HEAD COACH

Kyle Shanahan was named the 20th head coach of the San Francisco 49ers on February 6, 2017. Shanahan signed a multi-year contract extension with the 49ers on June 15, 2020.

In 2021, Shanahan led the 49ers to their second trip to the NFC Championship in three seasons (2019). The offense featured WR Deebo Samuel, who earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors and the first Pro Bowl selection of his career. In 16 games (15 starts), Samuel registered 77 receptions for 1,405 receiving yards (18.2 average) and five receiving touchdowns to go along with career-highs in carries (59), rushing yards (365) and rushing touchdowns (eight).

The 2020 San Francisco 49ers were led by AP First-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection LB Fred Warner, who registered a team-high 125 tackles to go along with 1.0 sack, two interceptions, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and six passes defensed.

In 2019, he was named Coach of the Year by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 after leading the 49ers to a 13-3 regular season record, the NFC West Division Title and an appearance in Super Bowl LIV. San Francisco's nine-win improvement from 2018 to 2019 was the largest win improvement from one season to the next in franchise history.

Shanahan joined the Falcons after spending 2014 as offensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns. That year, his offense averaged 324.6 total yards and 108.0 rushing yards per game.

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, Shanahan spent four seasons (2010-13) as offensive coordinator of Washington. In 2013, Washington finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (369.7) and fifth in rushing yards per game (135.3). Second-year QB Robert Griffin III threw for 16 touchdowns and a career-high 3,203 passing yards, while WR Pierre Garçon set a franchise record and led the NFL with 113 receptions for a career-high 1,346 yards. RB Alfred Morris also rushed for 1,200-or-more yards for the second-consecutive season (1,275).

Washington won the NFC East division championship in 2012 as they became the first team in NFL history to register 3,400-or-more passing yards (3,422) and 2,700-or-more rushing yards (2,709) in the same season. Washington led the NFL, averaging 169.3 rushing yards per game and finished second in rushing touchdowns (22). Griffin won the 2012 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award after setting NFL rookie records in passer rating (102.4), interception percentage (1.27), and rushing yards by a rookie quarterback (815). He completed 258 of his 393 passes (65.6 completion percentage) for 3,200 yards and 20 touchdowns.

In 2011, Shanahan worked with QB Rex Grossman, who finished with the second-best statistical season of his career, having thrown for 3,151 yards, 16 touchdowns and a career-high 57.9 completion percentage. WR Santana Moss also had his best professional season in 2010 under Shanahan, notching a career-high 93 receptions for 1,115 yards and six touchdowns.

Before joining Washington, Shanahan spent four seasons (2006-09) with the Houston Texans, including the final two as the team's offensive coordinator. In 2009, he worked with QB Matt Schaub, who registered career highs in completions (396), completion percentage (67.9), passing yards (4,770), touchdowns (29) and passer rating (98.6). Shanahan spent his first season with Houston (2006) as the team's wide receivers coach and moved to coach the quarterbacks in 2007 prior to his promotion to offensive coordinator in 2008. He broke into the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2004 where he served as an offensive quality control coach for two seasons (2004-05). His first coaching experience came as a graduate assistant at UCLA in 2003.

LAST GAME

SEATTLE -- With only three days off to try to get back to full strength, San Francisco 49ers rookie quarterback Brock Purdy didn't do much of anything.

In Sunday's win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Purdy suffered a painful rib and oblique injury, which had his status for Thursday night's clash with the Seattle Seahawks in doubt. At each of the Niners' three practices this week, Purdy was simply a vessel transferring the ball to the running backs by way of handoffs.

Niners coach Kyle Shanahan had already departed for Lumen Field by then, but his confidence in his rookie quarterback has grown so much in the past couple of weeks that he didn't need to worry.

"He's definitely the most poised rookie I've ever had," Shanahan said. "He's been like that since he's gotten here. ... Even him being unsure of whether he'd be able to go or not, I think that was uneasy for him because he didn't know what to expect until he got in the game. Under the circumstances, we didn't have any other options or choice. [We were] going to see how long he could last and ready to go with Josh. But he got comfortable and got better as the game went. It was pretty unbelievable."

Purdy's meteoric rise up San Francisco's depth chart has been surpassed only by his ability to continue checking boxes. Purdy proved capable of filling in for injured starter Jimmy Garoppolo on short notice against the Miami Dolphins in Week 13.

He showed he could handle a start and produce against the Bucs. On Thursday, an injured Purdy walked into one of the most difficult environments in the NFL on a short week and helped carve up the Seahawks as the 49ers clinched the NFC West with a 21-13 win.

Purdy finished 17-of-26 passing for 217 yards and two touchdowns for a passer rating of 117.0. He again didn't throw any interceptions, though he was fortunate that Seattle safety Quandre Diggs dropped one just before the half.

In two starts, Purdy has completed 70% of his attempts with four touchdown passes. Only two other quarterbacks -- Aaron Rodgers and Garoppolo -- have hit those marks in their first two career starts since 1950.

Despite that production, Purdy's finest moment might have come on a 1-yard run. Facing third-and-1 at the Niners' 34 with 2:42 to play, Shanahan called for Purdy to hit running back Christian McCaffrey in the flat. McCaffrey was covered and Purdy instantly recognized an opportunity to scramble. Purdy raced for the first-down marker and chose to slide. He slid a little too soon, but before he went down, he extended the ball far enough for a first down, essentially putting the game away.

"I think it was sort of going through my mind," Purdy said. "This whole week it was, man, do your part in terms of getting the ball out, stay safe, try not to take any unnecessary hits. In that moment I thought I had the guy beat well enough so that I could slide right when I got past the sticks. It was a little close. The competitive side of me says just dive headfirst, get it quick whether it hurts or not, try to win in that kind of moment. I'm glad we got the first down either way."

MANDO

Commanders Team Dog

NFL Highlights

- Greeted thousands of people in Week 1.

2022 (WAS)

- During the first half of the game in Week 1, Mando, was introduced on field. Named by the team's players, Mando is in training with "K9s For Warriors", an organization that provides highly trained service dogs to military veterans suffering from PTSD, traumatic brain injury, and/or military sexual trauma.

Personal

- Mando, an 8-month-old English black Labrador retriever, knows "first paw" about what it's like to undergo a name change. Born "Buzz," Washington's new team dog made the switch after a process involving multiple stakeholders and has adjusted well so far.
- A majority of K9s For Warriors dogs come from high-kill rescue shelters, though a portion, such as Mando, are donated as puppies via breeders. When the Commanders learned about Mando during initial conversations with the organization, there was an almost immediate sense that he would be a great MVP (Most Valuable Pup) candidate.
- Right now, Mando is staying with a volunteer puppy raiser, learning basic skills. At some point between 10-14 months of age, he'll return to K9s For Warriors to complete training before being paired with a veteran. The team's partnership, spearheaded by the Washington Commanders Charitable Foundation, will ensure that Mando's training expenses are covered, and that he'll go on to become a difference-making companion.

Quote From Head Coach Ron Rivera:

"After long discussions with Martin and Marty, we were thoroughly impressed with Mando's frame, speed, versatility, paw size and general ability to produce on the grass. We look forward to continuing to watch Mando progress throughout the season and are very excited he is a member of our team."

Quote from Lindsay Snyder, K9s For Warriors' director of development:

"Puppies are motivated by all sorts of things -- food, cuddles, play. For Mando, it's treats. We show him a treat, call him his new name, and suddenly he's a fast learner."

RON RIVERA

HEAD COACH

33RD NFL SEASON // (26 COACHING/9 PLAYING)/ 3RD WITH WASHINGTON

Ron Rivera enters his 26th season coaching in the NFL and his third as Washington's head coach in 2022.

He was named the 30th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 1, 2020 and led Washington to their first division title since 2015. During the 2020 season Rivera was diagnosed with Squamous Cell Carcinoma (SCC) located in a lymph node and detected from a self-care check. Rivera continued to coach through his treatments and on January 28, 2021, he was declared cancer free. Rivera was selected as the NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 following the 2020 season.

