- Washington aims to improve to 21-12-1 against the 49ers all-time
- Washington aims to win four consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 3-6 of 2016 and three consecutive road games for the first time since 2015.

Last Game (23-17 W at PIT)

- Washington earned its first win at Heinz Field and first win over Pittsburgh since Nov. 17, 1991, snapping a six-game losing streak.
- Washington overcame its largest deficit to win over Pittsburgh in series history, second behind a 12-point comeback at Pittsburgh on Sept. 25, 1966.
- Washington came back from a 14-point deficit, the second comeback win of 14-plus points this season.
- Washington defeated an undefeated team through at least six weeks for the first time since doing so in 1975 against the 10-0 Minnesota Vikings and for the sixth time in franchise history.
- Washington has won in three consecutive contests for the first time since Weeks 6-8 of 2018.
- Washington scored at least 20 points for the sixth-straight game, the longest streak since Weeks 8-14 of the 2016 season.
- Washington has registered 300-plus total yards in 10 out of 12 games this season, its first time doing so 2016.
- Washington committed zero turnovers for the fifth time this season.
- Washington held Pittsburgh to its lowest single-game rushing mark (21) since Nov. 26, 2006 (21).
- Washington notched eight passes defensed, tying a single-game season-high.
- Washington won by its largest margin of victory away at an AFC opponent since defeating the Baltimore Ravens 16-10 on Oct. 9, 2016.

OFFENSE

QB Alex Smith

- Quarterback Alex Smith completed 31-of-46 passes for 296 yards, a touchdown and a season-high 92.3 passer rating against Pittsburgh in Week 13.
- Smith threw a touchdown for the third-consecutive game, the first time doing so since 2018. He also tied Ken Anderson for 47th place on the NFL's all-time passing touchdown list.
- In Week 13, Smith cracked 1,000 passing yards for the 12th time in his career.
- Smith completed over 68 percent of his passes for the fourth-straight game from Weeks 9-12, tying the second longest streak in franchise history (Sonny Jurgensen, 1969; Harry Gilmer, 1952). His personal record is seven games from 2016-17 for Kansas City.
- He joined the 35K club and passes Jay Cutler (35,431) for No. 28 on the NFL's all-time passing yards list.
- In Week 10, Smith set career-highs in completions (38), attempts (55) and passing yards (390).

co Murray, Emmitt Smith (twice) and Barry Sanders as the only NFL players to do so in the past 40 years, according to NFL Research.

» Gibson became the first rookie to score three touchdowns on Thanksgiving since Randy Moss in 1998 and the first player with 100-plus rushing yards and three-plus rushing touchdowns on Thanksgiving since Barry Sanders in 1997, according to STATS.

» Gibson joins Alfred Morris as the only two players in Washington history to register 11-plus touchdowns and 800-plus scrimmage yards in their rookie season.

» Gibson rushed for a career-high 128 yards against Dallas in Week 7, the most rushing yards against Dallas in a single game since 2012 and the second-most by a rookie running back against Dallas in franchise history [Alfred Morris - 200 rushing yards in 2012].

» Gibson [11] took sole possession of second place in most rushing touchdowns by a rookie in franchise history behind Alfred Morris [13].

» Gibson is the only rookie running back this season to record two multi-touchdown games.

» Gibson moves into 10th place all-time in rookie running back rushing yards in franchise history.

» Gibson is the fourth rookie in franchise history to post multiple games with two-plus rushing touchdowns [Alfred Morris, Robert Griffin III and Skip Hicks].

» Gibson has 892 yards from scrimmage through 12-career games, fourth-most in Washington franchise history.

» Gibson has 32 receptions through 12-career games, which is fifth-most in franchise history through a running back's first 11 games.

» Gibson is the one of two rookies in franchise history to have at least 30 career receptions and 135 rushing attempts through 12-career games, joining Michael Thomas.

» Gibson's 233 receiving yards rank sixth amongst running backs all-time through 12-career games in Washington franchise history.

» Gibson's 40-yard run in the first quarter against Dallas in Week 7 was the longest rush of the season for Washington, and the first rushing play of 40-plus yards since Dec. 1, 2019 against the Panthers.

» Gibson scored for a fifth-straight game in Week 12, tying Charlie Brown [1982] for most games in a row with a touchdown by a rookie.

» Gibson is the only rookie in franchise history to have a rushing touchdown in five straight games. He joins Nick Chubb, Todd Gurley, and Maurice Jones-Drew as the only NFL rookies to do so since 2000.

» In Week 4, Gibson recorded the most receiving yards by a running back in a single-game since Chris Thompson recorded 92 receiving yards against Indianapolis in Week 2 of the 2018 season in Week 4.

» In Week 4, Gibson became the second Washington rookie to record 80-plus yards receiving and 45-plus yards rushing in a single-game since 2000 and the first since 2015 [Matt Jones].

» Gibson's 40-yard reception in Week 4 was tied for the 18th longest by a running back in franchise history. It was the fifth-longest by a rookie running back in franchise history.

» Gibson's 40-yard reception in Week 4 was the longest by a running back since Derrius Guice's 45-yard touchdown reception against the New York Jets last season.

» Gibson has 282YAC this season, the 11th-most among all running backs.

RB J.D. McKissic

» Has tallied a career-high 56 receptions and 639 scrimmage yards so far this season.

» Scored his first touchdown since 2017 in Week 10 against the Lions.

» Has registered 331 yards after catch this season, the sixth-most among running backs this season. His 56 receptions and 408 receiving yards are the second-most among running backs this season.

» His 10 receptions in Week 13 tied for the fifth-most by a running back in a game in Washington history.

DEFENSE

DT Jonathan Allen

» Has recorded 2.0 sacks on the season and has 17.0 sacks in 47 games in his career.

» Allen notched a safety against Dallas in Week 7, the first for Washington since Jan. 10, 2016.

» Allen appeared in 15 games, all starts, in 2019.

» Allen finished last season with a career-high 68 total tackles. He also tallied seven tackles for loss and six sacks.

DE Ryan Kerrigan

» DE Ryan Kerrigan [95.5] tallied 2.0 sacks and added a fumble recovery in Week 1. He passed Dexter Manley [91.0] as the all-time franchise leader in sacks, since the stat became official in 1982.

» Since 2011, Kerrigan has registered 39.5 sacks, nine forced fumbles and 48 TFL against the NFC East, which all rank as the most among any NFC East player.

» Kerrigan became the fourth member of the 2011 draft class to set his franchise's sack record, joining Von Miller, J.J. Watt and Cameron Jordan.

» Kerrigan's 95.5 sacks are tied for 44th-most in NFL history.

» Kerrigan has 18 games with two or more sacks, the second-most in franchise history behind only Dexter Manley's 23.

DE Montez Sweat

» Sweat has six total sacks this season, currently the most on the team.

» Sweat became the second defensive end in Washington history to record three passes defensed and a tackle for loss in a single game, joining Anthony Lanier (2017).

WE ARE 'NOTE' WORTHY

» Sweat intercepted a pass for a 15-yard touchdown in Week 12 against Dallas. It was the first of his career interception of his career, and he became the first player for Washington to do so since Bashaud Breeland on Dec. 10, 2017.

» Sweat's 26 quarterback hits are tied for second-most through 28-career games in Washington franchise history.

» Sweat is the first player for Washington to have a sack and a forced fumble in a game since Ryan Anderson in Week 15 of 2019.

» Sweat has tallied eight TFL, tied for the ninth-most among defensive ends this season.

» Sweat's 16.0 tackles for loss are the fourth-most through 28-career games in Washington history.

DE Chase Young

» Young's seven tackles for loss are tied for second-most through 11-career games in Washington franchise history.

» Per Pro Football Reference, Young's 4.5 sacks is tied for sixth-most sacks through the first 11 games of a player's career in franchise history.

» Young was the highest graded defensive rookie by Pro Football Focus in Week 6.

CB Kendall Fuller

» Fuller intercepted passes in three consecutive games for the first time in his career. He currently has four interceptions on the season. He has tied his single-season career-high with four INT's (also, 2017).

» Fuller is currently tied for fourth in the league with four interceptions.

» In Week 4, Fuller had two interceptions and two passes defensed. It was his first-career multi-interception game and his first interception since picking off QB Jimmy Garoppolo in Super Bowl LIV.

» Fuller was the first player to intercept two passes in a single game for Washington since CB Fabian Moreau (11/24/19) vs. DET).

» Fuller was the first player to intercept Ravens QB Lamar Jackson this season.

GAME-BY-GAME

Sunday's matchup between Washington and San Francisco will mark the 34th overall meeting between the two clubs, including four postseason contests. Washington met San Francisco en route to their third Super Bowl appearance in 1984.

San Francisco leads the overall series 21-11-1, winning the first meeting 23-17 in 1952.

Washington aims to win its first matchup since 2017, when it ended a four-game losing streak to the 49ers.

THE OPPONENT

LAST GAME [L, 34-24 VS. BAL]

GLENDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Josh Allen threw for 375 yards, tied a career high with four touchdown passes and the Buffalo Bills stayed in sole possession of first place in the AFC East with a 34-24 victory over the San Francisco 49ers on Monday night.

Buffalo (9-3) moved a step closer to winning its division for the first time since 1995 thanks to a nearly flawless performance from Allen. The 24-year-old quarterback was stellar against the 49ers, completing 32 of 40 passes with no interceptions.

He threw touchdown passes to Cole Beasley, Dawson Knox, Isaiah McKenzie and Gabriel Davis as the Bills built a 17-7 halftime lead and controlled the majority of the second half.

The Bills are one game ahead of the Miami Dolphins with four games left for both teams.

San Francisco (5-7) lost in its first game at its adopted home in Arizona. The 49ers will be based in Glendale for at least the next three weeks after Santa Clara County issued strict new coronavirus protocols that forced the team to find a temporary new home.

It was Allen's fourth game of the season with at least 300 yards passing and three touchdowns, which set a franchise record. Jim Kelly did it three times in 1991 and Drew Bledsoe three times in 2002.

The Bills had a much more pleasant trip to the desert than three weeks ago, when they lost a 32-30 heartbreaker to the Arizona Cardinals. That was the game when DeAndre Hopkins made a stunning catch over three Buffalo defenders with 2 seconds left for the game-winning score.

San Francisco has had several recent injuries at its slot cornerback position and struggled to cover Beasley, who had a career-high 130 yards receiving on nine catches.

State Farm Stadium — which is home to the division-rival Arizona Cardinals — was dressed up to make the 49ers feel slightly more at home. There were San Francisco banners hanging on the walls along the sidelines and the videoboard showed Niners highlights and flashed messages like "Faithful to the Bay."

The teams traded goal-line stands in the first quarter.

The Bills opened the game with a 74-yard drive that was stopped at the Niners 1 after Allen's fourth-down pass fell incomplete. San Francisco responded with a 97-yard drive that ended at the Buffalo 2 when Jeff Wilson Jr. was stuffed for no gain on fourth down.

It was just the second game since 2000 that featured two turnovers on downs to start a game.

But San Francisco got the ball back one play later on a fumble by Allen and the 49ers took advantage. Nick Mullens hit Brandon Aiyuk in the middle of the end zone for a 2-yard touchdown.

It was all Buffalo for the rest of the first half and much of the game. Allen hit Beasley for a 5-yard touchdown and later found tight end Knox for a 4-yard score as the Bills pushed ahead 17-7 by halftime.

Mullens finished 26-of-39 passing for 316 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions.

HEAD COACH

Kyle Shanahan was named the 20th head coach of the San Francisco 49ers on February 6, 2017. Shanahan signed a multi-year contract extension with the 49ers on June 15, 2020.

In 2019, he was named Coach of the Year by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 after leading the 49ers to a 13-3 regular season record, the NFC West Division Title and an appearance in Super Bowl LIV. San Francisco's nine-win improvement from 2018 to 2019 was the largest win improvement from one season to the next in franchise history. The 49ers became one of three teams since the NFL switched to a 12-team playoff format in 1990 to finish 4-12 or worse one season followed by earning the number one seed in its conference the next season (1999 St. Louis Rams & 2016 Dallas Cowboys).

Prior to being named head coach of the 49ers, Shanahan had 15 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09). In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), Shanahan directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained.

Shanahan joined the Falcons after spending 2014 as offensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns. That year, his offense averaged 324.6 total yards and 108.0 rushing yards per game. Under Shanahan's direction, RBs Isaiah Crowell and Terrance West combined to rush for 1,280 yards on 319 carries (4.0 average), while WR Andrew Hawkins posted career highs in receptions (63) and receiving yards (824).

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, Shanahan spent four seasons (2010-13) as offensive coordinator of Washington. In 2013, Washington finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (369.7) and fifth in rushing yards per game (135.3). Second-year QB Robert Griffin III threw for 16 touchdowns and a career-high 3,203 passing yards, while WR Pierre Garçon set a franchise record and led the NFL with 113 receptions for a career-high 1,346 yards. RB Alfred Morris also rushed for 1,200-or-more yards for the second-consecutive season (1,275).

Before joining Washington, Shanahan spent four seasons (2006-09) with the Houston Texans, including the final two as the team's offensive coordinator. He broke into the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2004 where he served as an offensive quality control coach for two seasons (2004-05). His first coaching experience came as a graduate assistant at UCLA in 2003.

Born December 14, 1979, in Minneapolis, MN, Shanahan played wide receiver at Duke University before transferring to the University of Texas in 2000, where he spent two seasons. He and his wife, Mandy, have three children – Stella, Carter and Lexi. Shanahan's father, Mike, who served as the 49ers offensive coordinator from 1992-94, was the head coach of the Denver Broncos (1995-2008) and Washington (2010-13), where he accumulated an overall win total of 178 victories (eight postseason), including victories in Super Bowls XXXII and XXXIII.

RIVERA STRONG

Washington players and staff supported Head Coach Ron Rivera and his battle with squamous cell carcinoma last Sunday, wearing "Rivera Strong apparel as well as compiling a "Coach's Corner which was a number of cardboard cutouts from various players, coaches who have worked with Coach Rivera, as well as his friends and family. Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, took a visit to the corner prior to the game against the Ravens. Here is a look at the pregame scene:

RYAN KERRIGAN
FRANCHISE SACKS LEADER

In Week 1 of the 2020 NFL season, DE Ryan Kerrigan recorded 2.0 sacks against Philadelphia, breaking the franchise's all-time sacks record. Kerrigan was originally drafted by Washington in 2011 and recorded 7.5 sacks. He followed his debut season with back-to-back seasons of 8.5 sacks before recording his first double-digit sack season with 13.5. Overall, Kerrigan has recorded four seasons with double-digit sacks, and he is one of four members of the 2011 Draft Class to hold their franchises' sack record, joining Von Miller (Denver), J.J. Watt (Houston) and Cam Jordan (New Orleans). Below is a list of "Sackperlatives" and every QB Kerrigan has sacked thus far in his career.

25 & UNDER CLUB

Steven Sims Jr. (23)

Wide Receiver Steven Sims Jr. went undrafted out of Kansas and his explosiveness earned him a roster spot. Sims Jr. has shown his ability not just a flash in the pan and he looks to improve upon a breakout season in Year two.

2019 Highlights

- Second in the league in kickoff return yards [779]
- Had a 91-yard kickoff return touchdown against Detroit
- Fourth in the league in kickoff return average [25.8]
- One of two undrafted rookies to score multiple TDs

Dwayne Haskins Jr. (23)

Washington handed the keys over to Quarterback Dwayne Haskins Jr. in Week 9 last season. The first-round pick has grown more and more comfortable as he progressed through last season. This offseason, Haskins Jr. looked to build on his end-of-year success and lost close to 20 pounds.

2019 Highlights

- Led game-winning drive against Detroit in Week 12
- Completed 68 percent of his passes in first start [at BUF]
- Threw two touchdowns versus the Jets, Eagles and Giants
- Had 1,466 total yards in his nine appearances last season

Daron Payne (23)

Defensive Tackle Daron Payne has been a force in the middle of Washington's offensive line. Payne already has 35 starts in his young career.

2019 Highlights

- Appeared in 15 games
- Tallied four quarterback hits and added two passes defensed
- Had 2.0 sacks and three tackles for a loss

Montez Sweat (24)

Washington selected Linebacker Montez Sweat with the 26th pick in the first round last year to help their pass rush. Sweat's athletic ability has been on display ever since and he is set to continue his progression in year two.

2019 Highlights

- Has recorded five sacks, tied for third on the team
- Ten quarterback hits, third most on the team
- Recorded six tackles for loss and two passes defensed while forcing a fumble last season

25 & UNDER CLUB

Cole Holcomb (24)

Linebacker Cole Holcomb burst onto the scene in 2019, cementing himself as a fixture in the middle of Washington's defense. Holcomb, a North Carolina product, appeared in all 16 games, starting 15.

2019 Highlights

- Led Washington with three forced fumbles
- His three forced fumbles were second-most by a rookie in 2019
- Appeared in all 16 games

Terry McLaurin (24)

Wide Receiver Terry McLaurin emerged as the team's top target in his rookie season last year. The Ohio State product's big-play ability has placed him on every team's radar. McLaurin finished the 2019 season with 65.6 yards per game, the second-best amongst NFL rookies. His 919 receiving yards were also the second-most amongst NFL rookies.

2019 Highlights

- Team-high seven touchdown receptions
- Ten games of at least four catches
- Three games of 100+ yards, one TD
- Only four drops on 93 targets

Jonathan Allen (25)

The vocal leader of the defense, Defensive Tackle Jonathan Allen had another stellar season last year. Allen anchored one of the best defensive lines in the NFL and helped lead a defense that finished in the top 10 in sacks (10th), forced fumbles (t-7th), and total tackles (1st).

