Ahkello Witherspoon joined Armstead for a charity gala and silent auction. Armstead then led a youth camp the following morning, where the children were able to get hands-on lessons from the NFL players. Throughout the day, Armstead stressed the importance of hard work, sportsmanship and teamwork. Armstead closed the weekend with a talent show featuring comedians and artists from the local community, one of which was Witherspoon's sister, a singer.

- In June of 2017, Armstead returned to his hometown of Sacramento to hold his second annual free youth football camp. The camp was held in Elk Grove, California and sponsors made it possible for 200 scholarships to be offered to interested kids. The kids participated in both football and conditioning drills with the players and then were allowed to ask questions to discuss not only football, but school, healthy choices, and other topics. Armstead's goal was to provide campers with a unique experience on the football field, as well as insight into the hard work and dedication that are needed to make it to the NFL. "I want the kids to enjoy themselves while also coming away learning that they can do whatever they put their mind to," said Armstead. "I want to teach them the things that helped me get where I am now like the importance of education, work ethic, and faith."

- If Armstead wasn't in the NFL, he would be playing basketball. He was a three-year starter in basketball at Pleasant Grove High School in Sacramento and played two years at the University of Oregon before focusing solely on football for the 2014 season. He entered his high school senior season listed as the number three prospect in NorCalPrep.com's Top 40 rankings for the class of 2012. "A big part of the recruiting pitch from Oregon was they were going to let me play two sports. We only lost 5 games during my time there. I wanted to go somewhere with the chance to win and be a part of something special."
- In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show on Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Armstead, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- Armstead's brother, Armond, was forced to retire before ever playing a down in the NFL. After playing collegiately at USC, Armond became an All-Star for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League, helping the team win the league's 100th Grey Cup. He went on to sign with the New England Patriots in 2013, but medical issues forced him to hang up his cleats. "The biggest thing he has told me through this process is, 'at the end of the day, it's just football.' Having a brother who played at this level makes everything less overwhelming."
- In December of 2016, Armstead partnered with his local church to spread holiday cheer. Armstead bought more than 100 toys at Target and gave them away to children at the UC Davis Medical Center.

- During Super Bowl 50's Media Day, Armstead joined Sacramento's ABC10 sports team as a reporter to learn what it is like to cover NFL players during one of the most hectic events of the year. Held at SAP Center in San Jose, Armstead interviewed former teammates, fans, media members and Miss Universe. "It's like a feeding frenzy - everyone running around, and being part of that frenzy was a unique experience," said Armstead during the event.
- For Armstead, the NFL Draft process was a whirlwind tour. He went straight from the National Championship Game to San Diego to prepare for the NFL Combine and then to Sacramento for the Draft itself. However, his favorite part of the process was being drafted by a team so close to his hometown. "It's a dream come true. I'm blessed to be in this situation. Not a lot of other people are that close to home. Being able to play home games in front of my family is perfect for me."

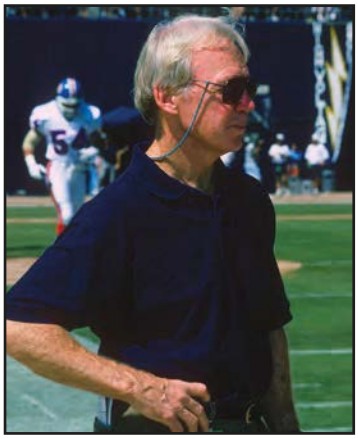
GOLDMINE



- Beathard comes from a family steeped in football tradition. His grandfather, Bobby Beathard, spent 38 years working in the NFL, including 22 seasons as general manager of the Washington Redskins (1978-88) and San Diego Chargers (1989-2000). As a general manager of the Redskins, he served as the architect of Washington's Super Bowl winning teams in 1982 (Super Bowl XVII) and 1987 (Super Bowl XXII). He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2018.
- Beathard became a father in December of 2016, just months before being selected in the 3rd round by San Francisco. A year later, he celebrated his daughter Lyla's first birthday at the conclusion of his rookie season. Despite the significant achievement of seeing time as a starting QB in his first season, Beathard considers his daughter's birth one of the greatest and proudest moments of his life. "The love I have experienced for her over this past year is something I never knew was possible," Beathard said. "I am thankful for all of the joy she brings to my life."

- After posing for a photoshoot, Beathard and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15. Beathard and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Beathard and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- Beathard and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.
- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Beathard and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

- During his time at Iowa, Beathard earned the nickname "Sunshine" from Hawkeye fans because his long, flowing hair resembled the character with the same nickname from the football movie "Remember The Titans." In 2015, he cut off his hair and donated it to Wigs For Kids, a non-profit organization that makes wigs to support for children who have lost their hair due to medical issues at no cost to children or their families.
- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Beathard and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.
- In August of 2016, Beathard joined his younger brother, singer/songwriter Tucker Beathard, on stage at the first-ever concert at Iowa's Kinnick Stadium. Tucker, one of country music's rising stars, saw his song "Rock On" become a top-10 hit on Billboard's country chart. While performing a new track called "I'll Take On The World With You," which he co-wrote about the bond between he and his siblings, Tucker brought his older brother and former childhood bandmate onto the stage for a moment the two will never forget. "Ever since C.J. started at Iowa, playing a show at Kinnick Stadium was one of those unreachable dreams that you never think will actually come true," said Tucker. "Our whole family lives for sports and music...it's what bonds us together going back to my grandpa and his years in the NFL. It was awesome to be invited to the Back Porch Revival and to see those two worlds collide in front of a stadium full of people. I'll never forget it!"

GOLDMINE

- The 49ers, in partnership with Fresh Lifelines for Youth (FLY), visited the Santa Clara Juvenile Hall to work with residents on frustration management on October 9, 2018. Blair III and his teammates held a discussion with the young people, and later divided into groups to engage in football drills that demonstrated the proper way to focus negative energy in a positive manner. After the drills, they held another discussion centered on making right decisions when it comes to frustration management.

- In his hometown of Greensboro, GA, Blair volunteers at Relay For Life, a branch of the American Cancer Society. The subject of cancer is near to Blair's heart, as his grandmother, Annie Ruth Peek, passed away from colon cancer while he was growing up. In the future, Blair aims to start his own foundation with the goal of creating a community where people who are going through life-changing experiences can call home. "I lost my grandmother to colon cancer. I lost my grandfather to a heart attack. My stepfather was in a car accident and is now a paraplegic. So, those people have a special place in my heart and I want to get involved in helping with causes like those."

BLAIR III'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Blair volunteers at the Relay for Life in his hometown of Greensboro, GA. One day, he hopes to start his own foundation that would create a community for people going through life-changing experiences.
- Growing up, Blair's first sport was basketball, not football. His father put a basketball in his crib when he was one year old and Blair only switched to football once he realized his size was better suited for the gridiron.

- Blair cites the transition from 8th grade to high school, and specifically a conversation he had with his band director, as a key moment that stoked his competitive fire. Entering the 9th grade, his band director wanted him to continue playing the tuba in the school's band and not play football because he wouldn't see the field as a freshman. That year, Blair became a starter on varsity. "That's definitely one moment that sticks out and helped me develop in the football world," said Blair.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Blair III and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

GOLDMINE

- As a senior in 2016, despite receiving consideration for multiple national athletic awards which included the watch list for both the Doak Walker Award and Maxwell Award, it was an award for what he does off the field that Breida felt most honored by. Breida was announced as a finalist for the 2016 Senior Class Award after making the Georgia Southern Eagles' Honor Roll and being involved in the community by reading and speaking to local elementary schools in Statesboro, GA, as well as back home in Florida. "One of the best people I've ever been around," said Georgia Southern Head Coach Tyson Summers when asked about Breida. The 2016 Senior Class Award is given to a senior who has various notable achievements in four areas: community, classroom, character, and competition. "For them to see me as one of the role models was pretty cool for me," said Breida.
- Breida honors his parents, calling them the reason he is where he is today. "They mean everything to me. I could be somewhere else," said Breida who was adopted the day after he was born by Terri and Mike Breida.

- Both permanently disabled, Terri and Mike sacrificed to make sure Matt and his brother had the best life they could offer them. According to Breida, "They gave me everything that they could even though we didn't have a lot. Adoption or no adoption, family is family. I see them as my parents, from day one. No matter what. That's mom and dad to me. I would do anything for them."

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15. Buckner and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.

- When Buckner was 13 years old, his father, George, was involved in a motorcycle accident that left him in a coma for six months. Upon his awakening, George summoned DeForest to his bedside, where the two had a 'man-to-man' conversation, as his mother, Maria, puts it. After the life-changing event and heartfelt conversation, that is when Buckner believes he became a man and took more responsibility with his family. He became a mentor to his younger brother, Kenya, and began to understand the values his father had instilled in him. "He was hard on us, and disciplined us, shaped us," Buckner said. "He taught us about respect, that it's earned and you have to treat everyone around you like you want to be treated."

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Buckner and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- Buckner and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

- After posing for a photoshoot, Buckner and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Buckner and his teammates visited San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers."This is the season of giving and Thanksgiving is all about being thankful," said Buckner. "I'm very thankful for what I have in life and the blessings that came my way. But some people aren't as fortunate. Being able to give back and serve food is a great feeling and it's a blessing."

- In July of 2017, Buckner returned to his hometown of Waianae, HI, to host a free noncontact youth football clinic at Waianae High School. "Having my first camp back in my hometown means a lot to me because this is where it all started," said Buckner. "Where I grew up shaped a big part of my life and having the opportunity to give back to my community means the world to me. I just want the youth in our community to see that dreams do come true."

- During his time at Oregon, Buckner used art as an outlet for his emotions outside of football, even earning the nickname "Dr. DeFo" from his art professor for his passion, focus and patience with his pieces. Buckner enrolled in a class called "Art of the Athlete," which provides engagement for student-athletes through the visual arts and has the student-athletes help in the Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art workshops for children with disabilities. During the open exhibition at the end of the class, Buckner was awarded with the highest honor, the breakout artist award for his piece titled "King of Pop" showing himself in a Michael Jackson type pose that was spray painted on vinyl.

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Celek and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. This past season, Celek chose to support the 49ers Foundation Youth Football Program. A regular participant in the community, Celek believes youth sports are an important vehicle to develop character, while teaching valuable life lessons to support student athletes. "I wanted to utilize my platform to show kids that anything is possible through hard work and dedication, and that education is the key to opportunity," said Celek.

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Celek and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- The 49ers partnered with Furry Friends Pet Assisted Therapy Services for animal therapy, while providing confidence building activities for students in the Leland High School special needs program in an effort to erase the stigma attached to special needs. Celek and his teammates spent time with students with autism, mental illness and learning disabilities as they play board games, working on social skills including conversational queues and eye contact through the hands-on activity. Players will also partner with animal therapy dogs to uplift students through one-on-one interactions. "There are things that are more important in life," said Celek. "Eventually, football's going to be over for me, and it can't be my entire life. I need other things that make me happy in life, too. This does."
- In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show on Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Celek, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- As part of Salute to Service Month, Celek, along with his teammates and general manager, John Lynch, visited the USO office at the San Jose Military Entrance Processing Station to spend time with military applicants and their families as they took the Oath of Enlistment and shipped off to basic training.

- Celek has a strong passion for the packaging industry, which he majored in at Michigan State, and plans to go into the business in the future. The growing industry looks to cut shipping costs on products and is commonplace in the food and medical fields. "There's so many different areas you can get into, it's crazy. I enjoy the science behind it. It was a great major for me to choose and the possibilities are endless."
- Football runs in the bloodlines of the Celek family. Garrett's older brother, Brent, played tight end for the Philadelphia Eagles. Growing up, the brothers were constantly involved in athletics. "My dad was always pushing us just to be into sports. As long as we were doing something and we were having fun with it, he was the happiest guy in the world," Garrett said. He didn't begin playing football until high school, but Brent's success became motivation for him. "He got a scholarship to Cincinnati my freshman year in high school," Garrett said. "Right then I had my goals set. I've got to do what my brother did. Honestly, I've been trying to follow in his footsteps and because of him I'm here today. I wouldn't be who I am without him."
- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Celek and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.

- Along with former teammates TE Vance McDonald and DT Tank Carradine, visited Haiti in conjunction with Convoy of Hope during the 2015 offseason, working together to teach healthy eating habits and sustainable agriculture techniques to local families. "We've been to an orphanage, we've been to a farm, we've been to schools. It's a beautiful country and these are beautiful people. I'm glad I had this opportunity."