A friend of legendary head coach Joe Gibbs, Rivera is a passionate and skilled leader who has earned the respect of his players, coaching staff and the community. He most recently served as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers for nine seasons, where he led the team to three straight divisional titles and an appearance in Super Bowl 50. Rivera was also recognized twice as the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 2013 and in 2015.

Rivera inherited a 2-14 Carolina Panthers team as a rookie head coach in 2011 and guided it back to an NFC force with four playoffs appearances since 2013, tied for the second-most playoff berths in the NFC over that six-year period. In that span, the Panthers recorded 58 wins, tied for the most in any six-year period in their franchise history and fifth-most in the NFL.

In 2015, Carolina won its second NFC Championship in franchise history, third consecutive NFC South division title and appeared in Super Bowl 50. Carolina finished the season with a franchise-best 17-2 record, including home playoff victories over Seattle in the divisional round and Arizona in the NFC Championship game.

Hired by the Panthers for his defensive expertise, Rivera did not disappoint as the Panthers put together five top-10 finishes in total defense in seven seasons from 2012-18. Like Rivera, the Panthers' rebound has been steady and solid, starting with six wins in his first season in 2011 and seven victories in 2012 before registering three consecutive division championships starting in 2013 when he earned his first Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award. Laying a foundation that included back-to-back Rookie of the Year award winners in quarterback Cam Newton and linebacker Luke Kuechly, Rivera blended veteran and young talent into productive units on both sides of the ball.

Rivera helped lead a Panthers team that finished among the league's top 10 rushing offenses, including top-five finishes in 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018. The Panthers recorded 30 consecutive regular season games with at least 100 rushing yards from Week 6 of 2014 to Week 3 of 2016, the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh tallied 43 from 1974-77.

Carolina's run defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Starting in Week 14 of 2016 through Week 1 of 2018, the Panthers went 21 consecutive games without allowing a 100-yard individual rusher, setting a franchise record.

In 2018, Rivera coached two players to All-Pro selections. Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey earned AP All-Pro second-team honors as he helped the Panthers lead the NFL in rushing yards per carry (5.1). McCaffrey also recorded 107 receptions, the most by any running back in a season in NFL history and broke Steve Smith's franchise record for single-season receptions by any player. He ran for 1,098 rushing yards, becoming the third player in NFL history with over 100 receptions and 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. McCaffrey accumulated a franchise-record 1,965 scrimmage yards, ranking third in the NFL.

Linebacker Luke Kuechly earned his sixth-straight Pro Bowl selection and fifth AP All-Pro first-team honor, tied for the most among active players. Kuechly tied for third in the NFL with 20 tackles for loss. In 2017, the rushing attack helped propel the team to an 11-5 record and a Wild Card berth by averaging 131.4 yards on the ground, good for fourth in the league.

In 2015, Rivera was named NFL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons as his team earned its third consecutive NFC South title and claimed the top seed in the NFC for the first time in Panthers franchise history. The Panthers became just the seventh team in the Super Bowl era to post a 15-1 or better record in the regular season. Carolina started 2015 with 14 consecutive victories, which, combined with four wins to close the 2014 regular season, gave the Panthers an NFC-record 18-game winning streak.

Rivera's Panthers went 12-4 and won the NFC South in 2013, Carolina's first division title since 2008. The Panthers then recovered from a 3-8-1 start in 2014 to win four in a row and capture a second consecutive NFC South crown. Prior to Rivera's arrival, Carolina had never reached the postseason in consecutive years, and no team had captured the NFC South twice in a row.

Rivera arrived in Carolina with a reputation for hard work, attention to detail and preparation. Those were also the qualities he exhibited in his first campaign as the Panthers tripled their win total from the previous season. Rivera did not even meet his team until they reported to training camp and, despite a slow start, held it together to finish with four wins in the final six games.

Rivera has shined as a coach and player during his 30-plus years in the NFL, serving as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers' top-ranked defense in 2010 and playing linebacker for the Chicago Bears' top-ranked defense and Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985. In 23 seasons as a coach and nine as a player, he has been with teams that have reached the playoffs 19 times, including nine conference championships and three Super Bowls. The mentality of the Chargers defense that Rivera coached and the Bears defense on which he played has stuck with the head coach, and he has transferred it to his teams.

Rivera's character has been influenced by two innovative defensive coordinators. As a player, Rivera was coached by the late Buddy Ryan, the architect of the "46 Defense," which involved blitzing on nearly every down. As a coach, Rivera toiled under the late Jim Johnson, a highly regarded defensive coordinator renowned for his aggressive approach.

Rivera's identity also has been shaped by his family. The son of a U.S. Army officer and the second youngest of four boys, Rivera learned from a young age about chain of command and many of the principles he teaches and expects from his players. "I come from a military family where discipline isn't taught, it's lived. It's expected from day one. I have a philosophy that every player, every coach, everyone who works for this organization, they'll know it day one," Rivera said in his introductory press conference with Washington on Jan. 2.

Rivera worked with the Chargers from 2007-10. He coached inside linebackers before taking over as the team's defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season. Under Rivera's guidance, the pass defense steadied itself – intercepting nine passes and yielding 229.6 passing yards per game and 11 touchdown passes over the final eight games. Those numbers contrasted to the first half of the season when San Diego notched just seven picks and was victimized for 265.1 yards per game and 14 touchdowns through the air. In Rivera's first full season leading the defense in 2009, the Chargers ranked 16th in total defense and 11th against the pass. Those rankings improved in 2010 as San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago Bears defense, engineering the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. Under Rivera's direction, five different defensive players went to the Pro Bowl: linebacker Lance Briggs, safety Mike Brown, defensive tackle Tommie Harris, linebacker Brian Urlacher and cornerback Nathan Vasher.

In his first season as a defensive coordinator in 2004, Rivera presided over a defense that produced nine more takeaways and 17 more sacks than the previous year and scored a franchise-record and NFC-high six defensive touchdowns. The Bears also thrived on third down and buckled down inside their own 20-yard line, ranking first in the NFL in third-down efficiency (30.5 percent) and topping the NFC in red zone defense (42.6 percent). The following year, Chicago continued to build on the foundation Rivera laid in 2004. The Bears won their first of two consecutive NFC North titles and stood second in the NFL in total defense. In surrendering the fewest points in the league, Rivera's defense went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points – the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. During Rivera's last season with the Bears in 2006, the defense paced the NFL with 44 takeaways and finished fifth in the league in total defense and third in scoring defense, helping propel Chicago to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLI.

Prior to becoming a defensive coordinator, Rivera spent five seasons from 1999-2003 as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship game in each of his final three seasons. Twice during Rivera's tenure with the Eagles, the team finished second in the NFL in scoring defense and in 2001 held all 16 of its opponents to fewer than 21 points – making them just the fourth team in NFL history to do so.

Rivera gained his first coaching experience with the Bears as a defensive quality control coach from 1997-98. He is just the third Latino head coach in NFL history, joining Tom Flores with the Oakland Raiders from 1979-87 and Seattle Seahawks from 1992-94 and Tom Fears with the New Orleans Saints from 1967-70.

Following retirement from his playing career, Rivera went into broadcasting. He covered the Bears and college football as a television analyst for WGN and SportsChannel Chicago for four years from 1993-96.

Selected in the second round of the 1984 NFL Draft by Chicago, Rivera played all nine of his pro seasons with the Bears. Primarily an outside linebacker, he appeared in 149 games with 62 starts (including 12 postseason contests with six starts) and posted 392 tackles, 7.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, nine interceptions and 15 passes defensed. Rivera was a member of six NFC Central division title teams and a Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985.

