COLTS HEAD COACH SHANE STEICHEN

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 19th season
NFL EXPERIENCE: 15th season
COLTS HEAD COACH: 3rd season
REGULAR SEASON: 25-23 (.521)
POSTSEASON: 0-0 (.000)

PRO CAREER: Shane Steichen was hired as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts on February 14, 2023. He has 18 years of coaching experience, including the last 14 seasons in the NFL.

In 2024, Steichen led the team to an 8-9 finish. The Colts finished in the top 10 in rushing yards per game (137.1 – eighth) for the second consecutive season. The team also ranked eighth in the NFL in total rushing yards (2,331). Indianapolis had three players earn Pro Bowl accolades, including linebacker Zaire Franklin (first selection), guard Quenton Nelson (seventh selection) and running back Jonathan Taylor (second selection). Franklin and Nelson also earned Associated Press Second Team All-Pro honors.

In his first year in Indianapolis, Steichen guided the team to a winning record, finishing the season 9-8. The Colts ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in points per game (23.3 – tied-10th) and rushing yards per game (121.1 – 10th). Indianapolis had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including defensive tackle DeForest Buckner (third selection), center Ryan Kelly (fourth selection), quarterback Gardner Minshew II (first selection) and Nelson (sixth selection). Wide receiver Michael Pittman Jr. tallied single-season career highs in receptions (109) and receiving yards (1,152) while also adding four touchdowns. He ranked fifth in the NFL in receptions and became one of four Colts players all-time to have at least 100 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards in a season (Dallas Clark, Harrison and Wayne).

He also worked with a Colts' defense that ranked fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss (94.0) and sacks (51.0), while finishing tied for fifth in forced fumbles (17.0) in 2023.

Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles from 2021-22 and helped the team reach Super Bowl LVII in 2022.

During his two seasons as offensive coordinator, Steichen coordinated an offense that ranked first in the NFL in rushing yards per game (153.6), rushing yards (5,224) and rushing touchdowns (57) over that time frame. Philadelphia also ranked tied for first in fewest interceptions (19) and third in fourth down conversion percentage (58.92 percent). Additionally, the Eagles offense set new single-season franchise records in third down conversion percentage in back-to-back seasons.

In 2022, Steichen guided a Philadelphia offense that finished in the top 10 in numerous categories, including yards per game (389.1 – third), points per game (28.1 – third), rushing yards per game (147.6 – fifth), passing yards per game (241.5 – ninth), fewest turnovers (19 – tied-fifth), first downs per game (22.6 – third), third down percentage (franchise-record 45.95 percent – fourth), fourth down percentage (68.75 percent – fourth), red zone percentage (67.90 percent – third), goal to go percentage (62.35 percent – fifth), points scored on their first offensive possession (62 – first) and plays of 10+ yards (253 – second).

In his first season in Philadelphia, he orchestrated the NFL's most productive rushing offense, as the Eagles led the league with a franchise-record 2,715 rushing yards.

Prior to Philadelphia, Steichen spent seven seasons (2014-20) with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers where he served as offensive coordinator (2020), interim offensive coordinator (2019), quarterbacks coach (2016-19) and offensive quality control/wide receivers (2014-15).

In 2013, he assisted the quarterbacks as an offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns. Despite multiple injuries at the position, the Browns had three starting quarterbacks (Jason Campbell, Brian Hoyer and Brandon Weeden) each post 300-yard passing performances for the first time in franchise history (sixth instance in NFL history).

Steichen began his NFL career as a defensive assistant with the Chargers (2011-12) after spending one season as a full-time offensive assistant at Louisville (2010). He also served as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and student graduate assistant (2007) at his alma mater, UNLV.

As a four-year letterman (2003-06) at quarterback for the Rebels, Steichen left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer with 2,755 yards and 22 touchdowns. He also registered 399 rushing yards and five touchdowns.

A native of Sacramento, Calif., Steichen earned his degree in journalism and media studies from UNLV.

He and his wife, Nina, have a son, Hudson, and a daughter, Stella.

49ERS HEAD COACH KYLE SHANAHAN

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 23rd season
NFL EXPERIENCE: 22nd season
49ERS HEAD COACH: 9th season
REGULAR SEASON: 80-66 (.548)
POSTSEASON: 8-4 (.667)

PRO CAREER: Kyle Shanahan became the 20th head coach in franchise history on February 6, 2017, after spending the prior two seasons as offensive coordinator of the Atlanta Falcons.

Has 21 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine seasons as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington Redskins (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09).

In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), and five as head coach of the 49ers (2019, 2021-24), Shanahan has directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained.

In 2019, Shanahan led the 49ers to Super Bowl LIV in his third season with the team, winning Coach of the Year honors by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101.

Shanahan has since guided the team to consecutive NFC West division titles (2022-23) and three-consecutive NFC Championship Game appearances (2021-23).