- Along with some of his teammates, Celek headed to San Francisco in October of 2015 to kick off Fleet Week aboard the USS Somerset. During the afternoon on board, Celek participated in drills with the troops, took a tour of the ship, ate dinner with the crew and watched as some local Bay Area natives were sworn into the Navy. "It's just good to give back to some of these guys because they do so much for us," said Celek at the time. "We're all really appreciative of who they are and what they're about." In 2016, Celek was honored as the 49ers Salute to Service Award winner for his efforts to honor and support U.S. service members, veterans and their families.

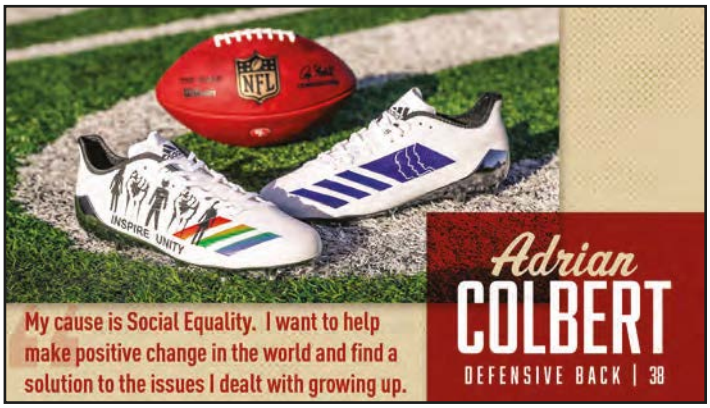
- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Colbert is supporting Silicon Valley FACES for My Cause, My Cleats. Dedicated to creating and promoting an empathetic and inclusive community free of bias, bigotry and violence through programs and advocacy, he chose Silicon Valley FACES to support social equality and teach the Golden Rule. "My cause is Social Equality," said Colbert. "I want to help make a positive change in the world and find a solution to the issues I dealt with growing up."



- As part of Salute to Service Month, Colbert, along with his teammates and general manager, John Lynch, visited the USO office at the San Jose Military Entrance Processing Station to spend time with military applicants and their families as they took the Oath of Enlistment and shipped off to basic training.

- Colbert overcame adversity at age 10 when he was living in Wichita Falls, TX. While racing a friend on his bike, Colbert ran a stop sign and was hit by a car, went through the windshield and suffered life-threatening injuries, falling into a coma for more than a week. His father, Adrian Sr., became motivated to make a change and moved them 90 miles south to Mineral Wells, TX, to escape from the gang environment that Adrian Sr., was apart of in Wichita Falls. After moving to Mineral Wells, Colbert didn't quite feel at home, but found additional support from the Clarke family, who treated him like a son of their own. Colbert was introduced to the family when he was approached by one of the three daughters in the family, Katy, asking if he needed a ride while walking the three miles home from school. He became part of their family, referring to them as parents and sisters, and even put his number in Mrs. Clarke's phone as 'Adrian - my adopted son.' "It made it easier for me to call [Mineral Wells] home," Colbert said. "Not only having my family, but a family that was already established here that loved me just like my family loved me."

- Day joined the Florida Department of Transportation's "Alert Today, Alive Tomorrow" campaign during International Walk to School Day in October of 2017. Alongside kids that were walking to school in the Jacksonville area, Day assisted in teaching them the health benefits they were receiving by walking to school and showed them how to get there safely.

- The 49ers hosted a flag football clinic for local first responders and their children at the team facility on October 23, 2018. Day and his teammates taught the children the fundamentals of the game before hitting the field for drills and games. The 100-plus guests also had the opportunity to try on equipment and participate in a photoshoot.

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Day and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

- In June of 2017, Day held his Inaugural "Sheldon's Daylight Camp" at Warren Central High School in Indianapolis, IN. Over 150 kids attended the free four-day football camp which Day had been anxious to host since the day he was drafted. "I know most of these kids out here on the east side are probably like I was," said Day. "No way I'm going to charge them to come here. They should just have fun here and be with me." The camp included a visit to Notre Dame so kids would not only gain football knowledge, but also be informed of different opportunities to further their education and attend college. "This is fun for me. It's a chance for me to give back and have some fun with them. When I see the kids smiling, that's a great thing. That's why we are here."

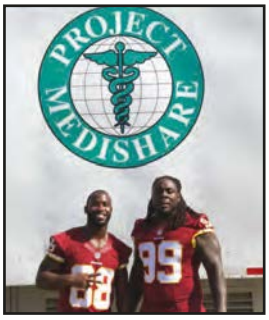
- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15. Garçon and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.

- Garçon and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- Garçon has taken an unusual path to reach his NFL dream. His family hails from Leogene, Haiti, a town near Port au Prince, and his parents emigrated to the United States before he was born. Garçon was born in Carmel, NY, and moved to Greenacres, FL, when he was young. He began his college career at Norwich University in Northfield, VT before transferring to Mount Union University, where he helped the Purple Raiders win two Division III National Championships. Garçon was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the 6th round (205th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft.
- In April of 2016, Garçon donated $10,000 in scholarships to four graduating seniors from his alma mater, John I. Leonard High School, who were selected for demonstrating growth and improvement both academically and socially.
- A little more than two months into his tenure as a member of the 49ers, Garçon dove right into community work in the Bay Area, participating in multiple events. In partnership with "Super Baskets of Hope," Garçon, along with teammates QB Brian Hoyer and RB Carlos Hyde, distributed baskets and totes filled with toys, educational materials, games, craft items, music, stuffed animals, gift cards, and more to hospitalized children and their families at a local Bay Area Hospital. Parents were given a Basket of Hope, donated by Vera Bradley, filled with items to nourish them physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. Garçon spent time with the children and their families while delivering the gift baskets in an effort to spread joy and inspiration during a difficult time.

- Along with several teammates, Garçon attended the eighth annual UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Prom in San Francisco. Said Garçon at the event, "It means a lot to us because we're excited to meet the kids, who are 49ers fans. A lot of the young guys are telling us that we see you on TV and tell us good luck this year."
- Founded the Pierre Garçon Helping Hands Foundation in June of 2010, when Haiti was rocked by a devastating earthquake. The Foundation's mission is to, "Bring enduring education, health and community programs to the people of Haiti and to provide long-term sustainable initiatives that will continue to positively influence the lives of Haitians." In 2016, Garçon, as a part of his foundation, visited Haiti with former teammate Ricky Jean Francois to deliver medical supplies to help the recovery from Hurricane Matthew. The Pierre Garçon Helping Hands Foundation can be found at PierreGarcon15.com.



- One of Garçon's major hobbies off the field is an indoor sport, bowling. You can typically find him lining up in a nearby bowling alley with his custom bowling balls. He even joined local Bay Area bowling leagues with fellow teammates RB Raheem Mostert and LB Dekoda Watson.

65 G JOSHUA GARNETT

6-5 || 305 || STANFORD

2.21.94 || PUYALLUP, WA || 3RD YEAR || ACQUIRED D-1B IN '16

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- Appeared in 7 games and saw action as a reserve at guard and on special teams.

GOLDMINE

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. "There are 50,000 women nationwide living on the streets without access to pads or tampons, not including cis women, trans men, or gender non-conforming humans," said Garnett. "A person's socioeconomic status should not strip them of their dignity and access to what should be a basic human right, not a privilege.

- The 49ers partnered with Furry Friends Pet Assisted Therapy Services for animal therapy, while providing confidence building activities for students in the Leland High School special needs program in an effort to erase the stigma attached to special needs. Garnett and his teammates spent time with students with autism, mental illness and learning disabilities as they play board games, working on social skills including conversational queues and eye contact through the hands-on activity. Players will also partner with animal therapy dogs to uplift students through one-on-one interactions.

GARNETT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Was teammates for two seasons (2014-15) with 49ers 2017 first-round selection (3rd overall), DL Solomon Thomas at Stanford.
- Garnett's father, Scott, spent three seasons in the NFL (1984-85, 1987) and played for the 49ers during the 1985 season.
- At Stanford, Garnett majored in human biology with the goal of becoming a trauma surgeon after his NFL career is over.
- As a senior at Stanford (2015), was the recipient of the Outland Trophy as the nation's most outstanding lineman and the Morris Trophy Award, a prestigious honor voted on by opposing Pac-12 defensive linemen.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- In April of 2017, Garnett, along with fellow 49ers teammates, attended the Seventh Annual Prom at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital San Francisco in Mission Bay, with over 200 teen patients and their friends. He enjoyed a "Masquerade Ball" with photo booths, music, dancing, dining and more. This special evening allowed patients to participate in a milestone that they may miss as a result of diagnosis or treatment. The children were decked out in prom fashions and left the event with a sweatshirt hoodie and a professional prom photo.

- Garnett's father, Scott (pictured right), played collegiately at the University of Washington and was drafted in the eighth round (218th overall) by the Denver Broncos in the 1984 NFL Draft. He spent three seasons in the NFL (1984-85, 1987) and played in three games for the 49ers during the 1985 season.
- At Stanford, Garnett majored in human biology with the goal of becoming a trauma surgeon after his NFL career is over. He has already shadowed staff in an ER, further fueling his interest, during which he says he got a better sense of the adrenaline and the way an emergency department works together. "I'm drawn to help someone that could be on the brink of death," Garnett said. "I'm a guy who can handle the gore and I feel like I have the aptitude where I can make a difference for people."
- Garnett likes to listen to hip-hop and rap music during his free time but when it comes to preparing for a football game, he listens to heavy metal bands such as Rage Against the Machine and Metallica. "I like to get to a different place and get amped up before the games. It's interesting because I don't listen to it outside of football pregame. So, it really gets me in the moment for the game and my body kind of knows, 'We're listening to this music, it's game time.'"

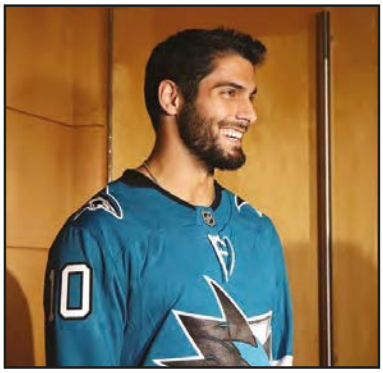
- Became just the 5th QB in the last 30 years to make his 1st regular season start in a season-opening night game (9/11/16 vs. Arz.). Packers QB Aaron Rodgers was the last (2008, win vs. Minnesota), with Chargers QB Philip Rivers (2006) and former NFL QBs David Carr (2002) and Brian Griese (1999) before him. He finished 24 of 33 for 264 yds. and 1 TD.
- Helped the Patriots set a NFL record for fewest INTs in a single season (2 INTs on 550 atts. in 2016).

GOLDMINE

- Garoppolo attended the 12th Annual Tipping Point Community benefit in San Francisco with 49ers CEO Jed York and general manager John Lynch. The 49ers and Levi's Stadium provided an auction item that included a club suite for the 2019 College Football National Championship, which is being held at Levi's Stadium, along with access to 49ers practice.

- Garoppolo has quickly become integrated with the Bay Area and its sports franchises. Prior to Game 3 of the NHL's Western Conference Semifinals between the San Jose Sharks and Vegas Golden Knights, Garoppolo was tasked to be the "honorary locker room door opener" at SAP Center in San Jose. The Sharks ask celebrities and well-respected sports figures to be the ceremonial door opener as the team heads out for final warmups and pregame introductions.



- Along with former Patriots teammate Julian Edelman, Garoppolo surprised students at Central Elementary and Cedar Elementary schools in Hanover, NJ in June of 2016. The two spent time at both schools reading to kids, sharing the importance of homework, and learning a few new touchdown dances.

- In May of 2016, Garoppolo, in partnership with AccessSportAmerica, volunteered to help at a football clinic for disabled high school students at Harvard Stadium. During the clinic, Garoppolo gave tips to participants on passing, blocking and other essential football skills. Garoppolo enjoyed the clinic so much, he returned to Harvard Stadium again in 2017 to hang out with the AccessSportAmerica students. Garoppolo said he felt honored to volunteer with AccessSportAmerica, and contribute to their efforts to inspire higher function and fitness for people living with challenges and disabilities through high-challenge sports and training.

- For fans traveling to the San Francisco Zoo, they can keep an eye out for one of the zoo's snow leopards named Jimmy G, whom the zoo chose to name after the 49ers quarterback. The zoo received both a male and female snow leopard in early 2018 and quickly found a new name. You can find Jimmy G in the enclosure outside the Lion House near the Lion Fountain.

- Garoppolo's father, Tony, was a two-way starter in high school, playing offensive guard and defensive tackle despite his average build of 5-10, 180 pounds. Tony later embodied the blue-collar spirit he played with in his strenuous work as an electrician. "I wouldn't even see my dad some days because he was working so late and going to work so early," said Jimmy's brother, Mike. "That blue-collar approach really got imbedded in us. If you want to do something, you've got to work for it."