As a player, Rivera was known for both his skill and determination on the field and his dedication of time and energy to the community. As a result, he was named the Bears' Man of the Year in 1988 and earned the club's Ed Block Courage Award in 1989. He has carried that same community commitment to coaching, sponsoring a bowling tournament to benefit the Ronald McDonald House, USO and Humane Society. He was a finalist for the 2017 Salute to Service Award, an annual award presented to NFL players, coaches, personnel and alumni who demonstrate an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

Rivera, who lost his brother Mickey to pancreatic cancer in 2015, also serves as a spokesman for the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network. He has twice been the honorary starter for the organization's PurpleStride 5K in Charlotte. An All-American at the University of California, Rivera finished his career as the school's all-time leader in sacks with 22 and tackles with 336. As a senior in 1983, he set the Bears' single-season record for sacks with 13 and tackles for loss with 26.5.

Born Jan. 7, 1962, in Fort Ord, Calif., Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington and Maryland before his family settled in Marina, Calif. He attended Seaside High School in Seaside, Calif., and was a three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball. Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Christopher and Courtney. Stephanie is a former assistant coach for the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

MARTIN MAYHEW

GENERAL MANAGER

33RD NFL SEASON (9 PLAYING/24 FRONT OFFICE) // 6TH WITH WASHINGTON

Martin Mayhew enters his second season as General Manager of the Washington Commanders after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Mayhew joined Washington with 22 seasons of NFL experience as an executive, including eight seasons as the general manager of the Detroit Lions. He returns to the franchise that he played for from 1989-92 and was a member of the Super Bowl XXVI team.

"Martin is a proven general manager who will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the organization," said Head Coach Ron Rivera. "He will be an integral part of running the daily football operations and will allow me the opportunity to focus more on coaching. He impressed both myself and Mr. Snyder during the interview process and we both believe he will be a tremendous fit here. He is a man of high character and integrity and was part of the rich history and tradition of this great franchise as a member of the Super Bowl championship team in 1991."

Mayhew spent the previous four season with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as the club's vice president of player personnel. He held the position of senior personnel executive for the franchise from 2017-18. Mayhew assisted first-time general manager John Lynch and was a major contributor to a personnel department that was vital in the team's Super Bowl appearance in 2019.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Mayhew spent the 2016 season as the director of football operations/special projects with the New York Giants. In his role with the Giants, he worked on all aspects of the salary cap, CBA compliance and player contract negotiations.

Prior to his time in New York, Mayhew spent 15 years (2001-15) in the Detroit Lions organization, including the final seven as the team's general manager. He took over as the general manager following Detroit's winless season and oversaw the building of a roster that resulted in a 10-win season in 2011 and an 11-win season in 2014.

During Mayhew's tenure as Lions general manager, he was responsible for the draft selections of Pro Bowlers QB Matthew Stafford, DE Ezekiel Ansah and DT Ndamukong Suh. Suh was a four-time Pro Bowler and three-time First Team All-Pro selection with Detroit and was the 2010 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Mayhew was also responsible for signing WR Golden Tate and S Glover Quin in free agency, both of whom went on to earn Pro Bowl honors in Detroit.

Mayhew first joined the Lions organization in 2001 as the senior director of football administration/staff counsel and was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/staff counsel in 2003. Mayhew was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager in 2004. In 2008, Mayhew was promoted to general manager.

Mayhew played nine seasons in the NFL and was originally selected by the Buffalo Bills in the 10th round (262nd overall) in the 1988 NFL Draft. During Mayhew's nine-year career, he appeared in 118 games (107 starts) for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96) and notched 473 tackles, 21 interceptions, 1.0 sack and four forced fumbles. He started at cornerback for the Super Bowl XXVI champion Washington Redskins.

Mayhew is a native of Tallahassee, Fla. and graduated from Florida State University with a degree in business management and also holds a law degree from Georgetown University. At Florida State, he lettered in both football and track. Mayhew interned for Washington's personnel department in 1999 while in law school at Georgetown. He also held labor and legal department internships with the NFL League Office before joining the Detroit Lions.

MARTY HURNEY

EVP OF FOOTBALL/PLAYER PERSONNEL

31ST NFL SEASON // 2ND WITH WASHINGTON

Marty Hurney enters his second season as Executive Vice President of Football/Player Personnel of the Washington Commanders after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Hurney joined Washington with 29 seasons of NFL experience as an executive and will rejoin the franchise where he started his NFL career as a member of the team's public relations department.

"Marty Hurney is an excellent evaluator of talent and someone whom I trust and have worked with in the past," said Head Coach Ron Rivera. "He knows the amount of hard work it takes to operate a successful personnel department. Marty has a proven track record as a successful scout and general manager and will be a vital part of shaping our roster. Both myself and Mr. Snyder agreed that he would bring an enormous amount of experience to our operation. It is also fitting that Marty started his career here working for the legendary Bobby Beathard. I look forward to collaborating with both Marty and Martin in the years to come."

Hurney was named the Carolina Panthers General Manager in 2002 and held the position until 2012. He was then brought back as the club's interim general manager in 2017 and maintained the official role from 2018-2020. During Hurney's tenure as general manager, the Panthers appeared in the postseason four times, with two NFC South titles, two trips to the NFC Championship game and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Hurney has had a strong number of draft selections in the first round. Most notably, he selected both QB Cam Newton and LB Luke Kuechly in the first round of consecutive drafts in 2011 and 2012. Newton went on to win NFL Rookie of the Year in 2011, NFL MVP in 2015 along with setting nearly every passing and rushing record in franchise history. Kuechly won NFL Rookie of the Year in 2012 and NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2013 and was a seven-time Pro Bowl selection. Carolina was just the fourth team in NFL history to have consecutive players win rookie of the year honors since the awards inception in 1967.

Hurney's other notable first round selections include DE Julius Pepper (2002), T Jordan Gross (2003), CB Chris Gamble (2004), LB Thomas Davis Sr. (2005), RB DeAngelo Williams (2006), RB Jonathan Stewart (2008), WR DJ Moore (2018) and DE Brian Burns (2019). Peppers was selected to the Pro Bowl nine times, was the NFL Rookie of the Year in 2002 and is the Panthers' all-time leader in sacks. Gross started at tackle for the Panthers for 11 consecutive seasons, made three Pro Bowls and is the Panthers' all-time leader in games started. Gamble started at cornerback for the Panthers for nine seasons and is the all-time franchise leader in interceptions. Davis Sr. was selected to three Pro Bowls along with gaining First Team All-Pro honors in 2015 and is the Panthers all-time leader in tackles. Stewart and Williams went on to compile 7,318 rushing yards and 6,846 rushing yards, which is No. 1 and No. 2 in Panthers' history, respectively. Moore has led Carolina in receiving and posted 1,000-plus receiving yards in consecutive seasons and was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2018. Burns ranked No. 4 among rookies in sacks in 2019 and led the Panthers with 9.0 sacks in 2020.

During Hurney's tenure as Panthers GM, he also had considerable success in free agency and through trades. Hurney executed trades for TE Greg Olsen and long snapper J.J. Jansen who were both Pro Bowlers. Olsen holds the franchise record for receiving yards among tight ends and ranks No. 3 overall in receiving yards in franchise history. He also acquired RB Stephen Davis, QB Jake Delhomme, LB Mark Fields and G Mike Wahle via free agency. All four players were named to Pro Bowls during their time with Carolina. Delhomme ranks second behind only Cam Newton as the franchise's leader in passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Prior to being named general manager of the Panthers in 2002, Hurney held the position of coordinator of player operations from 1999-2001 and director of football administration in 1998.
Before joining the Carolina Panthers organization, Hurney held the role of coordinator of football operations with the San Diego Chargers under Pro Football Hall of Fame and Washington Ring of Fame executive Bobby Beathard.

Hurney began his career as a reporter covering Washington in the 1980s. After developing relationships with Owner Jack Kent Cooke, General Manager Bobby Beathard and Head Coach Joe Gibbs, Hurney joined Washington's public relations department in 1988.

Hurney is a native of Wheaton, Md. and attended Catholic University in Washington D.C. Before joining Washington's public relations department, he worked for the Montgomery Journal, Washington Star and Washington Times.