2019 Highlights

- Tallied 10 QB hits and seven tackles for loss
- Finished third on the team with 6.0 sacks
- His 41.5 sack yards were the second-most on the team

Kendall Fuller (25)

Super Bowl LIV champion Kendall Fuller returns home to Washington after being drafted by the team in the third round of the 2016 NFL Draft. Fuller comes to Washington following a Super Bowl winning season in Kansas City. In his last season in Washington, Fuller led the team with four interceptions.

2019 Highlights

- Won Super Bowl LIV with Kansas City
- Intercepted Jimmy Garoppolo pass to seal the deal for Kansas City in Super Bowl LIV
- Played in 11 games and made four starts

WELCOME TO D.C.
2020 NFL DRAFT

TEAM NOTES

- Dating back to 2011, Washington has selected at least eight players in 10 consecutive drafts for the first time since the league adopted the seven-round format in 1994.
- Washington completed the 2020 NFL Draft without making a selection in the second round. It was the 10th time since the seven-round draft format was established Washington did not make a selection in the second round.
- Washington acquired three of their selections via trades. They acquired the No. 156 selection from San Francisco in exchange for T Trent Williams. They acquired the No. 162 selection from Seattle in exchange for CB Quinton Dunbar and they acquired the No. 229 selection from Denver in the 2019 trade for QB Case Keenum.
- Washington also acquired a 2021 third round pick from the San Francisco 49ers in the deal for T Trent Williams.
- Washington has selected at least three players with picks acquired via trade in each of the last seven drafts.
- Of Washington's eight selections, three were made with picks acquired by trade, including one draft-day trade with San Francisco (C Keith Ismael).
- Washington selected WR Anthony Gandy-Golden using a compensatory pick. It was the second year in a row that Washington had a compensatory selection. Last season Washington used compensatory selections on LB Cole Holcomb, WR Kelvin Harmon and DE Jordan Brailford. Prior to the 2019 compensatory picks they were the first selections using a compensatory pick since the organization drafted NT Chris Neild with a compensatory pick in the 2011 NFL Draft.
- It was the second consecutive draft that Washington has picked four offensive players in a row (2020: RB Antonio Gibson, T Saahdiq Charles, WR Antonio Gandy-Golden and C Keith Ismael; 2019: WR Terry McLaurin, RB Bryce Love, G Wes Martin and C Ross Pierschbacher). Prior to that, the last time Washington selected four consecutive offensive players in the same draft was 2008 (WR Devin Thomas, TE Fred Davis, WR Malcolm Kelly and T Chad Rinehart).
- It is the first time that the Redskins selected an edge rusher with their first pick since selecting Ryan Kerrigan No. 16 overall in 2011.
- It was the first time since 2012 that Washington had a selection in the top 3 in the first round.
- Washington drafted players from Ohio State with their first pick in consecutive seasons marking the third time in franchise history that the team has drafted players out of the same school with their first pick in back-to-back draft. The other two instances were DT Daron Payne (2018 Alabama) and DT Jonathan Allen (2017 Alabama), FB Leon Heath (1951 Oklahoma) and HB George Thomas (1950 Oklahoma),
- Washington selected four defensive players and have picked at least four defensive players in six consecutive drafts for the first time since 1989-93, when the draft consisted of 12 rounds.
- Five of the 10 members of the Washington draft class played at schools in “Power Five” conferences.
- Washington selected two players from the Big Ten, two players from the Southeastern Conference and one player each from the Atlantic Coast Conference, American Athletic Conference and Mountain West Conference.

CHASE YOUNG (RD. 1, PICK 2)

- Young was the 485th selection made by Washington in the Common Draft era (since 1967) and the 32nd first-round selection in that time frame. He was the 63rd first-round selection by Washington all-time since the institution of the draft in 1936.
- Young’s selection marks the fourth-straight year in which Washington has selected a defensive player with a first-round pick in the draft joining Montez Sweat (No. 26 overall in 2019), Jonathan Allen (No. 17 overall in 2017) and Daron Payne (No. 13 overall in 2018). This is the first time in team history Washington has selected defensive players with a first-round pick selection in four consecutive drafts.
- Young was the 11th defensive player selected by tWashington in the first round since 1999, joining CB Champ Bailey (1999), LB LaVar Arrington (2000), S Sean Taylor (2004), CB Carlos Rogers (2005), S LaRon Landry (2007), DE/LB Brian Orakpo (2009), LB Ryan Kerrigan (2011), DL Jonathan Allen (2017), DT Daron Payne (2018) and DE Montez Sweat (2019). Seven of the 10 defensive players selected by Washington in the first round in that time frame have earned at least one Pro Bowl selection during their career.
- Young’s selection marked the eighth time in the Common Draft era that Washington has selected a defensive lineman in the first round, joining Montez Sweat (2019), Daron Payne (2018), Jonathan Allen (2017), Ryan Kerrigan (2011), Brian Orakpo (2009, transitioned to linebacker in 2010), Kenard Lang (1997) and Bobby Wilson (1991). Washington also selected Tracy Rocker (1989, third round), Markus Koch (1986, second round), Bob Slater (1984, second round), Duncan McColl (1977, fourth round) and Bill Brundige (1970, second round) with the team's first selections of each of the drafts listed.

- With the selections of Young, Sweat, Payne and Allen, the Washington has now used first-round selections on defensive linemen in four consecutive drafts for the first time in the Common Draft era.
- Young was the 19th Ohio State product selected by Washington all-time, joining C Steve Andrako (1940), E Cy Souders (1945), B Vic Janowicz (1952), T Julius Wittman (1952), G George Rosso (1954), T Fran Machinsky (1956), T George Tolford (1961), G Mike Ingram (1961), B Dave Francis (1963), G Rod Foster (1963), FB Tom Barrington (1966), E Ron Sepic (1967), RB Rich Galbos (1973), T Henry Brown (1988), G Tim Moxley (1990), WR Evan Spencer (2015), QB Dwayne Haskins Jr. (2019) and WR Terry McLaurin (2019).
- Young's selection marks the third time the franchise has drafted a player with the No. 2 overall pick in the Common Draft Era. The other two selections were LaVar Arrington (2000) and Robert Griffin III (2012).
- Young was the 19th player Washington selected out of Ohio State. Ohio State has now produced the sixth-most draft selections in franchise history, trailing only Notre Dame (34), USC (30), Alabama (26), Penn State (22) and Nebraska (20).
- In 2019, Young ranked No. 1 in the nation in tackles for loss per game (1.91), No. 1 in sacks (16.5) and sacks per game (1.50), No. 2 in forced fumbles (six) and No. 4 in total tackles for loss (21.0).
- Young joined Mike Vrabel as the only player in Ohio State history to post consecutive seasons with 10-plus sacks.
- Young was named the Big Ten's Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year, Smith-Brown Defensive Lineman of the Year and first-team All-Big Ten last season.
- Young holds the Ohio State single-season sack record with 16.5 in 2019.

BIOGRAPHY

Ron Rivera enters his 24th season coaching in the NFL and his first as Washington's head coach in 2020. He was named the 30th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 1, 2020.

A friend of legendary head coach Joe Gibbs, Rivera is a passionate and skilled leader who has earned the respect of his players, coaching staff and the community. He most recently served as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers for nine seasons, where he led the team to three straight divisional titles and an appearance in Super Bowl 50. Rivera was also recognized twice as the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 2013 and in 2015.

Rivera inherited a 2-14 Carolina Panthers team as a rookie head coach in 2011 and guided it back to an NFC force with four playoffs appearances since 2013, tied for the second-most playoff berths in the NFC over that six-year period. In that span, the Panthers recorded 58 wins, tied for the most in any six-year period in their franchise history and fifth-most in the NFL.

In 2015, Carolina won its second NFC Championship in franchise history, third consecutive NFC South division title and appeared in Super Bowl 50. Carolina finished the season with a franchise-best 17-2 record, including home playoff victories over Seattle in the divisional round and Arizona in the NFC Championship game.

Hired by the Panthers for his defensive expertise, Rivera did not disappoint as the Panthers put together five top-10 finishes in total defense in seven seasons from 2012-18. Like Rivera, the Panthers' rebound has been steady and solid, starting with six wins in his first season in 2011 and seven victories in 2012 before registering three consecutive division championships starting in 2013 when he earned his first Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award. Laying a foundation that included back-to-back Rookie of the Year award winners in quarterback Cam Newton and linebacker Luke Kuechly, Rivera blended veteran and young talent into productive units on both sides of the ball.

Rivera helped lead a Panthers team that finished among the league's top 10 rushing offenses, including top-five finishes in 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018. The Panthers recorded 30 consecutive regular season games with at least 100 rushing yards from Week 6 of 2014 to Week 3 of 2016, the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh tallied 43 from 1974-77.

Carolina's run defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Starting in Week 14 of 2016 through Week 1 of 2018, the Panthers went 21 consecutive games without allowing a 100-yard individual rusher, setting a franchise record.

In 2018, Rivera coached two players to All-Pro selections. Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey earned AP All-Pro second-team honors as he helped the Panthers lead the NFL in rushing yards per carry (5.1). McCaffrey also recorded 107 receptions, the most by any running back in a season in NFL history and broke Steve Smith's franchise record for single-season receptions by any player. He ran for 1,098 rushing yards, becoming the third player in NFL history with over 100 receptions and 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. McCaffrey accumulated a franchise-record 1,965 scrimmage yards, ranking third in the NFL.

Linebacker Luke Kuechly earned his sixth-straight Pro Bowl selection and fifth AP All-Pro first-team honor, tied for the most among active players. Kuechly tied for third in the NFL with 20 tackles for loss. In 2017, the rushing attack helped propel the team to an 11-5 record and a Wild Card berth by averaging 131.4 yards on the ground, good for fourth in the league.

In 2015, Rivera was named NFL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons as his team earned its third consecutive NFC South title and claimed the top seed in the NFC for the first time in Panthers franchise history. The Panthers became just the seventh team in the Super Bowl era to post a 15-1 or better record in the regular season. Carolina started 2015 with 14 consecutive victories, which, combined with four wins to close the 2014 regular season, gave the Panthers an NFC-record 18-game winning streak.

Rivera's Panthers went 12-4 and won the NFC South in 2013, Carolina's first division title since 2008. The Panthers then recovered from a 3-8-1 start in 2014 to win four in a row and capture a second consecutive NFC South crown. Prior to Rivera's arrival, Carolina had never reached the postseason in consecutive years, and no team had captured the NFC South twice in a row.

Rivera arrived in Carolina with a reputation for hard work, attention to detail and preparation. Those were also the qualities he exhibited in his first campaign as the Panthers tripled their win total from the previous season. Rivera did not even meet his team until they reported to training camp and, despite a slow start, held it together to finish with four wins in the final six games.

Rivera has shined as a coach and player during his 30-plus years in the NFL, serving as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers' top-ranked defense in 2010 and playing linebacker for the Chicago Bears' top-ranked defense and Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985. In 23 seasons as a coach and nine as a player, he has been with teams that have reached the playoffs 19 times, including nine conference championships and three Super Bowls. The mentality of the Chargers defense that Rivera coached and the Bears defense on which he played has stuck with the head coach, and he has transferred it to his teams.

Rivera's character has been influenced by two innovative defensive coordinators. As a player, Rivera was coached by the late Buddy Ryan, the architect of the "46 Defense," which involved blitzing on nearly every down. As a coach, Rivera toiled under the late Jim Johnson, a highly regarded defensive coordinator renowned for his aggressive approach.

Rivera's identity also has been shaped by his family. The son of a U.S. Army officer and the second youngest of four boys, Rivera learned from a young age about chain of command and many of the principles he teaches and expects from his players. "I come from a military family where discipline isn't taught, it's lived. It's expected from day one. I have a philosophy that every player, every coach, everyone who works for this organization, they'll know it day one," Rivera said in his introductory press conference with Washington on Jan. 2.

Rivera worked with the Chargers from 2007-10. He coached inside linebackers before taking over as the team's defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season. Under Rivera's guidance, the pass defense steadied itself – intercepting nine passes and yielding 229.6 passing yards per game and 11 touchdown passes over the final eight games. Those numbers contrasted to the first half of the season when San Diego notched just seven picks and was victimized for 265.1 yards per game and 14 touchdowns through the air. In Rivera's first full season leading the defense in 2009, the Chargers ranked 16th in total defense and 11th against the pass. Those rankings improved in 2010 as San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago Bears defense, engineering the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. Under Rivera's direction, five different defensive players went to the Pro Bowl: linebacker Lance Briggs, safety Mike Brown, defensive tackle Tommie Harris, linebacker Brian Urlacher and cornerback Nathan Vasher.

In his first season as a defensive coordinator in 2004, Rivera presided over a defense that produced nine more takeaways and 17 more sacks than the previous year and scored a franchise-record and NFC-high six defensive touchdowns. The Bears also thrived on third down and buckled down inside their own 20-yard line, ranking first in the NFL in third-down efficiency (30.5 percent) and topping the NFC in red zone defense (42.6 percent). The following year, Chicago continued to build on the foundation Rivera laid in 2004. The Bears won their first of two consecutive NFC North titles and stood second in the NFL in total defense. In surrendering the fewest points in the league, Rivera's defense went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points – the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. During Rivera's last season with the Bears in 2006, the defense paced the NFL with 44 takeaways and finished fifth in the league in total defense and third in scoring defense, helping propel Chicago to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLI.

Prior to becoming a defensive coordinator, Rivera spent five seasons from 1999-2003 as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship game in each of his final three seasons. Twice during Rivera's tenure with the Eagles, the team finished second in the NFL in scoring defense and in 2001 held all 16 of its opponents to fewer than 21 points – making them just the fourth team in NFL history to do so.

Rivera gained his first coaching experience with the Bears as a defensive quality control coach from 1997-98. He is just the third Latino head coach in NFL history, joining Tom Flores with the Oakland Raiders from 1979-87 and Seattle Seahawks from 1992-94 and Tom Fears with the New Orleans Saints from 1967-70.

Following retirement from his playing career, Rivera went into broadcasting. He covered the Bears and college football as a television analyst for WGN and SportsChannel Chicago for four years from 1993-96.

Selected in the second round of the 1984 NFL Draft by Chicago, Rivera played all nine of his pro seasons with the Bears. Primarily an outside linebacker, he appeared in 149 games with 62 starts (including 12 postseason contests with six starts) and posted 392 tackles, 7.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, nine interceptions and 15 passes defensed. Rivera was a member of six NFC Central division title teams and a Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985.

As a player, Rivera was known for both his skill and determination on the field and his dedication of time and energy to the community. As a result, he was named the Bears' Man of the Year in 1988 and earned the club's Ed Block Courage Award in 1989. He has carried that same community commitment to coaching, sponsoring a bowling tournament to benefit the Ronald McDonald House, USO and Humane Society. He was a finalist for the 2017 Salute to Service Award, an annual award presented to NFL players, coaches, personnel and alumni who demonstrate an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

Rivera, who lost his brother Mickey to pancreatic cancer in 2015, also serves as a spokesman for the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network. He has twice been the honorary starter for the organization's PurpleStride 5K in Charlotte. An All-American at the University of California, Rivera finished his career as the school's all-time leader in sacks with 22 and tackles with 336. As a senior in 1983, he set the Bears' single-season record for sacks with 13 and tackles for loss with 26.5.

Born Jan. 7, 1962, in Fort Ord, Calif., Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington and Maryland before his family settled in Marina, Calif. He attended Seaside High School in Seaside, Calif., and was a three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball. Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Christopher and Courtney. Stephanie is a former assistant coach for the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

Jack Del Rio enters his 23rd season coaching in the NFL and his first as Washington's Defensive Coordinator in 2020 after being named to the position on January 2, 2020.

Del Rio brings 32 combined seasons of NFL experience to the role, including 21 as a coach and 11 as a player. He has held head coach and defensive coordinator roles with the Oakland Raiders, Denver Broncos, Jacksonville Jaguars and Carolina Panthers. He has also coached 28 players to a total of 56 Pro Bowl selections.

From 2015-17, Del Rio was the Head Coach with the Oakland Raiders. In 2016, he guided the Raiders to a 12-4 record, marking the franchise's first 12-win season since 2000. The Raiders earned a postseason berth for the first time since 2002 and landed an NFL-high seven players on the AFC Pro Bowl squad. Two Raiders earned spots on the Associated Press All-Pro First Team and DE Khalil Mack was named Defensive Player of the Year. Del Rio was selected as the recipient of the Maxwell Club's Greasy Neale Professional Coach of the Year Award, becoming the sixth Raiders coach to earn NFL Coach of the Year honors. In addition, he was named the AFC Coach of the Year by Kansas City's Committee of 101.

In 2016, Oakland tied for the NFL lead with a +16 turnover differential and the offensive unit ranked near the top of the league, finishing sixth in the NFL in yards per game (373.3), sixth in rushing yards per game (120.1) and seventh in points per game (26.0). The team committed just 14 turnovers on the year, a mark that ranked fourth fewest in the NFL. The defense strengthened as the season progressed, ranking 11th in the NFL in total yards allowed per game from Week 7 to the end of the year. The team also ranked second in the NFL in takeaways, forcing 30 turnovers on the year.

In his first season with the Raiders in 2015, Del Rio oversaw significant improvements as the Raiders more than doubled the previous year's win total. Oakland moved up 15 spots in the NFL rankings in turnover ratio, finishing 17th in the league (+1) after ranking 32nd in 2014 (-15). The team improved in five major statistical categories on offense alone, making gains in total offense, rushing, passing, points per game and third-down efficiency. On defense, the Raiders improved in rushing defense, points per game allowed and third-down defense. Six Raiders were selected for the Pro Bowl, marking the most since 1991.