76 OL GARRY GILLIAM

6-5 || 305 || PENN STATE

11.26.90 || HERSHEY, PA || 5TH YEAR || ACQUIRED RFA IN '17 - SEA

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 16 games and saw action as a reserve at tackle and on special teams.

GOLDMINE

- Growing up in a troubled neighborhood in Harrisburg, PA, Gilliam's mother, Vene Shifflett, enrolled second-grade Garry into Milton Hershey School, a private, cost-free boarding school. Shifflett, along with Garry's brother, Victor, moved to Chambersburg, PA, as Victor was struggling with a combination of cerebral palsy and four kinds of congenital heart defects in an attempt to seek better care. Gilliam struggled to fit in with host families as he missed everything he knew. For three years, he found the right match as he lived with wrestling coach and gym teacher, Jimmy Taylor, and his wife and their young son and daughter whom he played with, cooked meals for and helped clean the house with.
- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15. Gilliam and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.

GILLIAM'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His last name is pronounced GILL-yum.
- Helped the Seahawks start the third-largest come-from-behind victory in Championship Game history as a rookie in 2014, registering a 19-yd. TD recept. on a fake FGA vs. GB (1/18/15 - NFC - C). He caught a Seahawks P Jon Ryan pass in the 3rd Qtr. with the Seahawks trailing 16-0.
- While at Penn State, Gilliam transitioned from tight end to offensive tackle prior to the 2013 season. In order to make the transition, he added around 30 pounds to his 6'6" frame during offseason workouts.
- Gilliam has many interests off the football field, which includes watching informational television shows on the History, Discovery and Science Channels. Growing up, he also participated in ballet, jazz and tap for 10-plus years, in addition to singing in choir and playing the piano and guitar.

- During the 2015 offseason, Gilliam, along with teammates, took part in a job shadow program at Starbucks headquarters to learn more about the company's operations. The players spent several days following Starbucks global communications, global digital marketing and partner communications and engagement teams. The program looked to explain post-football opportunities.
- Gilliam often visits Milton Hershey School, speaking to students about perseverance through adversity and sharing the story of his upbringing. Part of his message is to, "Do your work. Be respectful to your elders and classmates."

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15. Goodwin and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.

- On August 18th, 2017, as part of 49ers partnership with the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Goodwin spent the day with Austin DeMello, a 12-year-old 49ers fan from San Diego. The two toured the 49ers facility, had lunch together and even played a game of Madden 17, which Austin won. Austin was diagnosed with a brain tumor, but he and his family don't let that stop him from fighting and enjoying each day. "The fact that Austin's family comes out here, they're supporting him, loving him and not giving up on him, I love that," Goodwin said, "because my mom didn't give up on my sister." Goodwin's older sister, Deja, suffers from cerebral palsy and is unable to walk. Before Austin and his family went back to San Diego, Marquise left him with a message to remember when times get tough. "Just know that you've got a lot of people that love you and care about you," Goodwin told Austin, "including the 49ers."

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. "My Cause, My Cleats are inspired by my sister, Deja, who's life has been impacted by Cerebral Palsy, a congenital disorder of movement, muscle tone or posture," said Goodwin.

- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Goodwin and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.

- In 2012, Goodwin won the long jump title at the 2012 U.S. Olympic Trials (27-4.25) and finished 10th in the London Olympics. By qualifying for the Olympics, he became the first collegian to win both the Olympic Trials and the NCAA Outdoor long-jump competition in the same year since 1960. Goodwin was a two-time NCAA long jump champion, seven-time All-American and five-time Big 12 champion in the long jump during his career at the University of Texas.
- Goodwin began his track & field career at Rowlett (TX) HS, where he was a two-time World Junior Champion (long jump, 4x100m), seven-time Texas 5A State Champion [long jump (3x), triple jump (2x) and 4x100m (2x)] and two-time Texas Gatorade Track & Field Athlete of the Year.
- During the 2013 NFL Combine, Goodwin posted the fastest 40-yd. dash time among all participants, running the distance in 4.27 seconds. His time is tied for the 5th fastest 40-yd. dash ever recorded at the Combine.

GOLDMINE

- Harris and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

- The 49ers hosted a flag football clinic for local first responders and their children at the team facility on October 23, 2018. Harris and his teammates taught the children the fundamentals of the game before hitting the field for drills and games. The 100-plus guests also had the opportunity to try on equipment and participate in a photoshoot.

HARRIS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Followed in his father's football career path, as Mike Harris played defensive back at the University of Florida for four years (1994-97).
- In high school, Harris participated in Nike Football's "The Opening" series, which according to Nike are "the only national camp that offers athletes state-of-the-art education in both Nike Football Training and position-specific football from respected position coaches, while improving each player who attends, and does all of this free of cost to attendees."
- Harris grew up with former Gator teammates CB Duke Dawson, who was drafted in 2nd round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots, and S Keanu Neal, who was drafted in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. All three played on 7-on-7 team, the Rat Pak, that was coached by 8-year NFL veteran Keiwan Ratliff.

- Harris and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy on September 18, 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

- Harris notes that his mother, Andrea Tate, is the most influencial person in his life. He maintains that since an early age, she gave him the best advice he has ever received, which is having the ability to believe in yourself and not quit something that you start. "I've been through a lot of things, but it's about pushing through and facing adversity," Harris said.
- On the top of Harris' bucket list is a trip to Dubai. He has an interest in the city, and would like to experience the culture, try new food, travel on a camel's back and ride dune buggies in the desert hills.

- After signing with the 49ers on 12/5, appeared in 4 games as the team's longsnapper.

GOLDMINE

- Holba served as a substitute teacher for the Shelby County School District (KY) after the Steelers waived him prior to the 2017 season. Holba got into substitute teaching after he began to look for a way to occupy his time while searching for his next team. He took the advice of his mother, DeAnn, who is also a teacher. "It was very humbling because the kids are like, 'Oh, you must not have been that good if you're back here in high school," Holba joked. After Jacksonville signed him two months into the school year, his students had the opportunity to watch Holba and the Jaguars hit a winning stretch and fall a few plays short of reaching Super Bowl LII. "It kind of hit me when I got there. I knew it was an amazing opportunity," Holba said. John Leeper, the director of personnel at Shelby Schools, felt the same way for his students. "A child can have a teacher in the classroom with them, a substitute teacher like Colin, and then go home that evening and sit down, finish their homework and get out the video game and get to be Colin Holba in the video game."

- James Jr. and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy on September 18, 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

- While in high school, James' head coach invited him into his office and asked that he convert to QB and become the leader of their team. He responded by becoming more outspoken as a person and leading his school to their first playoff appearance in eight years.
- As a youth in Sarasota, FL, James faced a handful of hurdles growing up in a rough environment. James notes that while a majority of his classmates took a different route than he did, he was able to make it out of his tough upbringing by taking the more positive route and maintaining his focus on his craft. "I've always had that independent mindset," James said. "I've learned from being out on the streets, and what you really should be doing."

- After signing with the 49ers during 2017 free agency, Juszczyk was quickly viewed as more than a fullback by general manager John Lynch. Said Lynch of Juszczyk, "He's an O.W. So, if you see O.W., that stands for 'offensive weapon.' We saw an offensive weapon that this guy (head coach Kyle Shanahan) is thrilled to be able to use in a number of different capacities and I think that kind of is symbolic of our approach."
- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. "It's not how you act in public that determines your character, but rather how your act when no one is looking," said Juszczyk.

- In 2015, Juszczyk hosted the inaugural Juice's Future All-Stars Camp in Burbank, OH, with all proceeds donated to benefit Crohn's disease research.

- Juszczyk often promotes PLAY 60, the NFL's movement to get children active for at least 60 minutes a day. In 2013, he participated in a PLAY 60 Challenge kickoff assembly at Essex (MD) Elementary School.

- Lee says he doesn't let a day go by without giving credit to his mother, ShaRon, for teaching him to always work hard and strive for more. "My biggest motivation is my mom and working hard for her," said Lee. After moving in with his mother in high school, he and his two sisters relied on their mother to play the role of both parents. Lee says he couldn't have asked for more from her as a child. "She got me to this point. I work as hard as I can every day to make her proud." After receiving a scholarship to play football at Kansas State University, ShaRon never let her son settle, pushing him to excel on the field and in the classroom as a business major. "I am a believer that if you want something, you have to work and sacrifice to get it," said ShaRon. "When I watch Elijah now and see how much he has grown as a football player and as a person, it makes it all worth it."
- When Lee was making his decision on where to attend college, he ended up just over two hours away from his hometown of Blue Springs, MO. "It was nice because whenever you go home you're still that kind of college celebrity and I wasn't too far away from family, which was big."

LEE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Earned First-Team All-Big 12 honors as a junior in 2016 by the Associated Press, ESPN.com and Big 12 coaches.
- Prior to his junior season in 2016, was named to the watch list for multiple national awards including the Bednarik Award, Nagurski Trophy and Butkis Award.
- Was teammates at Kansas State in 2016 with 49ers 2018 fifth-round draft choice (142nd overall), D.J. Reed Jr.

- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Mabin and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.

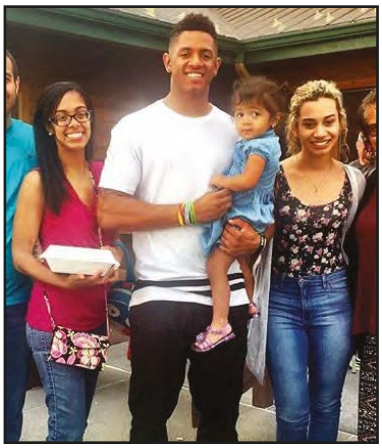
- After earning a scholarship to Iowa as a wide receiver, Hawkeyes head coach Kirk Ferentz called Mabin into his office prior to his sophomore season and proposed an idea he had for a while. "He said my skill set would probably transition better for cornerback rather than a receiver," said Mabin. Now as an NFL cornerback, Mabin has no complaints with coach Ferentz's decision. "It's working out for me so far."
- Mabin comes from a family of successful athletes. His father, Wesley, played cornerback at the University of Nebraska, where he won two National Championships in 1970 and 1971. Mabin's family also has NFL ties, as his cousin, Jordan Mabin previously played cornerback for multiple NFL teams from 2012-15 and his cousin, Dorin Dickerson, also spent time in the NFL as a tight end from 2010-15. "Dorin says me and Jordan couldn't check him. We always go back and forth with each other, but they're just happy for me," said Mabin. "They just want me to succeed and do this for as long as I can."



- The 49ers, in partnership with Fresh Lifelines for Youth (FLY), visited the Santa Clara Juvenile Hall to work with residents on frustration management on October 9, 2018. Mabin and his teammates held a discussion with the young people, and later divided into groups to engage in football drills that demonstrated the proper way to focus negative energy in a positive manner. After the drills, they held another discussion centered on making right decisions when it comes to frustration management.

14 WR MAX McCAFFREY

6-2 || 200 || DUKE

5.17.94 || HIGHLANDS RANCH, CO || 3RD YEAR || ACQUIRED FA IN '18

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- Saw action in the final game of the season at LAR (12/30) after being promoted to the active roster on 12/29.

GOLDMINE

- Growing up, McCaffrey got a taste of the NFL at a very young age. His father, Ed (pictured below), was selected by the New York Giants in the third round (83rd overall) of the 1991 NFL Draft. During his 13-year career, he played for the Giants (1991-93), San Francisco 49ers (1994) and Denver Broncos (1995-2003). He also went on to win three Super Bowls (Super Bowl XXIX, XXXII, and XXIII). "Watching his games, going to his training camps, it's always been a huge part of our life and our family," said McCaffrey. "We wanted to play because of our dad." After graduating from Duke University in 2016, McCaffrey followed in his father's footsteps, signing an NFL contract of his own. His younger brother, Christian, continued the trend the following year, being selected 8th overall by the Carolina Panthers in the 2017 NFL draft. "It's been a dream of ours since we were little," said Max. "We're competitive as brothers, but we all want to see each other succeed."

McCAFFREY'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- McCaffrey's grandfather, Dave Sime, also attended Duke University where he played baseball and was a member of the Duke track & field team. He went on to earn a silver medal in the 100 meter dash at the 1960 Olympic Games in Rome, Italy.
- McCaffrey's father, Ed, played for the 49ers in 1994, earning a Super Bowl ring with the team after defeating the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX.

- With such an accomplished father in Ed McCaffrey, there is one element to the game of football that Max has a leg-up on his dad. Said Ed, "Max is faster than me. I'm not afraid to admit it. He's always been fast. Speed is something I always worked on really hard. He does have some God-given speed and I think that will serve him well."
- While hiking with his brothers and friends in Castle Rock, CO, McCaffrey came to a stranger's rescue, after the man fell nearly 20 feet on the hike. McCaffrey and others helped phone 9-1-1 after the fellow hiker suffered a broken femur, pelvis and neck and had nine fractured ribs, essentially saving the man's life.