COMMANDERS PUBLIC RELATIONS 2022 MEDIA ACCESS POLICY

CREDENTIAL POLICY

The Washington Commanders grant credentials and media access based on merit as guided by the priorities listed below. Because of the limited space available at the Commanders Facility in Ashburn and FedExField, these priority guidelines are intended to facilitate the most efficient use of space for working media covering the Washington Commanders and the NFL.

Full credential request policies are detailed below. For more information about obtaining media credentials, please contact Sean DeBarbieri and Samantha Fristachi.

The Commanders prioritize outlets in the following order:

1. Broadcast partners, including television and radio personnel responsible for live broadcasts of Washington Commanders games.

2. Local beat reporters who cover the team on a daily basis for large-scale local outlets, including newspapers, wire services, radio stations and television affiliates that cover the Washington Commanders and the NFL on a regular basis.

5. Out-of-town community outlets on specific assignment to cover Commanders personnel of unique interest to the outlet's market (e.g.: a player's hometown newspaper).

6. Blogs, Internet radio and other independent outlets, whose merit and credential consideration is subject to the discretion of Commanders Public Relations.

Policies for visiting scouts are handled separately in accordance with the 2022 Scouting Policy as distributed to all NFL teams prior to the season.

The following guidelines will be observed in granting access:

1. Season credentials will be reserved for organizations that provide consistent and substantial coverage of the Washington Commanders. Please be advised that a season media credential does not guarantee working space in media work areas.

2. With the exception of seasonally credentialed Commanders beat reporters who produce daily on-site reports, all credentials at both locations are approved and issued on a daily and/or game-by-game basis.

3. Passes and credentials are transferable within the same media outlet for use by those serving an editorial function with proper notice and approval by Commanders Public Relations. Passes used by any member of a credentialed outlet without specific editorial assignment or by non-working members of the organization are subject to revocation and will affect all future credentialing decisions by Commanders Public Relations for that outlet.

4. As the result of limited work space, credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.

5. Credentials may be issued: a) to online entities that are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; or, b) to online entities that host a website that regularly and substantially reports on the National Football League or the Washington Commanders, and employs for that website at least one full-time permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. Priority for these sites will be based on potential audience at the discretion of Commanders Public Relations.

6. Commanders personnel may deny or revoke credentials without notice and an individual shall surrender his/her credential upon request for: noncompliance with the priorities or guidelines set out in this policy; noncompliance with health, safety, or security directives issued regarding Commanders events; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation may: a) request Commanders Public Relations provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Director of Football Communications.

7. Commanders Public Relations reserves the right to change this policy at any time.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS 22, WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 28

LANDOVER, Md. - The Commanders debut their re-branded team and new added players in dramatic fashion as QB Carson Wetnz leads a comeback to beat the Jacksonville Jaguars 28-22.

The Commanders defense took the field first to battle against QB Trevor Lawrence and the Jaguars offense. Coverage by the secondary and constant pressure on the QB allowed the Commanders to halt the Jaguars offense and give up a field goal on their first drive.

QB Carson Wentz and the Commanders offense take the field and immediately push down field highlighted by big throws to RB Antonio Gibson and TE Armani Rogers to setup a 3-yard touchdown pass to WR Curtis Samuel. It was his first receiving touchdown since November 22, 2020. On Washington's next offensive possession in the second quarter, WR's Curtis Samuel and Terry McLaurin use their elusive moves to convert a pair of third downs to assist the offense to their drive eventually leading to a redzone opportunity. On the 14th play of the drive Wentz is able to connect with the rookie WR Jahan Dotson on a 7-yard touchdown pass to give Washington the 14-3 lead. Jacksonville looking to respond to Washington's consecutive touchdowns seemed to be stomped by the aggressive defense in the 2nd quarter. S Darrick Forrest providing two passes defensed and a forced fumble in the quarter aiding in allowing zero points in the quarter. Forrest is the first player to have two or more passes defensed, an interception and a forced fumble in a single-game since CB Bashaud Breeland did so in 2015. He is the seventh player in franchise history to accomplish the feat.

The Jaguars opened up the second half on a mission to fight back into the game by forcing a stop on the opening a drive and proceeding to score on their first possession of the half on a 3-yard touchdown pass to RB James Robinson cutting the lead to 14-9 after a failed two point conversion. After completing another stop, QB Trevor Lawrence was able to drive the ball down field connecting with three different receivers to lead to a made 43-yard field goal cutting the lead to 14-12 concluding scoring for the third quarter.

On the second play of the following drive Wentz throws an interception to CB Tyson Campbell leading to another easy field goal giving the Jaguars the lead and scores on three consecutive drives. In back to back plays, Wentz throws another interception to Trevon Walker which was followed by a James Robinson 11-yard rushing touchdwon on the next play. With 12 minutes left in the game and a stagnant offense in the second half, Wentz and the Commanders offense quickly move on from the turnovers and ready themselves to fight back. Wentz connects with WR Terry McLaurin on 49-yard pass for a touchdown to bring life back to the quiet offense. In desperate need of a defensive stop, DT Daron Payne provides a sack to force Jacksonville to punt the ball. In no rush, Washington's offense resorted back to their varied playbook using four different receivers including TE Logan Thomas to drive the ball downfield. On the 13th play of the drive Wentz connects with the rookie once again for a 24-yard touchdown pass to give the Commanders the lead once again 28-22 concluding a successful two-point conversion.

The Jaguars in need of touchdown, desperately fight for big yards to give them a chance with just under two minutes remaining. In an effort to make a play down-field, QB Trevor Lawrence is intercepted by S Darrick Forrest to seal the game.

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 27, DETROIT LIONS 36

Detroit, MI. - After a slow first half, the Commanders fight back in the second, but the comfortable 22-0 lead Detroit had proved to be too much to overcome as the Lions claim the win 36-27.

The Lions seemed to be clicking in all phases of the game in the first quarter. After being stopped for a three in out in their first possession, QB Jared Goff and the Lions offense bounced back in their next possession highlighted by a 49-yard catch by WR Amon-Ra St. Brown that would allow the Lions to get on the scoreboard first with a made field goal. The Commanders offense seemed to not be able to get into a rhythm for their next six possessions resulted in punts marking 56 total yards of offense in the half.

Meanwhile, Detroit played what seemed to be a perfect half with plays being made on offense, defense, and special teams allowing for 22 unasnwered points. Giving the Commanders bad field positioning with a solid special teams performance, the defense was able to force the NFL's first safety of the 2022 on a strip sack on QB Carson Wentz. On the following possession, Goff is able to connect with St. Brown on a 13-yard touchdown pass. The Lions proceed to have back to back scoring possessions with K Austin Seibert making a 48-yard field goal and a 3-yard touchdown pass to WR Josh Reynolds from Goff to end the half.

Determined to respond in the second half, the Commanders open up with a 40-yard pass to WR Jahan Dotson to set up a quick 15-yard touchdown pass to WR Curtis Samuel scoring only two minutes into the third quarter. After a three and out for Detroit and an interception by Wentz, the Commanders reached the endzone again in the third as Wentz connects with the WR trio of Dotson, McLaurin, and Curtis to position a 20-yard touchdown pass to TE Logan Thomas to cut the lead to seven.

Detroit feeling the pressure of a comeback responds with a 58-yard rush by St. Brown. in four plays the Lions are able to see the endzone again with Goff connecting with RB D'Andre Swift on an 22-yard touchdown pass. With no quit in them, the Commanders piece together a 12 play drive ending with a 1-yard rushing touchdown by RB Antonio Gibson to cut the lead back to eight.

