ARIZONA CARDINALS (3-6-1) VS. SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS (8-1) Levi's Stadium | November 17, 2019 | 2:05 PM

THIS WEEK'S PREVIEW

Looking for their third road win of the season, the Cardinals travel to San Francisco this week for the second of two matchups against the 49ers in a span of 18 days. Beginning with this Sunday's contest in San Francisco, Arizona will face division opponents in four of the final six regular season contests.

The Cardinals are looking for their ninth win in the last 10 games against San Francisco, who snapped Arizona's eight-game winning streak in the series when they defeated the Cards 28-25 on Thursday Night Football in Week 9. Arizona travels to Levi's Stadium on Sunday looking to extend their four-game winning streak on the 49ers home field. Arizona has a 4-1 record at Levi's Stadium, which opened in 2014.

Having won the season series each of the last four years (2015-18), the Cardinals need a win this week to avoid dropping both games to the 49ers for the first time since 2010.

Facing the league's #1 ranked defense the last time these two teams met, the Cardinals offense gave the 49ers all they could handle in the narrow loss. Arizona had more yards in the second half (275) than any of San Francisco's previous five opponents had in an entire game. The Cardinals had three scoring drives in the second half that covered at least 80 yards (85, 88 and 90).

All three of Arizona's TDs in that game were scored by players who had never scored for the Cardinals before. Rookie WRs Andy Isabella and KeeSean Johnson each had their first career TD catch and RB Kenyan Drake - who was acquired just 72 hours prior to the contest - had 162 scrimmage yards and a rushing TD. Isabella's TD reception covered 88 yards, the longest play allowed by San Francisco this season and the fourth-longest offensive TD in the NFL in 2019.

QB Kyler Murray had a career outing against San Francisco's top-ranked pass defense. He completed 17-of-24 pass attempts (70.8%) for 241 yards, 2 TDs, 0 INTs and a career-high 130.7 passer rating. He also rushed for 34 yards on five attempts. Murray's 130.7 passer rating was the highest of any player in a game against the 49ers this season and is the highest for any Cardinals QB in 56 all-time meetings against San Francisco.

No player on the field on Sunday will have played in more games in this series than WR Larry Fitzgerald, who will be facing the Niners for the 32nd time. Fitz had 177 receptions for 2,344 yards and 18 TDs in the previous 31 meetings. His 11 career 100-yard receiving performances against the Niners are tied with Jerry Rice (11 vs. Atlanta) for the most in NFL history vs. a single opponent.

Following this week's game the Cardinals have a bye while the 49ers remain home to host the NFC North-leading Packers.

WILLIAM V. BIDWILL (1931-2019)

THE LIFE OF MR. B

William V. (Bill) Bidwill passed away on October 2 at the age of 88.

"Our dad passed away the same way he lived his life: peacefully, with grace, dignity and surrounded by family and loved ones," said Cardinals Chairman and President Michael Bidwill. "Above all else, we will remember him as a man devoted to the three central pillars of his life – his immense faith, his love for his family and his life-long passion for the Cardinals and the sport of football."

Born on July 31, 1931 in Chicago, he is the son of Charles and Violet Bidwill. His father purchased the Chicago Cardinals of the NFL in 1932, starting Bill's life-long association with the team which spanned eight decades and started as a ball boy when he was a child. A two-sport athlete playing football and baseball at Georgetown Prep outside of Washington, DC, Bidwill received the school's highest honor, the Insignis Medal, in 1990 and was selected to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2017.

After earning his undergraduate degree from Georgetown University, Bidwill proudly served in the United States Navy before taking on a full-time role with the team in 1960. That same year he married Nancy, his wife of more than 56 years until her passing in 2016 and had five children: daughter Nicole and sons Bill Jr., Michael, Patrick and Timothy. While well-known for his understated nature and a preference for staying out of the spotlight, "Mr. B" was recognized often for his contributions and accomplishments as Cardinals owner.

In 2017, he was enshrined in the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame which honors those who have made significant contributions to state's athletics community. In 2010, Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in Lake Forest, IL. At its December 2010 commencement exercises, Northern Arizona University awarded Bidwill an honorary doctor of humane letters degree for "his contributions to the university, his community and his profession."

In addition to his five children, 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild, Bidwill is survived by his brother Charles (Stormy).

A LEADER IN DIVERSITY

Bidwill was at the forefront of diversity in hiring practices, which was evidenced by the hiring of the NFL's first African American female executive (Adele Harris), first African American contract negotiator (Bob Wallace) and first African American head coach/GM tandem (Dennis Green and Rod Graves). In 2015, the team established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship to increase diversity and provide opportunities to gain NFL coaching experience.

"He didn't care about the color of your skin, race or gender if he felt like you could do the job to the best of your ability to help us become better than you were the right person for it," Larry Fitzgerald said.

At the 2010 annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis, Bidwill was honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL.

ANOTHER SIGNIFICANT WIN IN CINCINNATI

Arizona's Week 5 victory in Cincinnati was the first game following the passing of team owner Bill Bidwill the previous Wednesday (10/2). Bill's father, Charles, purchased the team in 1932 and the first season the Cardinals played under Bidwill ownership was in 1933.