69 MIKE McGLINCHEY

T

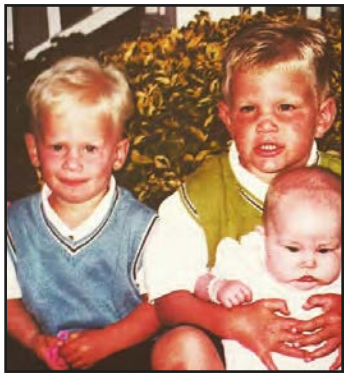
6-8 || 315 || NOTRE DAME

1.12.95 || PHILADELPHIA, PA || ROOKIE || ACQUIRED D-1 IN '18

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started all 16 games at RT in his rookie campaign.
- Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack on 22 passing atts. by QB Nick Mullens vs. Oak. (11/1). It marked the first time the team did not allow a sack since 12/31/17 at LAR (33 atts. – QB Jimmy Garoppolo).
- McGlinchey and the offensive line did not allow a sack on 39 atts. by QB Nick Mullens vs. NYG (11/12). It marked the first time since Weeks 3-4 of the 2000 season that the team did not allow a sack in consecutive weeks [34 atts. by QB Jeff Garcia at StL (9/17/00); 26 atts. by Garcia at Dal. (9/24/00)].

GOLDMINE



- McGlinchey was so big for his age that as a child, his parents would make sure to bring his birth certificate to his basketball games. Later, at age eight, he was hoping to make his debut in youth football, but decided against it after the league's directors told his family that they would have placed him on a team with eighth and ninth graders due to his size. Embracing such a large frame as a child, McGlinchey constantly threw his weight around with his large family, which featured 22 cousins and 5 siblings. Even at his grandmother's wake, McGlinchey and his extended family engaged in a pickup football game while still dressed in their suits. As Mike puts it, "That's the way she would have wanted it."
- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15. McGlinchey and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.

McGLINCHEY'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Despite being roughly six foot, eight inches tall, McGlinchey doesn't know where his large frame came from. Said McGlinchey jokingly, "My dad is about five foot, eleven inches. My mom is five foot, eight inches. So, it must have been a genetic mutation."

- McGlinchey and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy on September 18, 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. McGlinchey and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- McGlinchey and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

28 JERICK McKINNON

RB

5-9 || 205 || GEORGIA SOUTHERN

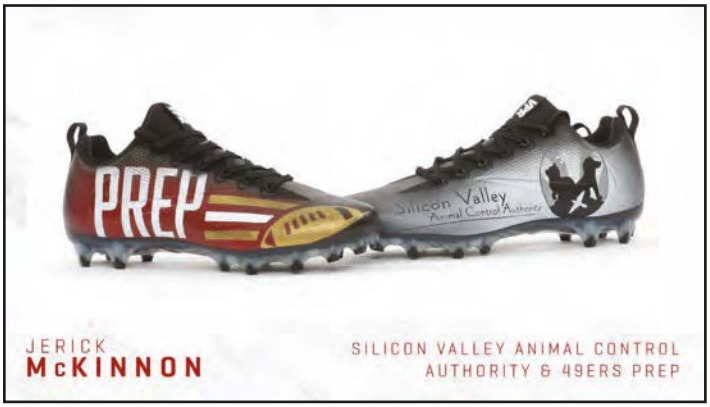
5.3.92 || ATLANTA, GA || 5TH YEAR || ACQUIRED FA IN '18

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- Placed on the Injured Reserve List on 9/3.

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15. McKinnon and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.



- McKinnon and his new teammate Matt Breida were an integral part in the history of Georgia Southern football. The Eagles program was a FCS school for the majority of its existence. It wasn't until the success of the team with McKinnon at virtually every position, which led to the program officially moved to FBS play following his senior season in 2013. "Those two guys were very important in our transition from FCS to FBS and showed that Georgia Southern did belong in Division I football," said Georgia Southern head coach Chad Lunsford.

McKINNON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Given the nickname 'Jet' at Georgia Southern after contributing early as a freshman. McKinnon's strength and conditioning coach was impressed with his ablities and presented him with two options, 'Jet' and 'Juke.' Jerick chose 'Jet', and the nickname has fittingly stuck with him throughout his career.
- Jerick's brother, Lester Norwood, was a defensive back at the University of Florida from 1998-2002.

- While at Sprayberry High, McKinnon's head coach Billy Shackelford showed confidence in him, playing him all over the field at quarterback, running back, wide receiver and defensive back. Shackelford urged schools to recruit McKinnon and proclaimed that he had zero red flags as a prospect, and would outwork any player on their current roster. Yet, despite a successful high school career, McKinnon was shunned by major schools like Illinois and Georgia Tech, who passed on him for taller or heavier prospects. Later, despite an extremely successful career at Georgia Southern, McKinnon's draft projection stated that he was a 'jack of all trades, but a master of none.' For McKinnon, the comments just served as additional motivation. "That kind of rubbed me the wrong way," he said. "I've got it as the screensaver on my phone. I look at it every day. It fuels me." Three years into his NFL career, McKinnon played in his hometown of Atlanta for the first time. For his homecoming, McKinnon made sure that Coach Shackleford, the man who always believed in him, had prime seats for the game.

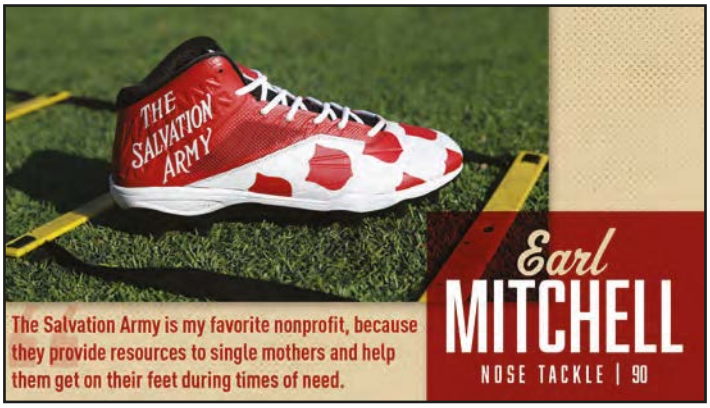
- After posing for a photoshoot, Mitchell and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Mitchell and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. "The Salvation Army is my favorite nonprofit because they provide resources to single mothers and help them get on their feet during times of need," said Mitchell.



- In 2013, Mitchell added CrossFit to his workout repertoire three times a week to help with his endurance. "It's just something I picked up during the offseason," Mitchell said in 2013. "I was kind of just looking at different ways to work out and that was right up my alley and what would translate best for me in terms of how I feel during practice and during games. It takes a lot of heart to do CrossFit so that's really why I did it."
- While playing at the University of Arizona, Mitchell transitioned from TE/H-Back to a DL for his final two seasons (2008-09). "I was able to pick up what the other team's offense was doing, and that helped make the transition easier," said Mitchell.

33 TARVARIUS MOORE

6-2 || 193 || SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI

DB

8.16.96 || QUITMAN, MS || ROOKIE || ACQUIRED D-3B IN '18

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- Appeared in all 16 games (2 starts) and registered 19 tackles, 2 PDs and 1 FF.
- Registered 7 tackles and 2 PDs vs. Sea. (12/16). Was a key contributor in springing WR Richie James Jr.'s 97-yd. KR for a TD, as well as the defense's final three stops in regulation and overtime.
- In his 1st career start vs. Chi. (12/23), tied a career high with 7 tackles and registered his 1st career FF, punching the ball away from Bears WR Allen Robinson II.

GOLDMINE

- Prior to the start of his senior year at Southern Mississippi, Moore's younger sister, TavyAnna, passed away suddenly at the age of 16. "My sister was basically my best friend," said Moore. "After every game, no matter what, she was always the first person I'd see. Even if it was a tough loss, she would just always try to encourage me or give me some words of wisdom. For her to be my younger sister, she was kind of like my big sister at times. So, it was pretty hard. But I know she would want me to go out and do my best." Moore, who changed his Twitter screen name to "#DoIt4Tavy" shortly before the 2017 season began, found it easier to keep his chin up his senior season because of the inspiration he's drawn from his sister. "When I think about her, it gives me the motivation to keep on going each and every day," he said. "When I'm on the field, if I'm tired or my teammates are tired, I just try to think what she would want me to do. I know she would never want me to quit or give up on anything. So I just try to find it within to go as hard as I can."
- Moore and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy on September 18, 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

MOORE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Coming from a town with just two stop lights, Moore is looking forward to having the opportunity to travel. "I can remember as a kid, just going to any big city was a big deal for us," Moore said. "I want to travel to as many foreign countries as I can, just to experience those different cultures."
- Moore comes from an athletic family, as his cousin, Antonio McDyess, played 17 seasons in the NBA for the Pistons, Nuggets, Spurs, Suns and Knicks. Originally drafted by the Clippers (then traded to the Nuggets) with the 2nd overall pick, McDyess averaged 12 points and 7 rebounds per game in his lengthy NBA career.

MORRIS' GOLDEN NUGGET

- Morris cites his parents as his source of motivation. "My parents were very, very hard workers. My dad told me, 'You've got to be about your business – no matter if its mopping floors or scoring touchdowns in the NFL. Whatever you do, give it your all and do it the best it has ever been done. If he had somewhere to be at 5:00 a.m., he'd show up early and be there at 4:45. That's just how they were," Morris said. "They lead by example. My mom even went back to school, took night classes, made the most of her opportunities and she has a bachelor's degree now, while taking care of seven boys and working 40-plus hours a week. My mom and my dad are my heroes. They sacrificed so much for their kids to give us opportunities. So, when I get an opportunity I'm going to make the most of it."

GOLDMINE

- The 49ers partnered with CASSY (Counseling and Support Services for Youth) for a mental health awareness event at Monroe Middle School (Campbell, CA) on December 18, 2018. Morris and his teammates joined the 6th, 7th and 8th grade students who were pre-identified as having mental health struggles, and held group discussions centered on managing stress and destigmatizing mental health matters.

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15. Morris and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.

- Morris and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Morris and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- While with the Redskins, Morris would take the time to chat with his "stadium fam" during pregame warmups. He began meeting with the workers as a rookie and the relationship grew from there. Every home game, fans could catch Morris sharing stories, laughs and prayers with his crew before lacing them up for the game. Even as a member of the visiting Cowboys in 2016, Morris made sure to stop and catch up with familiar faces.

- Morris continues to drive his 1991 Mazda 626, also known as "The Bentley", which he purchased in college from his pastor for $2. Mazda even heard about Morris' everlasting love for the car and refurbished it so he could keep it up and running for years to come.

GOLDMINE

- Mullens and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

- The 49ers, in partnership with Fresh Lifelines for Youth (FLY), visited the Santa Clara Juvenile Hall to work with residents on frustration management on October 9, 2018. Mullens and his teammates held a discussion with the young people, and later divided into groups to engage in football drills that demonstrated the proper way to focus negative energy in a positive manner. After the drills, they held another discussion centered on making right decisions when it comes to frustration management.
- In partnership with the One Love Foundation, Mullens, his 49ers teammates and their significant others participated in a film-based workshop with local high school students about healthy and unhealthy relationships. The group watched a film together, and thereafter, held group discussions about the implications of the relationship behaviors depicted in the film. The One Love Foundation believes that love is a skill we can work on, and focuses on three main elements to convey their message: content, conversation and community action.

- In September of 2017, the San Francisco 49ers hosted the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy, in partnership with USA Football. Mullens and other notable 49ers rookies led local high school football players through an evening of leadership development. The three-step program is designed to develop the skills necessary for players to succeed and lead on and off the field. Players from Christopher High School, Gilroy High School, Lowell High School, Milpitas High School, Santa Clara High School, Westmont High School and Wilcox High School were in attendance.

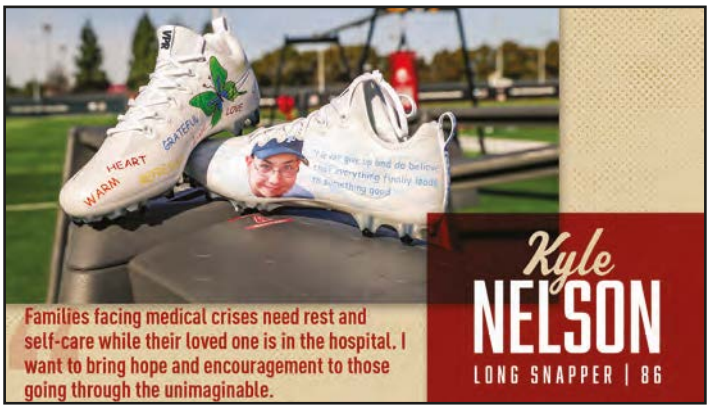
GOLDMINE

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. For My Cause, My Cleats, Nelson is supporting JW House, which aims to provide a warm, comfortable "home away from home" for families facing medical crisis. "Families facing medical crises need rest and self-care while their loved one is in the hospital," said Nelson. "I want to bring hope and encouragement to those going through the unimaginable."