The Lions offense not taking their foot off of the gas proceed to drive down the field using TE T.J. Hockenson and Brock Wright to allow another Goff touchdown pass to St. Brown. With three minutes remaining, Wentz is able to use several passes to RB J.D. McKissic to drive down the field in a hurry to score on a 1-yard touchdown pass to Dotson. With a missed extra point, and failed onside kick, the Commanders give the Detroit Lions their first win of the 2022 season.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 24, WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 8

LANDOVER, Md. - The Commanders fall to the Eagles in the first divisional game of the 2022 season after never recovering from a slow first half. The Eagles having a complete game in all three phases of the game left the Commanders stagnant for their second loss.

Receiving the ball first, the Commanders offense lead by QB Carson Wentz were able to start the game with WR Curtis Samuel rushing for 15 yards on the first play of the game. But with a sack by DE Josh Sweat, the Commanders quickly had to punt. Both defenses showed up early as the Commanders defense was able to apply pressure to QB Jalen Hurts and the Eagles offense to punt early as well. The Commanders next drive was halted quickly by back to back sacks by the Eagles defense leading to a three and out. In return, LB Jamin Davis records his second sack in back to back games to force the Eagles to a three and out as well leading to a scoreless first quarter.

Hurts lead the Eagles offense the second quarter by connecting on a deep ball to WR DeVonta Smith for a 45-yard gain to position the Eagles to score the first points of the game with a succesful 32-yard field goal by K Jake Elliot. On the following drive, Wentz is strip sacked by DE Brandon Garaham and recovered by DT Javon Hargrave giving Philadelphia the ball back. In just two plays, Hurts capitalizes on the momentum by connecting with TE Dallas Goedert on a 23-yard touchdown pass.

With the Commanders offense remaining stagnant and P Tress Way forced into punting the ball two more times in the quarter, The Eagles continue their reign in the quarter with Hurts delivering a 9-yard touchdown pass to WR AJ Brown then follow up on their following possession wiith a 2-yard touchdown pass to Smith to give the Eagles a 24 point lead to end the half.

Coming out of the second half, the Commanders defense showed pride with several defensive plays highlighted by a sack from DE Efe Obada and good coverage by CB Benjamin St-Juste who recorded four passes defensed. Much like the first quarter, the defense managed to shut the Eagles out for the entire second half giving up points in only the second quarter. The defense was the first to put points on the board with DT Daron Payne forcing a safety which was first time since October 25, 2020 vs. Dallas for the team.

With five minutes remaining, Wentz is able to use several passes to WR Terry McLaurin and RB J.D. McKissic to position the offense for a 1-yard run for a touchdown by RB Antonio Gibson for their first and only touchdown. After a failed onside kick attempt, the Eagles gained one first down that would end the game.

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 10, DALLAS COWBOYS 25

ARLINGTON, TX. - QB Cooper Rush and the Dallas defense defended their home by holding the Commanders to only 10 points and delivering their third loss in a row. As the Commanders remain in search to find their identity, the Cowboys use their defense as their foundation while their franchise QB Dak Prescott awaits his return from injury.

Off to a quick start, Dallas charges down the field using RB Ezekial Elliot as their main target to position for a score. Elliot combines a 5-yard run and a 31-yard reception in the first possession of the game to lead to the Cowboys first points from a made field goal by K Brett Maher. The Commanders offense takes the field on a mission to commit to their running game. RB Antonio Gibson and Jonathan WIlliams are used for comfortable gains on the ground, but with a false start penalty and QB Carson Wentz taking a sack, the drive is cut short and a punt is forced.

The Commanders defense picks up the slack with DT Jonathan Allen recording two tackles in a row with one being a sack forcing the three and out. Allen is the second player in franchise history to have at least one sack, pass defensed, quarterback hit and four tackles for loss in a single game. He joins Ryan Kerrigan as the only other player in franchise history to do so. Penalties haunting the offense forced another three and out for the Commanders on their next two possessions preventing them from making any real progress offensively keeping them scoreless in the first quarter. With 11 minutes left in the Second quarter, The Commanders are able to use the ground game to progress up the field highlighted by a 33-yard rush by RB J.D. McKissic and a pair of six yard passes to WR Curtis Samuel and Terry McLaurin. Wentz continues to show his ability to make plays in the redzone and connects with WR Jahan Dotson on a 10-yard touchdown pass to take the lead 7-6.

The Cowboys respond by piecing together a 15 play drive for 75 yards leading to an eventual 9-yard touchdown pass to WR Michael Gallup. Dallas had converted three third downs and had a balanced offense on the ground and in the air to complete the six minute drive. With little time remaining in the half, Wentz throws a deep ball intended for Dotson but it is intercepted by CB Trevon Diggs to end the half.

Washington unable to score on the opening drive of the half, were quickly presented with Dallas taking deep shots in their second possession after quick possessions by both teams. Rush was able to complete a 45-yard pass to WR Noah Brown to position the Cowboys for a successful field goal.

The Commanders trying to fight back are able to remain the game with WR Jahan Dotson snagging a 31-yard reception and RB Jonathan Williams picking up 23 yards on the ground to allow K Joey Slye to make a 45-yard field goal to cut the lead to five. In efforts to close the game, Rush in just 3 plays assisted by a long pass interference call, was able to find WR Ceedee Lamb on a deep ball to once again see the endzone. What seemed to be last efforts by Washington to get back in the game was forced into a turnover on downs after driving down to the 10 yard line. Penalties being a problem the entire game forced Wentz to heave a deep ball to McLaurin to try to make a play to no avail. With only six minutes left in the game and Washington desperate for a quick score, Wentz is intercepted by CB Daron Bland giving the Cowboys an easy field goal and closing the game.

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 17, TENNESSEE TITANS 21

LANDOVER, MD. - The Tennessee Titans used RB Derrick Henry and a great third down defense to give them the edge on the Washington Commanders. Coming down to the wire, two yards were the only thing between the Commanders and their second win of the year but the Titans defense showed why the league is a game of inches as they made a game winning interception in the final seconds of the game.

Washington's defense opened the game as well as anyone could with DE Montez Sweat delivering a sack on the first play of the game for a loss of seven yards to disrupt the drive ending in a three and out. The Commanders offense responded in a similar fashion as a fumble and a pair of incomplete passes set them up for a three and out as well. After two more back and forth possessions by both teams highlighted by good defense, the Titans are able to use RB Derrick Henry and RB Dontrell Hilliard on the ground and in the air as QB Ryan Tannehill connected with Henry for a 24-yard screen pass and spotting Hilliard for a 13-yard touchdown pass to score the first points of the game. QB Carson Wentz responds by connecting with WR Curtis Samuel on a 32-yard deep pass to position K Joey Slye for a successful 50 yard field goal to conclude the first quarter.

On the following possession, Sweat is there again to sack Tannehill on a crucial thrid down to give the Commanders the ball back. Wentz takes advantage and shows off his arm strength with a 75-yard touchdown pass to WR Dyami Brown to give Washington the 10-7 lead. The Titans looking to redeem themselves on the following drive are stopped again highlighted by a sack by DT's Jon Allen and Daron Payne on third down to force the punt. Ridden with penalties, the offense remained stagnant for the remainder of the half. Meanwhile given one more opportunity to score, the Titans use good time management coupled by a balance of run and pass plays including a 12-yard pass to WR Robert Woods and a 13-yard rush by Henry that aided in an eventual 1-yard touchdown rush by Henry to conclude a 15 play 81 yard drive to finish the half.

Wentz answers in the second half by going back to what worked in the first quarter as he connects with Brown again on a deep ball which he catches with just his left hand to score his second touchdown of the day. In almost identical fashion, Tannehill connects with WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine on a 61-yard deep ball to position the Titans for another 1-yard touchdown run by Henry to again take the lead. Both defenses battle each other for the remainder of the game as DE's Efe Obada and James Smith-Williams record sacks to end drives by Tennessee. In return DT Jeffery Simmons and Sam Okuayinonu obtain sacks to stagnate the Commanders offense.

