SUCCESS IN THE DRAFT

Since taking over in 2021, General Manager George Paton has drafted three players who have earned Pro Bowl honors in outside linebacker Nik Bonitto, wide receiver Marvin Mims Jr. and cornerback Pat Surtain II. That is tied for the fourth most among all NFL teams in that span, behind only Detroit (6), Dallas (4) and Houston (4).

Paton has also drafted three players that have earned first-team All-Pro accolades from the Associated Press in guard Quinn Meinerz, Mims and Surtain. That is tied with Detroit for the most such draft picks by a team since 2021.

Denver Broncos	3	10	0	7	— 20
Seattle Seahawks	3	6	10	7	— 26

The Denver Broncos fell to the Seattle Seahawks in the 2024 NFL season opener by the score of 26-20.

QB Bo Nix made his first NFL start and NFL debut, completing 26-of-42 passes for 138 yards with two interceptions (47.5 rtg.). His 26 completions were the most by a Bronco rookie in his first career start.

WR Devaughn Vele also made his NFL debut, catching eight passes for 39 yards in the game (4.9 avg.). With that performance, Vele ranks second for most catches made in an NFL debut in team history, behind only former Broncos WR Eddie Royal (9).

Denver's defense also got out to a hot start, recording two safeties in the contest. It is the second time in team history the defense tallied multiple safeties in a game and just the third time in league history a team did so in Week 1.

ILB Alex Singleton got Denver off to a fast start, intercepting a pass from Seahawks QB Geno Smith on the second play of the game and returning it to the Seattle 20-yard line. The Broncos could not convert though, settling for a K Wil Lutz 35-yard field goal.

The Seahawks would get on the board after the teams traded punts for two possessions each, tying the game up on a 50-yard field goal by Seahawks K Jason Myers to tie the game at 3-3.

Denver would get its first safety of the game on Seattle's next possession after a holding penalty was called on the Seahawks in the end zone, giving Denver a 5-3 lead. The Broncos would extend the lead on the next drive as Lutz would hit another field goal, this time from 30 yards, to give Denver an 8-3 lead.

Seattle would respond on their next drive though, as Smith would run 34 yards on a scramble to score and give Seattle a 9-8 advantage after their two-point conversion try failed. The Broncos would take the lead into half though as another safety and another field goal from Lutz would give the Broncos an 13-9 lead at the break.

The Seahawks would come out of the break quickly, as the first drive of the second half would end up in a touchdown from RB Kenneth Walker. The next two drives for Seattle would also end up in points, as a field goal from Myers and another touchdown, this time from RB Zach Charbonnet, gave Seattle the 26-13 lead.

The Broncos did not quit though, as Denver found the end zone after Nix ran the ball in from four yards out to cut the lead to 26-20. That would be the final action , as Seattle was able to run out the clock on their next drive and clinch the opening weekend win.

WEEK 2

Pittsburgh Steelers 13, Denver Broncos 6

Pittsburgh Steelers	7	3	3	0	— 13
Denver Broncos	0	0	0	6	— 6

The Denver Broncos were unable to comeback in their home opener, falling to the Pittsburgh Steelers 13-6.

DE Zach Allen was a force in the middle on a Broncos defense that limited Pittsburgh to three first downs the entire second half. Allen finished the game with one sack and a game-high four quarterback hits.

ILB Alex Singleton also made an impact defensively, recording a team-high 11 tackles (7 solo). It was Singleton's 33rd career double-digit tackle game, which was the second most since 2020 in the entire NFL at the time of the game.

On the offensive side, WR Josh Reynolds made four receptions for 93 yards (23.3 avg.), which was the most he posted in a single game since 2022.

Both teams exchanged punts to begin the contest before on their second offensive drive of the game, Pittsburgh traveled 78 yards on 12 plays to take the early 7-0 lead. The drive was capped off after Steelers QB Justin Fields found TE Darnell Washington for the five-yard touchdown.

The game would return to a defensive struggle as both sides would continue to exchange punts until the final drive of the half by Pittsburgh. The Steelers would take the ball 57 yards on seven plays and wrap the half up with a 22-yard field goal by Steelers K Chris Boswell to make the score 10-0 at half.

The start of the second half would again become a defensive struggle as both teams would exchange possessions without a score. The Steelers would get on the board again though with another field goal after intercepting a Broncos pass to make it 13-0.

Denver made it only the scoreboard early in the fourth quarter as they would go 54 yards on 12 plays to set up K Wil Lutz with a 35-yard field goal to make it 13-3.

The Broncos would get on the board again two drives later, this time setting Lutz up from 29 yard away to make it 13-6, but that proved to be the final points of the game.

WEEK 3

Denver Broncos 26, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 7

62,738 Raymond James Stadium Sep 22, 2024

26 — 7

Denver Broncos	14	6	0	6	— 26
Tampa Bay Buccaneers	0	7	0	0	— 7

In Week 3, the Denver Broncos were able to clinch their first victory of the season, taking down the undefeated Tampa Bay Buccaneers by the score of 26-7.

