GAME NOTES

San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks NFC Wild Card Game Notes Saturday, January 14, 2023

With the Win...

- The 49ers improved to 23-9 at home in postseason play.
- San Francisco improved to 1-1 against Seattle in the postseason.
- The Niners improved to 5-2 in the postseason under head coach Kyle Shanahan.
- The 49ers have now reached the Divisional Round of the Playoffs for the 3rd time in 4 seasons.
- San Francisco improves to 6-2 all-time in the Wild Card Round, including a 4-0 mark at home.

Offensive Explosion

- The 49ers offense racked up 505 yds. of offense, marking the 3rd time in franchise history that the team registered 500-or-more yds. in a playoff game [579 yds. vs. GB (1/12/13) & 537 yds. at Mia. (1/20/85)].

Playoff Purdy

- QB Brock Purdy became the 7th rookie QB since 1970 to win a postseason game.

Rookie QBs To Win A Postseason Game, Since 1970
Player	Wins	Year
Mark Sanchez, NYJ	2	2009
Joe Flacco, Bal.	2	2008
Brock Purdy, SF	1	2022
Russell Wilson, Sea.	1	2012
T.J. Yates, Hou.	1	2011
Ben Roethlisberger, Pit.	1	2004
Shaun King, TB	1	1999

- Purdy completed 18 of 30 atts. for 332 yds. and 3 TDs to go along with 4 carries for 16 yds. and 1 TD. Purdy became the first rookie QB in the Super Bowl Era to register 3-or-more TD passes and 1-or-more TD rushes in a postseason game.
- Purdy's 332 passing yds. are the 2nd-most by a rookie in his first career playoff game and the most since 1937 [335 passing yds. – QB Sammy Baugh, Was. at Chi. (12/12/37)].
- Purdy's 3 TD passes match the most by a rookie in his first career playoff game [Dak Prescott, Dal. – 3 TD passes vs. GB (1/15/17), QB Sammy Baugh, Was. – 3 at Chi. (12/12/37)].

- Purdy became the first 49ers QB to register at least 1 rushing TD and at least 1 passing TD in the same postseason game since QB Colin Kaepernick on 1/12/14 – NFC-D at Car.
- Purdy became the first 49ers QB to register at least 3 passing TDs in a postseason game since QB Alex Smith on 1/14/12 – NFC-D vs. NO.
- Purdy's 332 passing yds. are the 3rd-highest in a single postseason game in franchise history.

Postgame Quotes – January 8, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Arizona Cardinals

Opening Comments:

“Alright guys, injuries from the game. We had [WR Jauan] Jennings with an ankle, he returned. [DL] Samson [Ebukam] with an ankle, he didn't. He probably would've if it wasn't like that at the end though. Go ahead.”

With the way the first half ended, I would imagine you weren't too pleased. What did you say to the team at halftime and what did you think of the result?

“I definitely wasn't happy how it ended, but we moved on from that very fast. By the time we got in, you just try not to think about it. Our team knows what we messed up there. I said this is what we expected and we expected a tight game. It was a tight game that's playoff football and I expected us to come out in the second half, score first and then respond.”

Did you get the sense that QB Brock Purdy had some nerves or anything early in the game and how did he kind of settle in?

“I think everyone does a little bit. The rain was going there a little bit at the beginning, but he missed that first pass and was a little off on a couple, but he also made a couple off schedules there in the first half too that were really good. He ended up playing a hell of a game and the most impressive thing was not turning it over.”

Were you at all surprised with how much trust you have in Brock at this point?

“Not really. I felt that way from the beginning, once he got in that game versus Miami, we didn't have the luxury to sit there and worry about stuff the way the game was going. We just had to call plays to try to win the game and he did such a hell of a job and he's done it every time since, so we have a lot of confidence in him and he gives us more and more confidence each week.”

19 passes and nine runs of the first half. It balanced out in the second half, but was it the initial plan to attack to the air, at least initially?

“Yeah, it was. We knew we wanted to run the ball and we were hoping it would end up balanced towards the end, but we thought we had some good looks that we wanted to get and we got some of them and capitalized on a couple. I thought we were doing a hell of a job in the first half actually, offensively, they do a good job of giving up some, but not letting you in the end zone. And for us to have all those yards, I think we had 8.5 yards per play, but I think we only had 13 points to show for it, so when you do that, you worry and that's why you have to turn those big plays into touchdowns and we were able to do that in the second half.”

You joked, maybe not joked about don't take a 17-yard sack, but he does seem to have a knack for spinning out of stuff. At some point, do you just get used to it and say just go do it?

"No. He was great on some, that last one, it was very close. It was unbelievable the throw he made in the corner to [WR Brandon Aiyuk] B.A. I know he just missed that, but he's got a feel for it. He definitely makes me nervous on some of it, but he did a hell of a job getting away. He knows his body, he's out there and you can see how close he is to those guys and he tries to never give up on a play and he's been very smart with the ball so far, so I appreciate that he's doing it."

Did you have a sense WR Deebo Samuel might do something big after his foot got yanked?

"I was worried that he was hurt on it. I lost my mind a little bit on that. I was real concerned that he was hurt on it, I didn't like how that looked. I thought it looked pretty bad and the intent of the play, so I think that pissed a lot of people off. I think it pissed our team off and I think you could kind of feel our team react to that after. I wish we were like that from the first play always, but sometimes when some stuff motivates the guys, I think it was cool to see us rally together and I know Deebo was bothered and it was cool we came back and answered."

The defense had some struggles had some struggles in the first half, they played a lot better in the second half. How'd you assess their performance?

"Yeah, they got us on a couple things early. The big play obviously, [Seattle Seahawks WR] D.K. [Metcalfe] is as good as anyone. [Seattle Seahawks QB] Geno [Smith] throws a hell of a ball and [CB Charvarius Ward] Mooney didn't shy away from anything. He went up there and competed with them all game just like he did last time. D.K. is going to get some, I thought we got some too, but I think the key in the game was getting those turnovers in the second half and if we don't come out and get those turnovers and we turn it over on offense, I think it's a totally different game. And once we came out and got those turnovers, I think we settled down and got back into playing pretty good football."

Was that play with Seattle Seahawks S Jonathan Abram worthy of a personal foul or worthy of an objection in your mind?

"That's what I thought I saw and then he was hurt, so that allowed me to go out there. I'll see, you always see when you see the tape. Everyone's emotional out there, but that's what it looked like to us."

Did you say anything to the officials about it?

"Yeah."

Do you remember any of it?

"Not what I said, but who knows, I was borderline blacked out at the time and we'll see. You always have to see it again, but that one bothered us a little bit."