With one last drive remaining, Wentz uses short passes to WR Cam Sims and Curtis Samuel to slowly drive down the field but also managing the clock as the two-minute warning approached. Connecting with five different receivers in the drive, Wentz manages to drive the team down to the 16 yard line. In efforts to throw to WR Terry McLaurin, the Titans are charged with a pass interference call giving the team the ball on the two yard line. After two incomplete throws, Wentz has a pass intercepted at the one yard line giving Washington a devastating loss in the final seconds of the game.

CHICAGO BEARS 7, WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 12

CHICAGO, IL. - In a defense driven game by both teams, The Commanders find enough offense assisted by the special teams to grant Washington their second win of the year. The defensive line proved why they are one of the best in the league by recording five sacks and 12 total quarterback hits to hold the Chicago offense to one scoring possession.

QB Justin Fields and the Bears offense take the field first where they are met with a determined Washington defense. With great coverage and strong defensive front, DE's Daron Payne and Efe Obada are able to record a sack each to force the quick possession to start the game. Chicago answered to Washington's defense by DB Jaquan Brisker also recording a sack to force the three and out. The following drive, Fields uses short passes to TE Cole Kmet and WR Darnell Mooney to drive up the field along with using his legs and rushes by RB David Montgomery to drive down to the redzone. Reaching the five yard line, attempting to throw for a touchdown, Obada is able tip the ball which was followed by an interception by DT Jon Allen recording the first of his career concluding a scoreless first quarter.

After the Commanders were forced to punt again, The Bears open up their first drive of the second quarter with RB Khalil Herbert bursting for a 64-yard run to once again put the Bears within the 10-yard line in position to score. After giving up the explosive play, the Commanders once again used their strong front to halt the Bears offense and getting a much needed stop on 4th and 1 to get the ball back and record their second goal line stop in a row. With both offenses remaining stagnant and the first half coming to a close, QB Carson Wentz and the Commanders offense drive down the field with the help of RB J.D. McKissic recording a 16-yard rush and pass interference call on WR Terry McLaurin to position K Joey Slye to make a 38-yard field goal for the first points of the game at the end of the half.

Washington receiving the ball to open the half, try to get McLaurin involved early with involving him the running game. But with Wentz taking a sack by DL Al-Quadin. Muhammad the offense is halted again. Fields shows aggression on the Bears first drive by connecting on two deep balls including one to Mooney for 21-yards and a 40-yard touchdown pass to WR D. Pettis to take the lead. Washington responds by capitalizing on the run game using RB Antonio Gibson on the ground and in the air with a 18-yard run followed by 13 yards receiving in the drive to position another successful field goal by Slye from 28 yards out to conclude the 13-play 69 yard possession to start the fourth quarter.

The Commanders next drive they are stopped and are faced with P Tress Way punting 54-yards that returner Velus Jones Jr. muffed and CB Christian Holmes recovers. Washington capitalizes by RB Brian Robinson getting the 1-yard touchdown to give Washington the lead again. With time winding down, and Chicago desperate to get to the endzone, Fields drives the Bears down to the four yard line. Washington's defense show up again providing a goal line stop with CB Benjamin St-Juste contesting and holding Mooney at the one yard line after the catch to win the game.

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 23, GREEN BAY PACKERS 21

LANDOVER, MD. - In a thriller, the Washington Commanders are able to take down QB Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers behind their stout defense and the leadership of QB Taylor Heinicke to deliver their third win of the season and second in a row. Washington showed a great deal of resiliency coming back from being down in the first half and finishing on top with a 23-21 win.

The Washington defense began the game on the field proving to be the foundation of the team as they deliver a stop in the first drive in six plays. QB Taylor Heinicke and the Commanders offense get off the field in a similar fashion after a quick three and out yo give Rodgers the ball back. Getting into the groove of the game with a short field, Rodgers is able to connect with TE Robert Tonyan and WR Allen Lazard for a combined 29 yards. Getting to the four yard line, RB Aaron Jones rushes up the middle for a four-yard touchdown run to give the Packers the first score of the game.

After Washington experiences another three and out on the following possession, the Washington special teams comes up big as the Packers returner WR Amari Rodgers muffs the punt and S Percy Butler recovers it to give the Commanders the ball on the 17. WIth Green Bay holding the offense in the redzone, Washington has to settle for a 22-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to get on the scoreboard.

Washington's defense delivers another stop forcing a three and out for Green Bay to end the first quarter. Heinicke trying to connect with RB J.D. McKissic, has his pass intercepted by LB De'Vondre Campbell who returns the interception for a touchdown. Heinicke and the Washington offense did not panic and continued to take the field again using their running game effectively with RB Brian Robinson Jr. and Antonio Gibson who accounted for 72 yards on the drive completed by a 9-yard touchdown pass to Gibson to cut the lead. Both defenses held up for the remainder of the half.

To open the half, Heinicke gives new life to the team by connecting with WR Terry McLaurin on a 37-yard deep ball for a touchdown on the sixth play of the half to take the lead for the first time of the game. The defense delivering yet another stop gave the Commanders offense an opportunity to score again. With passes to TE Armani Rogers and WR Curtis Samuel leading to a successful 31-yard field goal by Slye. On the following possession, the Washington defense again gets another stop on fourth down with CB Kendall Fuller breaking up a pass to force the turnover on downs. Getting down to the one yard line, Washington plays it safe and kicks another field goal to increase the lead to 23-14.

Rodgers not going out without a fight, drives down the field in desperation to score. Getting down to the 21 yard line, Rodgers is able to complete a touchdown pass to Jones to cut the lead to 23-21. Washington does their best to run the clock out as much as possible but inevitably has to punt to Green Bay with 20 seconds left. With no timeouts Rodgers and the Green Bay offense is forced to try to lateral the ball with hopes of scoring with no time left on the clock. As expected, the trickery comes to an end and the Commanders take the win at home.

Oct. 30, 2022 GAME 8 Lucas Oil Stadium, (Indianapolis, IN.)

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS 16, WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 17

INDIANAPOLIS, IN.- The Commanders defense shows up big delivering stop after stop and forced two crucial turnovers to halt QB Sam Ehlingher and the Colts offense. Fighting till the end, QB Taylor Heinicke, WR Terry McLaurin and the Commanders offense rally in the final minute of the game to win their third consecutive game in a row and put Washington at .500.

To begin the game the Washington defense asserted their dominance from the beginning forcing a three and out. This would be the third time they've forced their opponent to a three and out on their opening drive this season. Indianapolis showed that their strength came from their defense as they were able to hold the Washington offense to a quick three and out as well. Colts DT Deforest Buckner and the defensive line was able to cause havoc and make his presence known early in the first quarter recording a sack and solid coverage by CB Stephon Gilbmore and S Rodney Mcleod. The Commanders defense responded the same way with DT Daron Payne recording a sack with complimentary coverage by S Bobby McCain and CB Benjamin St-Juste to leave a scoreless first quarter for both teams.

Both offenses seemed to get the ball rolling in the second quarter as Ehlinger is able to connect with WR Michael Pittman on a 16-yard route followed by a 27-yard rush by RB Jonathan Taylor to position the Colts for a successful 46-yard field goal for the first score of the game. Heinicke responds quickly on the following possession by hitting McLaurin on a 42-yard reception followed by a 9-yard touchdown pass to RB Antonio Gibson marking the first time in his career he has recorded a touchdown reception in back-to-back games. Later in the second quarter, Ehlingher is able to drive the ball down to the 36-yard line positioning the team for a scoring drive until DT Jon Allen records a strip sack being recovered by DT Daron Payne giving the Commanders the ball back and stopping a crucial drive and leading to the end of the half.

To open the half, the Commanders get the ball to the 49-yard line but are stopped on fourth and one to once again grant the Colts good field position to score. But yet again the Commanders defense is able to hold them to a field goal to keep the lead. After the Commanders offense goes through a stagnant phase for the remainder of the half, the Colts again make an effort to drive down to the 34 yard line. Washingtons defense shows up again with S Darrick Forrest forcing a fumble from Jonathan Taylor giving Washington the ball back. Getting the ball back, Ehlingher connects with RB Nyheim Hines and WR Parris Campbell on deep balls to get the ball to the one yard line. S Kam Curl provides a stop at the one yard line to force another field goal by K Chase McLaughlin to take the lead.