The first victory for the Cards during that 1933 season – which came on October 8th – was a 3-0 win in Cincinnati against the Reds.

On Tuesday (10/8/19) – exactly 86 years after that 1933 victory over the Reds – funeral services were held to honor the life of Bill Bidwill.

"It has been an emotional week," Chairman and President Michael Bidwill said after the victory over the Bengals. "The coaches and players all told me they were going to win it for (Bill Bidwill). It is great to get the win."

AN UNHERALDED COMMUNITY CHAMPION

Bidwill's devotion to the Cardinals and the game of football was matched by his passion for giving back to the community and supporting charitable causes, though he never sought recognition for his consistent and generous donations.

"He valued love, and loyalty and life. All of that came together to manifest itself in his giving," former Cardinals Pro Bowl fullback Ron Wolfley said. "The way that he would give millions and millions of dollars and nobody knew what he was giving so much of the time. He didn't sound the trumpet to let people know what he was doing."

Fitzgerald was inspired by Bidwill's work in the community without seeking the spotlight.

"The thing I really cherished about him was his selflessness and commitment to the community," WR Larry Fitzgerald said. "It was something he was passionate about and he wanted zero fanfare, and I always respected that about him."

STATEMENTS REGARDING THE PASSING OF ARIZONA CARDINALS OWNER BILL BIDWILL

CARDINALS WIDE RECEIVER LARRY FITZGERALD: "The NFL family lost a pioneer today. Bill Bidwill loved the Arizona Cardinals and the great State of Arizona. He paved the way for so many by being on the forefront of giving minorities the opportunity to thrive as coaches and executives in the NFL. He was also a man of quiet generosity giving of his time and resources to make lives better."

NFL COMMISSIONER ROGER GOODELL: "Bill Bidwill was part of the NFL family his entire life, starting from his days as a ball boy through his time as an owner. Although never one to seek the spotlight, Bill had an incredible sense of humor and he made extraordinary contributions to the NFL. Bill's vision brought the Cardinals, the NFL and multiple Super Bowls to Arizona. He was a leader in embracing diversity and employed the first African American female executive, and the first African American general manager and head coach tandem."

PATRIOTS CHAIRMAN AND CEO ROBERT KRAFT: "Bill Bidwill was one of the first owners to reach out to me and welcome me into the league when I bought the Patriots in 1994. He was one of the longest-tenured owners in the league and I always appreciated his historical perspective and his love of the game. When it came to the game of football and the NFL, we were mostly like-minded and aligned. The only thing more important to him than his beloved Cardinals was his family and I know how proud he was of his children."

COWBOYS OWNER, PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER JERRY JONES: "I always viewed Bill as a man who, through his father and his literally growing up with the NFL, was an extension of the founding fathers of the NFL. His leadership and influence contributed greatly to bridging the gap between what the earliest years of our professional game looked like and the growth and massive popularity of what it has become. He had a unique perspective of where the game began and where he thought it needed to go. I enjoyed him as a competitor and a colleague, and regardless of the circumstance, he had a unique gift of humor that not everyone knew about."

GIANTS PRESIDENT AND CEO JOHN MARA: "Bill Bidwill was one of the most important owners in the history of the National Football League. He was a kind and decent man who loved his team and the League. He leaves behind a wonderful family. Bill was someone I greatly admired and respected. I was proud to call him a friend."

BEARS CHAIRMAN GEORGE H. McCASKEY: "One of our family's proudest associations in the NFL is with the Bidwill family. It goes back three generations, and at the heart of it is Bill Bidwill. His sacrifices on behalf of our great game are not properly documented, nor properly appreciated. He was a gracious man, a raconteur, and a great friend."

BUCCANEERS OWNER AND CO-CHAIRMAN BRYAN GLAZER: "Bill Bidwill's life mirrored the growth and success of the Cardinals and the entire National Football League. We have tremendous respect and admiration for the lineage of the Bidwill family ownership dating back to 1932. We send our condolences to his children Nicole, Bill Jr., Michael, Patrick, Timothy, and the Arizona Cardinals and all of Bill's family and friends."

CHIEFS CHAIRMAN AND CEO CLARK HUNT: "As one of the longest tenured owners in professional football, Bill built and cared for his franchise with the utmost passion and integrity. He always put the best interests of the league first and his philanthropy made a lasting impact in communities throughout Arizona."

LIONS OWNER AND CHAIRMAN MARTHA FIRESTONE FORD: "The Lions and Cardinals have always shared a proud bond as two of the NFL's original franchises, and the Bidwill Family holds a treasured place in the history of professional football. His more than 80 years of life as part of the Cardinals organization will be remembered through a legacy marked by countless contributions to our great game."

COLTS OWNER AND CEO JIM IRSAY: "Rest in peace, Bill Bidwill, legendary owner of the Cardinals. Bill was involved with our league since 1932, and was a leader on the initiative of minority front office hiring."

ARIZONA GOV. DOUG DUCEY: "A dad. A husband. A giant of the NFL and an Arizona icon – Bill Bidwill never forgot he was part of our community, and he showed it throughout his long and remarkable life. Bill was passionate about many things, but especially his faith, family and the Cardinals football team he loved so much."