In 2023, Shanahan led the 49ers to a 12-5 record, their eighth NFC Championship victory and an appearance in Super Bowl LVIII.

He became the second head coach in NFL history to reach the Conference Championship Game in each of his first four playoff appearances as a head coach.

In his first season as head coach, Shanahan led the team to a 6-10 record, which was a four-game improvement from the previous year. After a difficult stretch to start the season, the 49ers won six of their final seven games, including victories in five-straight games to close out the season.

Following the 2016 season with Atlanta, he was named Associated Press Assistant Coach of the Year, Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News and Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after a record-setting performance by the Falcons offense en route to capturing the NFC South division title and an appearance in Super Bowl LI. Under Shanahan, the 2016 Falcons set franchise records in yards per game (415.8), points scored (540), net passing yards per game (295.3) and average yards per play (6.7).

He joined the Falcons after spending the 2014 season as offensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns. That year, his offense averaged 324.6 total yards and 108.0 rushing yards per game.

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, Shanahan spent four seasons (2010-13) as offensive coordinator of Washington.

Before joining Washington, he spent four seasons (2006-09) with the Houston Texans, including the final two as the team's offensive coordinator.

Shanahan spent his first season with Houston (2006) as the team's wide receivers coach and moved to coach the quarterbacks in 2007 prior to his promotion to offensive coordinator in 2008. He broke into the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2004 where he served as an offensive quality control coach for two seasons (2004-05). His first coaching experience came as a graduate assistant at UCLA in 2003.

CHRIS BALLARD

GENERAL MANAGER

JOINED COLTS: 2017
NFL EXPERIENCE: 25TH YEAR
COLLEGE: WISCONSIN
HOMETOWN: TEXAS CITY, TEXAS

Chris Ballard was hired as the general manager of the Indianapolis Colts on January 29, 2017. He is entering his 25th NFL season and his ninth in his current role where he oversees all football operations.

In his first eight years at the helm, Ballard has constructed teams that have won 62 games collectively, which includes four winning seasons and two playoff appearances. In his tenure, nine Colts players have combined to earn 17 first or second-team All-Pro honors and 13 players have compiled 27 Pro Bowl selections.

During the 2025 offseason, Ballard made multiple moves to bolster the team heading into the season. It began in unrestricted free agency, when the team signed cornerback Charvarius Ward, safety Camryn Bynum and quarterback Daniel Jones at the start of the new league year. Ward earned Second Team All-Pro honors and Pro Bowl accolades following the 2023 season as a member of the 49ers. Ballard also acquired cornerback Corey Ballentine, defensive tackle Neville Gallimore and running back Khalil Herbert. He brought back kicker Spencer Shrader, who spent time with the team as a rookie in 2024. In the 2025 NFL Draft, Indianapolis made eight selections – most notably first round draft pick tight end Tyler Warren. Warren won the 2024 John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end and placed seventh in Heisman Trophy voting. He also finished his career ranked first among Penn State tight ends in receptions (153), receiving yards (1,839), receiving touchdowns (19) and 100-yard games (five). Ballard selected two more Big Ten products with his next two picks in Ohio State defensive end JT Tuimoloau (second round, 45th overall) and Minnesota cornerback Justin Walley (third round, 80th overall).

In 2024, Ballard constructed a team that finished with an 8-9 record with two Second Team All-Pro selections (linebacker Zaire Franklin and guard Quenton Nelson) and three Pro Bowl honorees (Franklin, Nelson and running back Jonathan Taylor). The Colts finished in the top 10 in rushing yards per game (137.1 – eighth) for the second consecutive season and also ranked eighth in the NFL in total rushing yards (2,331). Additionally, Indianapolis had three receivers total more than 800 receiving yards (Josh Downs, Alec Pierce and Michael Pittman Jr.). It marked the first time the Colts had three players eclipse 800 yards in a single season since 2004 (Marvin Harrison, Brandon Stokley and Reggie Wayne). Defensively, the Colts ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in takeaways (25) and tied for first in the league in red zone takeaways (six). Franklin led the NFL in tackles (173) while also adding 93 solo tackles, 11.0 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, six passes defensed and five forced fumbles.

In 2023, Ballard assembled a team that finished 9-8 on the season, while playing the majority of the games with their backup quarterback and unrestricted free agent pickup, Gardner Minshew II. Minshew II was named to his first career Pro Bowl after he appeared in all 17 games (13 starts) and compiled single-season career highs in attempts (490), completions (305) and passing yards (3,305). The Colts finished in the top 10 in the NFL in points per game (23.3 – tied-10th) and rushing yards per game (121.1 – 10th). Indianapolis had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including defensive tackle DeForest Buckner, center Ryan Kelly, Nelson, and Minshew II. Pittman Jr., a 2020 second round draft choice, had a career year, finishing with single-season career highs in receptions (109) and receiving yards (1,152) while also adding four touchdowns. He ranked fifth in the NFL in receptions and became the fourth Colts player all-time to have at least 100 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards in a season, joining Dallas Clark, Harrison and Wayne.