What was your view on DL Charles Omenihu's strip sack, DL Nick Bosa's recovery and just what it meant for you at that point in the game?

"Oh, it was huge. That was our first turnover. Once we got the turnover that's when I feel like the momentum completely changed for the whole game and it took him a while. He was in that pocket for a little bit. The longer they're in there, the more people get open and off-schedule timing, so I was worried the whole time and then the ball went down on the ground and all I was asking, just jump on it please. We had a couple the last time we played him and they beat us to it and then once he did jump on it, I kind of was wishing he scooped and ran with it, but regardless I think we ended up scoring, so it was a huge play in the game and I think once our defense did that, I think they got their mojo back and played great. It was awesome to be able to protect some of them there that last drive.”

You mentioned that play or what happened to Deebo kind of pissed everyone off and ignited you. Was it an element of you beaten the Seahawks two times in the regular season and yeah, it's the playoffs, but was there kind of like a malaise or?

“No, I don't want to make too big a deal about that. People get mad, that doesn't change everything. You have to score points to beat people and they got us in a couple big plays, especially the go-route that gave them some points and I think we had eight and a half yards of play in the first half, so it wasn't like we weren't doing well. They just did a good job of keeping us out of the end zone and if you keep doing that, regardless of what you've done, you look up and you're down by one point and I didn't feel like we should be, because I thought we had done a lot of good things, but when you don't score those touchdowns, that's how it is and that's why it doesn't always matter the stats and what you're doing. There's one thing, it's who scores more points and I'm glad we kept playing the same way and we ended up getting turnovers and not giving any and if you keep doing that and keep getting explosive like that, that's why the score ended up the way it did.”

When you guys sweep the division, beat Seattle the way you did twice in the regular season, was there any extra pressure coming into this game? A game that everybody expected you guys to win pretty decisively?

“Yeah, the pressure is how much we believe in our team and that it's not a seven-game series, it's just three and a half hours and who knows what's going to happen. Everyone in the playoffs is a good team, that's a good team. They won nine games for a reason. They're always tough to play regardless and you have to go out there and play really good football and that's what's so tough about the NFL. That is our internal pressure is we think we got a really good team and we don't want today to be our last day with this team, but that is the reality of the playoffs. All you have guaranteed is three and a half hours. Once we clinched earlier this year up there, we knew we were guaranteed the playoffs, so that was kind of the first feeling that we've had in a while of like, ‘wow, if we don't handle our business this week this week's over, this season's over.’ And we love this team for a number of reasons and I'm glad we have another week.”

Obviously, Brock's been playing well, but is it a different thing to see him do it in the playoffs like this, just for you?

“Not totally yet. I don't know. The playoffs, all it means is if you lose, the season's over, besides that you're usually going against good teams, but we have seen him do it against good teams and the pressure's always on and it was great to see him do it today.”

Do you feel like it affects Purdy now that this game is over, he's already played in one postseason game and now he can just go play?

"I think he did that today. I think he's done that every game he's gotten in, so it's cool to have another thing that he can say he's done, but these games are all the same, some can mean more than others just because when you lose this one it's your season's over, so that's the pressure that everyone has to deal with. That's why you just want to get to the game. Once that kickoff goes and you get out on the field, then you realize it's three and a half hours just like it always is, but there is always a buildup for that."

As good as your defense is, you have this seemingly annoying trend of giving up a big play in the first half of games, especially during the second half of the season. How do you account for it? Obviously, you're not happy about it.

"It happens and yeah, we work at everything, but what I'm happy with is we held them to less points than we got on offense. I think we don't freak out when we give up a big play and the same stuff we've been doing all year. I know we're the number one defense in the league and we've earned that throughout the year. Guys play well, it's a whole team game and that's why sometimes when they have big plays and our defense gives that up, then we have to answer on special teams or offense and vice versa. There's a number of times that we've struggled this year offensively or special teams wise and we haven't had to worry about anything because our defense was at the top of their game, I think they did some real good things today, didn't start off that great, but when you do end up limiting their explosives and keeping them out of the end zone. I'm pretty happy with our defense."

San Francisco 49ers QB Brock Purdy
Postgame Quotes – January 14th, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

On that throw to WR Deebo Samuel, did you feel the moment or what happened?

"Honestly, the ball was a little wet. It was raining at the time and it just got away from me. But yeah, it wasn't anything in terms of the game. It was just the ball was wet, slipped. I was trying to rip it to Deebo and I was just mad that I couldn't get it to him."

And how important is that second pass where you hit WR Brandon Aiyuk to kind of get into the rhythm then?

"Yeah, I mean, it's very important. Obviously had missed one right before that. So, to get the ball to B.A., have him make a play and just create some momentum, it was huge for us, huge for myself. As a quarterback you want to start the game off with some completions and just get into a rhythm, so it was huge for myself. It was huge for the team."

Did it feel different because it was a playoff game?

"I mean, there was some emotion going into the game. You could just feel it in the environment with the fans and our teammates like, man, this is win or go home. And so, you did feel that I feel like pre-game and whatnot, but once the game started, it was all, hey, it's 11-on-11, I've got to do my job. I've got to get it to the guys when they're in space and go from there. But we didn't make it more than what it was. I mean, you could feel it in the first half in terms of Seattle's playing really good football, it's playoff football, everyone plays their best football. So, I feel like that was just something that we had in the back of our minds too. But overall, it wasn't 'oh my gosh, we're in the playoffs, we got to get all tense or anything like that.' So we've just got to play our game and let everything else fall into place."

You haven't had very many opportunities to have Deebo and RB Christian McCaffrey in the backfield behind you. When they did that today, when they were on that field at the same time today, can you kind of see the defense having a dilemma, sort of a pick your poison type of issue for them?

"I mean, yeah, I think obviously it's hard for a defense to stop that when you've got both guys coming out of the backfield, any which way or doing all these exotic things that we do. But I thought that honestly, credit to Seattle, they did a good job, I think on third downs and everything like that, in terms of playing man, they had great coverage. I feel like they had a good plan in terms of how to stop our guys out of the backfield with Christian and Deebo. But at the same time, like once we did get the ball and they made plays then, we did exactly that. Our guys made plays in space and so it's going to be a challenge moving forward. As usual, everyone's going to be playing their best football and scheming up stuff like that for Christian and Deebo, but I know once they win those one-on-one matchups and get the ball to them, it's tough for defenses."

In the first half you were able to move the ball well but couldn't get into the end zone or had trouble finishing drives. Why were you able to turn that around the second half?