BAKER UNIQUELY PRODUCTIVE AGAINST THE NINERS

Third-year S Budda Baker had one of the most impactful games a player has produced in the NFL this season. In fact, it was a performance so rare it has happened just three times in the last 21 seasons.

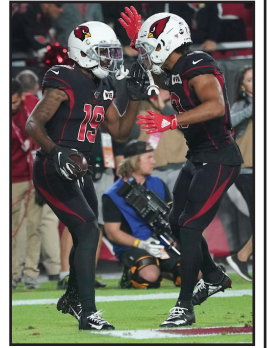

Baker finished the game vs. SF with 13 tackles, two tackles for loss and three passes defended. Since ProFootballReference.com began tracking tackles for loss in 1999, only three players have had 13+ tackles, 2+ tackles for loss and 3+ passes defended in a game.

SOME IMPRESSIVE NUMBERS VS. SF

Facing the NFL's #1 ranked defense and #2 ranked defense in points allowed, the Cardinals put up some impressive numbers against the 49ers on Thursday Night Football in Week 9.

Against the Cardinals offense, the 49ers defense allowed season-high totals in:

Offensive TDs (3); Total Net Yards (357); Yards/Play (7.1); Rushing Yards (153); Yards/Pass Att (7.6).

The Cardinals had three scoring drives in the second half that covered at least 80 yards (85, 88 and 90). In their first seven games this season, the 49ers defense allowed just one scoring drive that covered 80+ yards. Arizona's three second-half scoring drives are the longest three scoring drives allowed by San Francisco in 2019.

- Arizona had more yards in the second half (275) than any of San Francisco's previous five opponents had in an entire game.
- Arizona (Week 9) and Seattle (Week 10) are the only teams to score both on the ground and through the air in a game vs. the 49ers in 2019. The Cardinals had passing TDs of 88 and 9 yards and a rushing TD of four years. San Francisco had gone four straight games without allowing a TD pass before QB Kyler Murray had a pair of TD passes.
- San Francisco had held four consecutive opponents under 4.0 yards per play before Arizona averaged 7.1 on TNF.
- The 49ers had held four consecutive opponents to 100 net yards passing or fewer before Arizona posted 204 net passing yards.
- The Cardinals had the longest pass play (88-yard TD catch by WR Andy Isabella) and second-longest run (36-yarder by Kenyan Drake) against the 49ers defense so far this season.
- Arizona had more passing yards on the Murray-to-Isabella TD (88) than the 49ers had allowed against three of their previous four opponents.

MURRAY TO ISABELLA FOR 88 YARDS

In the fourth quarter of the Week 9 TNF matchup against San Francisco, QB Kyler Murray connected with WR Andy Isabella on an 88-yard TD pass. It was the third-longest rookie-to-rookie TD play in franchise history and the longest since 1958 when QB M.C. Reynolds hit John David Crow for a 91-yard TD.

It was the longest rookie-to-rookie TD pass in the NFL since New England QB Jim Plunkett hit WR Andy Vataha for an 88-yard TD on 12/19/71 at Baltimore.

BY THE NUMBERS

8

Different decades in which Bill Bidwill - who passed away on October 2nd at the age of 88 - was affiliated with the Cardinals. Beginning as a ball boy, he served the franchise in countless fashions - public address announcer, ticket promotions, scouting, advertising, public relations and contract negotiator - in his time with the Cardinals.

11.5

Sacks for LB Chandler Jones this season. Jones is tied with Tampa Bay's Shaquil Barrett for the NFL lead in sacks in 2019. Jones' 11.5 sacks are the most in franchise history through the first 10 games of a season.

5

Forced fumbles for Jones in 2019, which is a new career high. Jones' five forced fumbles - which have all come on "strip-sacks" of opposing QBs - lead the NFL.

52.5

Sacks for Jones in 58 career games with the Cardinals. Since being acquired by Arizona in a trade with New England in 2016, Jones has 7.5 more sacks than any other player in the NFL. Rams DT Aaron Donald ranks second with 45.0.

211

Consecutive passes Murray attempted between the first quarter of Week 4 (vs. Seattle) and the fourth quarter last week (at Tampa Bay) without throwing an INT. That is the longest streak in NFL history by a rookie, surpassing the previous record of 176 (Dak Prescott in 2016 and Derek Carr in 2014). Murray's streak ended with his 39th pass attempt in Tampa Bay last week.

2,553

Passing yards for QB Kyler Murray in 2019. That is a new franchise record for passing yards by a rookie.

351

Rushing yards for Murray in 2019, which is a new franchise record for a rookie QB. Murray (2,553 passing yards; 351 rushing yards) and Cam Newton (2,885 passing yards; 411 rushing yards in 2011) are the only players in NFL history with 2,500+ passing yards and 350+ rushing yards in their first 10 career games.

6

Giveaways for the Cardinals this season, tied with New Orleans for the lowest total in the NFL in 2019. Arizona's six giveaways are the fewest in franchise history through the first 10 games of a season.

138.0

Career sacks for LB Terrell Suggs, who sits alone in ninth place on the NFL's all-time sacks list.

76

Different QBs Suggs has sacked in his career. He has never sacked 49ers QB Jimmy Garoppolo, who he will face at San Francisco on Sunday. With a sack of Garoppolo, Suggs would tie Hall of Famer Reggie White (77) and Julius Peppers (77) for the most QBs sacked in a career.