Defensively, Indianapolis ranked fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss (94.0) and sacks (51.0), while finishing tied for fifth in forced fumbles (17) in 2023. The Colts had four players record at least 8.0 sacks, including Buckner, defensive end Samson Ebukam, defensive end Dayo Odeyingbo and defensive end Kwity Paye. The Colts were the only team in the NFL to have four-such players accomplish that feat. The 51.0 sacks were the most by the team in the Indianapolis era (since 1984). Franklin registered 179 tackles (107 solo), 3.0 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, six passes defensed and two forced fumbles. He finished second in the league in total tackles and solo tackles. Franklin established the single-season franchise record for tackles in 2023 (179).

In the 2023 NFL Draft, Ballard added 12 selections to the roster, including Florida quarterback Anthony Richardson Sr. with the No. 4 overall pick. The 12 total draft selections were the most by the Colts since the NFL went to a seven-round format in 1994. Richardson Sr. ranked as the No. 1 quarterback in the Relative Athletic Score system at the NFL Combine, which dates back to 1987. He started four games in his rookie campaign and completed 50-of-84 passes for 577 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for an 87.3 passer rating. Richardson Sr. also tallied 25 carries for 136 yards (5.4 avg.) and four touchdowns. He suffered a season-ending injury in Week 5 and was placed on the Injured Reserve list.

Following the 2022 season, Ballard and his staff embarked on an in-depth coaching search that ended with former Philadelphia Eagles Offensive Coordinator Shane Steichen. Steichen brought 13 seasons of coaching experience and helped lead the Eagles to an NFC Championship and Super Bowl appearance as their offensive coordinator.

In 2021, the Colts narrowly missed the postseason, but the team recorded top 10 finishes in points per game (26.5), rushing offense (149.4 yards per game) and defensive takeaways (33). Taylor, a 2020 second round draft choice, became the first Colts player to lead the NFL in rushing (1,811 yards) since Edgerrin James in 2000. Indianapolis tied for first in the NFL with five Associated Press All-Pro selections and led the league with seven players named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2020, Indianapolis made an AFC Wild Card appearance following an 11-5 regular season record. The 11 wins were the most for the team dating back to 2014.

During 2020's COVID-19 season, the Colts won six of their last eight games to clinch the final playoff spot in the AFC. Veteran quarterback Philip Rivers, who was signed by Ballard as a free agent in the offseason, completed 369-of-543 passes for 4,169 yards and 24 touchdowns. His completion percentage (68.0) ranked eighth in the NFL and was the second-best single-season mark in franchise history. Taylor ranked third in the NFL in rushing and became just the fifth rookie in franchise history to register a 1,000-yard season. Defensively, Buckner established a single-season franchise record for the most sacks by a defensive tackle (9.5) while linebacker Shaquille Leonard ranked eighth in the NFL in total tackles despite missing two games. On special teams, safety George Odum led the NFL with 20 special teams stops while kicker Rodrigo Blankenship set a new franchise rookie record for points scored (139), field goals made (32) and extra points made (43). In total, Ballard's nine NFL Draft selections in 2020 combined to play in 85 contests with 36 starts.

Since his arrival in Indianapolis, Ballard has stressed the importance of winning the battle in the trenches. His theory held true in 2019 as the Colts finished with a top-10 rushing offense for the first time since 2001. Running back Marlon Mack became the team's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2016. That same year, Indianapolis' offensive line was the only unit in the NFL to start the same five linemen in all 16 regular season games while tying for the ninth-fewest sacks allowed. On the defensive side of the ball, Ballard signed free agent defensive end Justin Houston following eight seasons in Kansas City. Houston led the Colts with 11.0 sacks, which marked his fourth career double-digit sack season and his first since 2014. Houston also produced a streak of six consecutive games with a sack, the second-longest streak of his career. The team's 2019 draft class combined to play in 93 games.

In 2018, the Colts started the season with a 1-5 record, but won nine of their last 10 games to clinch a postseason berth. Indianapolis became the third team in NFL history to start the season with a 1-5 mark and reach the playoffs. The Colts then defeated the Houston Texans in a Wild Card contest and became the second team in league history to start 1-5 and win a playoff game. The team's success, due in part to Ballard's construction of the roster, earned him the Pro Football Writers of America Executive of the Year award.