- Always around football, in the summers, Kyle would help his dad, Mark, when he was coaching in the NCAA and CFL. At a young age, Kyle got to see tight knit locker rooms and learned how successful teams work together on and off the field. Mark's career as a football coach meant many moves for the Nelson family. Kyle was born in Norman, OK and growing up, the family moved between Tulsa, OK and Canada three times and Kyle spent time living in Georgia, Kentucky, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico before coming to California.

NELSON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Comes from a football family where he is a third generation member. His father, Mark, is the defensive coordinator for the Ottawa REDBLACKS in the Canadian Football League, with a quarter-century of coaching experience. Mark played in the CFL for six seasons and spent time coaching in the NCAA at Louisville, Arkansas Tech, Baylor and Kentucky. Kyle's grandfather, Roger, was drafted by the Washington Redskins in 1954. He played offensive tackle for 13 seasons for the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos from 1954-67 and was elected into the CFL Hall of Fame in 1985.
- Growing up in Canada, the first sport he played was ice hockey. Following a move to the United States in middle school, he began playing soccer before playing football for the first time his junior year of high school.

- The story of how Nelson became a long snapper goes back to his father's playing days. In the middle of training camp, Nelson's dad was extremely tired after grueling practices. He saw a player heading into his 11th season and he thought to himself, "I wish I was a long snapper." He said, "If I ever have a son, I'm going to make sure he learns how to snap."
- In the past, Nelson has worked with middle school football players in Phoenix, AZ, teaching them the craft of long snapping as colleges begin recruiting students specifically to fill that role. "It helps the kids get into school," he said. "We do it to get them scholarships, get their school paid for so their parents don't have to."
- In his spare time, Nelson enjoys drawing, reading and going hiking. When Kyle was growing up, his family planned hikes on the weekends where he was able to witness the landscape of Arkansas, Georgia, Texas and Arizona. It translated to painting, where Kyle draws pictures of the outdoors such as oceans, forests and mountains. "I like turning color pictures into black and white, charcoal, Sharpies," he said. "It's a nice, relaxing hobby."
- In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show on Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Nelson, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Pinion and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- Pinion and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

- In partnership with the One Love Foundation, Pinion, his 49ers teammates and their significant others participated in a film-based workshop with local high school students about healthy and unhealthy relationships. The group watched a film together, and thereafter, held group discussions about the implications of the relationship behaviors depicted in the film. The One Love Foundation believes that love is a skill we can work on, and focuses on three main elements to convey their message: content, conversation and community action.

- After posing for a photoshoot, Pinion and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. "Convoy of Hope empowers people to live independent lives, free from poverty disease and hunger," said Pinion. "My message to those who are suffering: Know that help is here and we are praying for you."

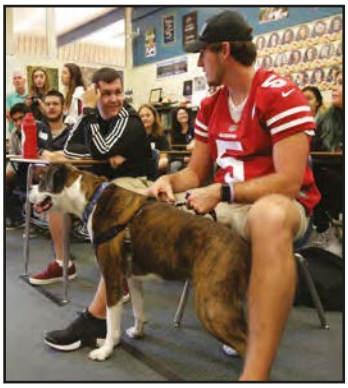
- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Pinion and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.

- The 49ers partnered with Furry Friends Pet Assisted Therapy Services for animal therapy, while providing confidence building activities for students in the Leland High School special needs program in an effort to erase the stigma attached to special needs. Pinion and his teammates spent time with students with autism, mental illness and learning disabilities as they play board games, working on social skills including conversational queues and eye contact through the hands-on activity. Players will also partner with animal therapy dogs to uplift students through one-on-one interactions. "Going out and doing things like this really reminds you that the situation you're in really isn't that bad," said Pinion. "There are kids with much greater challenges. Kids that need help. And in a small way, we can help provide some. It's way bigger than football."



- Every player has their own unique superstitions and quirks that get them ready for a game of football. For Pinion, it is all about his most important piece of equipment: the shoes. For every practice and game since high school, Pinion has tied his shoes the same way. He takes the laces on his right shoe and wraps them around the bottom, ties them and pushes the knot off to the right side, out of the way. "I like to take care of the important foot first," he says.
- Pinion credits his longtime kicking coach Dan Orner as being the most influential person in his life. While preparing for the NFL Draft, Orner worked out side by side with Pinion, pushing him to get better every step of the way. "Just the way he handles his business and the person that he is, it's something I try and mimic."
- Pinion's family has a long history of serving in the military. Both of his cousins have served in Iraq, where one worked on tanks and the other went door to door assessing threats. His grandfather on his dad's side, Earl Mason, was about to have a tryout with the Dallas Cowboys as a punter, but he was drafted to serve in the Korean War, where he earned a purple heart. Pinion cites his grandfather as one of his heaviest influences in becoming a punter.
- In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show on Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Pinion, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience. "We take great pride in our community events around here," said Pinion. "I honestly think it means more to us when we get the privilege to walk with someone who has fought the fight with cancer or is continuing to fight the fight with cancer. It's truly a blessing for us."

- An active member in community relations initiatives since being drafted by the 49ers, Pinion was the winner of the team's CR rookie service award in 2015. In May of 2016, he worked with local elementary students at Don Callejon School to stress the importance of literacy and the fun and love of learning.

- As part of Salute to Service Month, Pinion, along with his temmates and general manager, John Lynch, visited the USO office at the San Jose Military Entrance Processing Station to spend time with military applicants and their families as they took the Oath of Enlistment and shipped off to basic training.

- While getting ready for the NFL draft, Pinion added Bikram yoga to his training regimen. In 105-degree heat with 40-percent humidity, he dropped 20 pounds. Pinion also added training at Madabolic Inc. in North Carolina, a hybrid of Cross Fit and Nine Rounds training techniques. "I really started to focus on the small things," said Pinion. "All the small things make the big picture."

- In March of 2018, Pinion worked with ESPN as a co-host for the Clemson Pro Day alongside Pete Yanity. "I remember being here three years ago," said Pinion. "Being able to come back and be a part of a very special day with some of my former teammates is a great feeling. It's a very nerve-racking day for these guys. They have a lot riding on it. They just want to come out here and do their best. They want to go out there and show these scouts that they're capable of playing in the NFL. Show them that they have the mindset. Show them that best is the standard like we say around here at Clemson all the time."

30 TYVIS POWELL

6-2 || 211 || OHIO STATE

DB

2.16.94 || BEDFORD, OH || 3RD YEAR || ACQUIRED FA IN '17

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- Appeared in 6 games (1 start) and registered 5 tackles and 1 FF.
- Forced a Cardinals TE Jermaine Gresham fumble at Arz. (10/28), marking his 1st career FF.
- Made his first NFL start vs. Oak. (11/1) and tied a career high with 3 tackles.

GOLDMINE

- The 49ers hosted a flag football clinic for local first responders and their children at the team facility on October 23, 2018. Powell and his teammates taught the children the fundamentals of the game before hitting the field for drills and games. The 100-plus guests also had the opportunity to try on equipment and participate in a photoshoot.

- Powell credits his high school football coach and former Kansas City Chiefs defensive back, Sean Williams, for playing a major role in elevating his game to where it is today. While at Bedford (OH) High School, Powell considered getting a job and no longer playing sports since no one he knew had ever earned a college scholarship. Coach Williams reassured him if he put in the work he could be a guy that kids in the Cleveland area look up to for years to come. "He just pushed me really hard to see how tough I was mentally. He just wanted to see if I really wanted what I said I wanted," said Powell who went on to earn a scholarship and play three seasons at Ohio State before entering the NFL in 2016. After winning the 2015 College Football National Championship, Powell returned to Bedford with the Championship trophy.

POWELL'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Won the 2015 College Football Playoff National Championship with the Buckeyes.
- In an attempt to improve his speed on the football field at Bedford High School, went from playing baseball to running track.

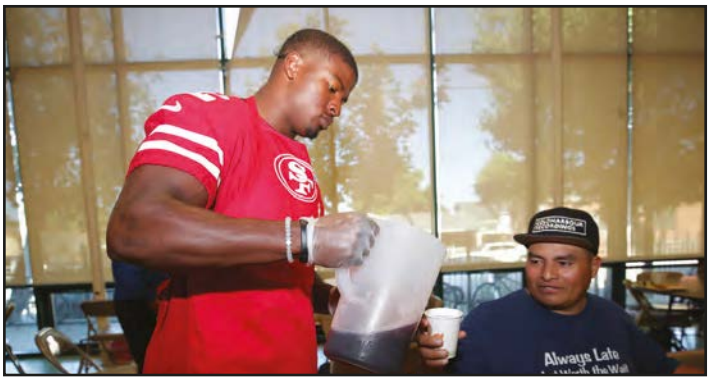
- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Reed Jr. and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."



- Reed played his final college football game against UCLA in the 2017 Cactus Bowl. While at the bowl game, Reed and his teammates were given fresh gear for their participation in the game. Later in the week, Reed wore his new white shoes while visiting a local Salvation Army in Phoenix, AZ. He struck a bond with Israel, a seven year-old who he could tell came from a bad background. Reed made his new friend's day by taking off his new shoes and giving them to him. He was happy to walk home barefoot, as he said that he was content in making someone else's day.

- Reed Jr. and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy on September 18, 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

- While not officially cousins by blood, Reed cites fellow Kansas State alum Darren Sproles as a family member. The two families have a relationship that is so close, Reed states that they are "like kin." He also cites Sproles' time at Kansas State as a major factor in his decision to attend the school.

GOLDMINE

- Sherman launched his own foundation, Blanket Coverage, in 2013. The foundation provides school supplies and clothing to students in low-income communities so they can more adequately achieve their goals. Sherman has hosted a variety of events with his foundation, including clothing drives, softball tournaments and trips to local schools. Sherman was influenced as a student at Dominguez HS after Magic Johnson gave an inspirational speech at his school, stressing the values of education. Information on Sherman's foundation can be found at https://www.richardsherman25.com.

- Sherman, born and raised in Compton, CA, epitomizes the idea of a success story and was heavily influenced by his parents, Beverly and Kevin. Beverly works with disabled, inner-city children, while Kevin works as a garbage truck driver. Kevin's day begins at 3:45 a.m. and he continues to work, even after Richard found success in the NFL. "It forced my brother and me to understand priorities and family," Richard said. For Kevin, it was about showing his children the value of finishing what you start. "I always tell my kids to finish," Kevin said. "It's all about finishing what I started."

- During the 2017 offseason, Sherman and his organization, Blanket Coverage, held their biggest backpack giveaway to date. Sherman's organization provided backpacks and free food on a first come, first serve basis to children in the Seattle area. Sherman and volunteers distributed backpacks, met with local families, took photos and participated in fun activities with the kids, which even included Sherman himself feeling the wrath of the dunk tank.

- After serving as the Seahawks team representative with the NFL Player's Association since 2014, Sherman was promoted to the organization's executive committee as vice president in 2016. The NFLPA serves as a union for professional football players and provides support for current and former players, while also enhancing their experiences in community-related organizations across the league.

- Since he was a child, Sherman has always thought about his future endeavors as a father, which became a reality with the birth of his son, Rayden, in February of 2015, and his daughter, Avery, in April of 2016. "I've thought about my kids since I was a kid. The greatest impact I could have on the world is raising good kids," Sherman said in a self-composed Players Tribune piece. "Football is something that I felt like I was born to do, and I was blessed with ability and the great fortune to be able to play it professionally, and I'm thankful for that and I take that very serious, and I want to be one of the best to ever do it. But in the end, being a great father, it's like the best thing you could ever be - to watch my son and daughter grow up to be incredible people and watch them make a greater impact on this world than I ever could.

- Sherman is one of five NFL players that holds a charitable partnership with Microsoft. In October of 2017, Sherman's organization was granted $25,000 from the company, which he intends to use by building a Microsoft Surface computer lap at Compton HS. Sherman, a Compton native, wants to utilize his partnership to prove to students in low-income areas that everyone has great potential, and with the power of proper technology and school supplies, students of all backgrounds have the ability to be successful in school and accomplish their goals.