37

Career forced fumbles for Suggs, the most among active players. Suggs has four forced fumbles this season.

99

Tackles for LB Jordan Hicks through 10 games. Hicks ranks second in the NFL in tackles in 2019 and his 99 tackles are the most for a Cardinals defender through 10 games since LB Ronald McKinnon had 104 in 2000.

6

Games this season in which Hicks has recorded at least 10 tackles. That total leads all NFL defenders in 2019.

48

Career TDs (33 rushing, 14 receiving, 1 KOR) for RB David Johnson, which is the most in franchise history through a player's first five seasons.

90

Points for K Zane Gonzalez in 2019 (24 FG, 18 PAT). The former ASU standout leads the NFL in FGs made (24) and ranks second in the NFL in total points in 2019.

48.6

Punting average for Andy Lee in 2019. That total leads the NFL and is identical to his average in 2018 when he led the NFL and established a new franchise single-season record.

3

Receiving TDs for WR Christian Kirk in last week's game at Tampa Bay. Kirk had as many TD receptions against the Buccaneers (3) as he had in his first 18 career games (3).

11

Seasons it had been since an AZ player posted 130+ receiving yards and at least three TD catches in a game, something Kirk accomplished last week. Prior to Kirk, the last AZ player to accomplish the feat in a game was Anquan Boldin (140 yards, 3 TDs) on 9/14/08 vs. Miami.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN WEEK 11 ...

WITH A WIN THIS WEEK...

- Arizona would improve to 9-1 in their last 10 games against the Niners.
- Arizona would run its winning streak at Levi's Stadium to five in a row and improve to 5-1 all-time at the venue.
- QB Kyler Murray would tie the franchise record for wins by a rookie QB (4) and become the first rookie in team history with three road wins.

MILESTONES WITHIN REACH

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- With a reception, Fitzgerald would have at least one catch in 238 consecutive games, the second-longest reception streak in NFL history (Jerry Rice - 274).
- With 100+ receiving yards, Fitzgerald would have 12 career 100-yard outings against the 49ers. That would represent a new NFL record for 100-yard receiving performances against a single opponent.

QB Kyler Murray

- With three TD passes, Murray would tie the franchise record for TD passes by a rookie. The current record of 15 was set by Jake Plummer in 1997.
- With 300 passing yards, Murray (5) would join Andrew Luck (6 in 2012) as the only players in NFL history with at least five 300-yard outings during their rookie season.

LB Terrell Suggs

- With a sack, Suggs (139.0) would pass DeMarcus Ware (138.5) for 8th place on the NFL's all-time sacks list.
- A sack of 49ers QB Jimmy Garoppolo would make him the 77th different QB Suggs has sacked in his career. Suggs would tie Hall of Famer Reggie White (77) and Julius Peppers (77) for the most QBs sacked in a career.

LB Chandler Jones

- With a sack, Jones would have 12.5 sacks in 2019. That would tie for the ninth-best single-season total in franchise history. It would also give him at least 12.0 sacks in each of the last three seasons.

RB David Johnson

- With a receiving TD, Johnson would become just the fifth player in NFL history with 30+ rushing TDs and 15+ receiving TDs in their first five NFL seasons.

WR Christian Kirk

- With a receiving TD, Kirk would establish a new career high with four TD receptions in 2019. It would also give him three TD catches in four career games against the 49ers.

A TRUE DUAL THREAT AT QUARTERBACK

In addition to his franchise rookie record 2,553 passing yards this season, Murray also has 351 rushing yards in 2019. That is the most for a rookie QB in franchise history and it also places him in elite company among rookie signal callers in league history.

Murray joins Cam Newton (2011) as the only players in NFL history with 2,500+ passing yards and 350+ rushing yards in their first 10 career games.

Despite being in his first season, Murray has been the key to the Cardinals significantly improved offense in 2019. His statistics this season bear out just how much the Cardinals have relied on their rookie signal-caller this season. He has:

360 pass attempts (2nd in the NFL)

230 completions (tied for 2nd in the NFL)

2,553 passing yards (8th in the NFL)

59 rush attempts (3rd among starting QBs)

351 rushing yards (2nd among starting QBs)

2 rushing TDs (8th among starting QBs)

Murray (360 pass attempts; 59 rushes) is the only QB in the NFL this season with 350+ pass attempts and at least 50 rushing attempts.

MAKING A RUN FOR IT

Murray has 351 rushing yards in 2019. That is the third-highest total in franchise history by a QB and has established a new franchise rookie record for rushing yards by a QB (Bud Schwenk - 313 in 1942 - held previous mark).

CARDS TAKE MURRAY #1 OVERALL

Holding the #1 overall selection in the NFL Draft for just the fifth time in franchise history - and first time since 1958 - the Cardinals took Murray with the top pick this past April.

A STAR IS BORN AT OKLAHOMA

After starting his college career at Texas A&M in 2015, Murray played two seasons at Oklahoma (2017-18). In his first season with the Sooners in 2017, Murray backed up Heisman Trophy winner and 2018 #1 overall pick Baker Mayfield.

Murray took over in 2018, starting 13 of 14 games and completing 260-of-377 pass attempts (69.0%) for 4,361 yards, 42 TDs and just seven INTs while also rushing for 1,001 yards and 12 TDs on 140 carries (7.2 avg.).