As defensive coordinator with the Denver Broncos from 2012-14, Del Rio was part of three-straight AFC West titles and helped lead Denver to an AFC Championship and appearance in Super Bowl XLVIII following the 2013 campaign. It marked his second stint under Head Coach John Fox, as the two also spent the 2002 season together in Carolina. In all, he has coached 28 players to a total of 40 Pro Bowl selections.

In 2014, Del Rio's defensive unit boasted five Pro Bowl selections, ranked third in the NFL in overall defense (305.2 yards per game) and second in the league against the run, allowing 79.8 yards per game. With 25 takeaways and a plus-five turnover ratio, Del Rio's defense was instrumental in leading the Broncos to a third straight 12-win season.

In his second season with the Broncos in 2013, Del Rio's defense helped Denver to a 12-4 record and an appearance in Super Bowl XLVIII. Del Rio also accepted the additional role of interim head coach (Weeks 10-13) while Fox underwent a heart procedure and led the Broncos to a 3-1 record against teams with a combined record of 29-9 (.763). With Del Rio at the helm, Denver beat previously-undefeated Kansas City twice in addition to San Diego, with the team's only loss coming at New England.

In 2012, Denver's defense finished as the NFL's second-ranked unit (290.8 yards per game), after finishing the previous season ranked 20th in the league. The group also tied for the league lead with 52 sacks and allowed the lowest opponent third-down percentage (30.6 percent), while tying for the largest scoring improvement (6.3 points per game) from the previous season.

Prior to joining the Broncos in 2012, Del Rio spent nine seasons at the helm in Jacksonville. During his head coaching tenure (2003-11) with the Jaguars, the club ranked sixth in the NFL in yards per game allowed (317.3) and eighth in points per game allowed (20.3).

Under Del Rio, the Jaguars made two playoff appearances in 2005 and 2007, highlighted by the club's first postseason win in eight seasons with a 31-29 road victory against the Pittsburgh Steelers in a 2007 AFC Wild Card Game.

In 2009, Del Rio led one of the league's youngest teams, with four rookies in full-time roles as starters, 32 new players on the roster and a total of 16 rookies by season's end. The team was in playoff contention until the final weekend of the regular season, finishing 7-9. Rookies combined to make 71 starts, the most in team history, and the team was penalized a league-low of 70 times, the fewest in franchise history. The Jaguars battled through injuries in 2008 to a 5-11 record despite having just four players start all 16 games and a total of 15 players on injured reserve at the end of the year.

The Jaguars posted an 11-5 record in 2007 to earn a second playoff berth in three years, in addition to claiming the franchise's first playoff win since the 1999 season, while becoming the first team in NFL history to win in Pittsburgh twice in one season. The offense ranked seventh in the league and scored a team-record 411 points. The offense had a team-record seven games with 400-or-more yards, while the defense held opponents to 17 points or less 10 times.

Del Rio led the 2006 Jaguars to a record of 8-8 as the team finished 5-3 against playoff teams and suffered seven losses by seven points or less. Among the highlights was a team-record 2,541 rushing yards and just 30 sacks allowed on offense. The defense registered the highest ranking in team history at second overall.

In 2005, the Jaguars won eight of the last nine regular season games, including four straight on the road, en route to a 12-4 finish and a Wild Card playoff berth. The league's sixth-ranked defense was sixth in points allowed and had 19 interceptions. On offense, the team increased scoring by 100 points over the previous year and had a team-record and NFL-low six interceptions thrown.

In 2004, Del Rio posted the team's first winning record since 1999, leading the Jaguars to a 9-7 mark. In taking over the Jaguars in 2003, Del Rio was the architect of a defense that improved to sixth overall in the NFL and second against the run. The Jaguars' 5-11 record included six losses by seven points or less.

During his lone season as a defensive coordinator with Carolina in 2002, he inherited the NFL's worst defense statistically (371.4 yards per game allowed) and turned it into the league's second-ranked unit (290.4 yards per game allowed). Additionally, the 2002 Panthers squad led the NFL in rushing average against (3.7 avg.) and ranked second in third down efficiency (32.9 percent) and sacks (52).

As linebackers coach for the Baltimore Ravens from 1999-2001, Del Rio tutored a talented group that included Peter Boulware, Ray Lewis and Jamie Sharper. Baltimore's 2000 team set the NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points while recording four shutouts and forcing a league-best 49 turnovers. Lewis was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year and the MVP of Super Bowl XXXV that season after a playoff run in which the defense surrendered just one touchdown in four games.

Del Rio began his coaching career with the New Orleans Saints under Head Coach Mike Ditka, serving as an assistant strength coach in 1997 before moving on to coach the linebackers in 1998.

A veteran of 11 seasons as an NFL linebacker, he was selected in the third round (68th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft by New Orleans and went on to make the NFL's All-Rookie Team and earn the Saints' Rookie of the Year award.

Following two seasons in New Orleans (1985-86), he played for Kansas City (1987-88), Dallas (1989-91) and Minnesota (1992-95). He led the Vikings in tackles for three consecutive years and was selected to participate in the Pro Bowl in 1994. For his career, he played 160 games in the regular season and totaled 1,078 tackles, 12 sacks and 13 interceptions.

Del Rio was a four-year starter at the University of Southern California, where he earned consensus All-American honors as a senior and was runner-up for the Lombardi Award, given to the nation's best lineman or linebacker. Named co-MVP of the 1985 Rose Bowl, Del Rio recorded 340 career defensive stops, including 58 tackles for a loss. A standout catcher on the USC baseball team, Del Rio was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in 1981. He was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame in May 2015.

Del Rio was a three-sport star in football, baseball and basketball at Hayward (Calif.) High School. He earned a degree in political science from the University of Kansas while playing for the Chiefs.

Born on April 4, 1963, in Castro Valley, Calif., Del Rio and his wife, Linda, have three daughters, Lauren, Hope and Aubrey, and a son, Luke, who also works for Washington as an offensive quality control coach.

BIOGRAPHY

Scott Turner is entering his first season as the offensive coordinator with Washington after being hired on January 8, 2020. He will be entering his 9th NFL season and has held positions with the Carolina Panthers, Cleveland Browns and Minnesota Vikings during his NFL career.

Turner served as the Carolina Panthers quarterbacks coach from 2018-19, where he was also elevated to interim offensive coordinator for Weeks 14-17 of the 2019 season. In 2019, Turner spent time working with three different quarterbacks throughout the course of the season after Cam Newton went down in Week 2. Carolina was only one of six teams in the NFL to start three different quarterbacks during the 2019 season. Turner helped guide young quarterbacks Kyle Allen and rookie Will Grier and played a key role in installing plays to fit each of their playing styles when he took the reigns as interim offensive coordinator in Week 14. Allen completed 303-of-489 passes for 3,027 yards and 17 touchdowns for a passer rating of 80.0. Grier got an opportunity to start late in the season in Weeks 15 and 16. In his first career start on the road against the Colts, Grier completed 27-of-44 passes for 224 yards, completing 61.4 percent of his attempts.

In his first season as quarterbacks coach in 2018, Turner helped quarterback Cam Newton post a 67.9 completion percentage, the highest of any player in franchise history, despite playing through injury and missing the final two games. Newton set a franchise record by throwing for at least two touchdown passes in 11 consecutive games, while his 94.2 passer rating was third-best in franchise history. Newton also set a Panthers record for most consecutive passes completed with 16 straight over a two game stretch.

In 2018, the Panthers finished 10th in the NFL in net yards (373.3), the second-highest season average in franchise history. Carolina finished the season with a franchise record for most completions in a single season with 378 and set a franchise record for most passing first downs in a single season with 212. In the final two games of 2018, Turner was tasked with preparing backup quarterbacks Taylor Heinicke and Kyle Allen to play in Newton's absence. In Week 16 at Atlanta, Allen and Heinicke combined to set a franchise record for most completions in a single game with 37 (33 - Heinicke; 4 - Allen). In Week 17, Allen joined Matt Moore and Chris Weinke as the only Panthers rookies to win their first starts.

Prior to re-joining Carolina, Turner served as the University of Michigan's senior offensive analyst in 2017. The Wolverines went 8-5 and advanced to the Outback Bowl, while the offense featured three running backs who averaged 5.0 yards per carry or better and the team rushed for more than 2,000 yards for the third consecutive season.

Before his time with Michigan, Turner worked as the Minnesota Vikings quarterbacks coach from 2014-16. In 2016, Turner helped quarterback Sam Bradford set a then-NFL record in completion percentage (71.6) and guided him to Vikings records in single-season completions (395), interception percentage (0.9; five in 552 attempts) and single-season completion percentage (71.6). Bradford notched the fourth-highest passer rating in Vikings history with a career-best 99.3.

In 2014 and 2015, Turner worked with first-round draft choice Teddy Bridgewater. In 2015, Bridgewater was selected to his first Pro Bowl in his second season in the NFL and his first as a full-time starter. Bridgewater, who led the team to its first NFC North championship since 2009, bumped his passer rating up from 85.2 to 88.7 and threw three fewer interceptions while playing in three more contests than his initial season. He finished with 3,231 yards passing and 14 passing touchdowns, while rushing for three touchdowns. With 17 combined wins from 2014 and 2015, Bridgewater tied Brett Favre and Warren Moon for the most wins in team history among quarterbacks in their first two seasons with the franchise.

In 2014, Turner helped Bridgewater to the best season for a rookie quarterback in Vikings history, setting virtually every franchise rookie passing record and producing the third-best completion percentage (64.6) and the seventh-highest passer rating (85.2) in NFL history for a rookie. In Bridgewater's first career start vs. Atlanta in Week 4, the rookie threw for a season-best 317 yards and helped the offense pile up 558 net yards, the fourth-most in team history, in a 41-28 win.

In 2013, Turner coached wide receivers for the Cleveland Browns, helping Josh Gordon to the best receiving season in Browns history. Despite appearing in just 14 games, he became the first player in Browns history to lead the NFL in receiving yards (1,646) and became the first player in NFL history with back-to-back 200-yard receiving games.

Turner entered NFL coaching with two seasons as offensive quality control coach for the Panthers in 2011 and 2012. The Panthers recorded two of the top four seasons in franchise history in terms of net yards, setting the all-time mark with 389.8 yards per game in 2011 and 360.7 in 2012. Newton was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2011. His 14 rushing touchdowns broke the NFL record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback and were just one shy of the NFL record of rushing touchdowns by a rookie.

Prior to Turner's first stint in Carolina, he spent three seasons at the University of Pittsburgh, two as an offensive assistant and the last as wide receivers coach. Turner made his coaching debut in 2005 as a graduate assistant at Oregon State before serving as the offensive coordinator at South County (Va.) Secondary School from 2006-07.

A three-year letterman at Nevada-Las Vegas from 2002-04, Turner graduated with a degree in psychology. He served as a reserve quarterback for the Rebels as a junior and senior and played on special teams as a sophomore after being redshirted as a freshman. He earned his college degree in psychology from UNLV in 2006.

Turner is the son of former NFL Coach Norv Turner. The two previously coached together in Carolina, Minnesota and Cleveland. Turner graduated from Oakton High School in Vienna, Va. when his father was the Head Coach of the Redskins. He and his wife, Robyn, have two children – a son, Harry (6) and a daughter, Rose (4).

BIOGRAPHY

Nate Kaczor (pronounced Kat-sir) enters his second season as special teams coordinator with Washington in 2020. He will be entering his 13th NFL season and has held positions with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Tennessee Titans and Tampa Bay Buccaneers during his NFL career.

In 2019, Kaczor helped guide punter Tress Way to his first Pro Bowl selection. Way was also named to the Associated Press All-Pro Second Team. Way finished the season No. 2 in net average (44.1) and No. 2 in punt yardage (3,919) and No. 7 in punts inside the 20 yard line (30). Under Kaczor's guidance, Washington ranked No. 4 in the league in kickoff return average (25.2) and No. 5 in kickoff return yardage (833) despite fielding one of the league's youngest rosters.

Under Kaczor's guidance, Tress Way became the first Washington punter since Matt Turk in 1997 to be named to the Pro Bowl. Steven Sims Jr. (NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 12) and Tress Way (NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 13) were also the first Redskins in the history of the franchise to receive the honor of NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in consecutive weeks.

During Kaczor's three seasons with Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers were one of the top punt coverage units in the NFL, allowing only 6.6 yards per return, the fourth-lowest mark in the league during that span.

In 2018, Tampa Bay allowed only 21.0 yards per kickoff return, which was the sixth-lowest in the NFL despite allowing 30-plus total kickoff returns.

In 2017, the Buccaneers had three blocked kicks (one blocked field goals and two blocked extra points), tied for the third-most in the NFL. Tampa Bay led the league in special teams takeaways, with four (three fumble recoveries on punt coverage, one on kickoff coverage). All four of Tampa Bay's special teams takeaways helped lead to touchdowns – two were returned for touchdowns, while the other two set up the offense with a short field. The Buccaneers' punt return unit also averaged 9.6 yards per return, the sixth-highest mark in the NFL.

Punter Bryan Anger was a standout during Kaczor's tenure with the Buccaneers. In his first year with the team, Anger set Buccaneers records for both punts inside the 20 (37) and net punting average (42.7), with both of those ranking in the top five in the NFL in 2016. In the three seasons that Anger spent under Kaczor's tutelage, Anger ranked top 15 in the league in punts inside the 20 and net average while only recording 14 touchbacks.

Kaczor came to Tampa Bay having spent the previous four seasons with the Tennessee Titans, the final three as the teams' special teams coordinator (2013-15) after being hired as the assistant offensive line coach in his first season (2012). In 2015, the Titans tied for the NFL lead in special teams takeaways, while in 2013 Kaczor's unit ranked third in the league in opponent punt return average and eighth in kickoff return average.

In three seasons under Kaczor, Titans punter Brett Kern tied for the third-most punts inside the 20 (94) in the NFL. In 2015, despite punting 88 times, Kern saw only one touchback on the year. In 2014, Kern posted a net average of 40.8, a career best and a Titans franchise record. Kaczor also worked with kicker Ryan Succop, who set a career high in field goal percentage in 2015 (87.5), surpassing the career best he had established the season before.

Kaczor entered the NFL as an assistant special teams coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars, working there from 2008-11. During those four years, Jacksonville had one of the league's top special teams coverage units, allowing the lowest punt return average in the NFL (6.5 avg.) and the eighth-lowest kickoff return average (21.8 avg.). In each of Kaczor's final two seasons, Montell Owens earned Pro Bowl recognition as a special teams player.

Prior to joining the NFL, Kaczor spent 17 years coaching in college, the final two working as co-offensive coordinator (2007) and tight ends coach (2006) at Louisiana-Monroe. In his only season as co-offensive coordinator, the team ranked second in the Sun Belt Conference in rushing offense and averaged its most points scored since 1993. Before his time at Louisiana-Monroe, Kaczor spent two seasons (2004-05) as the co-offensive coordinator/tight ends coach at Idaho and four seasons as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Nebraska-Kearney (2000-03). Kaczor began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at his alma mater, Utah State, working as an offensive assistant for nine seasons (1991-99), helping the team win three conference championships.

A center at Utah State, Kaczor was a team captain, who earned all-conference honors in 1989. A native of Scott City, Kansas, he and his wife, Angie, have two children, Kaylee and Micah.

LUKE DEL RIO
Offensive Quality Control

2013: Quarterback Alabama
2014: Quarterback Oregon State
2015-17: Quarterback Florida
2018-19: Quarterback/Tight Ends Santa Margarita Catholic
2020-Pres.: Offensive Quality Control Washington

Luke Del Rio is entering his first season coaching in the NFL and his first as Washington's offensive quality control coach in 2020. He previously coached tight ends and quarterbacks at Santa Margarita Catholic High School.

A former collegiate quarterback, Del Rio began his college career at the University of Alabama where he was the backup QB as a true freshman to three-time national champion quarterback AJ McCarron. He then moved to Oregon State where he served as the backup to current Minnesota Vikings quarterback Sean Mannion. Del Rio played his final three years at the University of Florida where he would go on to be 7-1 as a starter in the SEC.

Del Rio's collegiate career highlights include a win over Georgia, a 320-yard 4-touchdown performance against Kentucky, and then in his senior year, came off the bench to lead a 14-point comeback against Kentucky to extend Florida's winning streak over the rival Wildcats to 31 games. Del Rio also served as a team captain for the Gators in 2016 and served on the leadership committee.

Del Rio was a state champion quarterback at Valor Christian High School. In addition to his state championship at Valor Christian High School, Del Rio was an Elite 11 quarterback, first team all-state and team captain for the Eagles.

Del Rio has played under the tutelage of Nick Saban (Alabama), Mike Riley (Oregon State) and Jim McElwain (Florida). Del Rio, a native of Jacksonville, Fla., graduated from the University of Florida in 2016 with a Bachelor's degree and then earned his Master's degree in 2018, also from the University of Florida, in Business. He is the son of Washington defensive coordinator Jack Del Rio.

2009: Head Strength & Conditioning Florida Tuskers (UFL)
2010-16 Asst. Strength & Conditioning Washington
2017-Pres. Head Strength & Conditioning Washington

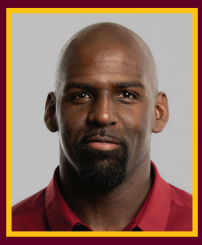
Chad Englehart is entering his 11th season with Washington and his fourth as the team's head strength and conditioning coach in 2020 after being promoted to the role during the 2017 offseason. He initially joined the team as an assistant strength and conditioning coach on February 26, 2010.

Prior to joining Washington, Englehart served as the head strength and conditioning coach with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League in 2009. During that time, he worked with Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden, who served as the Tuskers' offensive coordinator that season. The Tuskers finished with a perfect 6-0 regular season record before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game.

In 2008, Englehart served as director of strength and conditioning at Xcel Sports Performance in Louisiana. Before that, he was head strength and conditioning coach in 2007 at HS2 Athletic Performance in Mandeville, La., and at the University of New Orleans in 2006.