Getting his first win in the NFL, QB Bo Nix helped drive an offense that outpaced the defending NFC South Champions by 129 total yards. Nix completed 25-of-36 passes for 216 yards (85.0 rtg.) while also carrying the ball nine times for 47 yards (5.2 avg.).

RB Tyler Badie also found success on the ground, totaling a team-high 70 yards on nine carries (7.8 avg.). Through the air, WR Courtland Sutton led the way with 68 yards on seven catches (9.7 avg.) while WR Lil'Jordan Humphrey caught a career-high six passes for 37 yards (6.2 avg.).

Defensively, S Brandon Jones had a breakout game, finishing with six tackles (4 solo) along with one interception (37 yds.), one pass defensed and one fumble recovery (34 yds.).

Denver also notched seven sacks in the game, which is tied for the eighth most in team history in a single game and the most since 2019. OLB Dondrea Tillman totaled two sacks in the game, becoming the first Bronco since at least 1970 to tally two sacks in his NFL debut.

The Broncos came out fast, winning the coin toss and electing to receive the kickoff. The gamble paid off, as Nix led the 70-yard drive for a touchdown that was capped by a three-yard rush by the signal caller.

Denver would get their first takeaway of the game two drives later as Jones would jump up and take the pass from Buccaneers QB Baker Mayfield to set the Broncos up at Tampa Bay's nine-yard line. That would prove to help as Denver scored four plays later on a RB Jaleel McLaughlin one-yard rush to go up 14-0.

The Broncos would score on their next drive as well, as a 13-play drive that went 41 yards was capped off by a 43-yard field goal from K Wil Lutz.

It seemed like momentum would shift when Tampa Bay recovered a fumble that led to a drive that gave Tampa their only points of the game, but the Broncos would answer right back on a two-minute drive to get into the half at 20-7.

Both offenses would stall out on their first drives of the second half, but Denver would seem to squeeze the life out of the game after milking almost eight minutes on a 15-play, 79-yard drive that led to another Lutz field goal to extend the lead to 23-7.

The Buccaneers would turn the ball over on downs their next drive and on the ensuing possession, the Broncos clinched the game as another Lutz field goal from 43 yards out made the score 26-7.

Jones would recover a fumble by Tampa Bay on its next drive and give Denver its19-point victory.

WEEK 4

Denver Broncos 10, New York Jets 9

82,243 MetLife Stadium Sep 29, 2024

10 — 9

Denver Broncos	0	0	7	3	— 10
New York Jets	0	6	0	3	— 9

The Broncos completed their East Coast road trip sweep after defeating the New York Jets 10-9 on the soggy field of MetLife Stadium.

Denver put on a defensive masterclass in the contest, limiting the Jets to just 248 total yards as well as 64 yards on the ground. The Broncos also applied pressure in the contest, brining down Jets QB Aaron Rodgers a total of five times.

ILB Cody Barton, who played all 74 defensive snaps in the game, led the charge defensively with 10 tackles. S Brandon Jones also became the first Bronco since 2015 to record a forced fumble, fumble recovery and interception within the first four games of a season.

The Broncos also had six players record at least 0.5 sacks, including S P.J. Locke, ILB Justin Strnad, DE John Franklin-Myers, OLB Nik Bonitto, DT Malcolm Roach and OLB Jonah Elliss.

Denver come out of the gate hot, with Strnad sacking Rodgers on the first play of the game for an eight-yard loss and Jones forcing a fumble on the third play that was recovered by CB Riley Moss.

The Jets would strike first towards the tail end of the first quarter, setting up at the one-yard line, but Denver made a goal line stand that forced a field goal in the start of the second quarter to make it 3-0.

Both teams would again keep trading punts for the remainder of the quarter until the end as a two-minute drill by New York set up a 35-yard field goal by the Jets as time expired.

The Broncos' offense picked things up in the second half, as on their second drive of the half, QB Bo Nix helped lead an 11-play, 87-yard drive that ended with an eight-yard touchdown pass to WR Courtland Sutton. That pass marked Nix's first career touchdown pass.

The Jets would answer on their next drive as another drive got deep into Denver territory, but the defense was able to hold them to another field goal.

New York's lead would not last long though, as K Wil Lutz would help get the Broncos the lead back with a 47-yard field goal after a 41-yard drive in eight plays to make the score 10-9.

The game would prove to come down to the final seconds though, as after a fourth-down stop, the Broncos would try a long field goal that would miss to set New York up on their own 40-yard line.

It would end in heartbreak though for the Jets because a 50-yard attempt by Jets K Greg Zuerlein would be pushed right and give the Broncos the win.

WEEK 5

Las Vegas Raiders 18, Denver Broncos 34

76,475 | Empower Field at Mile High | Oct 6, 2024

18

34

Las Vegas Raiders	10	0	0	8	— 18
Denver Broncos	0	13	7	14	— 34

In their first divisional matchup of the season, the Broncos came away with the 34-18 win against the Las Vegas Raiders to pick up their third consecutive win.