STALEY'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In 2015, Staley was selected as the Bobb McKittrick Award winner for the second consecutive season, which is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the longtime offensive line coach, during his 21 years of service to the 49ers. The award was established by the 49ers in 1999, and is voted on by the offensive line.

GOLDMINE

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope on December 4, 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Staley and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

- After posing for a photoshoot, Staley and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health on October 2, 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show on Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Staley, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- In July of 2016, Staley, along with fellow NFL players, appeared on ABC's Family Feud as part of "Celebrity Family Feud." He was part of a team that competed on the iconic game show to win up to $25,000 for charity. On the show, he was teammates with Pierre Garçon, and the two are now teammates on the field with the 49ers.

- In 2013, Joe was an ambassador for San Francisco's first Electric Run, a 5K race that benefits Smile Train, the world's largest cleft lip and palate charity. The race, which was held at Candlestick Park, raised $10,000 for Smile Train and more than 8,000 people participated in the event.
- Prior to Super Bowl 50 at Levi's Stadium, Staley gave away a pair of tickets and a signed game-worn jersey to single father Johnel Spivey and his seven-year-old daughter, Jordan. Spivey, 54, had been on dialysis three days a week for the previous six years. Despite surgery, he avoided pain medication so he could stay focused on his daughter's needs.
- Entering his sophomore season at Central Michigan, Staley and the football program experienced a coaching change. New head coach Brian Kelly and offensive line coach Jeff Quinn asked him to make the switch to offensive tackle. He agreed and the transformation began where he began to wake up at 2 a.m. to consume a 2,000 calorie weight-gaining shake and would work out twice a day to prepare his body for its new life in the trenches. In the first offseason, Staley added 20 pounds to his lean frame. By the time he was a senior, he reached 290 pounds and went on to become the first Chippewa to be drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft.

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- Spent the entire season on the Reserve/NFI List.

GOLDMINE

- Street's grandfather, who served in the Marine Corps, gave him advice in the first grade that would last a lifetime. He told Kentavius that no matter the circumstance, he was going to have to outwork the competition. Street states that he has taken that mindset and carried it with him everywhere he goes - in the classroom, on the field, in the weight room and in the community.
- Street has a cousin, Kiwaukee Thomas, who played 8 seasons in the NFL with the Jaguars, Bills and Dolphins. After his playing career was over, Kiwaukee got into coaching, and was recently named the head football coach at Middle Georgia State University.
- One of Streets' favorite memories comes from a tightly-contested, 10-3 home victory over Notre Dame in 2016. The game was played under unique circumstances, as Hurricane Matthew had recently struck the east coast and transformed the field to a 100-yard slip and slide with a constant downpour in addition to 20-plus miles per hour winds attacking the field. "It was a battle to the very end," Street said. "It was such a fun, well-fought victory."

STREET'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Street's athletic ability was featured in a video of his 700-pound squat at a NC State workout, which went viral.
- Along with Bradley Chubb (Denver Broncos – 5th overall), B.J. Hill (New York Giants – 69th overall) and Justin Jones (Los Angeles Chargers – 84th overall), Street became the final player from NC State's starting defensive line to be drafted in 2018. It marks the first time since 2013 that a school's complete starting defensive line was selected in the same draft (LSU – 2013).

- Street and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy on September 18, 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

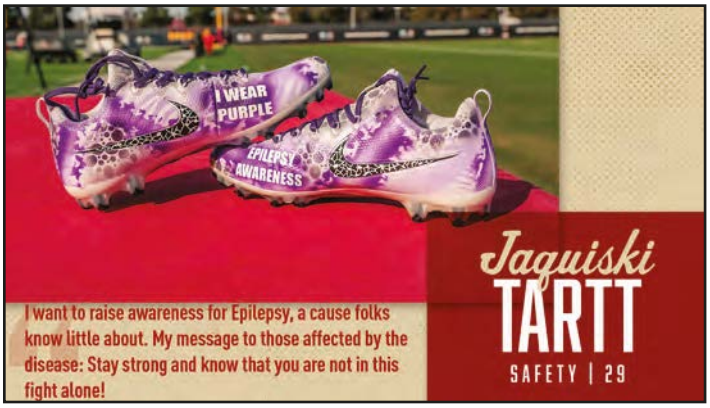
- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. Tartt chose NorCal Epilepsy Foundation as his My Cause, My Cleats initiative. Tartt was inspired by his close friend and manager whose daughter, Aria, was diagnosed with Epilepsy at four months old. No medicine was helping and Aria would have up to 100 seizures a day. But after brain surgery where a piece of her brain was removed, she is now seizure free. "I want to raise awareness for Epilepsy, a cause folks know little about," said Tartt. "My message to those affected by the disease: Stay strong and know that you are not in this fight alone!"



- Tartt's young football career has been heavily influenced by his family. He played his first year of organized football in 2009 at Davidson HS in Mobile, AL, to honor his grandfather, Alfred Lewis, who passed away during the summer before his senior year. "The football coaches and my friends wanted me to come out and play, and he really wanted me to play. I really wanted to play again ever since he passed away, so I do this in his memory." Additionally, Jaquiski chose to attend Samford University at the urging of his mother, a traveling nurse who wanted to go there herself because of their pharmacy program.
- Drafted by the 49ers in the second round of the 2015 NFL Draft, Tartt reunited with best friend and former high school teammate DB Jimmie Ward. Both products of Davidson High School in Mobile, AL, the pair won the Class 6A Region 1 football championship as the school's starting safeties in 2009.
- Tartt provided 75 backpacks full of school supplies to 7th graders at Scarborough Model Middle School of Mobile in preparation for the upcoming school year. Said Tartt, "I met with the Mayor and his team and they decided that this would be the best thing to do. Every year, I'm just trying to do something to give back to my community. It was great to see how happy the kids were."

- While visiting his hometown of Mobile during his youth football camp in July of 2016, Tartt was given the key to the city. "If anybody would have told me I would be getting a key to the city of Mobile, I'd have thought they were crazy. It's a wonderful feeling."

- In April of 2018, Tartt and his teammates attended the eighth annual Prom at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital San Francisco in Mission Bay, with more than 200 teen patients and their friends. Patients and 49ers players enjoyed a fun-filled "Vintage Circus" prom with photo booths, music, dancing, dining and more. This special evening allowed patients to participate in a milestone that they may miss as a result of sickness.

- A two-time All-American and All-Southern Conference selection, Tartt was the first player in Samford school history to be invited to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl. Just the sixth player selected in the NFL draft in school history, Jaquiski holds the distinction of being the first player drafted in the second round or higher from Samford University.

55 PITA TAUMOEPENU

LB

6-1 || 245 || UTAH

3.9.94 || PROVO, UT || 2ND YEAR || ACQUIRED D-6B IN '17

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- Saw action in 4 games and registered 1 tackle on defense and 2 tackles on special teams after being promoted to the active roster on 12/5.

GOLDMINE

- Taumoepenu grew up with his mother's family about 3,000 miles east of Australia on the island of Tongatapu, which is the main island in the Tongan archipelago. He learned to develop his work ethic on his grandparents farm, where he helped grow pineapples and watermelons. In 2018, Taumoepenu accumulated his practice squad paychecks (around $4,700 each) and used the money to purchase Christmas gifts to be sent back to his native island. "I don't have much, but Christmas presents are on the way," Taumoepenu said.

- Growing up in Tonga, the common sports played are rugby and cricket. Taumoepenu's experience playing rugby helped his transition to football. Said Taumoepenu, "It was hard for me to see through that facemask. I came from rugby to football. It was pretty difficult at times. But I told myself I can do it. And basically I just tried to stay positive."
- After moving in with his aunt in Provo, UT, Taumoepenu worked to develop his English. He increased his ACT score from an 18 when he first arrived in the United States to a 28 just one year later. Taumoepenu's dedication and hard work continued to pay off, completing degrees in economics and sociology in three years at Utah.

TAUMOEPENU'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His full name is pronounced PEET-uh, TAO-moy-PEH-new.
- Taumoepenu was just three months old when his grandparents, Pita and Meleseini Taumoepenu, took him and his older sister, Ruth Tuha, to live in Tonga. Not knowing what football was at the time, he remembered listening to his grandfather tell him how he was going to become an NFL player. When he was 17, he moved to Utah where he lived with an aunt and attended Timpview HS. At that time, his cousins persuaded him to try the game his grandfather loved. "My coach just told me to go get the quarterback," Taumoepenu said in 2015. "That's all I cared about. That's all I do, and it was fun."

GOLDMINE

- On June 2, 2018, Thomas walked to raise money for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. "I lost one of the most important people in my world to suicide earlier this year," said Thomas. "I will be walking for her and for everyone who suffers from the pain she felt. Ella was my sister. Ella was my best friend. She loved harder than she could breathe. She filled a room with such a strong presence that it would light up the room. She made my life go. Having Ella as my sister was the greatest gift this life has given me. She taught me to be myself, to make everyone feel loved, to appreciate everything in front of me, and so much more. She was so perceptive and so compassionate. I will live every day for my amazing sister.

"I walk not only because of what happened to Ella and our family; I walk because I want to help others. I want others to have better information and resources. It's time to talk about mental health. It's time to acknowledge that everyone is going through something that we don't know about and might not understand. It's time to have empathy for those things we don't understand. The funds raised at this walk will benefit the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. Net proceeds will help those affected by suicide and mental health conditions by supporting research, advocacy, survivor resources, education and awareness programs.

"Be meaningful in every conversation, seek to show others you care. You never know what you could say that might save someone's life. I want to make this a better world. Please help me in support of those who suffer."

If you are in crisis, please call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-TALK (8255) or contact the Crisis Text Line by texting TALK to 741741.

AWARDS & HONORS

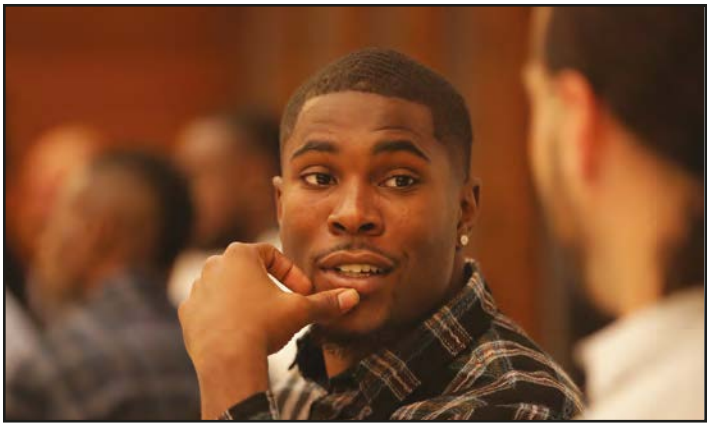
2015: Hazeltine Iron Man Award

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- Saw action in 9 games (7 starts) and registered 23 tackles before being placed on the Injured Reserve List on 11/27.

GOLDMINE

- Ward and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace on November 20, 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.



- Growing up in Mobile, AL, Ward knew when to separate himself from others in his neighborhood. Said Ward, "From where I come from, the neighborhood that I grew up in, a lot of people don't make it out. There's a lot of stuff. They either flunk out of school, end up having a child so they have to drop out of school and raise that child, or end up going to jail. It really just made me want to do something more than what my peers were doing." Ward would later surround himself with positive influences.
- Ward's family is no stranger to professional athletics. He is the cousin of former NBA player, Caron Butler. Butler, 10 years older than Ward, watched him grow up in Racine, WI, prior to Ward's move to Mobile, AL.

- While playing youth football, Ward went by the nickname 'Neko' and was teammates with former Alabama QB AJ McCarron with the Mobile Youth Football's Municipal Raiders. He played linebacker for the team that won multiple Youth Bowl Championships in Mobile.

WARD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Named the 49ers Hazeltine Iron Man Award winner for the 2015 season. The award is named for former linebacker Matt Hazeltine, a 13-year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from ALS, and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player as voted upon by the defensive coaches.
- On the day he was selected by the 49ers in the 1st round of the 2014 NFL Draft, drove three hours to New Orleans to purchase a new purse for his mother's birthday. He said, "I never really bought her anything expensive, because you're a kid. Growing up you would write a card, color a card or just buy a card or simple flowers. That's the most I ever did. She likes purses, so I just decided to get her a purse. It really didn't matter how much it cost, you just wanted to see that smile." His act of generosity shows his true character. "I'm not a selfish person. I just like to see and make other people smile too. It makes me feel better as a person."
- Was best friends growing up with 49ers 2015 2nd round draft pick, S Jaquiski Tartt. The two were teammates at W.P. Davidson High School in Mobile, AL.