Englehart holds a Master's degree in human movement with a concentration in corrective exercise from A.T. Still University. He also holds a bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a concentration in exercise science from Southeastern Louisiana University. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Condition Association and is a Performance Enhancement Specialist and Corrective Exercise Specialist with the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM). Englehart also holds certifications with USA Weightlifting and USA Track and Field, Functional Movement Screen and TRX Suspension Training certifications as well as a Fitness Nutrition Specialist certification from the NASM and a 3DMAPS (3D Movement Analysis and Performance System) certification from Gray Institute.

Englehart and his wife, Lyndsey, have two daughters, Blair and Elise.



CHRIS HARRIS
Defensive Backs

2001-04	Defensive Back Louisiana-Monroe
2005-06	Defensive Back Chicago Bears
2007-09	Defensive Back Carolina Panthers
2010-11	Defensive Back Chicago Bears
2011	Defensive Back Detroit Lions
2012	Defensive Back Jacksonville Jaguars
2013-14	Defensive Quality Control Chicago Bears
2016-19	Asst. Defensive Backs Coach Los Angeles Chargers
2020-Pres.	Defensive Backs Coach Washington

Chris enters his seventh season coaching in the NFL and his first as Washington's defensive backs coach in 2020. Harris brings a combined 14 seasons of NFL experience to the role, including six as a coach and eight as a player.

Harris joins Washington after serving as the Los Angeles Chargers assistant secondary coach from 2016-19. In 2019, the Chargers defense ranked sixth in the league by yards, only surrendering 313.1 yards per game. The group also ranked fifth in the NFL in passing yards per game, only allowing 200.3 yards per game.

In 2018, Harris helped develop first round pick Derwin James into an All-Pro selection and a Pro Bowl starter at safety in his first season. James became the first rookie In Chargers history to record 100 or more tackles. On top of the rise of the rookie, second year defensive back Desmond King earned second-team All-Pro accolades on the strength of three interceptions, including a pick-six. Six of the top seven tacklers for the Chargers in 2018 came from the defensive backfield.

In 2017, the Chargers ranked fourth in the league with 18 total interceptions with 14 coming from defensive backs. The team did not allow a 100-yard receiver until Week 17. Individually, cornerback Casey Hayward was named to his second straight Pro Bowl after ranking tied for second in the NFL with 22 passes defensed. He also added four interceptions.

Harris' first season in 2016 was a huge success as the Chargers led the NFL with 18 interceptions as a team, while Hayward earned Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career after leading the NFL with a career-high seven picks. The Chargers had 11 different players record at least one interception in 2016, most in the NFL and the most in team annals since 2004.

Harris began his coaching career as a defensive quality control coach for the Bears, working primarily with the team's safeties. He coached in Chicago from 2013-14.

An eight-year NFL pro, Harris was a sixth-round pick of the Chicago Bears (181st overall) in 2005. He played four seasons with the Bears over two separate stints (2005-06 and 2010-11). Harris was named second team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2010 and was named one of the Bears' Brian Piccolo Award winners as a rookie in 2005. Besides Chicago, Harris also played for the Carolina Panthers (2007 09), Detroit Lions (2011) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2012), totaling 422 tackles, 16 interceptions, 13 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 37 passes defensed. He appeared in 101 career games and made 88 starts. In 2007, Harris racked up a franchise-record eight forced fumbles for the Panthers.

Harris started seven playoff games during his career, including Super Bowl XLI for the Bears. During that game, he famously intercepted Colts quarterback Peyton Manning. Harris' career postseason statistics include 48 tackles, an interception and two forced fumbles.

ASSISTANT COACHES

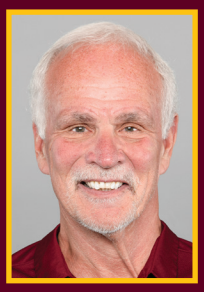
Harris is a native of Little Rock, Ark., and played collegiately at Louisiana-Monroe (2001-04) where he finished his career ranked fourth in school history in career tackles (383) and third in interceptions (14), including a school record-tying seven in 2004.

Harris and his wife, Kenetria, have three sons – Jayce, Jaxon and Jett – and a daughter, Skylar.



PETE HOENER
Tight Ends

1969-72: Tight end/Linebacker Bradley
1975-76: Graduate Assistant Missouri
1977: Offensive Line Illinois State
1978-84: Offensive Coord/O-Line Indiana State
1985-86: Tight Ends St. Louis Cardinals
1987-88: Offensive Line Purdue
1992-97: Offensive Coord/O-Line TCU
1998-99: Offensive Coord/O-Line Iowa State
2000: Running Backs Texas A&M
2001-02: Tight Ends Arizona Cardinals
2003: Offensive Line Arizona Cardinals
2004: Offensive Line Chicago Bears
2005-10: Tight Ends San Francisco 49ers
2011-2019: Tight Ends Carolina Panthers
2020-pres.: Tight Ends Washington

Pete Hoener enters his 22nd season of coaching in the NFL and his first season as Washington's tight ends coach in 2020.

He has spent the past nine years as tight ends coach with the Carolina Panthers (2011-19) under current Washington head coach Ron Rivera. Prior to coaching at Carolina, he held coaching roles with the San Francisco 49ers (2005-10), Chicago Bears (2004) and Arizona Cardinals (2002-03).

Hoener spent nine seasons as Carolina's tight ends coach, overseeing one of the most prominent positions in the offense. Under Hoener's tutelage, Greg Olsen became one of the top tight ends in the NFL. Hoener helped Olsen obtain the top five single-season receptions totals and the top four single-season receiving yards totals by a tight end in Panthers franchise history. Olsen's 10 100-yard receiving games are the most by a tight end in Carolina history.

Through the 2019 season, Hoener helped coach Olsen to top-10 ranks in all-time among NFL tight ends in receptions (718) and receiving yards (8,444) and ninth in receiving touchdowns (59).

In 2016, Olsen became the first tight end in NFL history to have three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons after recording 1,073 yards on a team-high 80 catches. He was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl and earned second-team All-Pro honors for the second consecutive year.

In 2015, Hoener's tight ends helped Carolina win the NFC Championship and set team records with an NFL-leading 500 points and 59 touchdowns. Olsen garnered Pro Bowl recognition after setting a team record for the most receiving yards in a season by a tight end with a career-high 1,104 yards. He ranked second among NFL tight ends in receiving yards and receiving average (14.3 yards per catch) while leading the Panthers in receptions (75) and receiving yards (1,104) and ranking second in receiving touchdowns with seven.

During the 2014 season, Olsen was selected to his first Pro Bowl after ranking third among NFL tight ends with a team-leading 84 receptions and second with 1,008 receiving yards while scoring six receiving touchdowns. In the process, he set team records for the most catches and 100-yard receiving games (four) in a season by a tight end.

In 2013, Olsen paced the Panthers with 73 receptions, 816 receiving yards and six receiving touchdowns – the first time since Wesley Walls in 1997 that a wide receiver did not lead Carolina in receptions and receiving yards. In 2012, Olsen set a then-franchise record for the most receiving yards in a season by a tight end with 843, surpassing the previous record set by Walls in 1999, on 69 catches.

In Hoener's first season with the Panthers in 2011, the tight ends combined to catch 85 passes for 1,008 yards and nine touchdowns and contributed to a running game that averaged a team-record 5.41 yards per carry and featured three 700-yard rushers.

Not limited to being just receivers, Hoener's group has also helped open running lanes for Carolina to rank among the NFL leaders in rushing during his tenure, finishing third in 2011, ninth in 2012, 11th in 2013, seventh in 2014, second in 2015, 10th in 2016 and fourth in both 2017 and 2018.

With the 49ers, Hoener helped develop tight ends Vernon Davis and Delanie Walker, both of whom were drafted by the 49ers in 2006.

In 2010, Davis tallied 56 receptions, 914 receiving yards and seven touchdowns to become the first tight end in franchise history to lead the team in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns in consecutive seasons. The previous year, Davis compiled 78 receptions for 965 yards and 13 touchdowns, an effort that resulted in being selected a Pro Bowl starter. Davis' 13 touchdowns tied the NFL single-season record at the time for the most touchdowns by a tight end and equaled the most touchdown catches in the NFL, making him the first tight end in the Super Bowl era to lead or tie for the league lead in receiving touchdowns.

Hoener joined the 49ers from the Chicago Bears, where he oversaw the offensive line in 2004. Under Hoener's guidance, center Olin Kreutz earned Pro Bowl honors. Prior to the Bears, Hoener spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, serving as the offensive line coach in 2003 and tight ends coach from 2001-02. It marked his second stint with the Cardinals after entering the NFL coaching ranks as the team's tight ends coach from 1985-86 when the franchise was in St. Louis. While with the Cardinals, Hoener worked with tight end Freddie Jones, who finished first on the team with 44 catches for 358 yards in 2002. Jones became the first tight end to lead the team in receiving since Jackie Smith in 1973, and his 44 receptions were the most by a Cardinals tight end since 1968.

Along with his NFL experience, Hoener coached 24 years on the college level as an offensive line coach and offensive coordinator. Beginning as a graduate assistant at Missouri in 1975, he then coached the offensive line at each of his next seven stops: Illinois State (1977), Indiana State (1978-84), Illinois (1987-88), Purdue (1989-91), Texas Christian (1992-97) and Iowa State (1998-99). In addition to his role as offensive line coach, Hoener also held the responsibilities of offensive coordinator at Indiana State, Texas Christian and Iowa State. He handled the running backs at Texas A&M in 2000 before returning to the NFL in 2001.

Hoener played tight end and defensive end at Bradley, where he earned a degree in physical education. Hoener and his wife, Marianne, have three daughters: Jennifer, Kathleen and Lisa. Last name is pronounced HAY-NER.

2004: Wide Receivers New York Jets
2005-06: Quarterbacks San Francisco 49ers
2007: Offensive Coordinator San Francisco 49ers
2008-13: Wide Receivers Coach Baltimore Ravens
2014: Senior Offensive Assistant Buffalo Bills
2015: Wide Receivers Indianapolis Colts
2016-17: Tight Ends Indianapolis Colts

Jim Hostler enters his 21st season of coaching in the NFL and his first season as Washington's wide receivers coach in 2020.

Hostler brings 20 years of NFL coaching experience to the Redskins including coaching roles with the Carolina Panthers (2019), Green Bay Packers (2018), Indianapolis Colts (2015-17), Buffalo Bills (2014), Baltimore Ravens (2008-13), San Francisco 49ers (2005-07), New York Jets (2003-04), New Orleans Saints (2001-02) and Kansas City Chiefs (2000).

In his only season with Carolina in 2019, Hostler helped lead the Panthers receiving group to top-10 finishes in receiving yards (10th, 4,134), receptions (T-7th, 382), receptions per game (T-7th, 23.9) and receiving yards per game (10th, 258.4).

In 2018, Hostler served as the passing game coordinator for the Green Bay Packers. The Packers ranked sixth in the NFL with 4,629 receiving yards and seventh with 392 receptions. Green Bay's Davante Adams was second in the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns and seventh with 1,386 receiving yards.

Prior to Green Bay, Hostler spent three seasons with the Indianapolis Colts, first as wide receivers coach (2015) and then as tight ends coach (2016-17). During his time in Indianapolis, Hostler tutored tight end Jack Doyle, who caught 139 passes for 1,274 yards and nine touchdowns between 2016-17. His 139 receptions over those two seasons were tied for fourth in the league among tight ends, while his 80 receptions in 2017 were the second most by a tight end in Colts history.

In 2015, Hostler coached the wide receivers for Indianapolis, helping guide T.Y. Hilton to his second career Pro Bowl selection as he became just the third player in team history to register three straight 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

Hostler spent the 2014 campaign with the Buffalo Bills, serving as a senior offensive assistant. During that season, wide receiver Sammy Watkins set team single-season rookie records for receptions (65) and receiving yards (982), and the Bills had three different players (Watkins, Robert Woods, Fred Jackson) post at least 50 catches each for the first time in franchise history.

Prior to Buffalo, Hostler spent six seasons (2008-13) with the Baltimore Ravens as wide receivers coach, where he oversaw a receiving corps that played an integral role in the team's Super Bowl XLVII win. During the 2012 campaign, Baltimore's wideouts helped contribute to the team's 3,996 receiving yards, the second most in a season in franchise history to that point.

Hostler spent the 2005-07 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, serving as quarterbacks coach for his first two years and offensive coordinator for his final season. Prior to San Francisco, Hostler spent two seasons with the New York Jets, coaching quarterbacks in 2003 and wide receivers in 2004.

Hostler spent the previous two seasons (2001-02) with the New Orleans Saints, serving as offensive assistant/quality control in his first season and as the assistant wide receivers coach in his second season. Hostler began his NFL coaching career with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2000 as offensive assistant/quality control.

Before joining the NFL coaching ranks, Hostler spent 10 seasons coaching at the college level, including nine seasons (1990-92, 1994-99) in a variety of roles at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. In between stints at IUP, Hostler spent the 1993 season as offensive coordinator at Juniata College.

A four-year letterman and two-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference all-conference selection, Hostler was a standout cornerback at IUP from 1986-89. During his collegiate playing career, he helped the Indians capture two conference titles and make three trips to the PSAC Division II playoffs. He earned a bachelor's degree in criminology from IUP in 1989. Born in Pittsburgh, Pa., Hostler attended Bethel Park High School in Pittsburgh. He and his wife, Jen, have three sons, Clint, Grant and Cooper, and a daughter, Attie.

BEN JACOBS

Asst. Special Teams

2006-10: Linebacker Fresno State
2011-12: Linebacker Cleveland Browns
2013-18: Linebacker Carolina Panthers
2019: Assistant Special Teams Carolina Panthers
2018-Pres.: Assistant. Special Teams Washington

Jacobs is entering his second NFL season and his first as Washington's assistant special teams coach in 2020 after joining the Carolina Panthers in 2019. A former NFL linebacker, Jacobs spent eight seasons as a key contributor on all four phases of special teams, recording 31 special teams tackles and eight tackles on defense in 73 career games played.

Jacobs led or tied for the team high in special teams tackles in two of his seasons (2014 and 2018) with Carolina and helped the Panthers win the NFC Championship and advance to Super Bowl 50 during the 2015 season.

In 2017, Jacobs played a significant role on a coverage unit that finished eighth in opponents' punt return average, allowing just 5.9 yards per return. In 2016, Jacobs was part of a kickoff coverage unit that allowed a league-low 18.1 yards per kickoff return and finished fifth in the NFL with an opponents' average drive start of the 23.7-yard line.

Jacobs entered the NFL in 2011 with the Cleveland Browns as an undrafted free agent out of Fresno State.

RANDY JORDAN

Running Backs

1989-92: Running Back North Carolina
1993: Running Back Los Angeles Raiders
1995-97: Running Back Jacksonville Jaguars
1998-2002: Running Back Oakland Raiders
2003: Special Teams Assistant Oakland Raiders
2004-07: Running Backs Coach Nebraska
2008-11: Running Backs Coach Texas A&M
2012-13: Running Backs Coach North Carolina
2014-Pres.: Running Backs Coach Washington

Randy Jordan enters his seventh season as Washington's running back coach in 2020 after initially being named to the position on January 26, 2014.

A nine-year NFL veteran as a player from 1993-2002, Jordan appeared in 122 career games with the Raiders and Jaguars. He was the recipient of the NFL Unsung Hero Award and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001 and served as special teams captain for the Raiders' AFC Championship team in 2002.

In 2019, Jordan directed a group of running backs that included veterans Adrian Peterson and Chris Thompson. Peterson finished this season with 1,040 scrimmage yards, his 10th season with 1,000+ yards from scrimmage. He is tied for seventh all-time in NFL history for most seasons with 1,000 yards from scrimmage (Curtis Martin, Walter Payton, Barry Sanders, Randy Moss).

Peterson rushed for five touchdowns last season and now has 111 career rushing touchdowns, giving him sole possession of fourth place in NFL history. He also had 211 carries, becoming the sixth player in NFL history to tally 200 or more carries at 34 years or older.

Thompson paced the Washington backs with 42 receptions for 378 yards including two seven-reception games in weeks one and 14. His 42 receptions moved him into third place in Washington franchise history with 212 total receptions.

In 2018, Jordan guided a group that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing on second down and was a key factor in the offense finishing seventh in the league in 3rd-and-1 conversion rate. He was also instrumental in running back Adrian Peterson having his best season since 2015. Peterson finished the season ranked fifth in rushing attempts (251), eighth in rushing yards (1,042) and third in fourth quarter rushing yards (332). Peterson also had the longest touchdown run of his career with a 90 yarder against the Philadelphia Eagles on Monday Night Football in Week 13.

In 2017, Jordan oversaw a group that was ravaged by injury, as his coaching acumen was called upon to prepare eight different running backs for game action, tied with Arizona for the most in the NFL. The group was particularly efficient as receivers out of the backfield, accounting for 885 receiving yards, the fourth-most in the NFL (Saints, 1,254; Patriots, 957; Browns, 923) and the most by a group of Redskins running backs since 2000 (1,127).

Jordan also presided over a breakout 2017 campaign for Chris Thompson, who led the Redskins in both rushing and receiving yards prior to suffering a season-ending injury in Week 11. Thompson recorded only the sixth season in franchise history with at least 275 rushing yards and at least 500 receiving yards and was one of six NFL players to accomplish the feat in 2017 (Todd Gurley II, Le'Veon Bell, Alvin Kamara, Christian McCaffrey and Duke Johnson Jr.), though Thompson accomplished the feat in 10 games while the other five players all appeared in at least 15 contests.