"Yeah, it's just, there's a couple plays, man, where it's like you've got to be on point. Once you get those matchups and opportunities to capitalize on, you've got to do it, especially in the NFL, playoff football. And so, I put that on myself. There's some plays where I should've put the ball up, you know, give [TE] George [Kittle] a one-on-one shot and instead of taking a sack, some plays like that where I've got to be better. And so, coming into halftime, you know, [head coach] Kyle [Shanahan] just was straight up like, 'hey man, plays are there, the opportunities are there. We've just got to keep it simple and get it to the guys.' And so, we knew what our plan was coming out of halftime into the second half and I thought we just executed everything and we finished drives where we didn't do the stalling. We didn't overthink things in the second half."

You moved around a lot today. But after the, when you roll left, roll right, you get it to RB Elijah Mitchell in the open flat there. You really looked as excited as I've seen you. Was that just because of the play was the moment. What were you feeling there? And could you talk us through that play?

"Yeah, it was just a broken play. I was trying to go left to B.A. and then go through my progression from there, just broke down. And so, Elijah did his job in terms of staying in protection and then if he had time he could get out and he was my last read. So, the front side just broke down. And when I scrambled, Elijah was where he needed to be. And that's why I was excited. I was like, man, that that was sweet, that I had that trust in you to be there. And the same for him, for myself. And so, once we completed that and scored, it was just a huge part in the game, to create momentum, it was just a big play for everyone and a big moment for everyone. So, I was just excited about it and just wanted to create some juice for our team and just celebrate a touchdown with my guy Elijah."

WR Deebo Samuel called you slithery, your slithery moves out there. Is this something you knew you had or is it just instinct to be able to be able to move right when the defense lineman's coming one way?

"Yeah, I mean, it's not something that I go into a play where, oh, if it's not here, I'm going to scramble and do this and that. I want to go through my progressions and stuff, but I feel like it's just the instinct that I have of playing football throughout the years of if something's not there, the play can still be alive. That's sort of in the back of my mind. And so, growing up I've been able to scramble and make plays off-schedule. So, in those moments and a couple of those touchdowns, I think it was just something that I've always done my whole life in terms of finding a way when it's not there. So that's all it was."

You almost got a fourth touchdown pass to B.A. on the corner. On that rollout, you took a big shot at the end. When you look back on that play, was it worth it?

"Yeah, I think."

Was that the same ribs though the same area where you hurt?

"Yeah, it was on my left side. Nothing from that hit, it was a good clean hit from the defensive lineman. Obviously in that kind of situation, I've got to be smarter with getting the ball out if the first read isn't there instead of doing all that extra stuff. But yeah, I felt like it was one of those situations where, man, if we can just put one more touchdown in, put the nail in the coffin. But at the same time a field goal is just as good. So, something I've got to be smart with and just throw it away if it's not there."

What did Brandon say to you after that?

"I mean, I was excited that, alright, we have a scramble drill on, and he kept it alive. He saw me scramble, I went left, came back right, and then he ran left and then went all the way right. And so, I was excited that he kept it alive and I was happy. I was like, dude, that was good. And then he was obviously just, he's hard on himself, he was like, man, I should have caught it or hit my hands or whatever. But, you know, it's, you know, it's, it's all good, man. I love the dude. He works hard. He blocked for Deebo on that long touchdown. Like, you just see B.A. gives everything for this team. And so, when something like that happens. It's all good. We're going to learn from it and be better."

A swagger related question. Do you feel the high step coming or is that just natural and then what do you imagine you're injecting into your veins?

"Yeah, the high step sort of just comes in the moment. I don't really think that, dude, I'm going to high step this linebacker or anything like that. I try to just get them to stop a little bit so I could possibly get a couple more yards, that's all that is. And then I mean the whole vein deal, I think it's just more for the team. They love just bringing some emotion and juice to the team. And so, I don't go into the game telling myself, man, I'm going to inject my veins with this or that. It's just some celebration to get the guys going."

Are you a LeBron James fan?

"Yeah. LeBron. Yeah."

Did you see that he tweeted about you?

"I did not."

Lebron said "Purdy got game."

"LeBron said that? Oh, that's sweet. No, that's awesome, so cool."

How did you notice the intensity in the huddle change maybe after Deebo got his leg jammed up?

"Yeah, I mean that's our guy, Deebo. He brings so much to the team, the juice, the swagger, all that kind of stuff. And you know, he's down obviously, and the guy just kept going and it's like, come on, like, let's play clean here to keep the game going. And we get it, it's a physical game and everything, but to do that it's unnecessary. And so, for our team to just show some emotion, to show Deebo that we got his back, man. And yeah, I think we all had the right to have his back and be fired up about that. But it definitely created some juice for us and some momentum and I feel like we capitalized off it."

San Francisco 49ers WR Brandon Aiyuk
Postgame Quotes – January 14, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

Is there anything that QB Brock Purdy does right now that surprises you guys still?
“No, that’s Brock Purdy. That’s Brock Purdy.”

Do you wish you had that one back in the back of the end zone when Brock tried to throw it to you for a touchdown?

“Of course, of course. I don’t know what it is about that end zone over there, but I got to figure it out.”

The play that DL Charles Omenihu made when it was a one possession game - that really felt to me like almost a turning point in the game in terms of defensive momentum. And then you guys went down and took advantage of that offensively...

“Absolutely, I think we came out after the half down one point and then we went and got seven. So then it was a six point game, they got us the ball back and I think that was the next drive when we went down and [TE] George [Kittle] had the two point conversion. Then, we put it in a position that we wanted to, and at that point, the defense was able to pin their ears back and go play 49ers defense – offense closed the game out.”

What are some of the second half adjustments that you guys made or talked about at halftime?

“Just finishing, bringing more intensity and finishing the play in the run game and in the pass game. I think we turned it up the second half.”

How did that feel to get that sack and eat a little bit there?

“It felt great I have been fighting through a lot of adversity with injury and being in and out of the lineup, and not feeling like myself. It feels good to make plays in big-time games. I’m a big-time player, so that’s what I pride myself on doing.”

What can you say about 49ers DL Charles Omenihu and what he has been able to do this season?

“Charles is a baller. He’s been going crazy. It’s been good to see. He came in at the end of last year and he helped us tremendously. To have a whole year of that role, he is coming into his own. We are going to need big time performances like that down the stretch.”

Postgame Quotes – January 14, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

What was it like at halftime when you guys had played a pretty good half, yet you're down by one? What was the energy level?

"I was a little nervous just because of how the tide was going, but I have great confidence in this team. An entire half of football is a lot of football and we did exactly what we're supposed to do."

What has DL Charles Omenihu shown you in the year-and-a-half he's been your teammate?

"A lot of improvement. He's really revamped his preparation. He was more of a big interior guy when he came in. The time that's he's been here, he's really bought into the scheme. He's a really good player for us."

