2022 HIGHLIGHTS

- Registered 1 TD through the air and 1 TD on the ground vs. Sea. (9/18/22), marking the 3rd time in his career that he both threw for at least 1 TD and rushed for at least 1 TD [vs. Jax. (12/24/17) & at Phi. (9/19/21)] in a single game.
- Completed 29 of 41 atts. for 296 yds. and 2 TDs at Atl. (10/16). With 296 yds. and 2 TDs, passed QB Colin Kaepernick for 7th all-time in passing yds. and passing TDs in franchise history.
- Completed 25 of 37 atts. for 303 yds. and 2 TDs vs. KC (10/23). With 303 yds. on the day, threw for 300-or-more yds. in a single game for the 11th time in his career.
- Completed 21 of 25 atts. (84.0%) for 235 yds. and 2 TDs for a 132.5 passer rating at LAR (10/30). His 84.0% completion percentage marked the 5th-highest in a single game in franchise history (min. 20 atts.).
- Completed 19 of 28 atts. for 240 yds. to go along with 5 carries for 3 yds. and 1 TD vs. LAC (11/13). The rushing TD marked his 2nd of the season and 7th of his career.
- Completed 20 of 29 atts. for 228 yds. and 4 TDs at Arz. (11/21). His 4 TD passes matched a career high and was the first time since 2019 [at NO (9/18/19)] that he recorded 4 TD passes.

GAROPPOLO'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Is a two-time Super Bowl champion (XLIX & LI) as a member of the New England Patriots.
- Registered 13,089 yards in total offense at Eastern Illinois, joining former New Orleans Saints head coach Sean Payton (10,298 yards; 1983-86) as the only players in EIU history to generate at least 10,000 yards in total offense.
- Following his senior season at Eastern Illinois in 2013, was named the Walter Payton Award winner. The Award is given to the most outstanding offensive player in the Division I Football Championship Subdivision.
- In addition to Garoppolo, Eastern Illinois has produced a fair share of NFL products including Mike Shanahan, former Super Bowl winning NFL head coach and father of current 49ers head coach Kyle Shanahan, Atlanta Falcons senior personnel executive Ryan Pace, Sean Payton and former Dallas Cowboys QB and current TV analyst Tony Romo.
- Brother, Mike, played linebacker at Western Illinois (2007-11).

GOLDMINE

- As a kid in suburban Chicago, Garoppolo and his three brothers occasionally rose early to join their dad, Tony, at his job. Tony is now a retired union electrician, with his career spanning more than 40 years. Tony instilled his work ethic into Jimmy. “But it was that blue-collar mentality. When you’re raised like that, you don’t know any different. All I knew was hard work, and it translates over to football.” In May of 2019, Jimmy and Tony went to the Silicon Valley Career Technical Education Center in San Jose to speak to and congratulate over 90 recent high school graduates who decided to pursue a career in a skilled trade. A take on national signing day for high school athletes, each person would sign papers at a table, be rewarded with a cap and announce at the podium what trade they would follow. The event encourages students to take up a skill trade, something that doesn’t require a four-year university. “This can help set the path earlier in kids’ lives – they want to be in trades and they can get started in high school,” Garoppolo said.
- During Week 13 of the 2020 season, 49ers players wore custom cleats as a part of the NFL’s annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Garoppolo and his teammates highlighted their respective causes, with Garoppolo representing the Cal Fire Benevolent Foundation.
- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL’s annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. Garoppolo and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Garoppolo represented Make-A-Wish Greater Bay Area, and said, “I play for the kids who inspire me with their strength and courage.”

- Garoppolo continued his giving theme in 2019, partnering with Men’s Wearhouse on a suit drive, asking for donations of gently used suits, shirts, jackets, ties, slacks and shoes. The professional attire for men and women were passed along to local non-profit organizations, who provided them to those looking to re-enter the workplace. Done along with résumé-writing workshops, interview preparation courses and employment training programs, the objective is to create a confident job candidate, someone who shows up for an interview feeling well-prepared and looking the part. “It’s kind of related to the football mentality of, look-good, feel-good, play-good,” Garoppolo said of the drive. “You go in there with a suit and you’re feeling good about yourself and your confidence is up, obviously you’re going to perform better.”
- Prior to Week 2’s matchup in Cincinnati during the 2019 season, the 49ers spent time in Youngstown, OH, where they participated in the Community Blitz. Garoppolo and some of his teammates visited the Akron Children’s hospital as players went from room to room to visit and meet some of the young patients.

- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took part in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi’s Stadium field. Garoppolo and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

- Garoppolo has quickly become integrated with the Bay Area and its sports franchises. Prior to Game 3 of the NHL's 2018 Western Conference Semifinals between the San Jose Sharks and Vegas Golden Knights, Garoppolo was asked to be the "honorary locker room door opener" at SAP Center in San Jose. The Sharks ask celebrities and well-respected sports figures to be the ceremonial door opener as the team heads out for final warmups and pregame introductions.
- For fans traveling to the San Francisco Zoo, they can keep an eye out for one of the zoo's snow leopards, Jimmy G, whom the zoo chose to name after the 49ers quarterback. The zoo received both a male and female snow leopard in early 2018 and quickly found a new name. You can find Jimmy G in the enclosure outside the Lion House near the Lion Fountain.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- In May of 2016, Garoppolo, in partnership with AccessSportAmerica, volunteered at a football clinic for disabled high school students at Harvard Stadium. During the clinic, Garoppolo gave tips to participants on passing, blocking and other essential football skills. Garoppolo enjoyed the clinic so much, he returned to Harvard Stadium again in 2017 to hang out with the AccessSport America students. Garoppolo said he felt honored to volunteer with AccessSportAmerica, and contribute to their efforts to inspire higher function and fitness for people living with challenges and disabilities through high-challenge sports and training.