Jordan's hard-nosed approach to the position was evident in the team's running backs in 2016, a year in which the Redskins gained 1,058 of their rushing yards after contact, second-most in the NFL. Jordan oversaw the development of rookie free agent Rob Kelley, who ascended to the starting role mid-year and finished the season as the team's leader in rushing attempts (168), rushing yards (704) and rushing touchdowns (six). Jordan also helped Chris Thompson become the first member of Washington to record at least 325 rushing yards and 325 receiving yards in a single season since Roy Helu Jr. in 2011, all while serving as a critical component in pass protection to the team's record-setting aerial attack despite standing 5-foot-8 and 195 pounds.

In 2015, Jordan oversaw a rotating stable of backs that included workhorse Alfred Morris (202 carries for 751 yards with one touchdown), third-round pick Matt Jones (144 carries for 490 yards with three touchdowns) and Thompson (gained 6.2 yards per carry on 35 attempts). The group also contributed heavily in pass protection, helping the Redskins decrease their sack total from 58 in 2014 to 27 in 2015.

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Jordan helped Morris earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth, making Morris the first Redskins running back selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Stephen Davis in 1999-2000. Morris joined Davis as the only backs in team history to record three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Jordan's work was also evident in the play of fullback Darrel Young, who matched his career highs in rushing touchdowns (three) and receiving touchdowns (two) en route to a career-high five total touchdowns in 2014.

Before joining Washington, Jordan spent two years as the running backs coach at his alma mater, North Carolina. In his first season with UNC in 2012, Jordan's Tar Heels averaged 193.8 rushing yards per game, third-most in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the program's highest average since 1994. That season, he tutored tailback Giovani Bernard to one of the best seasons in UNC history, helping Bernard average 122.8 rushing yards per game, most in the ACC and 11th in the nation.

Jordan coached running backs at Texas A&M for four seasons from 2008-11. In 2011, the Aggies averaged 199.1 rushing yards per game, fourth-most in the Big 12 Conference, and had two different backs – Cyrus Gray and Christine Michael – finish among the top five in the conference in rushing yards per game.

Jordan left for Aggieland from the University of Nebraska where he served as the running backs coach for the Cornhuskers from 2004-07. Jordan helped shape the I-back position, coaching two 1,000-yard rushers in Cody Ross in 2004 and Marlon Lucky in 2007. He oversaw a committee of backs in 2006 that produced nearly 2,400 rushing yards and 26 rushing touchdowns, as an improved effort on the ground helped NU move from 107th in 2005 to 23rd nationally in rushing offense in 2006.

Jordan began his coaching career with the Oakland Raiders as a special teams assistant midway through the 2003 season. He played nine years in the NFL as a running back, playing in 122 career games from 1993 through 2002. He began his career with the Los Angeles Raiders before joining the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and playing three seasons. Jordan holds the distinction of scoring the very first touchdown for the Jacksonville club, a 71-yard reception against Cincinnati in 1995.

After the 1997 season, Jordan rejoined the Raiders' organization where he played five more seasons. In 1998, Jordan rushed for 159 yards for the Raiders. He had a career-high 213 yards rushing and three touchdowns in helping the Raiders reach the AFC Championship Game in 2000. He also caught 27 passes for 299 yards and a touchdown that same season.

Jordan finished his career with 574 yards rushing and seven touchdowns, while making 58 catches for 596 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan was also a standout special teams player. He finished his career with 801 yards on 38 career kick returns, including a season best of 553 yards on 26 returns for Jacksonville in 1996. He also recorded 64 career tackles on special teams.

Jordan played for the University of North Carolina under coach Mack Brown from 1989-92. He earned three letters for the Tar Heels rushing for 1,134 yards and nine touchdowns in his career, including 618 yards and seven touchdowns in 1991.

Jordan earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication from North Carolina in 1993. He was born in Manson, N.C. Jordan and his wife, Romonda, have a daughter, Raven – a volleyball player at the University at Buffalo – and two sons, Jalen and Justin.

PAUL KELLY

Director of Football Opperations

Paul Kelly enters his 22nd NFL season and his 11th as Washington's Director of Football Operations in 2020. Kelly, who was named to the post on February 16, 2010, works directly with Head Coach Ron Rivera and is responsible for coordinating the team's daily operations, including all travel and accommodations for home and away games, managing all football department budgets, coordinating training camp logistics and managing the year-round football schedule.

Additionally, Kelly serves as the coaching staff's liaison on all matters relating to the athletic training, equipment, video and the public relations departments, serving as the point of communication in administering every Washington practice and team function, including all mini-camps, OTA days and training camp.

Kelly previously spent five seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2004-08) and six seasons with the Oakland Raiders (1998-2003). He spent the 2009 season assisting the broadcast team of ESPN's Monday Night Football.

In his five seasons with the Buccaneers, Kelly worked directly with Head Coach Jon Gruden in organizing football operations for the club and directed many of the day-to-day operations of the team. During Kelly's five seasons as a member of the Buccaneers' staff, the Buccaneers captured NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

Kelly spent six seasons (1998-2003) as an assistant on the Oakland Raiders coaching staff, which included three consecutive Division Championships (2000, 2001 & 2002). In 2002, he helped Head Coach Bill Callahan guide Oakland to its first Super Bowl appearance in 19 years as the Raiders represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Kelly graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration with an emphasis in new ventures and small business management from California State University Hayward in 1990. Prior to joining the Raiders, he owned and managed his own San Francisco Bay Area-based businesses.

Kelly and his wife, Catherine, have three children. His oldest son, Colin, is a lieutenant in the United States Army. His daughter, Lauren, is a student and women's soccer player at William & Mary. His youngest son, Hunter, is a student at George Mason and a batboy for the Washington Nationals.

JENNIFER KING

Full-Season Coaching Intern

2018: Intern Wide Receivers Coach Carolina Panthers
2018-19: Asst. WR's & Special Teams Arizona Hotshots
2019: Intern Running Backs Coach Carolina Panthers
2019: Offensive Assistant Dartmouth College
2020: Full-Year Coaching Intern Washington

Jennifer King enters her first full season coaching in the NFL and her first as Washington's full-year coaching intern in 2020. In her role, King will work with the offensive staff throughout the course of the offseason, training camp and regular season and will specifically assist Randy Jordan with the running backs.

King comes to Washington having coached in the National Football League, the Alliance of American Football and in the college ranks.

King was most recently an offensive assistant with Dartmouth College. She primarily worked with the wide receivers and created defensive scouting reports and secondary specific scouting reports for the wide receivers. Dartmouth finished the 2019 season 9-1 and captured the Ivy League Championship. The team averaged 33.3 points per game and averaged 382.4 yards per game.

King interned for the Carolina Panthers during the offseason in 2018 and 2019. In 2018, she was an intern wide receivers coach and assisted Lance Taylor with on-field development drills and in position meetings. She assisted with the creation of scouting scheme cards for the opposing defense and charted practice and in-game player participation and defensive schemes. In 2019, she returned to the Panthers in the role of intern running backs coach and worked with the running backs in organized team activities, mandatory mini camp and training camp. She worked one-on-one with rookies on playbook proficiencies and individual skill development along with analyzing drill efficiency and drill concepts. She worked with the Panthers running backs, including Pro Bowl running back Christian McCaffrey.

In between her two internships with the Panthers, King was an assistant wide receiver coach and special teams assistant for the Arizona Hotshots of the Alliance of American Football. The Hotshots were 5-3 and tied for first place in the AAF Western Conference before the league disbanded. At the time of the league being dissolved, the Hotshots ranked No. 2 in yards per game (343.9) and points per game (23.2).

King has participated in NFL coaching clinics from 2015-18 and also took part in the NFL Women's Career in Football Forum in January of 2018. The forum was a highly selective two-day event which connected qualified female candidates for positions in football as coaches, officials, scouts and athletic trainers.

King also has experience as a player. She was a seven-time All American quarterback and wide receiver for the Carolina Phoenix women's tackle football team from 2006-17. In 2018 she played wide receiver and defensive back for the New York Sharks women's tackle football team and captured the 2018 WFA National Championship. Most recently, King played wide receiver and safety in the District for the D.C. Divas women's tackle football team in 2019.

King also has experience coaching women's basketball. She was the Head Coach of Johnson & Wales University Charlotte from 2016-18. During King's tenure the team had an 37-10 record and they captured the USCAA Division II National Championship in 2018. She was named the USCAA Division II National Coach of the Year in 2018. King also was an assistant coach on the Greensboro College women's basketball staff from 2006-16. During King's 10 years with the team, they went 136-54, won five conference titles and appeared in the NCAA tournament five times.

King holds a masters of science in sports administration from Liberty University and holds a bachelor of science in sports management from Guilford College. She was a member of the Guilford College women's basketball and softball team's from 2002-06.

2016-19: Running Game Coordinator Carolina Panthers
2020-pres.: Offensive Line Washington

John Matsko enters his 29th season coaching in the NFL and his first as Washington's offensive line coach in 2020.

Matsko brings nearly three decades of NFL coaching experience, two Super Bowl appearances and a Super Bowl Championship to Washington. Matsko's career includes coaching roles with the Carolina Panthers (2011-19), Baltimore Ravens (2008-11), Kansas City Chiefs (2006-07), St. Louis Rams (1999-05), New York Giants (1997-98), New Orleans Saints (1994-96) and Phoenix Cardinals (1992-93).

Matsko, who was promoted from offensive line coach to running game coordinator by the Panthers in 2016, spent all nine seasons of his Panthers career under current Washington head coach Ron Rivera. A pivotal part of the Panthers run game, Matsko led Carolina to 30 consecutive regular season games with at least 100 rushing yards from Week 6 of 2014 to Week 3 of 2016, the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh tallied 43 from 1974-77. Four of the top six seasons in rushing average in franchise history have come in the last eight years under Matsko. He also helped lead the Panthers offensive line to an NFC Championship and a trip to Super Bowl 50.

Last season, Carolina's running game had top-six finishes in average yards per carry (6th, 4.71) and rushing touchdowns (T-4th, 20). Running back Christian McCaffrey tallied his second-consecutive season with at least 1,000 rushing yards. In 2018, Carolina topped the NFL in rushing yards per attempt with a 5.1-yard average, while finishing fourth in total rushing yards (2,136). In Week 3, Matsko's line cleared running lanes for McCaffrey to record 184 rushing yards, the fourth-highest rushing output in Panthers history. Left guard Trai Turner earned Pro Bowl honors for the fourth consecutive season.

The Panthers ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing in 2017, averaging 131.4 rushing yards per game. Led by quarterback Cam Newton who rushed for a career-best 754 rushing yards, along with Jonathan Stewart (680 yards) and McCaffrey (435), the Panthers were the only team in the NFL with three players rushing for more than 400 yards. Left guard Andrew Norwell earned AP All-Pro First Team honors, while right tackle Daryl Williams earned Second Team honors. Turner was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season.

Under Matsko's guidance in 2015, the offensive line played a prominent role for the NFL's top-scoring offense and second-best rushing offense, helping the Panthers win the NFC Championship and advance to Super Bowl 50. Ryan Kalil was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth time and added All-Pro recognition, and Turner earned his first career Pro Bowl selection. From 2011-2014, Matsko stabilized a line that won two NFC South Championships

From 2008-10, Matsko helped the Baltimore Ravens rank in the top five in the NFL in rushing twice. Prior to joining Baltimore, Matsko served as offensive line coach of the Kansas City Chiefs from 2006-07. In 2006, the offensive line helped the Chiefs rank ninth in the NFL in rushing and compile a team-record 11 100-yard rushing games. Under Matsko's guidance, guards Will Shields and Brian Waters earned Pro Bowl recognition.

From 1999-2005, Matsko served as the offensive line coach for the St. Louis Rams. The Rams led the league in total offense for three consecutive years from 1999-2001, including a record 5,232 yards in 2000, and won Super Bowl XXXIV. He played an instrumental role in the development of two Pro Bowlers - tackle Orlando Pace and guard Adam Timmerman.

Matsko began his NFL coaching career as offensive line coach of the Phoenix Cardinals in 1992 and served in that capacity for two seasons. In 1993, the line opened holes for the Cardinals to have their first 1,000-yard rusher since 1985. He then moved to New Orleans in 1994 and coached three seasons with the Saints. Under Matsko's tutelage, tackle Willie Roaf made three Pro Bowls, and the Saints rated third in the league for fewest sacks allowed in 1996. Following his stint with New Orleans, Matsko assumed the same role from 1997-98 with the New York Giants, where they improved both their pass protection and run blocking. The Giants allowed 24 fewer sacks and jumped from 19th to seventh in the NFL in rushing in 1997 compared to 1996.

Prior to joining the NFL, Matsko spent 17 years on the college level. He worked as a graduate assistant at Miami (Ohio) from 1974-75 and returned as offensive line coach in 1977 after being the head coach at Danbury High School in Lakeside-Marblehead, Ohio, in 1976. Matsko served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at North Carolina from 1978-84 prior to stops as offensive line coach at Navy in 1985 and Arizona in 1986. He joined Southern California as offensive line coach in 1987 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1989 for his final three seasons with the Trojans.

Matsko played fullback at Kent State and lettered three years from 1970-72. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in business education in 1973 and later earned a master's degree in education from Miami (Ohio) in 1976.

Matsko and his wife, Kim, have four children: two daughters, Marie and Liz, and two sons, John and Michael. Marie is married to Roque Jiminez and the couple has three children: Jackie, Lucas and Emily. Liz is married to Scott Munter and the couple has three children: Brooklyn, Zachary and J.D. Michael is married to Ariel Scoggins with sons, Noah and Leo. John is married to Casey Cunningham with two daughters, Eila and Sayler.

SAM MILLS III
Defensive Line

1997-99: Defensive Back Montclair State
2005: Defensive Assistant Carolina Panthers
2006-10: Defensive Quality Control Carolina Panthers
2011-17: Asst. Defensive Line Carolina Panthers
2018: Defensive Line Carolina Panthers
2019: Defensive Line/Game Mgmt. Carolina Panthers
2020-pres. Defensive Line Washington

Sam Mills III enters his 16th season in the NFL and his first as Washington's defensive line coach in 2020.

Mills joins Washington after serving in a variety of roles with the Carolina Panthers from 2005-19, including defensive line coach during the 2018 season after serving as assistant defensive line coach over the previous eight seasons. In 2019, Mills served as the defensive line coach as well as assuming game management responsibilities, assisting head coach Ron Rivera with clock management, replay challenges and other situational football analysis.

In 2019, Mills coached a Panthers defensive line that helped contribute to the defense finishing the season second in the NFL in sacks totaling 53 sacks. The defense also finished second in the league in sacks per pass attempt with one sack per 9.74 opponent pass attempts. Defensive tackle Vernon Butler finished the season tied for seventh in the NFL among defensive tackles in sacks with six total sacks.

In 2018, four of the top eight sack artists in franchise history were on the roster. All-time Panthers sack leader Julius Peppers tallied five sacks on the season, bringing his career total to 159.5 sacks, fourth most all-time in NFL history. Defensive tackle Kawann Short tallied 50 tackles, 22 quarterback pressures and three sacks on the season, earning Pro Bowl honors for the second time in his career.

In 2017, the defensive line helped the Panthers record 50 sacks, ranking third in the NFL and fourth in franchise history. Peppers and Mario Addison led the team with 11.0 sacks each, the fifth pair of teammates with double-digit sacks in a season in franchise history. The line also helped the Panthers rank third in the league in rushing defense, giving up just 88.1 rushing yards a game, the second fewest in franchise history.

In 2016, Mills helped tutor a defensive line that produced 35 of the team's 47 sacks, which ranked second in the NFL. Addison produced a then-career-high 9.5 sacks, and defensive tackles Short and Star Lotulelei combined for 10 sacks, tied for the fifth most sacks by a pair of defensive tackles in the NFL.

In 2015, Mills assisted a unit that was a linchpin for a defense that helped the Panthers reach Super Bowl 50. Carolina's defensive line recorded 33.5 of the team's 44 sacks. The unit contributed to a defense that ranked sixth in the NFL in total defense, the fourth consecutive season the team fielded a top10 defense, and also helped Carolina rank fourth in the NFL in rushing defense.

Short enjoyed a breakout performance, tying for eighth in the NFL with 11 sacks - which tied for the most among defensive tackles. Defensive end Kony Ealy contributed five sacks and tied an NFL record with three sacks in the Super Bowl. Charles Johnson, slowed by injuries in the middle of the season, returned for the postseason to notch three sacks for the NFC champions. In all, 10 different defensive linemen notched at least one sack for the Panthers.

In 2014, Mills assisted a defense that finished 10th in the NFL in total defense. The defensive line totaled 32.5 of the team's 40 sacks, including a team-leading 8.5 by Johnson and four by Ealy, who earned all-rookie honors. In Carolina's 27-16 NFC Wild Card victory over Arizona, the defensive line gathered four sacks to help limit the Cardinals to an NFL postseason record low 78 total net yards.

During the 2013 season, Mills aided a unit that helped the Panthers lead the NFL with 60 sacks, including a team-record nine at Atlanta, and rank second in total defense, second in rushing defense and sixth in passing defense. Defensive end Greg Hardy tied a team record with 15 sacks to earn Pro Bowl and second-team All-Pro honors, while Johnson posted 11 sacks to become the first player in team history with at least nine sacks in four consecutive seasons. Mills also played a key part in the development of all-rookie defensive tackles Lotulelei and Short.

In 2012, Mills worked with a line that was responsible for 37 of Carolina's 39 sacks. Johnson led the team with 12.5, and Hardy posted 11 as they became the first Panthers tandem to record double-digit sacks since 2002.

Prior to the 2011 season, Mills added assistant defensive line coach to his title along with serving as Carolina's defensive quality control coach, though he actually had been working with the defensive line since 2006. He assisted a line that accounted for 25.5 of the team's 31 sacks. Johnson paced the team with nine sacks, and young players received valuable experience as three rookies started games at defensive tackle.