Do you guys talk technical stuff as far as how guys move?

"For sure. We're very different rushers, but there's always similarities that we could talk about and I'm always trying to help him out."

It seemed like the defense wasn't playing up to its usual standard, at least in the first half. What did you see there?

"Seattle came in with a really good game plan. They had some different looks that threw us off in the run game and No. 9 [Seahawks RB Kenneth Walker III] was really being patient, a little more patient than we were used to. So we had to adjust and just attack the run game to knock him back so he couldn't find those lanes and get those extra yards."

Did you guys make adjustments at halftime?

"No, we didn't make any adjustments to be honest. I think everybody just kind of amped up the intensity a little bit. I think there were a couple plays for me that I was just being too patient on. When the running back scored the touchdown. I just have to take fault for it and just learn certain stuff. Everybody kind of has like one little thing, you know what I mean. If we just clean it up and keep getting better, then we'll be able to handle what happened in the first half."

Did anyone say anything at halftime? Did any of you guys speak up or coaches?

"Oh, yeah. Everybody's speaking up. The coaches, every player. We know we're a lot better than that. We know we can play a lot better, and they know we're a lot better than that, and we got their best shot. So we felt like, if we come out with the mindset that we know we're supposed to have and we play the ball that we're supposed to play, then what happened in the second half should've happened. That's what happened."

How about that game by QB Brock Purdy? 332 yards passing, the touchdowns that he threw. He should've had four touchdowns if WR Brandon Aiyuk catches that one.

“Yeah, I know, man. He's a special dude. Just watching him from the sideline, he's just so poised. It's unbelievable to have a teammate that's young like that and can come in when all the odds are stacked against him, Mr. Irrelevant and everything. To come out and still be who you are and play football the way that he plays, it's just a testament to him and how he was raised and how he's been brought up. It's unbelievable, man.”

That celebration from San Francisco 49ers QB Brock Purdy, was that the first time you've seen him really kind of let his emotions out?

“I feel like when he threw that touchdown in the back of the end zone to [49ers TE George Kittle] against the [Las Vegas Raiders] he put the ice in his veins. I love that. I love seeing him let his emotion out like that because a he's calm, cool, collected guy. He's not very loud but when he lets it out it fires you up.”

What can you say about his performance?

“I think it's incredible. He threw for 320 yards and three touchdowns in the playoffs as a rookie. He started six games. It's incredible. There's always stuff to pick apart. There's always meat left on the bone, but I'll take that. I'll take 41 points all day.”

You seem like you are starting to really hit a stride even though you guys have won 11 in a row now.

“I'd say so. I think that's a pretty good way to put it. Winning 11 games in a row in this league is not easy to do. It's so tough to win any game in this league. So for us to string it together like that, I do feel like we've hit a good stride.”

It seems like the, personality of the defense is not necessarily that of the headliners that we hear about every week, right? It's guys like San Francisco 49ers DL Charles Omenihu that make their presence known

“It can be anybody. I feel like this whole team offense, defense, special teams, there are so many weapons. There so are many play makers It doesn't even have to be the headliners. There's so many guys that can make plays and it's tough to stop us when we have everyone going.”

The emotions, the energy of a playoff game. Is it significantly different than a regular season game?

"There's more on the line. It's win or go home in the tournament, but the way this team prepares and practices, it's very similar to every week since I've been here."

Early on after you got here, you had a nice game and you said there's a lot more meat on the bone for you. Where are you in terms of that now as far as how you've learned the offense?

"There's always stuff out there. You watch the tape and a lot of times you're playing against the tape. You just want to put good things on tape. You want to wake up Monday morning and when you watch it on the iPad, you want to be proud of what you do, what you put out there. There's always stuff and there's always things, like you made the wrong cut here or did something wrong here and that's football. What makes it so fun is that constant pursuit for perfection. I think everyone on this team has that and that's why our practices are intense."

Do you have a sense of what that'll be like for you when you watch the tape?

"Yeah, I'd never make blanket statements after games win or lose. It's so fun to win a playoff game at home with the fans going crazy. It was a special feeling. We're still alive and we're going to take it one at a time. As far as tomorrow goes, you'll make the corrections. You need to capitalize on the strengths and keep moving, but I never liked making blanket statements after a game without watching it."

Do you like the idea of playing on a Saturday and winning and now being able to sit back and see what happens around the NFC?

"We might play Saturday next week, too. So for us it's take advantage of every day, every second you have to recover and get back ready to go."

Can you talk about this team's progress and where you are today?

"We knew we weren't quite playing to our standard of football early in the year and not scoring enough points and had to settle in. I think that's the beauty of this league and this game, right? It's like who can get better, who can continue to find ways to get better throughout the entire year. I think every game we learn something, every practice we learn something and there's a standard of being a professional in this locker room and with our coaching staff that you have to keep adjusting and keep improving. There's an old football adage, you're either getting better or you're getting worse, there's no staying the same. I think we take that to heart around here and I think offensively, we're starting to catch our stride and playing our best football at the right time."

Mike, that being said, it has been a while since you guys had your backs against the wall. Is it kind of jarring all of a sudden when you guys have been going along as well as you have and all of a sudden you go down 17-16 at the half?

"I wasn't actually speaking of the score because we played in Vegas and our backs were certainly against the wall in that regard. I was more talking along the lines of we had clinched in early December and there wasn't really, other than up playing to our standard, there really wasn't anything to, other than trying to improve a seed, for the last month. When you get into playoff football, we talked about it last night. The biggest thing is that we don't want to lose because we don't want to stop playing. We love this group and we know how the NFL shakes up every single year with the kind of turnover a roster can have. This is a special group that we all just want to keep playing ball."

NFC Wild Card Playoff Round

San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

When the Seattle Seahawks were only down by six, what was the temperament in the huddle at that point as far as trying to keep them out of the end zone and having them settle for a field goal?

"When the opponent gets in the red zone, your thought process is to hold them to a field goal. The plan is always play the call and execute. It's as simple as that. When we do that good things will happen for us."

Before you forced the fumble, you had a near sack and Seattle Seahawks QB Geno Smith got away a little bit. How much was it in your mind to atone and make a play there?

"Those type of plays in the playoffs, when you've missed one, it can weigh on you and it definitely was on my mind. But at the end of the day, you have to keep moving. We have a win-or-go-home mentality. I mean, stats don't matter. The only thing that matters is if you get a win or a loss at the end of the game. So I had to re-center my mind. My coach and teammates tell me another opportunity's going to come and thank God, it did."

How much do you like getting that take away and how that moment kind of lifted, especially the defense, and got you guys rolling?