Denver's first win against Las Vegas since 2019, the play of the game went to CB Pat Surtain II, who ended up with two interceptions in the game but was highlighted by a 100-yard interception return touchdown that shifted the momentum of the game. The pick was the second longest interception return touchdown in team history, behind only CB Aqib Talib's 103 yarder in 2017.

Offensively, the Broncos kicked things up in the second half, with QB Bo Nix completing 9-of-11 passes for 101 yards with two touchdowns (144.5 rtg.) in the second frame.

RB Javonte Williams also had a breakout performance, racking up 111 total yards from scrimmage, including 61 yards on the ground and 50 through the air. It was his third career game with at least 50 yards receiving and rushing.

The Raiders took a quick 10-0 lead in the first quarter as QB Gardner Minshew hit TE Brock Bowers for a 57-yard score on the opening drive of the game. He then led Las Vegas to a 68-yard drive on their second possession for the field goal.

The Broncos would answer right back though, as their second possession would travel 26 yards and help set up a 51-yard field goal attempt for K Wil Lutz to make it 10-3.

The next drive for Las Vegas would put them right on the edge of another score when Surtain picked off Minshew in the end zone and returned the ball all the way for the score to tie the game up at 10 a piece.

The rest of the half would be a defensive struggle though, but would end up in the Broncos' favor. With 27 seconds remaining in the half, the Broncos took the ball 38 yards on five plays to help set up a 44-yard field goal by Lutz to take the 13-10 lead into the break.

The Broncos took things over in the second half after going 50-yards on their second drive of the half to find the end zone when Nix found RB Jaleel McLaughlin for the four-yard touchdown pass.

The fourth quarter also started out hot with Denver scoring on their first drive of the frame when Nix finished an eight-play drive with a one-yard rush for the score. They would score on their next drive as well after Nix found WR Josh Reynolds in the end zone for a nine-yard score, marking Reynolds' first touchdown catch as a Bronco.

The Raiders would get on the board one more time with a touchdown from RB Ameer Abdullah, but the game would end with the score of 24-18.

WEEK 6

Los Angeles Chargers 23, Denver Broncos 16

76,275 Empower Field at Mile High Oct 13, 2024

23 — 16

Los Angeles Chargers	10	10	3	0	— 23
Denver Broncos	0	0	0	16	— 16

The Broncos' three-game win streak came to an end as they fell to the Los Angeles Chargers by the score of 23-16 at Empower Field at Mile High.

OLB Nik Bonitto got another sack in the game, marking his fourth-straight contest with at least 1.0 sack. He became the first Bronco since former Broncos OLB Von Miller (2019-21) to record at least four consecutive games reaching the opposing signal caller.

DE Zach Allen and OLB Jonathon Cooper also combined on a sack in the contest, marking Cooper's 17.5 sack in his career while Allen reached the 20-sack mark. Allen also produced four tackles for loss, which was tied for the most by a Broncos' defensive lineman in a game since at least 1999.

The rookie wide outs stepped up as WR Devaughn Vele caught a team-high-tying four passes for 78 yards (19.5 avg.) and WR Troy Franklin caught his first career touchdown pass. WR Courtland Sutton also caught four passes in the game for 53 yards (13.3 avg.) with one score.

The Broncos received the opening kickoff but would turn the ball over on the third play as a pass was intercepted by Chargers S Elijah Molden and returned to the Broncos' 31-yard line. Denver's defense would limit damage though as they forced a field goal by Los Angeles on that drive.

The Chargers would get on the board again on their next drive as they went 83 yards on six plays and ended with a 38-yard touchdown pass from Chargers' QB Justin Herbert to RB Kimani Vidal.

Los Angeles would get on the board two more times in the second quarter as a touchdown by RB J.K. Dobbins and a field goal by K Cameron Dicker would make it 20-0 at half.

The Chargers would make it 23-0 in the third quarter with another Dicker field goal, but the Broncos would then start to chip away. A fourth-and-two connection between QB Bo Nix and Vele and a 29-yard strike to Franklin would set Denver up with a two-yard score from Franklin.

The Broncos would again score on a highlight reel catch by Sutton on the next drive to make it 23-13, but a failed-two point conversion would keep the score there.

Denver would get a field goal to make it a one-score game the next drive after a 40-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz, but that would be how the game would end as the onside kick attempt went out of bounds.

WEEK 7

Denver Broncos 33, New Orleans Saints 10

70,008 Caesars Superdome Oct 17, 2024

10

Denver Broncos	3	13	10	7	— 33
New Orleans Saints	0	3	0	7	— 10

Denver won their third straight road game in Head Coach Sean Payton's return to New Orleans, beating the Saints 33-10.

Their 23-point win was tied for the fourth largest by the team in a road game since 2010 in the win to get them to 4-3.

The Broncos played a physical brand of football all night with six sacks while also rushing for 225 yards in the game. Denver's 225 rushing yards are the most by the team since 2013 while they have now recorded at least three sacks in five straight games, their longest such streak since 2016.