On the following possession, Henicke throws an interception to LB Shaquille Leonard which is capitalized quickly with Hines running the ball in the endzone for a 6-yard touchdown rush. With 10 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, Heinicke quickly forgets about his turnover and dials passes to GIbson, Mclaurin, and WR Curtis Samuel to have K Joey Slye make a 28-yard field goal to make it a one possession game. The defense remained solid in the next drive providing a much needed three and out to give Heinicke the ball with less than three minutes remaining. Heinicke using his legs is able to keep the drive alive on fourth down connecting with Samuel for 12 yards to move forward. After spotting WR Cam Sims for a 21-yard gain, Heinicke extends the next play and makes a 33-yard deep ball to McLaurin who wins the contested catch battle on CB Stephon Gilmore. On the one-yard line, Heinicke runs it in to take the lead by one point with 26 seconds left leaving the Colts with too little of time to drive down the field granting Washington their third win in a row.

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 17, MINNESOTA VIKINGS 20

LANDOVER, MD. - A solid defensive perfromance by the Washington defense was not enough to take down one of the best teams in the NFC. With QB Kirk Cousins making his first return to FedExField, he was able to use his weappons in WR Justin Jefferson and RB Dalvin Cook to pull off the close win and break Washingtons three game winning streak.

Choosing to differ to the second half, The Commanders defense took the field looking to provide a stop like they have concistentlky the past few weeks. Cousins and the Vikings offense seemed to be in sync early as they were able to complete a nine play 78-yard drive concluded by a 9-yard touchdown reception to Jefferson to take the early lead. After the Washington offense led by QB Taylor Heinicke are forced to punt on the following posession, the defense settled in and was able to provide a three and out highlighted by a sack from DT Daron Payne to force the punt. On the following posession, Heinicke is able to connect with WR Curtis Sameul for 16 yards to position the offense at midfield. The Vikings defense was able to hold their ground at the 49 yard line with LB Danielle Hunter recording a sack forcing another punt for the Commanders to end the first quarter.

The Second quarter seemed to be a display of defense as both teams combined for five consecutive drives that ended in punts. Upon the two minute warning, Heinicke was able to connect with McLaurin for an eight and 12-yard pass to allow K Joey Slye to score the teams first points of the game with a successful 44-yard field goal. With 37 seconds reamining in the half and Cousins looking to extend the lead, CB Danny Johnson comes up big with an interception in the endzone to end the half.

For the first time this season, The Commanders are able to score on th first drive of the second half as RB Antonio Gibson returns the opening kickoff 45 yards. On the second play of the half, Heinicke finds Samuel on a deep 49-yard pass for a touchdown to take the lead. Washingtons defense remained stout for the the remainder of the third quarter, forcing two consecutive punts with solid coverage from S Bobby McCain and CB Benjamin St-Juste. With four minutes remaining in the quarter, the Commanders offense is able to advance down the field using TE Armani Rogers for a 24-yard rush along with a 14-yard reception to Samuel to set up WR Dax Milne's first touchdown reception of six yards to give Washington the 17-7 lead.

With 14 minutes reminaing in the game, the Vikings were eager to score again. On the following drive Cousins used his best reciever in Jefferson to account for 58 yars on the drive which would end in a succesful 25-yard field goal by K Greg Joseph. After getting the ball back, Heinicke's intended pass to TE Logan Thomas is intercepted by S Harrison Smith. Just two plays after the turnover, Cousins is able to throw a 12-yard pass to Cook resulting in a touchdown to tie the game. The Commanders offense is stalled again and forced to punt giving the Vikings the ball back with over six minutes remaining. With great clock managememt, the offense is able to sustain a six minunte 15-play drive concluded by a succesful field goal by Joseph to end the game.

HOUSTON TEXANS 10, WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 23

HOUSTON, TX. - Once again Washington's defense proves to be one of the best in the league as they collectively have a big day and historic defensive performance. Recording five sacks, two interceptions with one for a touchdown, and four passes defensed, the defense allows the fewest points of their 2022 season to grant the Commanders their second win in a row.

Opening the game with the ball, Washington was forced into a three and out after an attempted deep ball to WR Terry McLaurin. With QB Davis Mills and the Texans offense taking the field for their first possession, CB Kendall Fuller made his presence known early. On thier first play, Fuller breaks on the ball on a screen route to cause a tackle for loss. In the very next play, Fuller again makes a play on the ball intended for WR Brandin Cooks and intercepts Mills pass and take it all the way to the endzone for the first score of the game. This would be Fullers first interception for a touchdown in his career and the second consecutive game where the Commanders defense recorded a touchdown. The defense remained stout for the rest of the first quarter as they forced a three and out on the Texans next two posessions and a third possesion that was halted by a sack from DT Jon Allen.

With the Washington offense having posession of the ball to start the second quarter, QB Taylor Heinicke is able to find a rhythm connecting with WR Jahan Dotson and TE Logan Thomas for big gains. the pass game complemented the run game as RB's Brian Robinson Jr. and Antonio Gibson account for 33 yards on the ground in the drive. In the redzone, the offense uses dynamic WR Curtis Samuel on an end around to rush for a 10-yard touchdown to grant the offense their first score for the 14-0 lead. The following drive, the defense does not let off the breaks as Mills is sacked on back to back plays by both DT Daron Payne and DE Montez Sweat to cause yet another three and out. The offense capitalizes with Gibson accounting for 32 yards to set up a succesful 25-yard field goal from K Joey Slye. After the defense provides another stop and with two minutes remaining in the half, Heinicke is able to connect with four different reicievers highlighted by a 17-yard reception for WR Cam Sims and McLaurin to lead to Slye nailing another 24-yard field goal to go up 20-0 at half.

Determined to have a different half, Davis Mills finds WR Brandin Cooks for a 41-yard completion. WIth the drive halted by another sack from Montez Sweat, the Texans are forced to kick a 29-yard field goal from K Ka'imi Fairbairn for their first points. For the remainder of the quarter, both offenses reimained stagnat because of the strong defensive efforts of both teams. Jon Allen was able to record another sack, It was his sixth multi-sack game of his career and first since Oct. 24, 2021.

In the fourth quarter, Heinicke is able to drive down the field on a short field using short passes. Halted from a fumble recovered by Heinicke, the offense is forced to kick another field goal from 44 yards to go up 23-3. With seven minutes remaining in the game, Houston is able to put together a complete drive allowing Mills to score their only touchdown from a 4-yard QB run to bring the game to 23-10. Washington is able to run the clock out getting the ball back to secure the win.

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 19, ATLANTA FALCONS 13

LANDOVER, MD. - Washington tacks on their third consecutive win from all three phases playing their part in the close win against Atlanta. RB Brian Robinson took on the bulk of the teams offense as he achieved his first 100-yard game on the ground in the rainy game. With the win, Washington defeated Atlanta for the first time ever at FedExField. It was the first home victory Washington had over Atlanta since 1993.

Atlanta beginning the game with the ball, used a similar style in offense as QB Marcus Mariota and their array of RB's in Cordarrelle Patterson, Tyler Allgeier, and Caleb Huntley used the ground game for a majority of their offensive yardage. The falcons accounted for 35 yards on the first drive along with a long pass to rookie WR Drake London to position themselves for the first points of the game with a succesful field goal from K Younghoe Koo from 47-yards out. On the following possession, the Commanders opened up their first strike with QB Taylor Heinicke connecting with WR Terry McLaurin for 26 yards. Heinicke continues a perfect drive connecting with WR Dyami Brown for 17 yards and an eventual 14-yard touchdwon pass to RB Brian Robinson Jr. to take the lead 7-3.