INJURY REPORT

2018: Placed on the Injured Reserve List on 12/18 with a knee injury.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 9
SAN FRANCISCO 16, MINNESOTA 24
U.S. BANK STADIUM

The 49ers fell to the Minnesota Vikings, 24–16, in the first game of the 2018 regular season at U.S. Bank Stadium in Minneapolis. After both team's opening drives ended in punts, the Vikings struck first with a 48–yd. FG by Minnesota K Daniel Carlson. San Francisco was forced to punt on the ensuing drive and the Vikings increased their lead as Minnesota QB Kirk Cousins connected with WR Stefon Diggs on a 22–yd. TD. The 49ers then took the ball and responded with a 7–play, 51–yd. drive that resulted in a 42–yd. FG by K Robbie Gould. The teams traded possessions before rookie LB Fred Warner popped the ball loose from Vikings RB Dalvin Cook which was recovered by CB Richard Sherman. The 49ers drove down the field but RB Alfred Morris fumbled at the 1–yd. line and entered halftime with Minnesota holding on to a 10–3 lead. After both teams traded punts to open the second half, Minnesota CB Mike Hughes intercepted a Garoppolo pass and returned the ball 28 yds. for a TD to push their lead to 17–3. The 49ers responded on the first play of the following drive, as Garoppolo found FB Kyle Juszczyk for a career–long 56–yd. reception to place the 49ers offense at Minnesota's 19–yd. line. The 49ers offense could not punch it in, but Gould converted on a 33–yd. FG, his 2nd of the day, narrowing the Minnesota lead to 17–6. The Vikings answered right back as Cousins found Minnesota TE Kyle Rudolph for a 11–yd. TD pass and extended the home team's advantage to 24–6. Looking to make a 4th quarter push, Garoppolo led the team on a 75–yd. drive that was capped off by a 22–yd. TD recept. by rookie WR Dante Pettis, which marked the first catch and TD of his career. Pettis' 22–yd. recept. marked the first time a member of the 49ers saw their first career recept. result in a TD since 2006 [TE Vernon Davis – at Arz. (9/10/06)]. The teams traded possessions to open the fourth quarter before Gould connected on a 22–yd. FG, his 3rd of the day to pull the 49ers within one score. The conversion also pushed Gould's streak of converted field goals to 26, 2nd in franchise history behind K Phil Dawson (27 FGM from 10/6/13 – 12/29/13). With the Vikings clinging to a 24–16 lead, the 49ers defense held their ground and forced Minnesota to punt with 1:49 remaining in the contest, but Minnesota S Harrison Smith stepped in front of a Garoppolo pass on the 2nd play of the drive and spoiled the 49ers' chance at a game–tying drive.

NOTES: NOTES: DL DeForest Buckner set a career high with 2.5 sacks on the day ... His 2.5 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since 11/19/12 (LB Aldon Smith – 5.5 sacks vs. Chi.). He became the first member of the 49ers to register 10–or–more tackles, 1–or–more FF and 1–or–more PD in a game since 2013 [LB NaVorro Bowman – at Arz. (12/29/13)] … FB Kyle Juszczyk connected on a career–long 56–yd. recept. from QB Jimmy Garoppolo … WR Dante Pettis registered a 22–yd. TD recept. from QB Jimmy Garoppolo for his 1st career recept. and 1st career TD. Pettis' 22–yd. recept. marked the first time a member of the 49ers saw their first career recept. result in a TD since 2006 [TE Vernon Davis – at Arz. SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 16
DETROIT 27, SAN FRANCISCO 30
LEVI'S STADIUM

The 49ers earned their first regular season victory in the team's home opener at Levi's Stadium, 30–27, versus the Detroit Lions. After forcing the Lions to punt on their opening possession, the 49ers embarked on a 63–yd. drive and registered the game's first score thanks to a 45–yd. FG from K Robbie Gould. On the ensuing possession, Detroit secured a 7–3 lead after Lions QB Matthew Stafford found WR Kenny Golladay for a 30–yd. TD pass. The 49ers got the ball back and immediately responded, as QB Jimmy Garoppolo led the offense down the field on a 13–play, 88–yd. drive that was capped off by a 4–yd. TD pass to WR Kendrick Bourne. With the 49ers holding on to a 10–7 lead in the 2nd quarter, LB Elijah Lee recorded his first career sack and FF after knocking the ball free from Stafford. The ball was recovered by DL Cassius Marsh, marking his 2nd career FR, which gave the 49ers the ball on the Detroit 24–yd. line. San Francisco then pushed their lead to 13–7 after Gould connected on a 42–yd. FG. With the made FG, Gould set the franchise record for most consecutive FGs made (28), passing former 49ers K Phil Dawson (27 FGM, 10/6/13–12/29/13). After trading punts throughout the remainder of the 2nd quarter, Lions K Matt Prater converted a 27–yd. FG to push the score to 13–10 on the last play of the first half. 49ers DB D.J. Reed Jr. opened the second half with a bang as his return set up the offense in great field position at Detroit's 26–yd. line. Garoppolo successfully navigated the red zone and found TE Garrett Celek for a 11–yd. TD pass to increase the home team's lead to 20–10. After the Lions returned the ensuing kickoff 45 yds., Prater narrowed the 49ers' lead to 20–13 after connecting on a 43–yd. FG. The 49ers ended the 3rd quarter with a 3–play, 97–yd. TD drive, highlighted by a career–long, 66–yd. rushing TD from RB Matt Breida. With 138 rushing yds. on the day, Breida eclipsed 100 rushing yds. marking his first career 100–yd. game. The 66–yd. run was also the longest by a 49ers player since 2014 (QB Colin Kaepernick – vs. SD, 12/20/14). After the 49ers defense forced a punt on Detroit's next possession, Gould again extended the team's lead to 30–13 with a 36–yd. FG, his 3rd of the day. With the FG, Gould extended his franchise–leading streak of consecutive FGM to 29. The Lions would not go away as they scored TDs on back–to–back drives to pull within 3. After the 49ers could not gain a 1st down to run out the clock, the Lions got the ball one last time with 1:08 to go, but the 49ers defense closed the door on a potential comeback and secured their first regular season victory on the year, 30–27.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1
OAKLAND 3, SAN FRANCISCO 34
LEVI'S STADIUM

The 49ers secured a decisive victory over the Oakland Raiders, 34–3, on Thursday Night Football at Levi's Stadium. The Raiders scored on their first drive of the evening, thanks to a 37–yd. FG from K Daniel Carlson but that would be it for the remainder of the ball game. The 49ers, led by QB Nick Mullens in his NFL debut, thereafter began the scoring affair by finishing the team's opening 75–yard drive with a 24–yard TD pass from Mullens to WR Pierre Garçon. Next, Mullens took the offense on a 13–play, 66–yard drive that was capped off by a 4–yard TD pass to WR Kendrick Bourne to increase their lead to 14–3. The 49ers were able to knock in one more field goal in the first half, a 39–yarder from K Robbie Gould, to take a 17–3 lead into halftime. The 49ers continued their offensive eruption in the 2nd half, as TE George Kittle hauled in a 71–yard reception to bring the team to Oakland's six–yard line on the second play of the half's opening drive. With his 71–yd. recept., along with his 82–yd. TD recept. at LAC, Kittle became the first TE in the NFL to have 2 recepts. of 70 yds.–or–more in a single season since 1972 (NYJ TE Rich Caster). Kittle was rewarded two plays later with a 5–yard TD reception from Mullens, his 3rd TD pass of the night, to increase the San Francisco lead to 24–3. With 3 TD passes, Mullens tied the franchise record for the most TD passes by a player in his first start with the 49ers [QB Tim Rattay vs. StL (11/2/03); QB Ty Detmer vs. Car. (11/8/98); QB Matt Cavanaugh at Phi. (9/23/84)]. LEVI'S STADIUM

In a game that came down to the final play, the 49ers fell short to the New York Giants, 27–23, at Levi's Stadium on ESPN's Monday Night Football. After San Francisco forced a three–and–out on the game's opening possession, QB Nick Mullens, making his second career start, led the offense on a scoring drive that was capped off by a 53–yard FG from K Robbie Gould. The kick improved Gould's career kicking percentage from 50+ yards to 78.4 percent, which ranks 1st in NFL history (min. 20 FGM). Later in the first quarter, the Giants found the end zone on a 10–yard TD pass from QB Eli Manning to WR Odell Beckham Jr., taking a 7–3 lead. However, on the initial possession of the 2nd quarter, RB Matt Breida finished a 7–play, 75–yard drive by propelling into the end zone for a 3–yard rushing TD to take a 10–7 advantage. While Giants K Aldrick Rosas knocked in a 20–yard FG to tie the game, Gould responded with a 36–yarder of his own with seconds remaining in the quarter to secure the lead again heading into halftime, 13–10. Mullens opened the 2nd half by marching the offense down the field and finding Breida in the end zone for an 11–yard TD pass. With the catch, Breida became the first 49ers player to register a rushing and receiving TD in the same game since 2014. The Giants responded on the next possession, as Beckham Jr. hauled in a 20–yard TD, narrowing the San Francisco lead to 20–17. Later in the 3rd quarter, the Giants tied the game at 20 points each with a 31–yard FG from Rosas. The teams found themselves tied with minutes to go in the 4th quarter after trading possessions. Mullens commanded the offense on a 54–yard drive that ended with a 30–yard FG from Gould to take back the lead, 23–20, with less than three minutes to go. However, Manning embarked on a drive of his own and connected with WR Sterling Shepard on a 3–yard TD pass to obtain the advantage, 27–23. The 49ers offense found themselves within striking distance of the end zone with seconds remaining, but could not connect and were ultimately bested by the Giants, 27–23, in a back–and–forth battle on Monday Night Football.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2
SAN FRANCISCO 16, SEATTLE 43
CENTURYLINK FIELD

The 49ers were bested by the Seattle Seahawks at CenturyLink Field, 43–16. After trading possessions to begin the game, Seahawks QB Russell Wilson was able to connect with WR Jaron Brown for a 4–yd. TD pass for the first points of the day. On the next Seattle possession, Wilson put his team up 13–0 thanks to a 52–yd. TD pass to WR Tyler Lockett. After getting their hands on the ball again before halftime, Wilson threw a 1–yd. TD pass to WR Doug Baldwin to take a 20–0 lead. With just 1:10 remaining in the first half, 49ers QB Nick Mullens brought the offense within scoring range, and K Robbie Gould connected on a 45–yd. FG to cut into the Seahawks lead, 20–3, at the half. Lockett was able to register an 84–yd. kickoff return to open the 2nd half, which set up room for Seahawks RB Rashaad Penny to punch in a 20–yd. TD rush on the next play. The 49ers offense never quit and responded with a score of their own, a 17–yd. TD reception from WR Dante Pettis, cutting the Seahawks lead to 27–10. However, Seattle answered again to score the 4th quarters first points with an 18–yd. TD pass from Wilson to Brown. The 49ers immediately eradicated the score on the first play of their next drive, as Mullens hit Pettis on a post route that he took for a 75–yd. score, his second of the game. With two TD receptions on the day, Pettis became the first 49ers rookie to register two TDs in a single game since WR J.J. Stokes [vs. StL (11/26/95) – 2 TD receptions] in 1995. Those would be the final points of the day for the 49ers as they dropped another tough division battle to the Seahawks at CenturyLink Field.

DENVER 14, SAN FRANCISCO 20
LEVI'S STADIUM

San Francisco clinched a hard–fought victory over the Denver Broncos, 20–14, at Levi's Stadium to lead the overall regular season series 8–7. The 49ers received the opening kick and marched down the field when as K Robbie Gould knocked in a 40–yard FG to open the game with a 3–0 lead. The 49ers offense erupted in the second quarter, scoring 17 points while the defense continued to hold the Broncos scoreless. After a 29–yard FG from Gould, TE George Kittle continued his dominant first half against the Broncos by recording and 85–yard reception from QB Nick Mullens on the first play of the drive. Kittle, faking a block on the line, slipped past the Denver defenders and outran everyone on the field to match the 7th–longest pass play in team history, and the longest since the 2005 season. In the first half alone, Kittle hauled in 7 receptions for 210 yards and 1 touchdown. He racked up the most yards in a single game by a tight end in franchise history and the 3rd–most in league history. During the first half, Kittle also became the first 49ers TE in franchise history to eclipse the 1,000 yard–receiving mark. With one minute left in the half, Mullens orchestrated a 72–yard drive that was completed with a 1–yard touchdown pass to WR Dante Pettis. The touchdown reception was Pettis' 5th on the year, which matched RB Jimmy Thomas (1969) and HB R.C. Owens' (1957) total for the 2nd–most by a rookie in franchise history (Dave Parks, 1964 – 8 TDs). With the score, the 49ers held on to a 20–0 lead at halftime, marking the first 49ers shutout in the first half of a game since 9/12/16 vs. LAR. In the second half, the Broncos attempted to bring the game back within reach, first with a 1–yard touchdown rush from RB Philip Lindsay, and then through a 1–yard touchdown pass from QB Case Keenum to WR DaeSean Hamilton, but they were unable to catch up to the 49ers and the score settled at 20–14 in favor of the home team.