"Yeah, it was big. Getting the turnover is always big. The game was kind of close and getting that opportunity to get a turnover and change the game is huge in these type of games especially."

Statistically, your two best games in your career now are both playoff games, last year in Dallas and here this one. How important is that to you that you've showed up here at the biggest moments?

"I told the guy yesterday, big time players step up in big time games. I say that we're all big time players it doesn't matter who is going to step up. Thank God I've been able to. In the year and a half that I've been here, I have been able to step up in those big time games and help my team win."

San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

When you got your foot yanked on, what were your emotions?

"I stayed down a little because I almost lost my temper, and you can see the definition of our team of [IGYB], I got your back. The second half they scored at the end of the fourth quarter. Like, you can have it, but at the end of the day I felt like that turned our team up a notch. As you can see, we just went out there and made plays."

Are you saying that you just needed that time to yourself?

"Yes, a hundred percent. It hurt for sure, but in my mind I was about to lose it. I just kept calm and just seeing how [49ers Head Coach] Kyle [Shanahan] came off the sideline is true definition of our team."

Can you walk us through your touchdown? Did you get a good look at what 49ers WR Brandon Aiyuk was doing down field?

"Oh yes. I saw Brandon. Once I came around and I saw the safety up top and I wanted him to think I was going to go that way, when I knew Brandon was going to seal the sideline for me and he did a great job and I just ran off his block."

Did you sense any nerves from 49ers QB Brock Purdy in his first playoff start? How do you think he was?

"I don't think there were any nerves at all. We kind of started off slow. We missed a couple here and there, but as the game slowed down and settled down for him, he knows the guys that he has around him to build him up. It started to slow down for him too in the second half and he went out there and played good ball."

In the second half you guys took control defensive changed there in terms of just shutting them down the way you guys did?

"Just a great, second half, defensive effort. I don't know, but I feel like just the guys just came out after halftime with the right mindset and realized that defensively we need to play better need to play better."

What was the mood like at halftime with you guys being down one point?

"We had the attitude of just relax man, and take it one play at a time."

You've been through a lot of these with the Seahawks. What's it like to sweep them and do it in the playoffs?

"It was hard. You know, that's a great team out there and great coaching staff too. So that was a tough game."

How good does it feel to win a playoff game and advance?

"It feels great anytime you win in this league, playoff regular season, pre-season, it feels great. But we can't dwell. This is short lived right now because we have to get ready and prepare for the next team."

San Francisco 49ers LB Fred Warner
Postgame Quotes – January 14, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

Can you kind of describe how you guys go about just staying in the moment and not letting it develop into something bigger?

"Yeah, I think in my short time in the league so far, I've seen so much happen within a game, being up by a lot, being down by a lot and the ebbs and flows of a game. I know one play doesn't define a game, you know? Especially when it happens that early, there's so much more football left to be played. It's more about keeping confidence within the guys and knowing that it's a next play, best play mentality. Before the game we talk about playing 60 minutes. You know, not 15, not 30. You've got to play a full 60 in the playoffs. It's playoff football, you know, it's not going to be easy. It's all about just staying even keeled."

Was there a part of you at all that was curious how QB Brock Purdy would react on the playoff stage and what did he show?

Nah, nah. He is who he is. It's not about the playoffs and the big stage. He's been in the biggest of moments regardless of playoffs or not. When you get thrown into the Dolphins game who are as hot as they come and [QB] Jimmy [Garoppolo] goes down, we're all looking around and Brock Purdy's the one who gets his number called and he goes and helps you win a football game. Those are the big moments that prepare you for moments like this and he showed us over and over again who he is and the type of player he is. So not surprised."

What's the next two days like for you as you watch the Vikings play and then maybe the Monday night game too?

"I'm just going to wait and see whoever we play, that's who we're going to prep hard for. It's all about taking this thing one game at a time. I know obviously we talk about the end goal, but you don't get there unless you win, you win one. So I'm proud of the guys for just winning one today."

Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll
Postgame Quotes – January 14, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

Opening Comments:

"This was a really frustrating day for us in that we really had a shot at putting this game away on our end of it, and we could have done it today. It was a fantastic end of the second quarter to get us ahead. Great kick. Down 10-0 on the road, they're going crazy, and our guys just bounced right back into it. Put us ahead by the time we're done at halftime and we felt great about it. We really felt like we had done some things we could fix and we could play a better second half. We go through the third quarter 23-17 and it's there. It's there to be had. They did some really good stuff. They've got good players and a good team, and I give them all the credit. I thought [Head Coach] Kyle [Shanahan] did a fantastic job, but we had our shot. So, the suddenness of this finish is just what's so striking right now, that we are all of a sudden done. We weren't thinking that way. We were thinking something good was going to happen, we were going to knock these guys off and we were going to keep going. Of all the stuff that has to do with playoffs, this is the biggest obvious factor that's different and unique, that you're playing for something. All the hype, everything building and going crazy, and all of a sudden you have to go home. What has happened during the course of this season has been a tremendous amount of progress that we've made. We've made so much growth and there's so much yet to occur here in the next turnaround. As we get to come back for this next season, all of these young guys are going to see the world totally differently than they see it right now. They're going to be amazed how much they didn't know in their first season of playing NFL football. I'm not dwelling on the negative part. I'm going to focus on what's coming and that's how we've talked in the locker room. There's future, there's all kinds of promise and there's all kinds of cool things that are going to occur here as we bounce back and get back on track for another season. But, really disappointed that we had it. We had such a good opportunity today. You all felt it and I know you could tell, and it was really exciting. It was a great finish [K] Jason [Meyers] hitting the kick right at halftime to give us that assurance that yeah, we can come back and we can be in this thing and we're for real. But they did a nice job in the second half."

Pete, you had that one point lead at halftime. Just how much did the turnovers make a difference?

"Yeah, unfortunately we got the penalty called on us. And so we're on 3rd & 12, I think it was. And the last thing that you want to do is get sacked and lose the football there because we were in field goal range. We would've taken the field goal at that time and we would've been feeling okay about it. And we'd give the ball to them and then they'd go down the field. I think they scored after that. Then we couldn't keep them from scoring. They moved the ball in those next three drives, and they made plays. The quarterback did a really good job of staying alive and their guys made some things happen. So, it's the turnovers. Yeah, it always is. We were minus two today. That's how you lose. And we know that. It was even more poignant because we knew what we were doing, and we were trying to make sure we didn't make that error. And they took the ball away from us. I'm talking about the fumble."

You've mentioned previously that emphasis on linemen downfield. Was there anything different today about that call?