RB Javonte Williams had his best game of the year to date, rushing 14 times for 88 yards (6.3 avg.) with two scores. It was his first career contest with multiple rushing scores.

OLB Nik Bonitto kept his hot streak going, becoming the first Bronco since former Broncos OLB Von Miller in 2018 to record a sack in five straight games. ILB Cody Barton also made an impact, forcing a fumble and also recovering one, which he returned for his first career touchdown.

K Wil Lutz went 4-of-4 on field goals, upping his season total to 17. That is the most by a Broncos kicker through seven weeks of a season since former Broncos K Gene Mingo in 1962.

The Broncos got out to a fast start, going 52 yards on their second drive for the field goal to take a quick 3-0 lead. Denver would get another field goal after Barton forced a fumble on the Saints' next drive which was recovered by ILB Kwon Alexander, who made his Broncos debut.

Williams would get his first sniff of the endzone the next drive, as he would seal an 86-yard drive with an eight yard rush to make the score 13-3. A field goal by New Orleans would make it 13-3, but the Broncos then went 38 yards in their two-minute drill to take a 16-3 lead into the half.

Denver would add to their lead on their first drive of the second half with another field goal from Lutz to make it 19-3. The score would increase even more on the Broncos' next possession as Williams found the end zone again from five yards out to make it 26-3.

The teams would trade punts into the fourth quarter, where a fumble gave New Orleans the ball with 6:10 remaining. The turnover would prove to be inconsequential as six plays later, CB Ja'Quan McMillian forced a fumble that was recovered by Barton and take in for the score to make it 33-3.

The Saints would find the endzone at the end of the game to make it 33-10, but the scoring would end there as Denver recovered the onside kick attempt by New Orleans.

WEEK 8

Carolina Panthers 14, Denver Broncos 28

76,135 Empower Field at Mile High Oct 27, 2024

28

Carolina Panthers	7	0	0	7	— 14
Denver Broncos	0	21	7	0	— 28

The Broncos improved their season record to 5-3 after defeating the Carolina Panthers 28-14 in Week 8.

QB Bo Nix had one of his best games to date, completing 28-of-37 passes for 284 yards with three touchdowns (124.2 rtg.) His 124.2 rating was the highest by a Broncos rookie in a game (min. 30 att.) while he became the first Bronco to record 3+ passing touchdowns, 1+ rushing touchdowns and no interceptions.

WR Courtland Sutton also had his best game of the season, tallying eight receptions for 100 yards (12.5 avg.). It was his sixth career 100-yard performance and was the first 100-yard receiving game by a Bronco since the 2023 season.

Defensively, OLB Nik Bonitto increased his sack streak to six games, tying for the third-longest streak in team history. OLB Jonathon Cooper also joined elite company wiht a five tackle (4 solo) and one sack performance, becoming 1-of-3 players to record 100 tackles and 14 sacks since the start of the 2023 season.

CB Pat Surtain II and CB Ja'Quan McMillian also got in on the action with one interception each. Surtain tied for the most interceptions among his draft class with his 10th since entering the NFL in 2021.

Carolina got on the board first as they were able to capitalize on a fumble by the Broncos. Bryce Young found Xavier Legette for the six-yard score to help the Panthers take a 7-0 lead on a 10-play, 49-yard drive.

The Broncos would take over in the second quarter though, as they would score on their first drive of the frame. Nix found TE Nate Adkins for his first touchdown pass of the game, which was also Adkins' first career touchdown grab.

Denver would go right down the field again the next drive, as Nix found TE Adam Trautman for an amazing one-handed catch on a 19-yard pass. Trautman caught four passes for 85 yards (21.3 avg.) with one score in the game, setting a new career high for receiving yards.

Nix would then rush the ball in on the Broncos' next possession to take a 21-7 lead after helping lead a 10-play, 48-yard drive to the end zone. In the first half, Sutton recorded 93 receiving yards, which was the most in any half of a single game in his career.

The Broncos would get their last score in the third quarter after Nix found RB Jaleel McLaughlin for a nine-yard touchdown to increase the lead 28-7 in the game.

The rest of the game would have the teams trade possessions before Carolina scored with 0:23 remaining to make it a 28-14 game, but that would prove to be too little, too late as the Broncos let the onside kick attempt go out of bounds.

WEEK 9

Denver Broncos 10, Baltimore Ravens 41

71,051 M&T Bank Stadium Nov 3, 2024

41

Denver Broncos	0	10	0	0	— 10
Baltimore Ravens	7	17	14	3	— 41

The Broncos fell to 5-4 on the season after losing to the Baltimore Ravens in the first part of their two-game road trip by the score of 41-10.

In the game, WR Courtland Sutton posted his second consecutive game with over 100-yards receiving, becoming the first Bronco to do so since 2020. QB Bo Nix also set a new rookie franchise record for passing yards in a season after tallying 223 yards on 19-of-33 passing with one interception (65.6 rtg.).