After spending the 2005 season in a dual role as a strength and conditioning and defensive assistant, Mills was promoted to defensive quality control coach in 2006.

Mills' father, Sam, played and coached for the Carolina Panthers and is the only Panthers player to have his number retired. He is also the only player inducted into the team's Hall of Honor. When his father played for the Panthers, Mills worked as a ball boy at training camp and later in the equipment room before joining the strength and conditioning program.

Mills followed in his father's footsteps by playing at Montclair (N.J.) State, where the elder Mills was an NCAA Division II All-America at linebacker. He started 20 games in two seasons at defensive back for the Red Hawks and totaled 71 tackles, two interceptions, 14 passes defensed, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Mills has been a member of the coaching staff for the East-West Shrine Game five times and served as head coach of the East team in 2018.

BRETT NENABER
Director of Player Performance

Nenaber is entering his eighth season as an NFL athletic performance professional after serving in a variety of roles with the Carolina Panthers, including athletic performance analyst (2015-19), assistant strength and conditioning coach (2014-15) and strength and conditioning intern (2013-14).

Prior to working in the NFL, Nenaber spent two years with Arizona State University, serving as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach (2010-12). He also spent time with the Red Bull Racing Team, serving as a pit crew member for two years (2008-09).

Nenaber received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Arizona State University, majoring in Interdisciplinary studies and Exercise and Wellness respectively.

2015-16: Running Back/Receiver University of Cal
2017: Football Operations Intern Carolina Panthers
2018-19: Defensive Quality Control Carolina Panthers
2020-pres.: Defensive Quality Control Washington

Vincent Rivera enters his third NFL season and first as Washington's defensive quality control coach in 2020.

Rivera joins the Redskins after spending two seasons with the Carolina Panthers as a defensive quality control coach. In his role, Rivera breaks down game film, analyzes opponent tendencies and assists in the preparation of the defensive game plan.

In 2018, Rivera spent his time primarily with the defensive backs, helping coach a unit that featured two young cornerbacks in James Bradberry and Donte Jackson in the starting lineup. Jackson led the Panthers with four interceptions in 2018, the second most by a rookie in franchise history. Bradberry led the team with 20 passes defensed.

Rivera also worked as a football operations intern for the Panthers during the 2017 season.

Rivera began his collegiate career at the University of San Diego, redshirting in 2012 and seeing action at running back in 2013 before transferring to the University of California-Berkeley. After sitting out the 2014 season, Rivera played two seasons (2015-16) at Cal, seeing action at running back, wide receiver and on special teams. He finished his career at Cal with 44 catches for 487 yards and four touchdowns. Rivera graduated with a degree in film and media studies.

Rivera is the nephew of Redskins head coach, Ron Rivera.

2020-Pres. Asst. Defensive Backs Washington

Entering his 32nd year in the coaching profession and his ninth in the NFL, Richard Rodgers enters his first year with Washington in 2020 as the team's assistant defensive backs coach.

Rodgers joins Washington after serving in a variety of roles with the Carolina Panthers from 2012-19. In 2019, he served as the safeties coach where he coached safety duo Eric Reid and Tre Boston. Reid is one-of-four players in the NFL this season with at least 110 tackles and four sacks on the year. He finished the season second on the team with 129 tackles. He has also tallied six passes defensed and two fumble recoveries. Boston ranks fourth on the team with 68 tackles and has also recorded three interceptions and 11 passes defensed.

In 2018, he served as the secondary coach after three seasons as the assistant defensive backs/safeties coach. The secondary featured two young cornerbacks in the starting lineup, James Bradberry and rookie Donte Jackson. Jackson led the Panthers with four interceptions, the second most by a rookie in franchise history and Bradberry led the team with a career-high 20 passes defensed.

The 2017 season saw the addition of veteran safety Mike Adams to the secondary. He recorded two interceptions and two fumble recoveries. In the season's final nine weeks, the Panthers tallied nine interceptions, including seven from the secondary. Those picks helped Carolina rank third in the NFL with a plus-eight turnover differential over that period.

In 2016, Rodgers worked with a position group that helped the Panthers tie for the NFC lead with 17 interceptions. Safety Kurt Coleman led the team in interceptions (four) for the second consecutive season, ranking fifth in the NFL among safeties with four picks.

Rodgers returned to his roots as assistant defensive backs coach for Carolina in 2015, after he had previously gained experience as a secondary coach for 11 years on the college level before entering the NFL. In 2015, Rodgers assisted a group that helped the Panthers rank sixth in the NFL in total defense and win the NFC Championship. Carolina limited opposing quarterbacks to an NFL-low 73.5 passer rating and paced the NFL in interceptions (24), total takeaways (39) and turnover differential (plus-20). Including the postseason, seven different defensive backs recorded interceptions for the Panthers. Coleman finished third in the NFL with seven interceptions, and cornerback Josh Norman earned All Pro and Pro Bowl honors.

Rodgers came to Carolina in 2012 as special teams assistant and took over as special teams coordinator for the final seven games, a position he held through the 2014 season.

In his first full season as the Panthers' special teams coordinator in 2013, Rodgers oversaw a unit that featured record-setting performances from kicker Graham Gano, punter Brad Nortman and kick returner Ted Ginn, Jr., while long snapper J.J. Jansen made the Pro Bowl.

Rodgers aided Gano in converting 24-of-27 field goal attempts, including a team-record and NFL-leading six makes from 50 yards or more, and topping the league with a 79.7 touchback percentage on kickoffs – then the best mark in the league since 1992. Rodgers helped Nortman set then-team records with a gross average of 47.8 yards and net average of 41.6 yards, ranking fourth and fifth in the NFL, respectively. Ginn set a franchise record and ranked sixth in the NFL with a 12.2-yard punt return average.

During the last seven games of the 2012 season, Rodgers had a positive effect on special teams play, helping the Panthers improve from 31st to 14th in the NFL in punt return average and from 18th to 10th in punt coverage. Rodgers' units also led the league in opponents' kickoff return average following a 30th place finish in 2011.

Prior to joining Carolina, Rodgers coached collegiately for 23 years. He coached at Holy Cross from 2005-11, spending his last six seasons as defensive coordinator after handling the secondary in 2005. Rodgers developed the Crusaders into one of the top defenses in the Patriot League. Five players from his unit earned All-Patriot League honors in 2009, 2010 and 2011.

From 2001-04, Rodgers tutored the secondary at New Mexico State. During his tenure, the Aggies amassed 45 interceptions while lowering their passing yardage allowed in each of his final three seasons. Previously, Rodgers worked at Portland State from 1997-2000. He oversaw the Vikings' secondary and special teams in addition to serving as the team's strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prior to Portland State, Rodgers had a two-year stint at San Jose State, working with the secondary and special teams from 1995-96. He started his coaching career as an assistant at Diablo Valley Community College from 1989-94.

Rodgers was also exposed to professional football along the way. He participated in the NFL's Minority Internship Program with the Oakland Raiders during training camp in 1996 and was the defensive backs coach for the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1998.

A two-time second-team All-Pac 10 Conference selection at California, where he was teammates with Panthers head coach Ron Rivera, Rodgers played defensive back and was the Golden Bears' special teams captain for three seasons. He called "The Play" in the huddle to defeat Stanford in 1982. Rodgers was the second and fourth player to handle the ball on the famed five-lateral kickoff return for a touchdown on the final play between the two rivals.

Rodgers then played defensive back and wide receiver for three seasons in the Arena Football League. He appeared in the league's first championship game in 1987, catching a 32-yard touchdown pass for the Denver Dynamite in Arena Bowl I.

He graduated from California with a degree in political science. He has a daughter, Kayla, and four sons, Richard II – a tight end for Washington – Christopher, Noah and Evan, and is married to Sara.

2014-17: Asst. HC/Defensive Coord. Air Force
2018-19: Linebackers Carolina Panthers
2020-Pres. Linebackers Washington

Entering his 20th year in the coaching profession and his third in the NFL, Steve Russ enters his first year with Washington in 2020 as the team's linebackers coach. Prior to joining Washington, he served as the linebackers coach for the Carolina Panthers from 2018-19.

In 2019, the Panthers made a switch to the 3-4 defense where Russ headed both the inside and outside linebacker units, working directly with the inside linebacker group and overseeing the outside linebacker group. The inside linebacker group was led by seven-time Pro Bowler and five-time First Team All-Pro selection Luke Kuechly. Kuechly finished fourth in the league with 144 total tackles while Shaq Thompson added 109. Kuechly also added 12 pass defenses, which was tied for the most in the league among linebackers. The Panthers defense finished the 2019 season ranked second in the NFL in sacks totaling 53 sacks. The outside linebacker corps, led by Mario Addison (9.5) and Bruce Irvin (8.5), finished the season with 18 total sacks. First round pick Brian Burns also contributed 7.5 sacks during his rookie campaign.

In his first season coaching the linebackers in 2018, Russ was tasked with coaching a talented group including Luke Kuechly, Thomas Davis and Shaq Thompson. Under Russ' tutelage, Kuechly recorded 130 tackles, eighth most in the NFL according to press box stats, and 20 tackles for loss, a new career high and tied for third in the league. Kuechly earned Pro Bowl honors and was named AP First-Team All Pro. After playing in just 12 games, Davis still finished third on the team with 84 tackles. Thompson finished with career highs in tackles (79) and sacks (3.0).

Prior to joining Carolina, Russ spent six seasons (2012-17) at Air Force as the assistant head coach, including four (2014-17) as the defensive coordinator and defensive backfield coach. Russ served as co defensive coordinator from 2012-13 with responsibilities coaching the inside linebackers (2013) and secondary (2012).

In 2017, the Air Force defense led the Mountain West Conference against the pass, allowing just 171.1 yards per game, a mark that ranked 10th nationally. The unit also ranked second in the conference and 14th in the country in opponent first downs.

In 2016, Russ' defensive unit ranked 10th nationally in rushing defense and 33rd in total defense. He coached defensive back Weston Steelhammer to three first-team all-conference selections, an Academy first, and to a pair of All-American honors in 2016. Steelhammer earned the East-West Shrine Bowl Pat Tillman Award for leadership and citizenship. He was also one of four finalists – with the other three finalists all being drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft – for the Lott Trophy, which is presented annually to the college football defensive impact player of the year.

In 2014, Russ' first season as the Falcons' sole defensive coordinator, Air Force improved in all four major categories, including a nation-best 15.8 points per game improvement to 24.2 allowed per game, moving 72 spots higher in the national rankings (33rd) than the previous season. The Falcons also improved in rushing, passing and total defense, including a more than 100-yard improvement in rushing defense to 135.6 yards per game. Air Force led the nation by improving from 119th nationally in 2013 to 28th in 2014, a 91-spot jump.

Russ came to Air Force, his alma mater, from Wake Forest where he spent four seasons (2008-11). Russ coached tight ends and fullbacks in his first two seasons before moving to the defensive side of the ball, coaching linebackers in 2010 and the secondary in 2011.

Wake's punt coverage team, which Russ coordinated, led the nation in punt return defense, allowing just nine yards all season in 2008. When he took over the secondary in 2011, the Wake defense showed dramatic improvement.

From 2010 to 2011, the pass efficiency defense improved 56 spots nationally, the third-down defense improved 52 spots and the scoring defense improved 45 spots. In 2011, Russ coached safety Josh Bush to first-team All-ACC and third-team AP All-America honors. Bush was drafted in the sixth round by the New York Jets. Russ coached Merrill Noel, who was named the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Freshman All-American by numerous publications as he led the country in pass break-ups. He also coached Tommy Bohanon, a fullback that was drafted in the seventh round of the 2013 Draft by the New York Jets.

Russ also coached at Syracuse (2005-07) where he led linebackers in 2005 and 2006, before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2007. While at Syracuse, Russ coached linebacker Kelvin Smith, a seventh-round draft pick in 2007 by the Miami Dolphins.

He also coached linebackers as an assistant at Ohio (2001-04), coaching alongside current Panthers defensive coordinator Eric Washington. Russ began his coaching career at Air Force as a graduate assistant strength coach in 1995.

While playing at Air Force, Russ earned second-team All-WAC honors in 1994 and was selected to play in both the Blue-Gray All-Star game and the East-West Shrine game following his senior season. Russ received Air Force's Brian Bullard Award, which is the program's highest honor, in 1994 and was a seventh-round draft pick of the Denver Broncos in the 1995 NFL Draft. He was just the fifth player in Air Force history to be drafted in the NFL.

Following two years of active service in the military, Russ joined the Broncos and spent four seasons (1997-2000) with the team, and he was a part of Denver's 1997 and 1998 Super Bowl Championship teams. He played in 24 career games as a linebacker and on special teams.

Russ is a native of Stetsonville, Wis. He and his wife, Betsy, are the parents of a daughter, Mackenzie, and a son, Tyler.

JAKE SANKAL

Asst. Strength and Conditionng

Jake Sankal is entering his fifth NFL season with Washington in 2020 after joining the team as an assistant strength and conditioning coach and team nutritionist during the 2016 offseason.

Prior to joining Washington, Sankal worked as a strength and conditioning coach in the Cleveland Indians organization. His tenure with the organization from 2010-15 included stints with the Mahoning Valley Scrappers (A), Kinston Indians (A), Carolina Mudcats (A) and three seasons with the Akron RubberDucks (AA).

2013: Defensive End Cleveland Gladiators
2014: Defensive Line Assistant Central Michigan
2015-16: Offensive Line Assistant Central Michigan
2018-19: Offensive Assistant Carolina Panthers
2020-Pres. Offensive Quality Control Washington

Todd Storm is entering his third season coaching in the NFL and his first as Washington's offensive quality control coach in 2020.

Storm spent the 2018-19 seasons with the Carolina Panthers assisting on the offensive side of the ball, specifically working with tight ends and alongside current tight ends coach, Pete Hoener.

From 2014-16, Storm was a graduate assistant at Central Michigan University. In 2014, he worked with the defensive line and transitioned to the offensive line during the 2015-16 seasons.

Prior to his work at CMU, Storm played the 2013 season as a defensive end in the Arena Football League with the Cleveland Gladiators and registered three sacks. In 2012, Storm was invited to the Detroit Lions Rookie Mini Camp.

Storm graduated from Michigan Tech in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in marketing. He also completed his masters in sports administration in 2016 at Central Michigan University.

During his time at Michigan Tech, he played defensive end for the Huskies and was twice named Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year. He also received All-Region Honors twice as well as unanimous All-American accolades following his senior campaign.

BRENT VIESELMEYER
Asst. Defensive Backs/Nickel

1999-06: Defensive Coordinator Lutheran High School
2007-12: Head Coach Valor Christian H.S.
2013-14: Defensive Coordinator Houston Baptist
2015-16: Assistant Linebackers Oakland Raiders
2017-18: Safeties Oakland Raiders
2018: Offensive Analyst Kansas
2019: Head Coach Santa Margarita Catholic
2020-Pres.: Asst. Defensive Backs/Nickel Washington

Brent Vieselmeyer enters his fifth season coaching in the NFL and his first as Washington's assistant defensive backs/nickel coach in 2020 after serving in a variety of coaching roles with the Oakland Raiders from 2015-18.

Prior to joining Washington, Vieselmeyer was the head coach for Santa Margarita Catholic High School. Prior to coaching at Santa Margarita, he was an offensive analyst for the University of Kansas in 2018.

In 2016 with Oakland, the linebacking corps was led by veteran linebackers Bruce Irvin, Perry Riley Jr. and Malcolm Smith. The addition of Irvin in free agency made an immediate impact, as Irvin started all 16 games for the first time in his career, generating seven sacks (second most on the team), and tied a franchise record with six forced fumbles, also tying for the NFL lead. Smith recorded a team-high 115 tackles (86 solo), a mark that led the team for the second consecutive season. Riley Jr. joined the team in October and stepped in upon arrival and emerged into a starting role, finishing sixth on the team with 62 tackles (45). Rookie LB Cory James saw significant time in 2016, making five starts and posting 43 stops in his five starts.

In 2015, Vieselmeyer assisted with a linebacker corps that had a significant impact on the Raiders overall defense. With Vieselmeyer's assistance, Smith lead the team with a career-high 143 tackles (98), while finishing second on the team with four sacks.

Vieselmeyer also assisted in the development of rookie linebackers Ben Heeney and Neiron Ball. Heeney emerged as a key contributor on defense late in the season finishing with 39 tackles (28), 2.5 sacks and one forced fumble. Ball emerged as a starter at outside linebacker making nine tackles (four), one sack and one pass defensed in his six appearances before having his rookie season cut short due to a knee injury.

From 2013-14, Vieselmeyer served as the co-defensive coordinator at Houston Baptist University. Prior to joining the Huskies, he served as head coach at Valor Christian High School in Highlands Ranch, Colo., beginning in March 2007, where he launched the football program. At Valor Christian, he compiled a 55-12 record, leading the Eagles to four-straight state championships in 2009 (3A), 2010 (4A), 2011 (4A) and 2012 (5A). He was named the Denver Post Colorado Coach of the Year in 2009, 2010 and 2011 and was All Sport Jefferson County Coach of the Year in 2010.

Vieselmeyer began his coaching career at Orange (Calif.) Lutheran High School, where he spent eight years as defensive coordinator. He led the Lancers to a 2006 California state title. They also won the 2004 CIF Southern Section Championship and were finalists in 2000, 2001 and 2003.

During his career, Vieselmeyer has seen 31 of his student-athletes earn college football scholarships.

Vieselmeyer is a native of Wauwatosa, Wis., where he played linebacker at Redlands (Calif.) and Concordia University. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in education from Concordia in 1999 and a Master of Arts in educational administration from the University of Phoenix in 2005. He and his wife, Marnie, have two daughters, Payton and Quinn.