"No, there is a new emphasis. And obviously it kicked our butt today. We had five penalties and three of them were the same thing. We made an error on the third one. We went down field too fast and I think there was one in there, but [Seahawks QB] Geno [Smith] couldn't throw the ball any faster than on the first one. He couldn't get the ball off his hands any quicker. That two-yard threshold, I don't know, because the officials didn't call anything during the day. It seemed like we must have played a really clean game on both sides of the ball and they did too, but they didn't call anything. And then all of a sudden those things popped up. But we have to do better. It's easy to not even threaten to go downfield, we have to do better at that."

Maybe it's too early, but when you just look at this season, what are you going to take away from this?

"All of the experience gained. There were many things that we dealt with. This was a valuable season. All of the challenges that we faced, where you could have thought, just kind of like in this game, we're down and you think maybe we don't have what it takes and then we come roaring back. Then we have a little bit of a dip again and we come roaring back again. It was like the first half of this football game. Really, there's just so much future. And that's just obvious. You can see it in the young guys. [Seahawks RB] Kenneth [Walker III] had a great year and the two tackles had had a fantastic season just doing what they did. The cornerbacks that played did a fantastic job to make it through a season. They're crushed in there right now. They couldn't see it coming that the season was going to be over today. So they're in shock about it almost. But all of those guys are going to grow so much. That's really what's so obvious and we need to do better. There were a lot of areas that we can improve."

What was the vibe at halftime?

"Oh, we were jacked up. We were ready to go. We were ready to seize the opportunity. It was there. It was just exactly like we had talked about and exactly like we had pictured it. We had played through the adversity and we were ahead on the road. Nobody thought you could ever even be close and it just didn't quite come together, so that's what's really frustrating."

They had a lot of big explosive plays on offense. What do you think happened there?

"Yeah, there was all kinds of strange plays. [QB] Brock [Purdy] did a really good job staying alive. I don't know why we couldn't sack the guy. We chased him all over the place and he's not noted for being the greatest scrambler, but he looked like Fran Tarkenton out there today. Some of you guys don't even know who that is but he did an excellent job of keeping plays alive. He finds the little flat gimme touchdown, and then he finds it again just because he stays alive and was really resourceful. Those were really hard plays because there are all kinds of things that could have happened the other way right there and they didn't. So, those were just forced by the effectiveness of the guy's scrambles. He caused it."

You were having a lot of success with those deep cross routes. What were you seeing on that and how much did their ability to create yards after the catch effect things?

"Yeah, we were geared up to stop the running game today in hopes that we would be able to do that. It stayed with us. The preparation caught us a little bit because we were really gunning to make sure that we were there. The passes did get in behind us on a couple in some zone stuff."

The fumble aside, what did you give you Seahawks QB Geno Smith's performance?

"Geno seemed in control. Seemed like he had really good accuracy going and he was 9 for 10 in the first half. I thought he was on it. He was using all of the stuff we did. We almost called everything we had on the card today. In terms of the throws and the different challenging types of things that we threw, he was fine. Great deep ball. He and [Seahawks WR] DK [Metcalf] were a magnificent hookup today. DK had a great game and I don't know how you can do a whole lot better. He was great today and of course for that to happen, they have to work together. So, Geno was on it."

Speaking of positive, Kenneth Walker III gives you 63 yards on 15 carries. What did you see from him?

"Yeah, he looked elusive again. He looked tough today. I thought he ran hard. I wish we would've got him another 10 carries somehow. If the game's different, then he gets another 6, 8, 10 carries and that would've made a difference in the game. He looked like he was up for the challenge. He played great against these guys and this is a really good team and a really good defense. We were able to move the ball around with some success."

DK has five playoff touchdowns in four games, he might have like 450 some yards.

"Yeah, he's fantastic player. He's an amazing player and he just came through again. There was a lot of big strong tough guy stuff that he did. The tough slants and getting inside of those guys when they were grabbing and clawing and all that to come through to make the catch. The deep ball was awesome. It was a great throw and catch, and great route and all of that. He was really good today."

Was Seahawks Safety Ryan Neal a factor today?

"Yeah, I have to see the film. I know he cramped up at the end of the game. That's why they came out and got him. But it was great to have him back. He's missed a lot. [S] Jonathan [Abram] has been a good player for us, too, but we just thought that Ryan kind of deserved to get a chance to play again since he'd been out for some time."

In a big picture sense, what did Geno show you this year?

"Oh, he's for real. Geno's the real deal. He can do all of the things that a terrific quarterback does. His movement was probably more of a surprise, that he was so efficient with his movement. He could always throw it, but his ability to stay poised and calm throughout the season with all of the hype and the buildup, he could've gone south five different times and he didn't. He never wavered. His leadership really stood out. His voice in the locker room, his voice with our players, he said the right stuff all year. Right up until today. It's a great story. It's a great story for a lot of players in other sports, wherever you want to go. If you keep hanging in there, you believe in yourself and you don't let the messaging outside of you affect who you are and what you are, you'll find your best. I think Geno's found his best and he's ready to come back and go again. He had an unbelievably great season for us."

Seattle Seahawks QB Geno Smith
Postgame Quotes – January 14, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll was talking about how frustrating it was, because you guys were kind of right there late in the third quarter and all that got away. I guess, how do you assess how it turned there?

"Yeah, I think like you just said and Coach said, we were playing them tight. The game was there to be had for us. Came out the second half, they scored, we got a drive going, we get down in their territory and obviously, I make the mistake right there. And so, what I can take from this game and really this season, out of all the great things that we did, all the accolades, all the great sets, there's still so much room for improvement, so many ways we can be so much better, and I believe it starts with me. The new season for me starts today."

What does that next step look like for you?

"Working hard, man. Hitting the weights, getting faster, getting stronger, getting smarter, being a better quarterback, working on my leadership, everything. Everything for me has got to get better. I'm not at all satisfied. I don't feel good about what happened today. I feel like we could have kept going and so for me, I've just got to be better and I'm going to take this one personal."

What did you see on when they called Seattle Seahawks G Damien Lewis for being illegally downfield there on the pass to Seattle Seahawks WR Tyler Lockett? I guess, what did you kind of see there?

"You know it varies with the referee crews. Some will call it, some won't, and what we have to do is continue to play. We can't complain about it. We can't allow those things to have us not be focused on the task at hand. Like I said, if it was a different crew maybe they don't call it, but it got called. And so, whatever it is we have to adjust, and figure out ways to not have those things happen."

You said you don't feel good about what happened today, but looking at the big picture, are you happy with the season?

