

BRIAN FLEURY

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS

13TH NFL SEASON × 7TH WITH 49ERS

Brian Fleury is in his seventh season with the 49ers and first as the team's run game coordinator/tight ends coach. He spent the previous three seasons (2022-24) as tight ends coach, the 2020-21 seasons as an offensive quality control coach and the 2019 season as a defensive quality control coach with the team. He joined San Francisco after spending three years with the Miami Dolphins as the team's football research analyst (2016) and director of football research (2017-18).

In 2024, Fleury assisted a 49ers offense that finished tied for second in yards per play (6.2), fourth in yards per game (376.3) and passing yards per game (249.1) and tied for sixth in yards per rush (4.7). Fleury continued to work with TE George Kittle, who earned his fifth career Associated Press All-Pro (Second-Team) and sixth Pro Bowl selections of his career after leading the team in receptions (78), receiving yards (1,106) and receiving touchdowns (eight). Kittle also led all NFL tight ends in yards per reception (14.2) and games with 100-or-more receiving yards (four). With 1,106 yards on the season, Kittle registered his second-consecutive and fourth overall season with 1,000-or-more receiving yards, which is the third-most in franchise history and makes him one of five tight ends in NFL history to register four career seasons with 1,000-or-more receiving yards.

The 2023 San Francisco 49ers finished with top-five marks in total offense (398.4), scoring offense (28.9), rushing yards per game (140.5) and passing yards per game (257.9). The 49ers offense registered 491 total points and 6,773 total yards in 2023, both of which were the second-highest single-season marks in franchise history. Fleury once again coached Kittle, who registered his third season with 1,000-or-more receiving yards (1,020) to go along with six receiving touchdowns. He was named AP First-Team All-Pro and selected to the Pro Bowl Games.

In 2022, Fleury worked directly with Kittle, who caught a career-high 11 touchdowns, ranked second on the team with 60 receptions and 765 yards over 15 games and earned AP Second-Team All-Pro honors and a trip to the Pro Bowl. His 11 touchdown receptions were the third-most in a single season by a TE in franchise history.

Kittle finished the 2021 season ranked second on the team with 71 receptions for 910 yards and six touchdowns while earning a trip to the Pro Bowl. In 2020, Kittle added 48 receptions for 634 yards and two touchdowns, while TE Jordan Reed tallied 26 receptions for 231 yards and four touchdowns and TE Ross Dwelley played in all 16 games (nine starts) and set single-season career highs in receptions (19) and receiving yards (245).

In his roles with the Dolphins, Fleury worked closely with defensive coordinator Matt Burke to help prepare for upcoming opponents and follow NFL trends. He assisted the team's defensive backs in 2018 after assisting the defensive line in 2017 and linebackers in 2016.

Fleury joined Miami from the Cleveland Browns, where he was the team's outside linebackers coach in 2015 and assistant linebackers coach in 2014. In 2015, OLBs Armonty Bryant (5.5) and Christian Kirksey (3.5) set career highs in sacks. In his first season with the Browns, Fleury helped coach Paul Kruger to the most productive season of his career, as he set career highs in tackles (53), sacks (11.0) and forced fumbles (four). Kruger's 11.0 sacks tied for the fifth-most in team history at the time and were the most by a member of the Browns since 2006. In addition, the Browns finished second in the NFL with 21 interceptions, while also finishing tied for fourth in takeaways (29).

Prior to his time in Cleveland, Fleury spent the 2013 season as a quality control coach for the Buffalo Bills, working with the linebackers. He helped develop rookie LB Kiko Alonso, who registered 159 tackles, four interceptions, 2.0 sacks, four passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble and was named PFWA NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. The Bills set a franchise record with 57 sacks, the second-most in the NFL in 2013. Buffalo's defense also finished 10th in the NFL in total defense (333.4 yards per game).

Before Buffalo, Fleury spent four seasons (2009-12) at Towson University where he served as the special teams coordinator/defensive backs coach. He helped the team achieve top-10 national rankings in kickoff return yardage (24.28 yards per return) in 2011 and punt return defense (3.46 yards per return) in 2010. Towson won the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in 2011 and earned a share of the conference title in 2012.

Fleury was an assistant at Sacred Heart University for four seasons, spending one year (2005) as secondary coach and the following three (2006-08) as defensive coordinator. In 2008, the Pioneers posted an 8-3 record, which ranked as the third-highest win total in the history of the school. Fleury began his coaching career as an intern and graduate assistant at the University of Maryland from 2003-04. In 2003, the Terrapins went 10-3, earned a victory in the Gator Bowl and finished 17th in the nation in the final poll.

Fleury began his collegiate career at Maryland before transferring to Towson, where he played quarterback for four years (1999-2002) and earned a degree in sport management from the school in 2002. He and his wife, Natasha, have one daughter, Nadia.