NOTES: TE George Kittle registered 7 recepts. for a career–high 210 yds. and 1 TD. His 210 rec. yds. are the most in a single game by a TE in franchise history and the 8th–most among all players. Kittle's 210 rec. yds. are the 3rd–most by a TE in a single game in the NFL since 1960. Kittle hauled in an 85–yd. TD, which is tied for the 11th–longest play from scrimmage in franchise history, tied for the 7th–longest pass play in team history [QB Jim Plunkett to RB Delvin Williams – 85t vs. Was. (11/7/76)] and the longest since 9/25/05 (QB Tim Rattay to WR Brandon Lloyd – 89t vs. Dal.). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Kittle's 210 rec. yds. in the 1st half were the most in the 1st half of an NFL game since Seattle Seahawks WR Steve Largent registered 224 rec. yds. in the 1st half at Det. (10/18/87). With 210 rec. yds. on the day, Kittle has set the franchise record for the most rec. yds. (1,103) in a single season by a 49ers TE. Kittle became the first member of the 49ers to reach 1,000 rec. yds. in a single season since WR Anquan Boldin registered 1,062 rec. yds. in 2014. His 1,103 rec. yds. are the most by a 49ers player since Boldin had 1,179 rec. yds. in 2013. Kittle has now registered at least 4 recepts. in 11–consecutive team games, the longest streak of his career and the longest by a member of the 49ers since WR Terrell Owens accomplished the feat in Weeks 5–15 of the 2002 season. Kittle has 5 games this season with 90–or–more yds., tying TE Vernon Davis (2009) for the most in a single season by a 49ers TE. With 3 recepts. of 70–or–more yds. this season, Kittle joins WR Odell Beckham Jr. (3 in 2015 with NYG) and WR Torrey Smith (3 in 2015 with SF) as the last players to have 3–or–more recepts. of 70–plus yds. in a single season ... WR Dante Pettis hauled in 3 recepts. for 49 yds. and 1 TD. Pettis' 1–yd. TD recept. made him the first member of the 49ers to register 1–or–more TD recepts. in three–consecutive games since TE Vernon Davis accomplished the feat in Weeks 11–15 of the 2013 season. Pettis' 5 rec. TDs on the season are the most by a member of the 49ers in their rookie season since RB Jimmy Thomas registered 5 TD recepts. in 1969, and are tied for the 2nd–most by a rookie in 49ers franchise history. (12/17/17)]. Mullens is the first undrafted 49ers QB to throw for 300–or–more yds. in consecutive games since QB Jeff Garcia accomplished the feat in the three straight games from 12/3/00–12/17/00 ... RB Jeff Wilson Jr. rushed for a career–high 90 yds. on 23 atts. The 23 atts. were the most by a 49ers RB since 9/21/17 (RB Carlos Hyde – 25 atts. for 84 yds. and 2 TDs vs. LAR) ... DB D.J. Reed Jr. brought down Broncos QB Case Keenum for a sack of 5 yds., the first sack of his career ... DL Ronald Blair III registered 1.0 sack on the day, extending his career high to 5.5 sacks on the season.

SEATTLE 23, SAN FRANCISCO 26 (OT)
LEVI'S STADIUM

On a rainy day at Levi's Stadium, the 49ers defeated the Seattle Seahawks for the first time since 2013 in a hard–fought, overtime battle, 26–23. The game was a back and forth affair all afternoon and started with Seattle scoring the game's first points after QB Russell Wilson found WR Doug Baldwin for a 5–yd. TD pass, but K Sebastian Janikowski missed the extra point attempt thereafter. On the following play, the 49ers seized a 7–6 lead after rookie WR Richie James Jr. took the kickoff return 97 yards for a touchdown. James Jr.'s return marked the first time a member of the 49ers has registered a kickoff return for a TD since WR Ted Ginn Jr. took it 102 yards for a touchdown in 2011 [vs. Sea. (9/11/11)]. James Jr. also became first 49ers rookie to register a kickoff return for a TD since 1981 [RB Amos Lawrence – 92–yd. KR TD at LAR (11/22/81)]. The 49ers opened the scoring in the 2nd quarter with a 10–play, 98–yard touchdown drive that was completed with a 41–yd. TD pass from QB Nick Mullens to TE Garrett Celek. The scoring drive was the team's longest since 2002 when the 49ers capped off a 12–play, 99–yd. drive with a 6–yd. TD rush by RB Kevan Barlow at Sea. (10/14/02). With the score, the 49ers were able to extend their lead to 14–6. On the next possession, Wilson found Baldwin for another touchdown to bring the score to 14–13. Next, Mullens took the ball back and led the offense down the field to set up a 28–yd. FG from K Robbie Gould to extend the team's lead to 17–13 going into the half. After the teams traded punts to open the second half, Mullens again moved the 49ers offense within scoring range to set up a 33–yd. FG from Gould, pushing the San Francisco lead to 20–13. Seahawks RB Chris Carson kicked off a dramatic fourth quarter with a 1–yd. TD rush on 4th down to tie the game at 20 apiece. On the next possession, the 49ers offense provided room for a game–long, 45–yd. FG from Gould to take a 23–20 lead. Seattle then tied the game on the subsequent drive with a 48–yd. FG from Janikowski. In a tie game, late in the 4th quarter and OT, the 49ers defense forced the Seahawks offense to punt on each of their final three possessions of the game. Seattle won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but the 49ers defense held their ground and forced a three–and–out, turning the ball back over to the offense at the 38–yd. line. The 49ers offense ran the ball effectively in their overtime drive and again moved the ball within range for Gould, who knocked in a 36–yd. FG, his fourth of the day, to clinch the victory over their division foe, 26–23. With 14 points on the day, Gould became the 23rd kicker in NFL history to register at least 1,500 points in their career. He has also registered 111 points this season, marking the first time he has scored 100–or–more points in consecutive seasons since he did so in six straight years with Chicago from 2006–11.

NOTES: K Robbie Gould connected on all 4 FGAs and 2 PATs, including the game–winning 36–yd. FG in OT. This marked Gould's 6th–career game–winning FG in OT and his first since 11/17/13 as a member of the Chicago Bears vs. Bal. With 14 points on the day, Gould became the 23rd kicker in NFL history to register at least 1,500 points in their career (1,513). Gould has now scored 111 points this season, marking the first time he scored 100–or–more in consecutive seasons (145 points in 2017) since he accomplished the feat in 6 straight seasons from 2006–11. He is also the first member of the 49ers to score 100–or–more points in consecutive seasons since 2013–14 [K Phil Dawson – 140 points (2013) and 108 points (2014)]. Gould has now connected on 19 consecutive FGAs, which tied for the 3rd–longest streak in franchise history ... WR Richie James Jr. registered a 97–yd. kickoff return for a TD. It marked the first time a member of the 49ers registered a kickoff return for a TD since WR Ted Ginn Jr. registered a 102–yd. kickoff return for a TD vs. Sea. (9/11/11). James Jr. became the first 49ers rookie to register a kickoff return for a TD since 1981 [RB Amos Lawrence – 92–yd. KR TD at LAR (11/22/81)]. James Jr.'s kickoff return for a TD was just the 4th in the NFL this season (Jakeem Grant, Mia.; Darius Jennings, Ten. & Cordarrelle Patterson, NE) ... TD pass from QB Nick Mullens to TE Garrett Celek, marking team's longest TD drive since 2002 when the 49ers capped off a 12–play, 99–yd. drive with a 6–yd. TD run by RB Kevan Barlow at Sea. (12/2/18)], the most passing yds. allowed by any QB in a single–season since their franchise inception in 1976 ... In a tie game, late in the 4th qtr. and OT, the 49ers defense forced the Seahawks offense to punt on each of their final 3 possessions of the game, including setting up the 49ers offense for the game–winning FG in OT ... DL DeForest Buckner registered a career–high 11 tackles and 2.0 sacks on the day. He extended his single–season career high to 11.0 sacks, becoming the first member of the 49ers to register double–digit sacks since LB Aldon Smith finished with 19.5 sacks in 2012 ... LB Mark Nzeocha recorded his 1st sack and FF of his career after bringing down Seahawks QB Russell Wilson for an 8–yd. loss.

CHICAGO 14, SAN FRANCISCO 9
LEVI'S STADIUM

San Francisco fell short in a back–and–forth game against the Chicago Bears, 14–9, in their final game of the season at Levi's Stadium. The teams exchanged multiple possessions in the first quarter, however neither team was able to find the score–board. In the first drive of the 2nd quarter, 49ers K Robbie Gould converted a 33–yd. FG to open the game's scoring and give San Francisco a 3–0 advantage. On the next drive, DL DeForest Buckner picked up a Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky fumble, which set up room for a 30–yd. FG from Gould to extend the team's lead to 6–0. Buckner also notched 1.0 sack on the day, moving his season sack total to 12.0, the fourth–most by a 49ers' defender since 2000. Trubisky then found WR Anthony Miller on the next drive for a 4–yard TD pass to take a 7–6 lead. With less than two minutes to go in the second half, QB Nick Mullens was able to orchestrate an 8–play, 63–yd. drive that set up a 23–yd. FG from Gould, providing San Francisco with a 9–7 lead at the half. Gould connected on all 3 FGAs on the day, extending his streak of consecutive made to 22 FGs, the third–most in franchise history. The Bears opened the third quarter by scoring on their initial drive, thanks to a 2–yd. TD rush from RB Jordan Howard. The 49ers defense, though, was able to hold the Bears scoreless for the remainder of the game. While Chicago was looking to run the clock down late in the fourth quarter, DB Tarvarius Moore caught up to Bears WR Allen Robinson II and knocked the ball free, which was recovered by DB Greg Mabin. Mullens next took the reins on the two–minute drive and pushed the team into Chicago territory. The 49ers offense was unable to find the end zone and failed to convert on 4th and 4, losing a close game to the Bears, 14–9. Mullens registered 241 passing yds. on the day, the third–most by any QB in their first seven career games.

DL Cassius Marsh brought down Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky twice on the day, increasing his single–season career high to 5.5 sacks. Marsh now has two career games with 2.0–or–more sacks [2.5 sacks vs. Oak. (11/1/18)] ... Late in the 4th qtr., DB Tarvarius Moore registered his first career FF, punching the ball out from Bears WR Allen Robinson II. SAN FRANCISCO 32, LOS ANGELES RAMS 48
LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The 49ers dropped their 2018 season finale, 48–32, against the Los Angeles Rams at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marked the first time the 49ers lost at The Coliseum since the Rams moved back to L.A.The Rams capitalized on their scoring chances early in the 1st quarter, notching two touchdowns to take a 14–0 lead. San Francisco countered with a 30–yd. FG from K Robbie Gould to narrow the Rams' lead at the end of the quarter to 14–3. Gould's lone FGA on the day settled his FG pct. at a league–leading and franchise–best 97.1 pct. The Rams would continue to take advantage of their chances and scored two more touchdowns to open the 2nd quarter and seize a 28–3 lead. The 49ers remained persistent all throughout the game, though, and QB Nick Mullens responded by orchestrating an 8–play, 75–yd. drive that was capped off by a 9–yd. TD pass to WR Richie James Jr. Although, the Rams were able to tack on one last FG before the half came to a close, expanding their lead to 31–10. On the opening drive of the 2nd half, Rams QB Jared Goff found WR Josh Reynolds for a 29–yd. TD pass. Mullens took the ball and responded by again leading the offense on a 75–yd. drive that resulted in a 1–yd. TD rush by RB Alfred Morris. The Rams responded, however, with another TD pass to Reynolds to increase their lead to 45–17. Rams K Greg Zuerlein later opened the 4th quarter with a FG that expanded their lead to 48–17. San Francisco continued to fight back, as Mullens connected with WR Kendrick Bourne on a 3–yd. TD pass. After forcing the Rams to punt on the ensuing possession, TE George Kittle set the NFL's all–time single–season record for receiving yards by a tight end after catching an out route and taking it 43 yards for the score. With the catch, Kittle also established the single–season franchise record for receptions by a tight end with 88 passes hauled in. His 88 receptions were the most in a single season by a member of the 49ers since WR Terrell Owens brought in 100 receptions in 2002. The 49ers successfully converted the two–point attempt after Mullens linked up with WR Trent Taylor, narrowing the deficit to 48–32. Afterward, San Francisco attempted an onside kick, but was unsuccessful. The Rams were then able to run out the clock and secure the victory.