"I think that can be answered in two ways. A part of me wants to say, man we came such a long way, overcame so many obstacles. Of course, the naysayers and whatnot, beat their expectations, but I don't think we beat our own expectations. I think we've had far greater expectations for ourselves. And so, what I see for this team is a team with a bright future. A lot of guys, a lot of young guys on this team, have got a lot of experience, first playoff games, my first playoff start. So, we've got a long way to go. I'm excited about the future. I know we can be a lot better and it's just going to take a lot of commitment. And so, I'm in it for the long haul. I'm ready to go."

What do you think you showed this season?

"Honestly for me, just going out there and playing every game and competing. I wanted to show people that I'm a great competitor. There's no quitting, there's no stopping in me. No matter what happens, good or bad, I'm going to go out there and give them my all every single time, and I believe my teammates feel the same way."

In starting a new season, how much do you look at this game, what do you draw, and then move forward with?

"Yeah, to me you're only as good as your last game. And so, this is the one that's going to sting us for the entire offseason. It's going to motivate me every single day that I wake up to go to workouts, and I'm going to think about this a lot, because it hurts that bad. I want to keep playing. So, hats off to my teammates. Hats off to the [San Francisco] 49ers. They did a great job, but I'm ready to get going."

The game Seattle Seahawks WR DK Metcalf had, just for him to step up in a big moment, what did you think of him?

"It's DK, you know what I mean? That's DK. Clutch player, one of the best receivers in the game. One-on-one your DB's going to have a tough time, and we needed him today. He stepped up. He played a great game. He is my brother, man. I appreciate that guy and he did a hell of a job today."

On the fumble, did you maybe just not see him there?

"I saw him. He made a great play, had two hands on the ball. It's exactly how we drill it. Two hands on the ball, tight to my chest. It's NFL, man. [San Francisco] 49ers have got a great D-line, and the mistakes and games like this become that much more critical. The things that I'm focusing on is to eliminate those things to make sure that we give ourselves the best possible chance to win these types of games."

Your contract situation's going to be a big story over the next few months, and we may not get a chance to talk to you for a while, what's going to be most important to you in that regard?

"I want to finish my career in Seattle. I want to. I want to be here. The town, the city, the team, Coach Carroll, the organization, they all embraced me. I was a guy who probably could have been out of the league. They embraced me and I want to repay them for that."

There was a play in the first half where they really twisted San Francisco 49ers WR Deebo Samuel's ankle and Coach Shanahan seemed really fired up. I don't know if you saw anything from your end?

"I didn't see the play. I honestly didn't, but if that fired him up, then hats off to them, but I didn't see that play and I can't really speak much on that."

What do you mean by repay the franchise for?

"Yeah, because like I said, I felt like Coach Carroll and the organization, they embraced me at a time when not many people were, and I feel like that means a lot to me. I've got a lot of loyalty in me and I want to repay those guys for doing that."

Do you expect to be back?

"I do."

Does the team give you any indication that's where they want go?

"You know, those things will work themselves out. We'll get to that when the time comes, but I feel really great about it."

What are you most proud of?

"Just competing. Just being able to go out there and compete with the guys. Really proud to be a part of this locker room, part of this organization, a part of this team. It means a lot to me, means a lot to my family, and I really appreciate all the guys in the locker room and everyone sacrificed. Guys were working hard all year. We learned a lot, but we've got ways to go."

Did you get dazed at all on that hit right at the end of the first half?

"Nah, I was good. Yeah, that was fine."

Do you feel like if you guys would've been able to beat a team like this, the sky would be the limit?

"I still think the sky's the limit win or lose. I believe in this team. I believe in this locker room. I believe in these coaches. I believe in the organization. I believe in the city of Seattle, just everybody, man, everybody. I believe we've got to keep going and we'll be back. Thank you."

NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

I know you guys don't feel like you're 20 points worse than the 49ers. What happened?

"I've got to watch the film. They didn't out physical us. We played the physical game with them for the whole 60 minutes. We turned the ball over and we've got to take care of the ball. We're a young team and everybody didn't expect us to get even to this point. I'm proud of what we put out. Like you said, we're not 20 points of a lesser opponent than they are."

You guys didn't have a lot of explosive plays on offense. Was there something about them that took that part of the game away?

"That's the best defense in professional football. You just have to make plays at the end of the day."

Talk about Seahawks QB Geno Smith. He's a free agent. Seahawks QB Drew Lock is a free agent. Would you like to have Geno back with you next year?

"Geno's resume speaks for itself. What he did this year is going to set a precedent for what happens next year. We've got the pieces. We've got the tools. We've got everything you need."

Seattle Seahawks FS Quandre Diggs
Postgame Quotes – January 14, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

When you think of all the explosive plays they had, is there anything that just jumps out to you right away?

"[49ers Head Coach] Kyle [Shanahan] did a great job of setting those plays up and making everything look alike. That's why he's one of the best in the game. It's just one of those games where you have to play consistently with your eyes and you know peace, old thing of doing right longer. We weren't able to do that today and those guys made some big plays. Hats off to them."

The long crossers – was that something you saw a lot of?

"I think that's just part of guys attacking certain coverages and certain things. Like I said, he drew up some great things. They did some things that they normally didn't do, but for us, we've got to be better in all aspects of the game and today we weren't."

You've been a big advocate of QB Geno Smith's all year. What do you think Geno proved to everyone this year?

"He led a team that didn't make it to the playoffs last year to the playoffs this year. I mean, we wouldn't be here without Geno. So for us, we embraced him, but he's always been one of us. Even when he was the backup quarterback, we all really had a close relationship with Geno, and we always crack jokes and things that we still do to this day. I think that shows you the type of player, the type of personality that he has. He meshes with all the guys, all the guys believe in him. When seven's [Geno's] locked in and we know he's a competitor, so we're going to fight for him. I hope that he's back for sure. I think things will work out the right way."

NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

A couple of ways to look at this right now, first is you got beat pretty bad by a good team. Second is, you guys had a successful season, you got the playoffs. How are you looking at it right now?

"It's a tough one. One of the best teams in the league, we put ourselves in a good situation after the first half and it just went downhill from there. It is playoff football. Third and 13, we have to make the tackle. Once the quarterback gets to scrambling we have to make sure we plaster and stick to our guys. It was two situations where we plastered, where he scrambled and the running back was just free. You can't do those things in the playoffs. If you do, you see what'll happen."

What's the feeling at half time when you go in up a couple of points after being down 10 nothing?

"A lot, we were confident. We felt like we could play with them. We felt like we had a great chance. But stuff happened and it kind of got out of hand."

How do you view the season?

"I'm not into moral victories, but a lot of people had these guys written off. I wasn't here with them at the beginning and these guys made a run for it. That's all you could ask. It's a young team, a lot of these guys never been in a game this big. You could tell by the look in their eyes. But it's a great team. So I'm fully confident they'll be back here next year and they'll be ready for it."