The Broncos also rushed for over 100 yards in their seventh consecutive game, marking the longest streak by the team in a single season since 2011 (13 games).

Denver would get in a hole early as an interception on the second play of the game set up Baltimore at Denver's 36-yard line. The Broncos' defense held strong, as they pushed the Ravens out of field goal range and forced a punt.

Baltimore would control most of the game after though, as after a turnover on downs by the Broncos, the Ravens would score on their next drive to make it 7-0. They would go up 10-0 the next possession, but the Broncos would not give up after being in a 10-point hole.

On the Broncos' next drive, they would go 63 yards on 11 plays and find the end zone after Sutton found Nix on a trick play for the score. Nix became the third QB in league history to record a passing, receiving and rushing TD as a rookie while Sutton became the third Broncos wide receiver in team history to record a passing score.

The Broncos would get on the board again on their next drive after Baltimore scored to make it 17-7. Denver would drive the ball deep into Ravens' territory and manage to grab a field goal to make it 17-10 with 0:58 left in the half.

The Ravens would get a quick score though before the half to make it 24-10 going into the break and then score again coming out of the locker room. They would score another touchdown before the end of the third quarter to make it 38-10 going into the final frame.

A field goal by Baltimore early in the fourth quarter would prove to be the final scoring of the game as both teams would trade punts and turnover on downs until the final horn.

Denver Broncos 14, Kansas City Chiefs 16

73,704 GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium Nov 10, 2024

16

Denver Broncos	0	14	0	0	— 14
Kansas City Chiefs	0	10	3	3	— 16

Denver fell to the Kansas City Chiefs in heartbreaking fashion, losing to the defending champions 16-14 at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

QB Bo Nix recorded his third game with a 100+ passer rating, completing 22-of-30 passes for 215 yards with two touchdowns (115.3 rtg.). With that performance, he surpassed QB Jay Cutler for the third-most passing touchdowns by a rookie signal caller in team history.

OLB Nik Bonitto, OLB Jonathon Cooper, DE Zach Allen and DE John Franklin-Myers also got in on the action on the defensive side, recording one sack each. With the sack, Allen became the eighth defensive lineman in the NFL to record at least five sacks in each of the last three seasons.

The Broncos would get on the board first, as after two punts for each team, Denver would go 80 yards on nine plays and ended when Nix found WR Devaughn Vele for the six-yard score. With the touchdown, Vele produced his first career touchdown and would end the game with 39 yards on four catches (9.8 avg.).

The Chiefs would answer back, as their next drive would produce three points from K Harrison Butker after going 52 yards on 10 plays.

Denver wouldn't take long to give an answer, as the next drive would go 70 yards on five plays and would end with a Denver 14-3 lead when Nix found WR Courtland Sutton for a 32-yard touchdown.

Kansas City would inch closer though before the end of the half as before the end of the frame, QB Patrick Mahomes led an 11-play, 70-yard drive and found TE Travis Kelce for a 2-yard score to make it 14-10. A missed 60-yard field goal by Denver at the end of the half would keep the score there at the break.

The Chiefs would get two field goals in the second half to make it 16-14 before the final drive of the game, where the Broncos milked the remaining 5:57 from the game but a blocked field goal would clinch the win for Kansas City.

WEEK 11

Atlanta Falcons 6, Denver Broncos 38

76,545 | Empower Field at Mile High | Nov 17, 2024

38

Atlanta Falcons	3	3	0	0	— 6
Denver Broncos	7	14	7	10	— 38

The Broncos got back on the right track as they returned home and outpaced the Atlanta Falcons by the score of 38-6 at Empower Field at Mile High.

The team's 32 point win was the largest by Denver in a home game in 10 years when they defeated the Raiders by 33 points in 2014. It is also the second game this season in which the Broncos did not a touchdown and the fewest points they have allowed since 2021.

QB Bo Nix had one of the best games in team history, completing 28-of-33 passes for 307 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions (145.0 rtg.). With that performance, he became just the second rookie signal caller in league history to record 300 passing yards, four passing scores and a passer rating of at least 140.

WR Courtland Sutton recorded his fourth consecutive game with at least 70 receiving yards while RB Javonte Williams rushed nine times for 59 yards (6.6 avg.) with one score.

Defensively, the Broncos limited Atlanta to just 50 yards on the ground and 197 yards through the air. Falcons QB Kirk Cousins recorded just 173 passing yards in the game, his second-fewest he has thrown for in a contest this season.

OLB Nik Bonitto tallied his fourth career multi-sack game, bringing down Cousins twice for a loss of seven yards while OLB Jonah Elliss and DT Malcolm Roach also got in on the action on the quarterback. With four sacks in the game, the Broncos improved their season total to 39 sacks, which was tied for the second-most by the club through 11 games in a season.

Denver got out hot, taking their opening drive 70 yards on nine plays and ended after Nix found TE Nate Adkins for the 12-yard touchdown to take the 7-0 lead. It was the Broncos third score, and second touchdown, on the opening possession this season.