Below is a look at what Murray accomplished with the Sooners in 2018:

• Became the first FBS player ever to average at least 300 passing yards (311.5) and at least 60 rushing yards (71.5) per game for a full season.

• Joined Clemson's Deshaun Watson (2015) as the only FBS players to ever record at least 4,000 passing yards and at least 1,000 rushing yards in a season.

If he reaches 17.0 sacks in 2019, only Reggie White (3) and J.J. Watt (3) would have more seasons with 17.0 sacks than Jones (2).

If he has 5.0 more sacks in 2019, he would have 93.5 for his career. Only five players in NFL history would have more in their first eight seasons.

THE MURRAY-TO-KIRK TD CONNECTION IS REVIVED

ISABELLA COMING ON STRONG

Rookie WR Andy Isabella - selected by the Cardinals in the second round (62nd overall) in the 2019 NFL Draft - finished last week's game in Tampa with a career-high three receptions for 78 yards.

After not being targeted at all in the first seven games this season, Isabella has been targeted six times in the last three games and has six receptions for 174 yards (29.0 avg.) and a TD in that span.

BIG-PLAY RECEIVERS IN THE SECOND ROUND

In his senior year at Mayfield (OH) High School, Isabella made waves nationally in track, when his 60-meter time (6.72) was the fastest in the country. That speed provides Isabella with big-play potential, which has been on display over the past two games with catch-and-runs that covered 88 and 55 yards.

Isabella is one of three rookies in the NFL this season that have multiple receptions of 50+ yards. All three were selected in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft - and were all taken in a span of 14 picks.

After leading the NFL in punting average for the second time in his career in 2018, Lee has finished in the top-10 in punting average in 12 of his 15 full NFL seasons.

Lee owns team records for punting average in a season with both the Cardinals and 49ers (50.9 yards in 2011), and he owns the top two single-season punting averages for the Cardinals.

EXPANDING HIS RESUME WITH FIRST CAREER COMPLETION

Entering last week's game at Tampa Bay, Lee had attempted two passes in his NFL career - one during the regular season and one in the postseason. His last pass attempt was in 2014 and he had never completed a pass.

That all changed at Raymond James Stadium when Lee connected with WR Pharoah Cooper for a 26-yard completion on a fake punt midway through the fourth quarter.

The pass came on a 4th-n-10 play from the AZ 36-yard line with the Cardinals trailing the Bucs 23-20. Following the successful fake punt, Arizona scored on a Christian Kirk TD catch two plays later that gave the Cardinals a 27-23 lead.

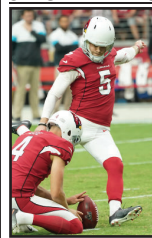

Lee became the first Cards punter to complete a pass since Dirk Johnson threw a 10-yard completion to Jerame Tuman on 10/26/08 at Carolina.

AWARD-WINNING CARDINALS

The Cardinals have had two players win NFC Player of the Week and one player named NFC Player of the Month so far this season.

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE MONTH (OCTOBER) - K ZANE GONZALEZ

Gonzalez was named "NFC Special Teams Player of the Month" for his performance in October (Weeks 5-8). During Arizona's three-game winning streak (Weeks 5-7) in October, Gonzalez made 8-of-9 field goals and all nine PATs in games the Cardinals won by a combined 10 points. In Arizona's Week 5 victory at Cincinnati, Gonzalez tied his single-game career high with four field goals, including a 31-yarder as time expired to give Arizona a 26-23 win. It was Gonzalez's second career game-winning field goal.

Gonzalez is the first Cardinals Player of the Month selection since 2017 when linebacker Chandler Jones won the defensive award in December. He becomes the first "Special Teams Player of the Month" since Justin Bethel was honored in December of 2014.

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK (WEEK 6) - QB KYLER MURRAY

Murray had the best game of his young career in the Cardinals victory over the Falcons in Week 6. He completed 27-of-37 pass attempts (72.9%) for 340 yards, 3 TDs, 0 INTs and a 128.2 passer rating. His completion percentage, TD total and passer rating were all career highs.

Murray became just the second Cardinals rookie ever to be chosen as "NFC Offensive Player of the Week" and the first since RB Ronald Moore in 1993 (Weeks 14 & 17).

Murray became the ninth rookie in team history to be selected as NFC Player of the Week and the first since David Johnson (Special Teams, Week 2) in 2015.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK (WEEK 7) - LB CHANDLER JONES

Jones was named the "NFC Defensive Player of the Week" for his performance in Arizona's 27-21 victory over the Giants, when he totaled a career-high 4.0 sacks, three tackles for loss, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. He became just the fifth NFL player since 2000 with 4.0 sacks, a forced fumble and fumble recovery in a game.

It was Jones' third career "Defensive Player of the Week" selection and his second with the Cardinals after winning the award last year in a Week 5 victory over the 49ers.

PHYSICAL PRESENCE IN SECONDARY

Third-year S Budda Baker delivered perhaps the best three-game stretch of his young career in Weeks 8-10, totaling 38 tackles, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and a fumble recovery during that span.