Seattle Seahawks DE Quinton Jefferson
Postgame Quotes – January 14, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

You guys overcame a lot this season and did more than expected. How are you looking at this right now?

"I feel like this is a microcosm of the season. We squandered the opportunity. We come in at halftime 17-16. I don't know if folks thought the game was over with, but it was a dog fight. We play a team in their house and they weren't going to let us take it. It was going to be a fight. It was a four-quarter game and we only played two and that was the end result. They whipped us."

How do you feel about the season?

"Frustrated, because I want to still be playing. I guess if you look at the bright side, we overcame a lot to even get to this point, to even get a chance to play in this game. I expected to go out there and win and especially not get blown out like that. So I'm frustrated."

The 49ers ended up with more than 500 yards of total offense. How would you assess the defense?

"They whipped our ass. They could do whatever they wanted. It was a frustrating game."

What do you feel like the Seahawks have to do to catch up to them?

"Execute. They were executing. We weren't executing. A lot of stuff they hit on us was simple stuff. Everybody had to do their job and we didn't do that."

The long run by RB Christian McCaffrey in the first half. Was that an example of that?

“They pulled the linebacker out of the box and then they had 44 [FB Kyle Juszczyk] come in and he cracked the linebacker. It was like Moses splitting the Red Sea. It was great. Great call on their part.”

Seattle Seahawks WR Tyler Lockett
Postgame Quotes – January 14, 2023
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

What’s going through your head after that one?

“I mean, it was a tough game. Very unfortunate events. Think that we had San Fran exactly where we wanted them. Very questionable call about the illegal man downfield, and a lot of our opinions that stopped the momentum of our drive. We drove down regardless of San Fran scoring, did a great job being able to control the clock, driving all the way down and we got it to where we wanted it, third and two and they called an illegal man downfield. Very, very tough just because I think [QB] Geno [Smith] threw it in 1.2 seconds. So it's hard for anybody to get past the line of scrimmage in that time. So very tough call, but then a couple plays later we fumble, then they go down and score and now we go down from six to 13. Those events kind of turned the whole game around, come back down from 13 and then we get four or five penalties in a row, which I mean, you guys can answer that for me. So don't really know how we can get five penalties in a row. So that's tough too, and still had a great drive though. [RB] Ken [Kenneth Walker III] had a big time run, was able to get stuff moving and then it was holding and then we just kind of got out of sync at that point.”

This was easily the best offense you’ve had against this team, what’s the next step with this offense?

“Well, like I said, I think we did a really great job, we had them where we wanted them, but the penalties, we just couldn't capitalize on them. Like when you look at our whole season, we did a great job of being able to still overcome those penalties when you look at teams like the [Los Angeles] Chargers the [Los Angeles] Rams. Whoever we played, if they called penalties and we kept getting backed up over and over, we were able to get a big time play to get the first down and keep the drive alive. It's hard to do that in a regular season game and it's even harder to do it in the playoffs especially when you're playing, one of the top teams in a conference. So for us, I still think we did a great job on offense. It's just some of them calls just kind of shot us down and we weren't able to keep going, but we were driving the ball on them the whole game.”

Do you plan on giving your endorsement to Seahawks General Manager John Schneider Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll to bring back Geno next year?

“Oh yeah, of course we want Geno to come back. I think everybody in the building wants Geno to come back. Obviously like Geno said, the NFL is a business and so they're all going to do what's best for each other. Very happy with how Geno played, and everything that he's done throughout this year. Just amazing to be able to have an opportunity and to have such an incredible season, a Pro Bowl year at that. Very excited for him just for what the future holds. Me, [Seahawks WR] DK [Metcalf], and [Seahawks WR] Penny [Hart] were just saying how cool it was just to be able to see what we all accomplished in our first year. Just being able to play with Geno for the first time, and we learned a lot of new stuff, and it was very interesting just to see how we continued to try to build the chemistry, continued to try to learn and grow because that stuff didn't happen overnight and a lot of that stuff took a lot of hours and a lot of nights just to be able to continually grind and understand each other's mindset."

Seattle Seahawks WR DK Metcalf
Postgame Quotes – January 14, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

The touchdown on third and three there, what did you like about your quarterback?

"I like a man who's about his word. He [QB Geno Smith] told me during practice on Wednesday that if I was pressed on that play he was going to throw it to me. He kept his word. Excellent throw."

What do you feel like you have to do to catch up with the 49ers?

"We have to continue to play as a team. This year was a good stepping stone for the future for us. We weren't supposed to make the playoffs, we weren't supposed to win more than 2, 3, 4 games and we did that with this team. All we have to do like Geno said is just build during the off season and continue to grow. We are going to be something to play against and look out for next season."

Geno Smith is a free agent now. He just told us he wants to be back and expects to be back. What's your reaction?

"I didn't even know he was a free agent. He is going to be back though, that's what I'm expecting. Hopefully, he's back next season."

Do you think you guys are close to being a Super Bowl contender?

"Yes sir, I do think so."

What gives you that confidence?

"Draft picks, free agents picks and just building on this year. I think we missed out during training camp on a lot of team bonding and bonding as a whole, whether that's position, groups or just a team in general. I think next offseason and next season going into it, just being ready to bond with the team and know who we are at a core and not just jersey numbers or teammates. It has to be a real brotherhood when you go out there for games like this."

Seattle Seahawks SS Ryan Neal
Postgame Quotes – January 14, 2023
NFC Wild Card Playoff Round
San Francisco 49ers vs. Seattle Seahawks

What's going through your mind right now?

"A lot, but the only thing I can think of is just how proud I am of this group and how proud I am of this team and what we put together this year. At the end of the day, I can hang my hat on that. I've been an underdog my whole career and my whole life and this couldn't have been a more perfect team to be a part of. From top to bottom, from the vets to the young guys. Just nothing but heart and desperation from this group. Out of the four years I've been here, this is probably the team that I love the most. Everybody wrote us off. Our own fans wrote us off. We just did some things that no one thought we could do. I can hang my hat on that today."

How close do you feel you are to the 49ers? Can you bridge that gap by next season?

"Oh absolutely. You look at the first half of the game. They were probably sweating down their backs. The 49ers ran away with it. We just gave them too many explosives. I gave up one, the one with [49ers WR Deebo Samuel]. This group is going to be a group to look out for next season. Everybody knows that I'm just excited to see what we can put together next season."

How bright is the future here?

"Super bright and if you can't see it, then you must not have your eyes open. But this team is going to be a really great team and I think the city of Seattle knows it. To be honest with you, they should be just freaking excited. If we had a couple more pieces, get back together and get healthy, this team is something to be scared of. There's a very bright future for this organization for sure."