After Atlanta responded with a field goal, Denver extended their lead in the second quarter after Williams rushed for 14 yards and was carried into the end zone to cap a 77-yard drive. The Falcons did respond again though after that, kicking another field goal to bring the score back to a one-possession game.

The Broncos did end the half the right way though, as on their final possession of the half, they made 10 plays and went 70 yards to score another touchdown on a 12-yard screen by WR Marvin Mims Jr to take the 21-6 lead.

Another screen in the third quarter to WR Troy Franklin got the Broncos to larger lead as Franklin's seven-yard score made the score 28-6. After the teams traded punts, K Wil Lutz helps bring the score for 31-6 after a 45-yard field goal.

The scoring would end mid way through the fourth quarter as Nix would hit WR Lil'Jordan Humphrey for a 41-yard score for his fourth touchdown of the game and clinch the win for Denver.

WEEK 12

Denver Broncos 29, Las Vegas Raiders 19

62,460 Allegiant Stadium Nov 24, 2024

19

Denver Broncos	3	6	7	13	— 29
Las Vegas Raiders	0	13	0	6	— 19

The Denver Broncos went on the road and defeated the Las Vegas Raiders by the score of 29-19 to sweep the Silver and Black for the first time since 2014.

Denver's offense was led by QB Bo Nix and WR Courtland Sutton, as the duo connected on a pair of touchdown passes to help elevated the Broncos over the Raiders. Sutton eclipsed the 5,000 career receiving mark in the game while Nix became just the second rookie QB to throw for eight touchdowns and no interceptions in a three game span.

K Wil Lutz also had a career game, tying his career high with five field goals, including two from over 50 yards out. It is the first time in his career that he recorded multiple 50-yard field goal makes in a single game.

Defensively, the Broncos brought the heat on the quarterback, sacking the Raiders five times. It was Denver's fourth game of the season with at least five sacks, the most games they've had in a season since 2012 (4).

OLB Nik Bonitto reached the double digit mark in sacks on the season in the game, becoming the first Bronco since 2018 to reach that mark. S Brandon Jones also recorded his second interception of the season while DT Malcolm Roach recovered a fumble forced by Bonitto.

The game got off to a slow start as both teams would punt, but the Broncos would get on the board on their second drive of the game. Lutz would give Denver a 3-0 lead after the offense drove down the field, going 47 yards on eight plays.

The Raiders would answer back though, helped by a 59-yard kickoff return by RB Dylan Laube. Raiders QB Gardner Minshew would connected with RB Ameer Abdullah for a six-yard score to give Las Vegas a 7-3 lead.

The teams would trade punts and field goals the remainder of the half and go into the break with Las Vegas up 13-9.

The Broncos would take the lead for good though in the third quarter, as Nix would find Sutton for a jump ball in the end zone on their second drive of the half to go up 16-13. Jones' interception helped set up the Broncos at the Raiders' 18-yard line.

Another touchdown by Sutton, his 29th of his career-helping him eclipse WR Emmanuel Sanders for the 12th-most receiving touchdowns in team history-would help give Denver a 26-16 lead. A pair of field goals by both teams would increase the score to 29-19, where the game would end and help give the Broncos a 2-2 record in the division.

WEEK 13

Cleveland Browns 32, Denver Broncos 41

75,448 Empower Field at Mile High Dec 2, 2024

41

Cleveland Browns	7	10	8	7	— 32
Denver Broncos	7	14	10	10	— 41

Their second primetime game of the season, the Denver Broncos picked up their third straight win after defeating the Cleveland Browns 41-32 on Monday Night Football.

Denver's 41 points marked the team's highest scoring output in a game since 2018, when the club scored 45 points at Ari. (10/18). It was also the most points scored against an AFC team by the Broncos since they totaled 47 points against Oakland in 2014 (12/28).

The Broncos had two receivers reach 100 yards on the night, with WR Courtland Sutton totaling 102 yards and WR Marvin Mims Jr. tallying 105 yards. QB Bo Nix also had another solid outing, completing 18-of-35 passes for 294 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions (65.7 rtg.).

Denver's defense also contributed to the scoresheet, returning two of their three interceptions to the end zone for pick sixes. It was the first time the Broncos tallied multiple interception returns for touchdowns in a single game since the Arizona matchup in 2018.

OLB Nik Bonitto and CB Ja'Quan McMillian both intercepted passes for scores off of Browns QB Jameis Winston while ILB Cody Barton helped clinch the win with a last second pick. Bonitto also got on the stat sheet with his 11th sack of the season while OLBs Jonathon Cooper and Jonah Elliss also got to the Cleveland signal caller.

The Broncos got on the scoreboard first as Nix helped lead a 12-play, 63-yard drive that ended with a RB Javonte Williams two-yard score. It was the seventh time this season that Denver got the first score of the game.

The Browns would respond with 10 points of their own, but that lead would not last as Denver would reach the end zone later in the second frame to take a 14-10 lead with FB Michael Burton's first score as a Bronco. With the extra point, K Wil Lutz also reached 1,000 career points in his 127th game, becoming the fifth-fastest player in NFL history to reach that mark.