He matched a single-game career high with 14 tackles – including one for loss – against the Saints, and followed that performance with 13 tackles, two for loss and three passes defended on Thursday Night Football against the 49ers.

Last week against the Buccaneers, he collected 11 more tackles, deflected two passes (one was intercepted by LB Jordan Hicks) and recovered a QB Jameis Winston fumble.

Through Week 10, Baker leads all NFL DBs and ranks fourth overall with 86 tackles, according to official league statistics.

In 2018, he moved into the starting lineup and totaled 107 tackles, eight tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks, four QB hits, two passes defended, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries (one returned 36 yards for his first career TD).

MURPHY IMPRESSING IN ROOKIE YEAR

With the Cardinals top-two cornerbacks absent to start the season, rookie CB Byron Murphy Jr. was pressed into action early and has started all 10 games for Arizona this season.

He is one of just three rookie defenders in the NFL to start 10 games in 2019, joining Chiefs S Juan Thornhill and Giants DL Dexter Lawrence.

CARDS JOIN NFL TO CELEBRATE 100TH SEASON

The NFL is celebrating its 100th season in 2019. As the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence, the Cardinals hold a unique place in league history.

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 as the Morgan Athletic Club, predating the formation of the NFL by over 20 years. By the time the NFL was founded in 1920 as the American Professional Football Association (APFA), the team was known as the Racine Cardinals when it became one of the 14 charter members of the upstart league after paying a $100 franchise fee. Today, the Cardinals and Chicago Bears represent the only two charter members of the NFL still in existence.

In 1932, Hall of Fame owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., then a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals. After divesting himself of his Bears' holdings, that began a period of family ownership that continues to this day.

In 2019, the Cardinals have joined the NFL in celebrating 100 years of play with a year-long series of "NFL 100" events, initiatives and programs celebrating fans, players and communities.

The historic and unprecedented celebration is a salute to the millions of fans who love the game; highlighting the unifying nature of football and its positive impact in communities; bringing together generations of past, present and future players; and looking ahead to the NFL's next 100 years.

CARDS A MEMBER OF NFL'S TWO OLDEST RIVALRIES

Having met twice during the NFL's inaugural season in 1920, the Cardinals and Bears represent the oldest rivalry in league history. The Cardinals and Packers – who joined the league in 1921 – are the NFL's second-oldest rivalry. The Packers were formed in 1919 by Earl (Curly) Lambeau and George Calhoun but did not gain entry into the APFA until 1921.

1920 Racine Cardinals

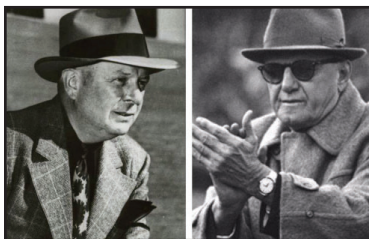

- The Cards and Bears have faced each other 90 times during the regular season, dating back to 1920.
- The first-ever meeting between the Cardinals and Bears – then known as the Racine Cardinals and Decatur Staleys – occurred at Normal Park in Chicago on November 28th, 1920, exactly 72 days after the league was conceived as the APFA during a meeting in Canton, OH. In that game, the Cardinals defeated the Staleys 7-6 at Normal Park.
- The first meeting between the Cardinals and Packers (a 3-3 tie) occurred on November 20, 1921 at Normal Park in Chicago. The following week (November 27, 1921), the Packers and Bears met for the first time.

FRIENDSHIP OF THE HALL OF FAME OWNERS

Cardinals Hall of Fame owner Charles Bidwill and Bears Hall of Fame owner George Halas had a friendship that endured even as their team's were cross-town rivals during their shared time in Chicago.

At one point during the Great Depression, that friendship helped save Halas' ownership of the Bears.

In 1931, Halas' co-owner Edward "Dutch" Sternaman proposed being bought out of his stake in the Bears for $38,000, which was to be paid in installments. After suffering $18,000 in losses during the 1932 season, Halas was $15,000 short when the final payment was due in 1933. Defaulting on the payment meant ownership would revert to Sternaman.

"It was a case of finding $15,000 in a hurry, or losing everything I'd worked for since moving the Staleys from Decatur to Chicago in 1921," Halas wrote in 1967 in a history of the Bears published in the Chicago Tribune. "From this desperate situation, I was rescued by the joint efforts of my mother and my good friend Charley Bidwill. Mother bought $5,000 worth of stock from her savings. Bidwill purchased $5,000 in stock and also arranged a bank loan for the remaining $5,000 needed. But it was a mighty close call. As I remember, I finally got all the money together at 11:10 a.m. on the day the final note came due. Forfeit time was 12 o'clock noon."

A HISTORY OF BEING THE FIRST

In addition to being the oldest professional football team in the country, the Cardinals also have a long history of serving as a pioneer in the sport - both on and off the playing field.

DIVERSITY

1st Female Owner in NFL History: Following the 1947 death of Cardinals owner and Pro Football HOFer Charles Bidwill, his wife Violet oversaw operations of the franchise for the next 15 years. As such, she became the first female to serve as principal owner in NFL history and is believed to be the first female owner in American pro sports.