Pivotal in the team's 2018 achievement was the 11-man NFL Draft class, which combined to play in 133 games (67 starts). The group was spearheaded by Nelson and Leonard who joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers (Chicago Bears, 1965) as the second pair of rookie teammates to be selected First Team All-Pro since The Associated Press started selecting All-Pro teams in 1940. Nelson was also selected to the Pro Bowl and Leonard was named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year. The duo also earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors following the 2019 season. Ballard made a trade with the New York Jets in March of 2018 to acquire the sixth overall pick (Nelson), in addition to two second round selections and a second round pick in 2019. Starting right tackle Braden Smith was selected with the acquired 37th overall selection.

Ballard navigated the organization through a challenging 2017 campaign. Through myriad injuries, the Colts witnessed the emergence of several free agents and draft selections. The team's 53-man roster for the regular season opener featured 30 new players compared to 2016's Week 1 roster. Ballard focused primarily on the defensive side of the ball in his first draft as six of the eight players selected competed on defense. In total, seven of Ballard's picks reached the active roster and combined to play in 82 games (17 starts). One of Ballard's first roster moves in Indianapolis came in early March, when he signed tight end Jack Doyle to a contract extension. Doyle went on to have a career year as he finished with 80 receptions for 690 yards and four touchdowns en route to his first career Pro Bowl. His reception total finished as the second-most in the league among tight ends and ranked as the second-most in franchise single-season history among players at his position. Doyle again made the Pro Bowl following the 2019 campaign. Ballard made one of his best roster moves eight days prior to the regular season opener when he acquired quarterback Jacoby Brissett in a trade with the New England Patriots. Brissett started 15 games and threw for 3,098 yards and 13 touchdowns. He ranked second in the league in passing touchdowns of 60-plus yards and was part of an offense that tied for the fourth-fewest giveaways in the NFL in 2017.

Following his first year as general manager, Ballard was nominated for the Pro Football

Writers of America Jack Horrigan Award, which is given to the league or club official for his or her qualities and professional style in helping the pro football writers do their job. He was nominated again following the 2018 campaign before winning the award following the 2019 season.

Ballard came to the Colts after a four-year stint with Kansas City, where he was the director of football operations from 2015-16. He was promoted to the position after serving two seasons (2013-14) as the Chiefs director of player personnel. Ballard oversaw the college and pro scouting departments and worked directly with then-General Manager John Dorsey on player acquisition.

From 2013-16, the Chiefs won 43 games (fourth-most in the NFL), made three playoff appearances, won one AFC West Division title (2016) and had 15 players named to the Pro Bowl, including at least four in each season. Inheriting a team that went 2-14 in 2012, Ballard assisted in an overhaul of Kansas City's roster in 2013. By the end of the season, there were a total of 30 new players on the 53-man squad that went 11-5 and reached the playoffs as a Wild Card contender after finishing second in the AFC West. Ballard helped the Chiefs draft four Pro Bowl players in addition to acquiring three-time Pro Bowl (2013, 2016-17) quarterback Alex Smith in free agency in 2013.

Prior to Kansas City, Ballard began his NFL career with the Chicago Bears. In 12 seasons with the Bears personnel department, under the tutelage of general manager Jerry Angelo, he served as the director of pro scouting (2012) and was the southwest area scout (2001-2011).

During Ballard's tenure in Chicago, the Bears reached the playoffs four times, won four NFC North titles (2001, 2005, 2006 and 2010) and appeared in two NFC Championship games (2006 and 2010). The Bears were victorious in the NFC Championship in 2006 and faced the Colts in Super Bowl XLI in Miami.

With the Bears, Ballard helped draft numerous Pro Bowl players, including running back Matt Forte (2008), wide receiver Johnny Knox (2009), cornerback Charles Tillman (2003), defensive tackle Tommie Harris (2004), cornerback Nathan Vasher (2004) and defensive tackle Henry Melton (2009). He also assisted in many notable acquisitions and trades, including the signings of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, guard Jermon Bushrod, tight end Martellus Bennett, linebacker D.J. Williams and linebacker James Anderson.

Before entering player personnel, Ballard spent seven seasons (1994-2000) on the coaching staff at Texas A&M-Kingsville under Head Coach and College Football Hall of Famer Ron Harms. In 2000, he served as defensive coordinator after stints as the secondary coach (1995-99) and wide receivers coach (1994). During his time with the Javelinas, Ballard helped mentor future NFL players running back Richard Jones, wide receiver Karl Williams, cornerback Floyd Young and cornerback Al Harris. Texas A&M-Kingsville also produced 1996 first-round draft pick, guard Jermane Mayberry.

Ballard played four years of collegiate football at the University of Wisconsin, part of which was under former head coach and Badgers Athletics Director Barry Alvarez. He served as a student assistant his senior year after suffering multiple knee injuries prior to graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1993.

Ballard is a native of Texas City, Texas. He and his wife, Kristin, have five children and reside in Westfield, Ind. The Ballard family is active in the community and have worked with many organizations, including Books for Youth, Hands of Hope, Habitat for Humanity, Make-A-Wish and Gleaners Food Bank. In addition, the Ballards also host the "Huddle For Hope" community ticket block at Colts home games.