The half would extra with frantic plays, as Bonitto would return an interception 71 yards for the touchdown to make it 21-10, but would end after a Browns touchdown made it 21-17.

The teams would trade jabs again in the third, as Nix found Mims on a beautiful throw and catch of 93 yards to make it 28-17, but Cleveland would respond with a 70-yard score of their own to bring it back to 28-25.

A Broncos field goal would extend the lead, but Cleveland would get the slight advantage after another touchdown in the fourth quarter to make it 32-31. A Broncos field goal made it 34-32 with just over 2 minutes left, but another pick six by the Browns would help seal the win as McMillians returned it 44 yards for the score and the 41-32 lead.

WEEK 14

Indianapolis Colts 13, Denver Broncos 31

76,496 Empower Field at Mile High Dec 15, 2024

31

Indianapolis Colts	7	6	0	0	— 13
Denver Broncos	0	7	3	21	— 31

The Broncos kept their win streak alive after the Bye Week when they defeated the Indianapolis Colts at Empower Field at Mile High by the score of 31-13. Their ninth win of the year, Denver officially clinched their first winning season since 2016.

Their eighth game this season scoring at least 21 points, the Broncos won by double digits for the seventh time this season, which was the most by any NFL team at the time. Denver also recorded their 10th game of the year allowing fewer than 20 points, totaling an 8-2 record in those contests.

OLB Nik Bonitto tallied his second defensive touchdown in as many games, becoming the second player in team history to record defensive scores in back-to-back games. Only Broncos Ring of Fame S Billy Thompson reached the end zone on defensive plays in consecutive games.

On the offensive side of the ball, WR Courtland Sutton reached the 30 touchdown reception mark, becoming the 12th player in team history to do so. TE Nate Adkins also picked up his third touchdown catch, which is tied for the third most in team history by an undrafted tight end.

The Colts came out hot, going 70 yards on their first drive to pick up the quick score with an Anthony Richardson 23-yard run. They would expand upon that lead in the second quarter with a K Matt Gay 37-yard field goal to take a 10-0 lead.

The Broncos would answer back though, as TE Adam Trautman would catch the 13-yard pass from QB Bo Nix to make the score 10-7. It was Trautman's second score of the season and ninth of his career.

Indianapolis would get back on the board though before half, as a 49-yard field goal with six seconds remaining would increase the lead to 13-7 in the Colts' favor at the break.

Denver would catch a break coming out of the half, as what was ruled a touchdown by Indianapolis on their first drive of the third quarter was overturned due to the runner losing possession of the ball before crossing the goal line.

The Broncos would get a field goal later in the quarter to make it 13-10 before a WR Marvin Mims' 61-yard punt return helped set up the go-ahead score early between Nix and Adkins in the fourth. Mims' 97 punt return yards in the game were the most by a Bronco in a contest since 2013 (Trindon Holliday).

The Broncos would start to expand upon their lead as the next drive by Indianapolis would be the nail in the coffin. Bonitto would get between the backwards pass intended for Richardson and return the ball 50-yards for the Broncos touchdown to make it 24-13.

One more score, this time a 20-yard connection between Nix and Sutton, would help clinch the game and finish the scoring at 31-13 in the Broncos' favor.

Denver Broncos	7	14	3	3	— 27
Los Angeles Chargers	7	6	6	15	— 34

The Denver Broncos fell in an AFC West matchup to the Los Angeles Chargers on Thursday Night Football by the score of 34-27.

Recording over 21 points for the ninth time this season, the Broncos were unable to hold onto their halftime lead to their division foe for their sixth loss of the year.

In the game, QB Bo Nix recorded his fifth game this season with a 100 passer rating or better, completing 29-of-40 passes for 263 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions (106.6. rtg.). It was also his sixth game of the season with at least 200 passing yards, two passing touchdowns and no interceptions.

Defensively, S Brandon Jones became the first Broncos safety since Pro Football Hall of Fame S Steve Atwater in 1995 to record 100 tackles and three interceptions in a season. LB Drew Sanders also recorded his first career sack in the game while OLB Dondrea Tillman netted his fourth sack of the season.

Denver got out to a quick lead, going 72 yards on their first drive of the game and finishing with RB Audric Estime's first career touchdown from three yards out. It was the third time in 2024 that the Broncos scored a touchdown on their first drive of the game.

The Chargers would respond right back, going 70 yards on eight plays to tied the game at seven, but the tie would not last long. The next drive, Denver would find the end zone again as Nix found FB Michael Burton for his first touchdown pass of the day to make it 14-7.

A field goal by Los Angeles would get the score to 14-10, but the Broncos answered right back again. A Nix six-yard pass to WR Devaughn Vele would help clinch a 70-yard drive again to make it 21-10 for the Broncos.

The Chargers would end the half on a high note though, as a free kick from 57 yards out to make it 21-13 at the break.