Violet Bidwill

1st African American Female Executive in NFL History:

Adele Harris spent 26 seasons with the franchise before retiring in 2001. She holds the distinction of being the first African American female to hold a front office position with an NFL team. Harris first worked as a secretary for the St. Louis Football Cardinals from 1971-74. She left the club to pursue a degree in business management and returned to the team in 1978 as a publicity assistant. By 1980, Harris became the team's director of community relations, and was instrumental in the team's civic efforts when it relocated to Arizona in 1988. Harris passed away in November of 2007.

1st African American to Handle Contract Negotiations for NFL Team: In 1981, the team hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club.

1st African American Head Coach/General Manager Tandem: In 2004, the Cardinals hired Dennis Green as the team's head coach. Joining General Manager Rod Graves, they became the first African American general manager/head coach pairing. Hired by Arizona in 1997 as Assistant to the President, Graves spent 16 seasons with the organization, including the last six years at the team's GM.

1st Female Coach in NFL History: In 2015, the Cardinals hired Jen Welter as a coaching intern for training camp and the preseason to work with inside linebackers, making her the first female coach of any kind in NFL history.

INTERNATIONAL PLAY

1st NFL Game Outside of North America: The most popular sport in the United States played before an international audience for the first time ever when the Cardinals and San Diego Chargers met for a preseason matchup at Korakuen Stadium in Tokyo, Japan. On August 16, 1976 the Cardinals defeated the Chargers 20-10 before an estimated crowd of 38,000.

1st NFL Game in Europe: On August 6, 1983 the Cardinals faced the Minnesota Vikings in a preseason matchup at Wembley Stadium in London. The Vikings defeated the Cardinals 28-10 in front of 32,847 fans at the landmark event.

1st NFL Regular Season Game Played Outside United States: On October 2, 2005 the Cardinals earned a 17-point come-from-behind victory over the San Francisco 49ers in a game played in front of a then-record crowd of 103,467 at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca. It was the first NFL regular season game ever played outside of the US.

FOOTBALL FIRSTS

1st Night Game in NFL History:

On November 6, 1929 the Providence Steamrollers became the first team to host a game at night using floodlights in a matchup against the Cardinals. That night contest also featured the first use of a football painted white during an actual game. With fan attendance crucial to generate revenue, the game was played in the evening rather than during the workday. The minor league baseball field of Kinsley Park was adorned with floodlights and the Cards earned a 16-0 victory over the Steamrollers.

NFL's 1st Night Game - 11/6/29

1st Out of Town Training Camp: Prior to the 1929 season, the Cardinals conducted what is believed to be the NFL's first extended out-of-town training camp when the team spent the summer at Waterworks Park in Coldwater, Michigan.

1st Indoor NFL Game: With the country struggling through the Great Depression in late 1930, the Chicago Cardinals challenged the cross-town Bears to play a game to raise money for the governor's fund for unemployment relief. To battle the freezing temperatures the teams agreed to play at Chicago Stadium, then the largest indoor arena in the world. On December 15, 1930 the Bears earned a 9-7 victory in front of 10,000 fans. Six inches of dirt were hauled in and rolled for a playing surface, forcing the teams to use a white ball to increase visibility for both the players and fans. In addition to raising thousands of dollars for charity, it was a precursor to the 1932 championship when the Bears played for the NFL title in the same venue against the Portsmouth Spartans.

1st Retractable Grass Field in NFL History: When the Cardinals opened their new stadium in 2006, the venue broke the mold in terms of design and architecture. Among its most unique features is a fully retractable grass playing surface that resides outside the stadium for 300+ days a year and rolls in when needed. The first of its kind in NFL history, the stadium's grass playing surface has consistently ranked #1 in surveys of the league's players.

ELEVATING A FRANCHISE

The 2019 season is the 13th since Michael Bidwill took over as team President in 2007. His leadership during that time has been instrumental in transforming the franchise both on and off the field.

Highlights of Bidwill's tenure:

- Leading the list of Bidwill's accomplishments with the Cardinals is the creation of State Farm Stadium. Since it opened in 2006, the team has sold out all 141 games (preseason and postseason included) played at the venue, which has also hosted a pair of Super Bowls.

- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land Super Bowls XLII and XLIX, he led the effort to land Super Bowl LVII (2023) in the spring of 2018. Michael was instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl moved to Arizona; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX and the 2015 Pro Bowl combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.

- Of the Cardinals seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Bidwill's 12 years as team president. Arizona has played in nine postseason contests since Bidwill took over in 2007.

- AZ has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice during Bidwill's time as president (2008, 2015), including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).

- Arizona's 50 wins between 2013-17 were the most in any five-year span in franchise history.

- In January of 2016, the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame inducted Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame.

- In January of 2018, Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee.

- In January of 2019, Michael received the Paul Tagliabue Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance for demonstrating integrity and leadership in the area of career development for minorities and advocating for diversity.

IT GETS LOUD IN THERE

Having a sellout crowd on hand every game has given Arizona one of the NFL's most distinct home field advantages.

Dating back to the inaugural year at State Farm Stadium in 2006, Cards opponents have accumulated 176 accepted false start penalties in the regular season. That is the most for any home team in the NFL during that span.

THE KINGSBURY ERA BEGINS IN ARIZONA

TAKING THE REINS

On January 8, 2019 the Cardinals announced the hiring of Kliff Kingsbury as the team's head coach.