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 19TH YEAR
COLLEGE: UNLV
HOMETOWN: SACRAMENTO, CALIF.

Shane Steichen was hired as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts on February 14, 2023. He enters his 19th year coaching, including the past 15 seasons in the NFL.

In 2024, Steichen led the team to an 8-9 finish. The Colts finished in the top 10 in rushing yards per game (137.1 – eighth) for the second consecutive season. The team also ranked eighth in the NFL in total rushing yards (2,331). Indianapolis had three players earn Pro Bowl accolades, including linebacker Zaire Franklin (first selection), guard Quenton Nelson (seventh selection) and running back Jonathan Taylor (second selection). Franklin and Nelson also earned Associated Press Second Team All-Pro honors. Offensively, Steichen worked with quarterback Anthony Richardson Sr., who set single-season quarterback team records in rushing yards (499) and rushing touchdowns (six). Richardson also added 1,814 passing yards and eight touchdowns through the air. Taylor ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing yards after he registered 303 carries for 1,431 yards and 11 touchdowns. Additionally, Indianapolis had three receivers with over 800 receiving yards (Josh Downs, Alec Pierce and Michael Pittman Jr.). It marked the first time the Colts had three players eclipse 800 receiving yards in a single season since 2004 (Marvin Harrison, Brandon Stokley and Reggie Wayne). The Colts defense ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in takeaways (25) and tied for first in the league in red zone takeaways (six). Indianapolis also ranked 10th in the NFL in tackles for loss (88) and tied for third in forced fumbles (17). Franklin compiled a league-high 173 tackles (93 solo) and added 11.0 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, six passes defensed, two interceptions and five forced fumbles. He ranked tied for second in the NFL in forced fumbles and tied for third in solo tackles.

In his first year in Indianapolis, Steichen guided the team to a winning record, finishing the season 9-8. The Colts ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in points per game (23.3 – tied-10th) and rushing yards per game (121.1 – 10th). Indianapolis had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including defensive tackle DeForest Buckner (third selection), center Ryan Kelly (fourth selection), quarterback Gardner Minshew II (first selection) and Nelson (sixth selection). Pittman Jr. tallied single-season career highs in receptions (109) and receiving yards (1,152) while also adding four touchdowns. He ranked fifth in the NFL in receptions and became one of four Colts players all-time to have at least 100 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards in a season (Dallas Clark, Harrison and Wayne). Steichen worked with Richardson Sr., who started all four games he saw action in during his rookie season and completed 50-of-84 passes for 577 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for an 87.3 passer rating. He also added 25 carries for 136 yards and four touchdowns. After losing Richardson Sr. to a season-ending injury in Week 5, Minshew II took over the starting role. Minshew II completed 305-of-490 passes for a single-season career-high 3,305 yards with 15 touchdowns and nine interceptions for an 84.6 passer rating. He also registered 34 carries for 100 yards and three touchdowns.

Steichen also worked with a Colts defense that ranked fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss (94.0) and sacks (51.0), while finishing tied for fifth in forced fumbles (17.0) in 2023. Indianapolis also ranked fourth in opponent negative play yards (-512). The Colts had four players record at least 8.0 sacks in 2023, including Buckner, defensive end Samson Ebukam, defensive end Dayo Odeyingbo and defensive end Kwity Paye. They were the only team in the NFL to have four-such players that season. Indianapolis' 51.0 sacks were the most by the Colts in the Indianapolis era (since 1984).

Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles from 2021-22 and helped the team reach Super Bowl LVII in 2022.

During his two seasons as offensive coordinator, Steichen coordinated an offense that ranked first in the NFL in rushing yards per game (153.6), rushing yards (5,224) and rushing touchdowns (57) over that time frame. Philadelphia also ranked tied for first in fewest interceptions (19) and third in fourth down conversion percentage (58.92 percent). Additionally, the Eagles offense set new single-season franchise records in third down conversion percentage in back-to-back seasons.

In 2022, he guided a Philadelphia offense that finished in the top 10 in numerous categories, including yards per game (389.1 – third), points per game (28.1 – third), rushing yards per game (147.6 – fifth), passing yards per game (241.5 – ninth), fewest turnovers (19 – tied-fifth), first downs per game (22.6 – third), third down percentage (franchise-record 45.95 percent – fourth), fourth down percentage (68.75 percent – fourth), red zone percentage (67.80 percent – third), goal to go percentage (82.35 percent – fifth), points scored on their first offensive possession (62 – first) and plays of 10+ yards (253 – second). The Eagles were one of just two teams to finish in the top 10 in rushing yards per game and passing yards per game.