TRAVELLE WHARTON
Asst. Offensive Line

2000-03: Offensive Lineman University of South Carolina
2004-11: Offensive Lineman Carolina Panthers
2012: Offensive Lineman Cincinnati Bengals
2013: Offensive Lineman Carolina Panthers
2015: Offensive Line South Carolina
2018-19: Assistant Offensive Line Carolina Panthers
2020-Pres.: Assistant Offensive Line Washington

Travelle Wharton enters his 13th season in the NFL including three as a coach and 10 as a player and his first as Washington's assistant offensive line coach in 2020.

He coached with the Carolina Panthers from 2018-19 assisting then-running game coordinator John Matsko.

In 2019, Wharton assisted an offensive line that helped Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey rush for 1,387 yards, third most in the NFL and a career-high 15 rushing touchdowns. It was his second-consecutive season with at least 1,000 rushing yards. Overall in 2019, Wharton assisted a Panthers offense that finished sixth in the NFL in average yards per carry with 4.71.

In Wharton's first season coaching in 2018, he assisted with an offensive line that helped Carolina top the NFL in rushing yards per attempt with a 5.1-yard average, while finishing fourth in total rushing yards (2,136). The Panthers rushing attack recorded 69 rushes that went for 10+ yards, the second most among all teams in 2018 and second most in a single season in team history. Left guard Trai Turner earned Pro Bowl honors for the fourth consecutive season.

Wharton worked with the Panthers prior to the 2017 season in offseason workouts and training camp as part of the NFL Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship.

Wharton made his coaching debut with his alma mater, the

2020

University of South Carolina, with one season of coaching in 2015. He was initially named offensive quality control coach, but then was promoted to offensive line coach midway through the 2015 season.

Wharton is a veteran of 10 NFL seasons, nine (2004-11, 2013) with the Panthers and one with the Cincinnati Bengals (2012). With the Panthers, Wharton started 111 of 115 regular season games played, the third-highest totals by an offensive lineman in team history

Wharton anchored the offensive line on Carolina's top three seasons of rushing in franchise history in 2009 (2,498), 2008 (2,437) and 2011 (2,408). Carolina ranked third in the NFL in rushing in all three of those seasons. The Panthers averaged 5.41 yards per carry in 2011, a mark that led the NFL and set a franchise record.

In 2008, Wharton helped protect Panthers quarterback Jake Delhomme as Carolina allowed just 20 sacks, a mark that ranked sixth in the NFL and still stands as the franchise record.

Wharton played in five postseason games, helping the Panthers advance to the playoffs in 2005, 2008 and 2013.

A native of Fountain Inn, S.C., Wharton played collegiately at South Carolina where he was a four-year letterwinner (2000-03) and earned All-SEC recognition in his junior and senior seasons. He also earned Freshman All-America honors and a spot on the All-SEC Freshman team. He was selected in the third round of the 2004 NFL Draft by the Panthers.

KEN ZAMPESE
Quarterbacks

1985-88: Wide Receiver University of San Diego
1990-91: Graduate Assistant Southern California
1992-94: Wide Receivers Northern Arizona
1995: Offensive Coordinator Northern Arizona
1996-97: QB's/Passing Game Coord. Miami (Ohio)
1998: Offensive Assistant Philadelphia Eagles
1999: Offensive Assistant Green Bay Packers
2000: Offensive Assistant St. Louis Rams
2001: Wide Receivers Coach St. Louis Rams
2002: Passing Game Coordinator St. Louis Rams
2003-15: Quarterbacks Cincinnati Bengals
2016-17: Offensive Coordinator Cincinnati Bengals
2018: Quarterbacks Cleveland Browns
2019: Offensive Coordinator/QB's, Atlanta Legends
2019: Defensive Analyst University of Florida
2020-Pres. Quarterbacks

Ken Zampese enters his 22nd season coaching in the NFL and his first as Washington's quarterbacks coach in 2020. He has served in a variety of offensive coaching roles with the Cleveland Browns (2018), Cincinnati Bengals (2003-17), St. Louis Rams (2000-02), Green Bay Packers (1999) and Philadelphia Eagles (1998). In 2019, Zampese was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the Atlanta Legends of the Alliance of American Football (AAF).

In 2019, Zampese spent time with the Atlanta Legends of the Aliance of American Football. He served as the teams offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach and helped lead his quarterback room to a 62.4 completion percentage going 186-298 with five touchdowns and 1,907 yards in eight games. In the fall, he served as a defensive analyst with the University of Florida, assisting defensive coordinator, Todd Grantham. He specifically assisted in breaking down opponent pass protections, leading to the teams 11-sack increase from the previous season.

In 2018, Zampese helped guide Browns rookie quarterback Baker Mayfield to an NFL rookie record 27 passing touchdowns, despite starting just 13 games. His 27 passing touchdowns ranked fifth in a season among all Browns quarterbacks in franchise history. Mayfield also threw for 3,725 passing yards, setting a Browns rookie record and ranking sixth among NFL rookies all-time. Mayfield led all 2018 NFL rookies in passing yards (3,725), passing touchdown (27), completion percentage (63.79) and passer rating (93.7) under the guidance of Zampese.

As the Bengals offensive coordinator in 2016, Zampese helped the Bengals offense finish comfortably in the NFL's top half in net yards at No. 13, averaging 356.9 per game. Prior to being named the clubs offensive coordinator, Zampese spent 13 seasons as the Bengals quarterbacks coach, working with Jon Kitna, Carson Palmer and Andy Dalton.

In 2015, Dalton posted a club-record 106.3 passer rating, and his career rating of 91.8 is also a franchise record. From 2011-15, Dalton became only the second starting quarterback in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons. Zampese stands as the only quarterbacks coach to fully guide such an accomplishment, as Baltimore's Joe Flacco, the other quarterback to turn the trick, had three different position coaches during his five-year run. Equally notable in 2015 from a coaching standpoint, first-year quarterback AJ McCarron was immediately impressive when suddenly called on late in the season to replace an injured Dalton. McCarron went from Zampese's classroom to a playoff run unexpectedly.

McCarron posted a 2-1 record and a 101.1 passer rating in his three starts (Games 14-16). In the Wild Card playoff, McCarron led a Bengals comeback from a 15-point deficit to take a late lead, only to see Pittsburgh come back with a winning field goal at the gun.

Prior to Dalton, Zampese led Carson Palmer into the ranks of the Bengals' all-time top passers. Palmer still holds the club's all-time best completion percentage (62.9).

In 2003, his first season with the Bengals, Zampese had success with a veteran starting quarterback in Jon Kitna. The '03 campaign saw Kitna post career highs at that point in completions (324), passing yards (3,591), touchdown passes (26), completion percentage (62.3) and rating (87.4).

Zampese came to the Bengals following three seasons in St. Louis. He was the club's wide receivers coach in 2001 as the Rams led the league in passing yards, averaging 291.4. In 2002, he added the title of passing game coach, and the Rams finished second in the league at 259.6 yards per game. Zampese began his NFL career in 1998 as an offensive assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Prior to the NFL, Zampese coached for nine years in college, including two seasons at Miami (Ohio). In '97, Miami averaged 37.4 points per game. Zampese played wide receiver and kick returner at the University of San Diego from 1985-88. He was the team's Special Teams Player of the Year as a senior. He earned an undergraduate degree in business from San Diego, and later received a master's degree in adult education from Southern California.

JEFF ZGONINA
Asst. Defensive Line

1989-92: Defensive Tackle Purdue University
1993-94: Defensive Tackle Pittsburgh Steelers
1995: Defensive Tackle Carolina Panthers
1996: Defensive Tackle Atlanta Falcons
1997: Defensive Tackle St. Louis Rams
1998: Defensive Tackle Indianapolis Colts
1999-2002: Defensive Tackle St. Louis Rams

2013: Asst. Defensive Line Coach Houston Texans
2016: Asst. Defensive Line Coach New York Giants
2017-18: Defensive Line Coach San Francisco 49ers
2020-Pres. Assistant Offensive Line Washington

Jeff Zgonina (pronounced ska-KNEE-na) is entering his 22nd combined season as a player or coach in the NFL in 2020 after being named Washington's assistant defensive line coach on January 23, 2020.

Prior to joining Washington, Zgonina served as the San Francisco 49s defensive line coach from 2017-18. During that time, Zgonina played a major role in the development of DT DeForest Buckner. Buckner increased his sack totals from 3.0 in 2017 to 12.0 in 2018. He finished 2018 No. 3 in the NFL in total sacks among defensive tackles and was selected to his first career Pro Bowl.

In 2017, Zgonina guided the 49ers defensive line as they improved throughout the season. Over the final eight weeks of the season, the 49ers defense ranked fifth in the NFL, allowing 91.4 rushing yards per game, while also allowing an average of 3.62 yards per carry, ranking tied for fourth in the league. Buckner led the defensive line with 61 tackles and tied for the most sacks among defensive linemen (3.0) with rookie DL Solomon Thomas.

While with the Giants, Zgonina worked with a defensive unit that ranked second in the NFL, allowing 17.8 points per game. That unit also finished tied for third in opponent rushing yards per game (88.6). After signing with the Giants as a free agent, DE Olivier Vernon led the team with 8.5 sacks while NT Damon Harrison registered career highs in sacks (2.5) and tackles (86) while working with Zgonina and defensive line coach Patrick Graham.

Zgonina previously served as assistant defensive line coach with the Houston Texans for one season in 2013. In Houston, he worked with DE J.J. Watt, who led the team with 10.5 sacks and was named All-Pro for the second time in his career.

A seventh-round draft choice (185th overall) of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1993 NFL Draft, Zgonina played in 219 games (67 starts) and registered 448 tackles, 26 sacks, and 13 fumble recoveries, 11 passes defensed, three forced fumbles and one interception. The former defensive tackle played for the Steelers (1993-94), Carolina Panthers (1995), Atlanta Falcons (1996), St. Louis Rams (1997, 1999-2002), Indianapolis Colts (1998), Miami Dolphins (2003-06) and Houston Texans (2007-09) throughout his 17 NFL seasons.

Throughout his career, Zgonina played in nine career postseason games including an appearance in the Rams 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV where he registered three tackles. Zgonina played collegiately at Purdue University (1989-92) where he was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.

Zgonina has two children: daughter, Bailey, and son, Carter.

COMMUNITY

With his wife, Kelly, Davis founded the Thomas Davis Defending Dreams Foundation, a non-profit dedicated to providing and promoting free programs that enhance the quality of life for underprivileged children and their families. The foundation performs several programs, including a back-to-school supply giveaway, a Thanksgiving meal for members of a local women's shelter and a Christmas gift giveaway that spans three states. Additionally, Davis provides two college scholarships each year to graduating high school seniors that have completed the Youth Leadership Academy program. In 2013, he led the construction of the first and only playground in his hometown of Shellman, Ga. For his work in the community mixed with his success on the field, Davis was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year in 2014. He became the first linebacker to receive the award since Hall of Fame LB Derrick Brooks was recognized as the Man of the Year in 2000. Davis' efforts through his foundation and other means to promote programs for underserved youth have been consistent throughout his career. When accepting the honor, Davis said, "Just knowing the struggles of some parents. I grew up in a single-parent household, and my mom struggled to raise me and my sister, and I didn't want these kids to go through what we had to go through. I tried to reach out and give back to them as much as I can to make sure that those kids don't go through those struggles."

Sept. 13, 2020 | GAME 1 | FedExField [Landover, Md.]

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 27, EAGLES 17

LANDOVER, Md. - The Washington Football Team played like a group of guys determined to make a name for themselves.

Peyton Barber ran for two touchdowns and Dwayne Haskins rallied Washington from a 17-point deficit to beat the Philadelphia Eagles 27-17 Sunday in coach Ron Rivera's debut.

After falling behind 17-0 following a pair of touchdown passes by Carson Wentz, Washington relied on a punishing defense and opportunistic offense in its first game since owner Dan Snyder finally agreed to change the team's name and former employees alleged sexual harassment.

Rivera lived up to his "Riverboat Ron" nickname earned in nine seasons with Carolina. In his first game after finding out he has a form of skin cancer, Rivera went for it on fourth-and-1 from the Eagles 5 with the score tied midway through the fourth quarter.

Barber ran for the first down and then scored from the 3 to give Washington a 24-17 lead.

Zach Ertz dropped a pass on fourth-and-3 from the Eagles 42 on the ensuing drive and Dustin Hopkins kicked a 40-yard field goal to make it 27-17.

Wentz was sacked eight times and threw two costly interceptions behind an injury-depleted offense line featuring two guys -- right tackle Jack Driscoll and right guard Nate Herbig -- starting their first career games.

Wentz's pass for Jalen Reagor late in the second quarter was underthrown and picked by Fabian Moreau at the Philadelphia 45. Haskins then connected on four straight passes after starting 3 of 12. He hit Logan Thomas for a 6-yard TD toss to cut the deficit to 17-7.

Then, Jimmy Moreland stepped in front of Wentz's pass to John Hightower and returned it 32 yards to the Eagles 20. Barber needed two tries from the 1 before running in for a score that cut it to 17-14.

After Washington's fifth sack pushed Philadelphia back, Jake Elliott was short on a 53-yard field goal.

The Eagles went for it on a fourth-and-4 from the Washington 45, but Jon Bostic sacked Wentz on a blitz up the middle. That turned into a 38-yard field goal by Hopkins that tied it at 17 early in the fourth quarter.

Washington's defensive line had its way against Philadelphia's depleted line, missing three-time Pro Bowl right tackle Lane Johnson and three-time Pro Bowl right guard Brandon Brooks. Ryan Kerrigan led the way with two sacks and No. 2 overall pick Chase Young got one.

Wentz threw a 6-yard TD pass to Ertz and a perfect 34-yard toss to Dallas Goedert in the first half.

CARDINALS 30, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 15

GLENDALE, Ariz. - Kyler Murray's slippery, spectacular touchdown runs for the up-and-coming Cardinals are becoming a common occurrence. So are the Arizona wins.

Murray's dual-threat skills were on full display Sunday during the Cardinals' dominant 30-15 victory over Washington. The second-year quarterback threw for 286 yards and a touchdown, but the jaw-dropping moments came when Murray tucked the ball and ran, scrambling for two touchdowns that went for 14 and 21 yards.

The Cardinals (2-0) jumped to a 14-0 lead by the end of the first quarter. They led 20-0 by halftime and 20-3 following the third. DeAndre Hopkins caught eight passes for 68 yards and a touchdown. Zane Gonzalez made three field goals.

Murray alleviated any doubt who would win early in the fourth quarter when he darted through the middle of the field -- dancing right past safety Troy Apke in the process -- for a 21-yard touchdown that pushed Arizona's advantage to 27-3.

Washington (1-1) finally scored a touchdown with 12:20 left in the fourth quarter when Dwayne Haskins hit Terry McLaurin for a 24-yard score. It scored again when Antonio Gibson ran for an 11-yard touchdown to pull within 27-15 after the 2-point conversion failed.

By then it was too late for a rally. Washington came back from a 17-0 deficit to beat Philadelphia last week, but waited much too long to get going on Sunday. Haskins completed 19 of 33 passes for 223 yards and a touchdown.

Arizona outgained Washington 244 yards to 96 in the first half as it built its 20-0 lead.

The Cardinals' revamped defense had a big day, holding Washington scoreless until Dustin Hopkins hit a 24-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Arizona gave up the most yards in the NFL last season, but the defense has been solid in both wins.

The teams traded turnovers in an eventful first quarter. Murray's pass into coverage was picked off by Landon Collins, giving Washington great field position at the Arizona 19. Three plays later, Haskins fumbled after getting hit on the arm by Phillips and Chandler Jones snagged the ball out of the air.

Arizona went three-and-out and had to punt, but got the ball right back when Steven Sims fumbled on the return. The Cardinals followed with a six-play touchdown drive capped by Murray's 14-yard run.

The shifty second-year quarterback got some good blocking on the right side and then slipped between two would-be tacklers to coast into the end zone.

Hopkins caught his first touchdown pass with the Cardinals on their opening possession. He was completely alone in the back of the end zone on third down and Murray hit him for the 4-yard score to make it 7-0.

BROWNS 34, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 20

CLEVELAND, Ohio - For the first time in six years, the Cleveland Browns have a winning record. They want to keep it that way.

Baker Mayfield threw two touchdown passes, Nick Chubb ran for two more, Garrett had a key sack and the Browns moved over .500 for the first time since 2014 with a 34-20 win Sunday over the Washington Football Team, which lost rookie defensive end Chase Young to a groin injury.

With their second straight win under first-year coach Kevin Stefanski, the Browns are 2-1 for the first time since 2011. It's also the first time they've had a winning record since Week 14 in 2014, when they were 7-6 before dropping their last three and costing Mike Pettine his job.

Cleveland had gone 90 consecutive weeks without a winning record. The Browns won just four games from 2015-17.

And while the start is notable, Stefanski downplayed its significance.

Young, the No. 2 overall pick in this year's draft, left in the second quarter with his injury. The former Ohio State All-American had an early pressure on Mayfield, but otherwise had little impact before he went out.

Washington coach Ron Rivera didn't have a specific update on Young, who will receive more treatment and evaluation Monday. Young joined his teammates on the sideline in the second half and was animated while cheering them on.

Led by Garrett, the Browns' defense, which spent the week hearing about Young and Washington's sack-hungry front, intercepted Dwayne Haskins three times and forced two fumbles.

Garrett's strip sack and recovery midway through the fourth effectively sealed Cleveland's win. He had a similar play last week in a win over Cincinnati.

Mayfield's 3-yard TD pass to rookie tight end Harrison Bryant with 11:14 left helped the Browns shake off a horrid third quarter, when Washington (1-2) scored two TDs to take the lead.