The 40-year old Kingsbury spent the past six seasons (2013-18) as the head coach at his alma mater, Texas Tech, and was hired as USC's offensive coordinator in December. The New Braunfels, TX native is an 11-year coaching veteran who has also worked at Texas A&M (2012) and at the University of Houston (2008-11) where he began his coaching career.

Recognized as one of the profession's brightest and most-innovative offensive minds, Kingsbury has tutored six future NFL QBs, including first-round selections Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield and Johnny Manziel as well as Case Keenum, Davis Webb and Nic Shimonek. Under Kingsbury's guidance, Mahomes (2016) and Keenum (2009, '11) both led the nation in passing.

Highlights from Kingsbury's Coaching Career

- While at Texas Tech, Kingsbury served as the play-caller for one of college football's most explosive and productive offenses. The Red Raiders featured a passing attack that ranked in the top-10 in the country in all six seasons of his tenure, ranked in the top-20 nationally for total offense in all six seasons and finished in the top-25 in scoring five times.
- Under Kingsbury, Texas Tech averaged at least 30 points per game, 470 total yards per game and 300 passing yards per game in all six seasons. The Red Raiders averaged more than 500 yards of offense in four seasons and over 450 passing yards twice. They also averaged at least 140 rushing yards per game four times in six seasons under Kingsbury and averaged more than 40 points per game twice.
- At both Houston (2011) and Texas Tech (2016) Kingsbury's offenses led the nation in total offense and passing offense.
- Dating back to his first offensive coordinator job at Houston in 2011, a Kingsbury-led offense never finished outside the top-20 in the nation in total offense and never finished outside the top-15 in passing offense.
- In 2016, Texas Tech led the nation in total offense (566.6 ypg) and passing offense (463.0 ypg) while finishing #5 in scoring (43.7 ppg). It was the sixth consecutive season a Kingsbury-led unit finished in the top-10 in total offense dating back to his time at both Houston and Texas A&M.
- In 2015, the Red Raiders finished #2 in the nation in total offense (579.5 ypg), #2 in scoring offense (45.1 ppg) and had the nation's second ranked passing offense (388.2 ypg). The 45.1 points per game average established a school single-season record and Texas Tech was one of just two schools in the nation to score at least 25 points in every game. The Red Raiders featured a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in school history.
- With Kingsbury serving as co-offensive coordinator in 2011, Houston led the nation in total offense (599.1 ypg), passing offense (450.1 ypg) and scoring (49.3 ppg) as quarterback Case Keenum finished his collegiate career as the most prolific passer in NCAA FBS history.

Kingsbury spent the 2012 season at Texas A&M as offensive coordinator/QBs coach working under current University of Arizona head coach Kevin Sumlin. Texas A&M finished third nationally in total offense (558.5 ypg) with an attack that finished 13th nationally in rushing (242.1 ypg) and 14th in passing (316.5 ypg). The Aggies beat #1 Alabama on the road and #11 Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl.

Kingsbury began his coaching career at the University of Houston under Sumlin as the offensive quality control coach (2008-09) prior to being elevated to QBs coach (2010) and then co-offensive coordinator in 2011.

Kingsbury played QB at Texas Tech (1999-2002) where he set 39 school records, 16 Big 12 marks and 17 NCAA records during his collegiate career while throwing for 12,423 yards and 95 TDs. As a senior in 2012, he was awarded the Sammy Baugh Trophy as the nation's top college QB and was also named the Associated Press Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year while finishing ninth in Heisman Trophy voting.

He was drafted in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by New England in 2003 and spent his rookie season on the Patriots injured reserve list before spending the 2004 season on the Saints practice squad. Kingsbury played in one game with the Jets in 2005 and attended training camp with the Bills in 2006. He also played with the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe in 2006 before playing with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 2007.

In 2018, Kingsbury was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame. He played high school football under his father, Tim, at New Braunfels (TX) High School where he threw for more than 3,000 yards and 34 TDs as a senior.

HIGH POWERED OFFENSES

During his eight seasons as an offense coordinator/head coach at the college level (2011 w/Houston through 2018 w/Texas Tech), Kingsbury's offenses averaged 40.3 points/game. During his six seasons at Texas Tech (2013-18), the Red Raiders averaged 37.8 points/game.

After joining the coaching ranks with the University of Houston in 2008, Kliff Kingsbury mentored six future NFL QBs during his coaching tenure: Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield, Johnny Manziel, Case Keenum, Davis Webb and Nic Shimonek. ### Mahomes (Texas Tech)

Under Kingsbury's tutelage, Mahomes spent two full seasons (2015-16) as the starter at Texas Tech. In those two years the Red Raiders finished #2 (2015) and #1 (2016) in the nation in total offense while Mahomes threw for a combined 9,705 yards and 77 TDs in 25 starts.

As a sophomore in 2015, Mahomes became the youngest QB in NCAA history to amass 5,000 yards of total offense. He eclipsed the 5,000-yard mark again in 2016, becoming just the third quarterback ever to record 5,000+ yards of total offense in back-to-back seasons.

Keenum (Univ. of Houston)

Kingsbury began his coaching career at the University of Houston where he was a quality control coach from 2008-09 before being promoted to QBs coach in 2010 and co-offensive coordinator in 2011.