Steichen worked with quarterback Jalen Hurts, who set then single-season career highs in every passing category, including completions (306), passing yards (3,701), passing touchdowns (22), completion percentage (66.5) and passer rating (101.5). Hurts also had a team-high 13 rushing touchdowns. He finished fourth in the NFL in passer rating and 10th in passing yards.

Philadelphia was one of just two teams to have two 1,000-yard receivers (A.J. Brown and DeVonta Smith) as well as a 1,000-yard rusher (Miles Sanders). In his first season with Philadelphia, Brown tallied 88 receptions for a single-season career-high 1,496 receiving yards, while tying his single-season career high in receiving touchdowns (11). Smith also had a career year as he caught 95 passes for 1,196 yards and seven touchdowns (all single-season career highs). Brown (fourth) and Smith (ninth) each ranked in the top 10 in receiving yards and Brown tied for third in receiving touchdowns. Sanders finished fifth in the league in rushing after registering 259 carries for 1,269 yards (4.9 avg.) and 11 touchdowns (all single-season career highs).

The Eagles led the NFL with eight total Pro Bowl selections in 2022, which included six on offense in Brown, Landon Dickerson, Hurts, Lane Johnson, Jason Kelce and Sanders. Additionally, Johnson (First Team), Kelce (First Team), Brown (Second Team) and Hurts (Second Team) each earned Associated Press All-Pro honors.

In his first season in Philadelphia, Steichen orchestrated the NFL's most productive rushing offense, as the Eagles led the league with a franchise-record 2,715 rushing yards. Philadelphia ranked fourth in third down percentage (then-team-record 45.7 percent), eighth in red zone percentage (62.3 percent) and fifth in fewest turnovers (16).

In 2021, Steichen was instrumental in the development of Hurts, who completed 265-of-432 passes for 3,144 yards with 16 touchdowns and nine interceptions for an 87.2 passer rating in his first season as a starter. Hurts also registered 784 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns. He became just the eighth quarterback in NFL history to register 3,000 passing yards and 750 rushing yards in a season. Hurts also became the youngest Eagles quarterback to ever start in a playoff game.

Smith, whom the team selected with the 10th overall pick of the 2021 NFL Draft, registered 64 receptions for 916 yards and five touchdowns. He set the franchise rookie record in receiving yards. Tight end Dallas Goedert totaled 56 receptions for 830 yards and four touchdowns. Goedert's 830 receiving yards were a single-season career high and ranked fifth in the league among tight ends. Steichen also helped Kelce (First Team) and Johnson (Second Team) each earn Associated Press All-Pro recognition. Kelce was also selected to the Pro Bowl.

Prior to Philadelphia, Steichen spent seven seasons (2014-20) with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers where he served as offensive coordinator (2020), interim offensive coordinator (2019), quarterbacks coach (2016-19) and offensive quality control/wide receivers (2014-15). The Chargers offense finished in the top 10 in passing yards per game in each of his seven years on the offensive staff, including the league's best in 2017.

In Steichen's first full season as the Chargers' offensive coordinator, Los Angeles finished in the top 10 in yards per game (382.1 – ninth), passing yards per game (270.6 – sixth), first downs per game (23.3 – sixth), third down percentage (44.2 percent – ninth) and fewest turnovers (16 – tied-fourth).

In 2020, Steichen worked with quarterback Justin Herbert, whom the team selected with the sixth overall pick of the 2020 NFL Draft. The 2020 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year completed 396-of-595 passes for 4,336 yards with 31 touchdowns with 10 interceptions for a 98.3 passer rating. Herbert set NFL rookie records in completions and passing touchdowns, while registering the second-most passing yards by a rookie in league history (Andrew Luck – 4,374). He finished in the top 10 in the league in completions (fourth), passing yards (sixth) and passing touchdowns (10th). Additionally, wide receiver Keenan Allen caught 100 passes for 992 yards and eight touchdowns en route to Pro Bowl honors.

Steichen assumed the Chargers' offensive coordinator duties in an interim capacity for the final eight games of the 2019 season. During his tenure as play caller, the unit ranked fifth in the league in total yards per game (384.3), sixth in passing yards per game (272.1) and seventh in third down percentage (42.7 percent).
Prior to becoming offensive coordinator, Steichen was the Chargers' quarterbacks coach from 2016-19 and worked with former Colts quarterback Philip Rivers. Over those four seasons, Rivers ranked second in passing yards (17,824), fourth in completions (1,446) and fourth in touchdown passes (116). He was selected to three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2016-18.

As the league's top ranked passing offense in 2017 (276.9 yards per game), Rivers completed 360-of-575 passes for 4,515 yards with 28 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a 96.0 passer rating. In 2016, Rivers registered the second-most passing touchdowns of his career (33) while completing 349-of-578 passes for 4,386 yards.