To begin the second quarter, Mariota continues to use his legs to move the chains opening up the passing game connecting with London again for a 22-yard reception. In the redzone, Mariota throws across the field hitting TE MyCole Pruitt for a 4-yard touchdown. Washington responds by sticking to the run allowing Robinson and RB Antonio Gibson to account for 46 yards along with a 13-yard recpetion by McLaurin leading to K Joey Slye tying the game with a succesful 30-yard field goal. With both teams making an effort to score one more time before half, Atlanta is forced to punt the ball after four plays and a big defensive stop by Washington. But after Heinicke is intercepted by LB Mykal Walker, the defense was resilient in achieving another stop after Koo missed a 58-yard field goal to end the half.

Opening the half with the ball, The Commanders were forced to punt the ball after a short drive. The Washington defense in return delivered a quick three and out highlighted by big plays from DT's Jon Allen and Daron Payne along with LB Jamin Davis who provided stops. On the following drive, Washington commits to the run as Robinson delivers on four runs in a row postioning Heinikce to throw a 16-yard touchdown pass to TE John Bates for the 16-10 lead. Atlanta follows up with another scoring posession with Mariota and Patterson having the bulk of the yardage. Koo is able to bounce back and kick a 48-yard field goal to remain a one posession game to end the third quarter. To open the fourth quarter, Washington is able to sustain a seven minute drive keeping the ball on the ground and eating up much of the clock. the drive would result in Slye knocking in a 45-yard field goal to extend the lead to 19-13. Washingotns defense remains as consistent as they have been the entire year holding Atlanta on a goal line stand to win the game. DT Daron Payne is able to tip a pass thrown from the four yard line that CB Kendall Fuller intercepts to solidify the win for the Commanders. With this win, Head Coach Ron Rivera eclipsed 100 total career wins (regular and postseason). He is the seventh active head coach to reach the milestone and the 47th overall.

East Rutherford, NJ. - In the first Giants matchup in the season, Washington takes on the rival opponent in MetLife Stadium with both teams fighting for a spot in the playoffs. Washington is able to win the toss and elected to differ to the second half granting the Giants with the ball first. The Commanders defense sets the tone early as DT Jon Allen is able to force a fumble from QB Daniel Jones which was recovered by LB Jamin Davis. The Washington offense is able to capitalize on the field position with K Joey Slye scoring the first points with a succesful 21-yard field goal. On the following drive, Washingtons defense is able to force another three and out giving them solid field position in two back to back drives. QB Taylor Heinicke lead the way by connecting with WR Jahan Dotson for 16 yards, TE Logan Thomas for 11 yards, leading to a 19-yard touchdown pass to WR Terry McLaurin to go up 10-0 in the first quarter.

Looking to respond to giving up two consecutive scoring drives, Jones and the Giants offense is able to open up the second quarter using their rush offense heavily. Jones is able to scramble for 21 yards along with complemented carries from RB Saquon Barkeley to allow a succesful 48-yard field goal from K Graham Gano. In similar fashion to Washington, the Giants defense is able to force a three and out highlighted by a sack from DL Justin Ellis. Getting the ball back, Jones is able to hit WR Darius Slayton on a 55-yard deep ball along with Barkley concluding the drive with a 10-yard rush to tie the game. With eight minutes remaining in the half, Washington tries to slow the game down relying on RB Antonio Gibson and Brian Robinson Jr. to take a load of the carries. In the air, McLaurin is able to account for 29 yards of the drive resulting in another made field goal by Slye. Running a two minute drill, the Giants quickly are able to drive the ball downfield assisted by Barkley's 21 yard rush and quick throws to RB Matt Breida and WR Isaiah Hodgins for Gano to make a field gaol to tie at the half.

The Giants defense opened up the second half with a big turnover as LB Azeez Ojulari strip sacks Heinicke to give the Giants the ball on the 20 yard line. Jones capitalizes on the turnover by throwing a 6-yard touchdown to Hodgins to take their first lead of the game. Washingtons offense remained stagnant for the remainder of the third quarter after being stalled at the 43 yard line. Both defenses showed thier streghth in the fourth quarter as no points were scored for the majority of the time. With three minutes remaining in the game and Washington desperate for a touchdown, Heinicke is able to convert a fourth down by connecting with WR Curtis Samuel to extend the drive. He targets Samuel again on a 25-yard pass to set up a 28-yard touchdown to WR Jahan Dotson to tie the game. After another defensive stop by both teams, with no time remaining the game is forced into overtime.

With the Giants winning the toss and electing to recieve, Washingtons defense showed up early as DT Daron Payne provided a huge sack, his second of the day, to force the three and out. On the next drive, Samuel breaks for a 21-yard rush but the Giants stall the Commanders forcing a punt. Washington returns the defensive intensity as they deliver a stop of their own. In last efforts to win the game Gano attempts a 58-yard field goal that was short ending the game in a tie. It was Washington's first tie since Oct. 30, 2016, against the Cincinnati Bengals. GAME SUMMARY

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS 12, NEW YORK GIANTS 20

LANDOVER, MD. - Washington falls to the Giants in their second matchup in three weeks as QB Daniel Jones and RB Saquon Barkley along with a strong defensive performance is able to deliver the win in Week 15. Although Washington has held their opponents to 24 or fewer points in each of the last 10 games, the longest streak in the NFL this season, the Giants defense was able to overpower the Wahsington offense when it mattered the most.

With the Commanders recieveing the ball first, RB Brian Robinson Jr. led the way accounting for 35 yards in the drive but would ultimately end in a punt. The Giants first drive would end in a three and out foreshadowing the defensive performances from both teams. On the following drive, the Washington offense commits to the running game with big runs by Robinson and RB Antonio Gibson to position them for a successful 41-yard field goal from K Joey Slye marking the first points of the game. With the Washington defense delivering another stop, The Commanders looked to score on consecutive drives, and in efforts QB Taylor Heinicke was strip sacked by Giants DE Kayvon Thibodeaux who also returned the fumble for a touchdown to take the lead.

Struggling to see the endzone, Washington was forced to punt the ball on their next drive granting New York with another opportunity to score before the end of the half. With eight minutes remaining in the half, Jones is able to connect with WR's Isaiah Hodgins, Richie James, and TE Nick Vannett to bring the Giants to the 5-yard line. In the Wildcat formation, Barkley runs in the touchdown on the goal line to extend the lead to 14-3 to end the half. Washington opens up the half determined to get back in the game and the defense did so by halting the Giants and forcing a punt on their first drive. Heinicke and the Washington offense take advantage of this opportunity by piecing together a complete drive highlighted by WR Terry McLaurin who accounted for 51 receiving yards on the drive concluded by a 19-yard touchdown pass to WR Jahan Dotson. The Giants responded by using Barkley on the ground along with Jones scrambling himself to position K Graham Gano for a successful 50-yard field goal to extend the 17-9 lead.

With good field positioning for the start of the fourth quarter, the Washington offense is able to gather enough yards for Slye to hit a 51-yard field goal to shorten the New York lead. On the next drive, Heinicke connects with Dotson on his longest catch of the year on a 61-yard reception. But due to a fumble from Heinicke in the redzone the drive is cut short. New York capitalizes by Gano making another 50-yard field goal to take the 20-12 lead. In last efforts to tie the game, Gibson is able to return the kickoff to the 43 yard line to start the push. Heinicke built on the momentum by connecting with Samuel on a deep 27-yard pass and Dotson on a 14-yard pass. With Heinicke scrambling he is able to get the ball on the one yard line. Robinson's run for a touchdown on the next play was nullified by a penalty forcing Heinicke to throw from distance. Not being able to convert on fourth down concluded the close game between the division rivals.

The Name
The Boston Gridders moved to Fenway Park, home of the American League Red Sox, and "The Braves" became "The Redskins."

Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind the brass band following the franchise's first title. In the game, Sammy Baugh completed 11-of-15 passes, while Cliff Battles had touchdown runs of 75 and 76 yards as the team routed the Giants, 49-14, for the Eastern Championship.