Denver would come out of the break with another score though, as a 41-yard field goal from K Wil Lutz would make the score 24-13. A touchdown by the Chargers on the next drive would close the gap, as the failed two-point conversion would keep the score to 24-19.

Los Angeles would take the lead on their next drive with a touchdown to make it 27-24 and another touchdown late in the fourth quarter by the Chargers would make it 34-24. Denver would get a late field goal, but would not prove to be enough to overcome the deficit.

Denver Broncos	3	0	7	14	0	—	24
Cincinnati Bengals	0	7	3	14	6	—	30

On the final road trip of the regular season, the Denver Broncos fell in overtime to the Cincinnati Bengals, 30-24.

Their 10th game this year eclipsing the 21-point mark, Denver came from behind multiple times, including scoring a touchdown with 0:08 remaining in the game to tie it, but could not finish the game in overtime.

QB Bo Nix finished the game with a 100+ passer rating again, completing 24-of-31 passes for 215 yards with three touchdowns and one interceptions (114.9 rtg.). With that performance, he became just the fifth rookie in NFL history to record at least 3,000 passing yards and 25 passing touchdowns in a season.

WR Marvin Mims also recorded his third 100-yard performance of his career-and second of the season, after tallying eight catches for 103 yards 12.9 avg.) with two scores. He also tallied his first career multi-touchdown catch game in his career with that performance.

DL Zach Allen also had a career game, totaling a career high 3.5 sacks in the contest to set a new career high 8.5 sacks on the season. He also tallied 2 tackles for loss in the contest, setting a new franchise record for most TFLs by a Broncos defensive lineman in a season.

OLB Jonathon Cooper also had 1.5 sacks in the contest to increase his season total to a new career-high 9.5 sacks on the year. Denver also tallied seven sacks in the game, which ties for the ninth most by the team in a contest in team history.

The Broncos got on the board early as they received the opening kick and drove down the field for a field goal to take the 3-0 lead. Cincinnati would not be able to answer as their next two drives were stalled by unsuccessful fourth down attempts, but would get a touchdown near the end of the half to make it 7-3 at the break.

A field goal by Cincinnati would make it 10-3, but then Nix found WR Courtland Sutton to tie the game at 10-10. It was Sutton's seventh touchdown catch of the year, becoming the seventh player the record as many touchdown grabs in each of the past two seasons.

After another Bengals touchdown, Nix would find Mims for the 51-yard touchdown in the end zone to tie the game at 17. Mims became the first Bronco since 2015 to record two touchdown receptions of 50+ yards in the same season after his 51-yard catch for a score in the game.

After a touchdown by the Bengals with 1:29 remaining, Nix orchestrated a 70-yard drive that ended with a 25-yard touchdown pass to Mims to tie the game with eight second remaining.

The game would go to overtime though, and a touchdown by Cincinnati with 1:10 left in the frame would give the home team the win.

WEEK 17

Kansas City Chiefs 0, Denver Broncos 38

76,489 — Empower Field at Mile High — Jan 5, 2025

0 | 38

Denver Broncos	14	10	7	7	— 38

In a win or go home scenario, the Denver Broncos defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 38-0 to finish with a 10-7 record and punch their ticket to the postseason for the first time since 2015.

The Broncos shut out the Chiefs for the second time in franchise history and did not allow a division opponent to score in a game for the first time since 1995 (vs. Oak.). Additionally, Denver's 38-point win was the second largest in team history while their 381-yard margin was tied for the largest in club annals.

QB Bo Nix completed 26-of-29 passes for 321 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions (152.4 rtg). His 89.7 completion percentage in the game was the highest by a Bronco in team history while his 152.4 passer rating was the fourth highest by a rookie in NFL history.

Nix also eclipsed Baker Mayfield for the second most passing touchdowns by a rookie, finishing the season with 29 scores through the air. He also finished with the third-most offensive scores by a rookie, ending the year with 34.

WR Courtland Sutton made history as well, catching five passes for 98 yards (19.6 avg.) with one score, breaking the 1,000 receiving yard mark on the season for the second time in his career. He is the first Bronco since 2019 to reach that mark.

Defensively, Denver held the Chiefs to 98 offensive yards, the fewest allowed by the team since 2003 and the sixth fewest overall in a game in team history.

The Broncos jumped out to an early lead in the game, as Nix led touchdown drives on the team's first three possessions to take a 21-0 lead. In the first half, Nix completed his first 18 passes, the most by a rookie to start a game in NFL history and tied for the fourth most in NFL history.

A field goal by K Wil Lutz at the end of the half would make the score 24-0 at the break. Lutz's field goal was his 31st of the season, which was tied for the most by a Bronco in a season in team history.

After the break, Denver would punt on its first drive before scoring on its next two possessions, including a second touchdown pass to WR Marvin Mims Jr. With his second score of the game, Mims became the first Bronco since Julius Thomas in 2014 to record multiple receiving scores in back-to-back games.

A score by RB Audric Estime in the fourth quarter put the game on ice, clinching the 38-0 win for Denver and a trip to Buffalo for the AFC Wild Card Round.