From 2014-15, Steichen served as an offensive quality control coach for the Chargers and worked primarily with the wide receivers. In 2015, Allen played in the first eight games of the season and caught 67 passes for 725 yards and four touchdowns before being placed on the team's season-ending Injured Reserve list. In 2014, San Diego had four players, including three wide receivers (Allen, Eddie Royal and Malcom Floyd), reach 50+ receptions for just the fourth time in team history.

In 2013, Steichen assisted the quarterbacks as an offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns. Despite multiple injuries at the position, the Browns had three starting quarterbacks (Jason Campbell, Brian Hoyer and Brandon Weeden) each post 300-yard passing performances for the first time in franchise history (sixth instance in NFL history).

Steichen began his NFL career as a defensive assistant with the Chargers (2011-12) after spending one season as a full-time offensive assistant at Louisville (2010). He also served as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and student graduate assistant (2007) at his alma mater, UNLV.

As a four-year letterman (2003-06) at quarterback for the Rebels, Steichen left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer with 2,755 yards and 22 touchdowns. He also registered 399 rushing yards and five touchdowns.

A native of Sacramento, Calif., Steichen earned his degree in journalism and media studies from UNLV. He attended Oak Ridge High School in El Dorado Hills, Calif., and earned area MVP honors from the Sacramento Bee after leading his squad to a conference sectional title in 2002.

Steichen and his wife, Nina, have a son, Hudson, and a daughter, Stella. Steichen's older brother, Sean, was a punter at Boise State.

The Bengals opened the season by going seven straight games without giving up a touchdown after halftime, becoming the second NFL team since 1930 to do so.

During the 2021 season, Anarumo's unit was pivotal in Cincinnati's postseason run to Super Bowl LVI. The defense led all playoff teams in total tackles (155), passes defensed (23) and interceptions (eight), while allowing an average of 20.5 points over four games. In the regular season, the Bengals finished fifth in the NFL in rushing defense (102.5 yards allowed per game).

In his first season with the Bengals in 2019, Anarumo's defense allowed 84.1 fewer yards per game in the second half of the season vs. the first eight games, while also recording 11 more sacks. Cincinnati ranked fifth in the NFL in red zone defense after allowing touchdowns on just 49 percent of opponents' red zone trips.

Second-year cornerback Xavien Howard was one of 25 NFL players with at least four interceptions, including one he returned 30 yards for a touchdown.

In 2016, Anarumo's secondary helped Miami have their best season since 2008, winning 10 games and reaching the playoffs for the first time in eight years. The Dolphins had seven consecutive games with a takeaway from Weeks 9-15 (19 turnovers), which was the most in a seven-game span since 2004. Anarumo helped with the development of second-year cornerback Tony Lippett, who led the team and tied for 11th in the NFL with four interceptions despite playing wide receiver in college.

In 2015, Anarumo began the season as defensive backs coach before serving as interim defensive coordinator for the final 12 games of the season. Cornerback Brent Grimes and Jones were selected to the Pro Bowl, marking the first time since the 2003 season that the Dolphins had two members of their secondary participate in the Pro Bowl in the same season.

Miami allowed the sixth fewest passing yards per game (222.3) in the NFL in 2014. Anarumo's group scored three defensive touchdowns, marking the first season since 2003 when the Dolphins had three different players score defensive touchdowns. Grimes led the team with five interceptions en route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. Jones was one of three players in the NFL to record 70 or more tackles, 1.0 sack and three interceptions.

From 2012-13, Miami gave up just 35 touchdown passes, the second fewest in the league over that span. The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating. Anarumo also helped with the development of safety Bernard Pollard, who was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round (54th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft. Pollard then became the highest-drafted Purdue defensive player since linebacker Fred Strickland, who was selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the second round (47th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Prior to Purdue, Anarumo was the defensive backs coach at Marshall for three seasons (2001-03). He also served as special teams coordinator in 2003. Against Big 12 competition, the Cyclones set school records in the Big 12 era (1996-present) in scoring (29.4) and total offense (439.8).

Following the season, Manning was recognized for his work as one of 40 semifinalists for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

Prior to Iowa State, Manning spent four seasons (2012-15) as the offensive line coach at Toledo. The Rockets tallied three nine-win seasons and qualified for three bowl appearances in his four seasons at Toledo.

Despite replacing five starters from the season before, Toledo was one of just 12 teams in the FBS in 2015 to rank in the nation's top 40 in both passing and rushing, as the Rockets won nine games and advanced to a bowl game. Manning's unit allowed just 4.0 sacks during the season, ranking second nationally. Manning was named the 2015 FootballScoop Offensive Line Coach of the Year for his work with the line. Offensive lineman Storm Norton earned First Team All-MAC honors in his first full season as a starter.