Chubb then scored on a 20-yard run with 8:40 left to make it 31-20, the TD coming after linebacker B.J. Goodson intercepted Haskins at the Washington 35.
Chubb finished with 108 yards on 19 carries and the Browns leaned on the third-year back to wear down Washington in the fourth.

Haskins threw two TD passes to Dontrelle Inman, but the second-year QB continued to make mental errors and his two picks before halftime helped Cleveland open a 17-7 lead.

RAVENS 31, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 17

LANDOVER, Md. - A few big plays went a long way for the Baltimore Ravens, who took a small step toward regaining the form they displayed last year as the highest-scoring team in the league.

Lamar Jackson ran for a 50-yard touchdown and threw for two scores in a bounce-back performance by the reigning NFL MVP and the Ravens, who took control early against Washington in a 31-17 victory Sunday.

Coming off a humbling loss to Kansas City on Monday night, Baltimore (3-1) used a forced fumble, a fake punt and the longest run of Jackson's career to build a 21-10 halftime lead.

Washington (1-3) had more first downs, owned an edge in time of possession and had only 7 fewer yards than Baltimore. But the Ravens made things happen at just the right time.

The game was tough to watch for Washington coach Ron Rivera, and not just because of the score. Weakened by treatment he received during the week for cancer, Rivera occasionally took a break by sitting on the bench.

Washington's first-year coach wore a shirt that read: "RIVERA STRONG."

After throwing three interceptions last week, Washington's Dwayne Haskins Jr. went 32 for 45 for a career-high 314 yards. He was sacked three times, twice by Matthew Judon.

Jackson's numbers weren't as big, but he managed the Baltimore offense as required while completing 14 of 21 passes for 193 yards.

Limited to 97 yards passing against the Chiefs, Jackson surpassed that total by halftime. He was backed by a strong defense looking for redemption after allowing Kansas City to amass 517 yards in a 34-20 victory.

The Ravens went up 7-0 when Mark Ingram scored from the 1 after cornerback Marlon Humphrey ripped the ball out of the grasp of J.D. McKissic and Marcus Peters recovered at the Washington 34.

Late in the half, however, Jackson's run of 159 straight passes without an interception ended when he was picked by Fuller. Washington cashed in with a field goal to make it 21-10.

Limited to three catches for 22 yards by Kansas City, Andrews hauled in a 22-yard touchdown pass to increase the lead to 18.

RAMS 30, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 10

LANDOVER, Md. - After crossing the goal line for a touchdown, Rams quarterback Jared Goff took a few steps, excitedly wound up his right arm and got ready to deliver an exclamation point Sunday at FedEx Field in Landover, Md.

The Rams were on their way to what would be a 30-10 victory over Washington.

Rain, however, made for slippery conditions. Instead of driving the ball into turf, Goff instead watched it embarrassingly squirt away.

Any ribbing Goff endures about the miscue will be offset by satisfaction from another good performance that helped the Rams improve to 4-1 and finish their conquest of the NFC East.

Goff passed for 309 yards and accounted for three touchdowns, Darrell Henderson scored two touchdowns and Aaron Donald and Troy Reeder combined for seven sacks in a victory that completed the Rams' sweep of what appears to be the NFL's weakest division.

Next Sunday's marquee matchup against the defending NFC West champion San Francisco 49ers figures to be a much tougher test than the ones the Rams faced while dispatching the Dallas Cowboys, Philadelphia Eagles, New York Giants and Washington (1-4).

The NFC East is seemingly so bad — and for the taking — it was one of the reasons Washington coach Ron Rivera gave for replacing quarterback Dwayne Haskins with Kyle Allen, and elevating Alex Smith to the backup.

Allen was knocked out of the game in the second quarter, enabling Smith to play for the first time since suffering a gruesome leg injury in 2018 that required 17 surgeries.

Both teams endured rain throughout the game — and their third cross-country trip in four weeks — to give coach Sean McVay a victory in the stadium where he spent seven seasons as a Washington assistant.

Defensive lineman Michael Brockers said many teammates were excited about the rain, not only because, "a lot of guys haven't seen rain in a little bit," but because the offense's playbook "shrinks" in those conditions because quarterbacks can't grip the ball.

But Donald and Reeder, starting in place of leading-tackler Micah Kiser, spoiled Smith's otherwise heroic return. Donald had four sacks, Reeder three. Smith completed nine of 17 passes for 37 yards.

GIANTS 20, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 19

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. - Head coach Ron Rivera's gambles this season have typically paid off. The Washington Football Team converted five of their eight fourth-down tries through five weeks, and it added two more conversions Sunday in New York.

But after quarterback Kyle Allen connected on a 22-yard touchdown to Cam Sims with less than a minute to play, Rivera went for it all. Trailing, 20-19, he did not want to go into overtime against the winless Giants; he wanted to win the game with a two-point conversation.

As Allen dropped back and rolled out left, he could not find anyone open. Eventually, his time to throw ran out, and his game-winning pass attempt fell incomplete, sealing Washington's fifth straight defeat.

Rivera said the game came down to Washington's two turnovers, both of which Allen committed. The second one was much more costly, as the Giants (1-5) scooped up Allen's fumble late in the fourth quarter and returned it 43 yards for a touchdown. Instead of Washington marching down the field for the game-winning drive, it received the ensuing kickoff facing a 20-13 deficit.

As Allen did throughout the game, he responded well to his mistakes by leading Washington (1-5) on a 10-play, 75-yard drive. The possession mostly consisted of short passes, but on 1st-and-10 from the Giants' 22-yard line, offensive coordinator Scott Turner called a deep shot. Allen threw a perfectly placed ball down the left side to Sims, who was only in the lineup because of injuries to Isaiah Wright and Antonio Gandy-Golden.

However, Sims' first-career touchdown catch was overshadowed by the failed two-point conversion moments later.

Aside from the giveaways, Allen was effective in his first full game as Washington's starter. The third-year signal caller spread the ball around en route to completing 31 of his 42 passes for 280 yards, two touchdowns and an interception. Terry McLaurin led all pass-catchers with 74 yards on seven catches, but he was one of four players who racked up at least 40 receiving yards. Tight end Logan Thomas (three receptions, 42 yards) caught Allen's first touchdown pass late in the first half.

The Giants pulled out their first victory by establishing the running game and capitalizing on their opportunities. Second-year quarterback Daniel Jones finished 12-of-19 passing for 112 yards, a touchdown and an interception. He was also the team's leading rusher with 74 yards on seven carries.

Washington will return to FedExField next Sunday to play the Dallas Cowboys in another NFC East showdown.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 25, COWBOYS 3

LANDOVER, Md. - The Washington Football Team was at its own 48-yard line, and Trevon Diggs was arguing with Terry McLaurin at the end of a three-yard run. It's unclear exactly what Diggs said to the second-year wide receiver, but McLaurin made him pay for it seconds later.

Lined up as an outside receiver, McLaurin took off in a flat-out sprint past Diggs to get open. Quarterback Kyle Allen then delivered a high-arching pass to the former Ohio State Buckeye, who hauled in the ball and ran into the end zone to give Washington a 15-3 lead.

McLaurin flashed a grin as he jogged off the field. It was just one example of how he and Washington's offense were able to handle the Cowboys' defense with relative ease as the team racked up 397 yards in a 25-3 victory.

From start to finish, Washington moved the ball more effectively than it had all season. As Antonio Gibson put up his first-career 100-yard game with 128 yards on 20 carries and McLaurin caught seven passes for 90 yards, the offense averaged six yards per play compared to the Cowboys' 2.6.

Despite going against the NFL's No. 1 offense, the defense was able to stymie a unit that put up 464 yards per game. Andy Dalton and Ben DiNucci were sacked six times, which is the defense's best outing since Week 1, and they combined for 114 passing yards.

Ironically enough, it was the defense that got Washington on the board first after the offense drove down to Dallas' one-yard and was stopped short of the goal line. Landon Collins slapped the ball from Dalton's hand, which forced a safety that gave Washington a 2-0 lead. Following a Cowboys free kick, the offense marched 63 yards downfield on seven plays. This time, Washington punched the ball in on a 12-yard run from Gibson.

Dallas responded with a 45-yard field goal, but Washington extended the lead even further with McLaurin's touchdown as well as a 15-yard touchdown to Logan Thomas. By halftime, Washington held a 22-3 lead, which stands as the first time all season the team entered the third quarter with a lead.

From there, Washington was able to chip away at the clock. It was the only team to score points in the second half with a 30-yard field goal from Dustin Hopkins, but thanks to a stellar performance from the defense, which only allowed 30 yards in the final 30 minutes, Washington did enough to secure its second victory of the season and bring a 2-1 NFC East record into the bye week.

GIANTS 23, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 20

LANDOVER, Md. - Well after completing his longest pass of the season and avoiding the mistakes that have cost the New York Giants games, Daniel Jones faced one final challenge to preserve his first game of 2020 without a turnover.

Jones absorbed contact on a blindside sack, held on to the ball, and Logan Ryan intercepted Alex Smith not long after to seal a 23-20 victory against Washington. After coach Joe Judge stressed to his players to ''finish'' following several blown leads, the Giants finally did so Sunday and pick up their second win, Jones didn't throw an interception or lose a fumble and the defense forced five turnovers.

''That's been a focus of mine: I obviously know the importance of holding on to the ball,'' Jones said. ''We were able to protect it today, and that was a big advantage for us.''

Jones was 23 of 34 for 212 yards, including a 50-yard connection with Austin Mack and a touchdown pass to Evan Engram to build a 17-point halftime lead. The Giants (2-7) attempted to run to run things out in the second half and survived a couple of touchdown drives led by Alex Smith, who replaced injured Washington quarterback Kyle Allen.

Smith connected with Terry McLaurin on a 68-yard score, his first TD pass in 728 days, to cut New York's lead to 23-20 in the fourth quarter. But Smith threw two interceptions in the final 2:18 to end the threat for Washington (2-6). Both Giants wins are against Washington.

"It just happened that we've come ready to play against Washington these four times and been able to get wins,'' said Jones, who's 4-0 against Washington and 1-16 against the rest of the NFL as a starter. ''We'll look to build off it."

Before things got hairy for the Giants, Wayne Gallman rushed for a touchdown, and Graham Gano made three field goals to extend his streak to 18 in a row.

Allen injured his left ankle late in the first quarter, forcing Smith into just his second NFL game since gruesomely breaking his right leg in November 2018. Allen's left leg bent the wrong way on a sack by Jabrill Peppers, who was flagged for unnecessary roughness, and there was an air cast on it as he was carted off.

Smith was 24 of 32 for 325 yards, the TD and three interceptions.

"We had a chance without those (last) two,'' said Smith, whom Rivera named the starter for Washington's next game with Allen out. ''The second one is the one that really hurts. I felt like we were rolling, really had them on the heels."

LIONS 30, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 27

DETROIT, Mich. -It was a historic day for quarterback Alex Smith. Aside from making his first start since his life-threatening injury two years ago, he also had back-to-back 300-yard games for the first time in time in his career.

The only thing missing was the win.

Despite a rousing comeback and a career-high 390 yards from Smith, Washington dropped its second straight game, 30-27, and fell to 2-7 on the season.

Washington has had to fight back from double-digit halftime deficits all year. It found itself in that situation once again, as failed red-zone opportunities and explosive plays allowed the Lions to take a 17-3 lead.

Statistically, Washington had the upper hand on the Lions. It had 467 total yards, completed 46% of its third downs and held the ball for more than 35 minutes. But with the score tied and only 16 seconds left on the clock, the Lions kicked a 59-yard field goal to take the lead as time expired.

Washington's first half against the Lions looked eerily like last week's against the New York Giants. While D'Andre Swift and Adrian Peterson were slicing into the front seven, quarterback Matthew Stafford was gashing the secondary. After Washington was forced to punt on its opening drive, Stafford connected with Marvin Hall for a 55-yard touchdown, capping off a five-play, 92-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead.

Washington responded with a 38-yard field goal from Dustin Hopkins, but Detroit was back in the end zone two drives later. This time, it was Marvin Jones who found the end zone on a 27-yard score.

Smith and Washington's offense, which got into the red zone twice in the first half, seemed like it started to find some momentum in the final minutes before the break with an 11-play drive. However, Terry McLaurin coughed up the ball at Detroit's 33-yard line, which Stafford used to drive down the field and allow Matt Prater to kick a 53-yard field goal and extend the lead to 17-3.

Prater and the Lions finally responded with a 37-yard field goal to retake the lead, 27-24, giving Smith and the offense just over two minutes to either tie or take the lead. The offense moved its way down the field and was kept alive by multiple defensive penalties. Facing a 3rd-and-15 from Detroit's 34-yard line, Smith completed an 11-yard pass to Steven Sims Jr., which set up a Hopkins' 41-yard field goal that tied the score.

But with 16 seconds left and the Lions still in possession of all three timeouts, the offense, aided by a roughing the passer from defensive end Chase Young, moved down the field and put the ball just inside of Prater's range for the game-winning kick.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 20, BENGALS 9

LANDOVER, Md. -There's no place like home for the Washington Football Team, who bounced back after a tough loss on the road Sunday. They came out on top against the Cincinnati Bengals by a score of 20-9.

Among those leading the charge for Washington was RB Antonio Gibson, who punched in one rushing touchdown. Working against Washington was the performance of QB Alex Smith, who threw one interception with only 166 yards passing.

No one had a standout game offensively for Cincinnati, but they got one touchdown from WR A.J. Green. QB Joe Burrow ended up with a passer rating of 124.60.

Joe Burrow finished after two quarters and change with 34 attempts, 22 completions, 203 yards, one touchdown, and no interceptions. During the third quarter, he suffered a horrific injury that sidelined him for the rest of the game, if not longer.

The win bumped Washington's record up to 3-7. This is the second loss in a row for the Bengals and nudges their record down to 2-7-1.

Washington will take on the Dallas Cowboys at 4:30 p.m. ET on Thursday at AT&T Stadium. As for Cincinnati, they will face off against the New York Giants at 1 p.m. ET next week at Paul Brown Stadium. New York is 1-1 after wins this season, and Cincinnati is 1-4-1 after losses.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 41, COWBOYS 16

ARLINGTON, Texas -Alex Smith has Washington at least temporarily in first place in the NFC East after winning on Thanksgiving for the first time, two years after a planned holiday showing was wrecked by the quarterback's career-threatening leg injury.

Smith and his teammates aren't going to concern themselves with how bad their division might be.

Antonio Gibson ran for three touchdowns, Smith had a scoring pass and Washington pulled away in the fourth quarter of a 41-16 Thanksgiving victory over the Dallas Cowboys on Thursday.

Smith was days away from a second career Thanksgiving start in a visit to Dallas two years ago when he was injured. Now he has a second straight victory in his improbable comeback.

Gibson's second score was a 23-yard run on the first play after an ill-advised fake punt attempt by Dallas as Washington beat its division rival on Thanksgiving for just the second time in 10 tries, the most frequent visitor for the Cowboys in their annual holiday home game.

Washington (4-7) slides ahead of Philadelphia (3-6-1) in the NFC East and will stay in first place if the Eagles lose to Seattle on Monday night. It was the third win in five games since a five-game losing streak dropped Washington to 1-5.

The Cowboys trailed 20-16 when they faced a fourth-and-10 from their 24-yard line early in the fourth quarter. Darian Thompson took the snap in front of punter Hunter Niswander and pitched to Cedrick Wilson on a reverse that was stuffed for a 1-yard loss.

On the next play, Gibson easily beat the Dallas defense to the left pylon. After another Dallas punt, Gibson capped a clock-killing drive with a 37-yard score for a 34-16 lead.

Washington made it a blowout when Montez Sweat tipped and intercepted a pass right in the face of Andy Dalton and was free to run 15 yards for a TD.

McLaurin had the defensive play of the game, tackling Smith at the Washington 4 after Smith's interception in the open field near the 50. The Cowboys went 6 yards the wrong direction and had to settle for a short field goal and a 20-16 deficit late in the third quarter.

Dec. 7, 2020 | GAME 13 | Heinz Field [Pittsburgh, Pa.]

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 23, STEELERS 17

PITTSBURGH, Pa. - The Pittsburgh Steelers are undefeated no more. Mike Tomlin's club was handed its first loss of the season courtesy of the Washington Football Team, who pulled off the stunning 23-17 win. This upset really developed in the second half where Washington was able to dig out of an 11-point deficit they created in the first. Alex Smith knotted the game at 17 with 9:09 to play in the fourth quarter on an eight-play drive that resulted in a 15-yard touchdown reception for Logan Thomas.

After that score, Pittsburgh drove within field goal range but elected to go for it on fourth-and-1 at the Washington 28-yard line and Ron Rivera's defense was able to break up a pass intended for running back Anthony McFarland that turned the ball over on downs. From there, Dustin Hopkins was eventually able to kick the 45-yard field goal to give Washington its first lead of the game with just over two minutes remaining in the contest.

While that was theoretically enough time for Ben Roethlisberger and the Steelers offense to drive down the field and at least tie the ballgame, the veteran quarterback's first pass of the ensuing drive was tipped by Montez Sweat and intercepted by Jon Bostic, a turnover that all but clinched the game for Washington, which moves to 5-7 on the year.

Alex Smith finished his night with 296 yards passing and a touchdown. Meanwhile, J.D. McKissic picked up the load in Washington's backfield following Antonio Gibson's toe injury, catching all 10 of his targets for 70 yards. Peyton Barber also had a rushing score. As for Pittsburgh, Roethlisberger threw for 305 yards on 53 pass attempts and notched two touchdowns along with that pick in the loss.

With the win, Washington remains tied with the Giants (who swept their season series with Washington) in the NFC East division race. And while they were unable to clinch a playoff berth on Monday night, the Steelers, based on their perfect record against conference opponents, remain ahead of the Chiefs for the race to obtain the AFC's No. 1 seed.