In 2014, three Rocket offensive linemen earned All-MAC honors: Greg Mancz, Josh Hendershot and Jeff Myers. Mancz tallied First Team All-MAC honors and was named a Second Team All-America selection by the Football Writers Association of America. Mancz also became the first lineman in MAC history to win the Vern Smith Leadership Award, presented annually to the league's top player.

Toledo led the Mid-American in just about every major offensive category in 2014, including scoring offense (36.6), total offense (490.5) and rushing offense (256.4). The season culminated with a nine-touchdown performance in a 63-44 victory over Arkansas State in the GoDaddy Bowl, capping a 9-4 season.

The Rockets led the nation by allowing just 6.0 sacks in 2013. Toledo's offense ranked No. 4 in the MAC in total offense (447.3 yards per game) and No. 2 in rushing offense (240.6). Three Rockets offensive linemen were named All-MAC in Zac Kerin, Mancz and Jeff Myers.

In 2012, Manning guided an offensive line that guided the Rockets to the third-ranked offense in the Mid-American Conference (445.2 yards per game) and a 9-4 mark that included a trip to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Kerin earned First Team All-MAC honors, while Mancz notched Third Team All-MAC recognition.

Manning also garnered recognition for his role as a recruiter when Rivals.com named him one of the nation's top recruiters among non-BCS schools in 2013.

Manning served as offensive line coach at his alma mater, Mount Union, in 2011. The Purple Raiders went 14-1 and advanced to the Division III national championship game before losing to Wisconsin-Whitewater, 13-10.

In 2010, Manning served as Toledo's director of football operations. His first stint with the Rockets began in 2009 when he was hired as a graduate assistant where he worked with the offense.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Manning was a two-time all-conference player at Ursuline High School. He made first team all-state as a senior, leading his school to the Division IV state championship in 2000. He played collegiately at Mount Union, where he was a two-time all-conference player at left tackle. Manning, who was a team captain as a senior, helped his team win NCAA Division III national championships in 2002 and 2005. The Purple Raiders had a 59-3 record during his time on the team.

Manning began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Massillon (Ohio) Jackson High School in 2006. His first job at the collegiate level was at Emory & Henry (Va.) College, where he was the offensive line/run-game coordinator from 2007-08.

In 2024, Raich worked with an Indianapolis defense that ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in takeaways (25) and tied for first in the league in red zone takeaways (six). The Colts also ranked 10th in the NFL in tackles for loss (88) and tied for third in forced fumbles (17). He mentored rookie defensive end Laiatu Latu, who ranked tied for first in forced fumbles (three) and strip sacks (2.0) and fifth in sacks (4.0) among rookies. Raich coached defensive tackle Grover Stewart and helped him rank second in tackles (74) and seventh in solo tackles (29) among NFL defensive tackles. He also guided DeForest Buckner, who reached at least 6.5 sacks for the seventh consecutive season. Buckner is one of two NFL players to accomplish that feat during the last seven years joining Myles Garrett.

Following the 2024 season, Raich served as the defensive coordinator for the American Team at the 2025 Senior Bowl.

Indianapolis ranked fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss (94.0) and sacks (51.0), while finishing tied for fifth in forced fumbles (17.0) in 2023. The Colts also ranked fourth in opponent negative play yards (-512). The team recorded 14 consecutive games with a takeaway to open the season, which was the longest streak in the NFL in 2023.

The Colts had four players record at least 8.0 sacks in 2023, including Buckner, defensive end Samson Ebukam, defensive end Dayo Odeyingbo and defensive end Kwity Paye. They were the only team in the NFL to have four-such players in 2023. Indianapolis' 51.0 sacks were the most by the Colts in the Indianapolis era (since 1984). Buckner was named to his third career Pro Bowl. Raich guided Odeyingbo to a career year, recording single-season career highs in numerous defensive categories, including tackles (38), solo tackles (22), tackles for loss (9.0), sacks (8.0), passes defensed (two), forced fumbles (two) and fumble recoveries (two).

The Colts defense received significant contributions from Stewart and Buckner. Stewart recorded single-season career highs solo tackles (44), sacks (4.0), passes defensed (three) and fumble recoveries (one). Buckner totaled 74 tackles (44 solo), 11.0 tackles for loss, 8.0 sacks, three passes defensed, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Among NFL defensive tackles, Stewart and Buckner each ranked in the top five in total tackles (Buckner – tied-second; Stewart – tied-fourth) and solo tackles (Buckner and Stewart – tied-second). Buckner (third) and Stewart (fifth) each ranked in the top five in total tackles by a defensive tackle in single-season franchise history. It marked the first time since 1994 that the Colts had two defensive tackles register at least 70 tackles each in a single season.

Additionally, defensive end Yannick Ngakoue led the team with 9.5 sacks. Raich worked with second-year defensive ends Paye (10.0 tackles for loss and 6.0 sacks) and Odeyingbo (5.0 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks), who each established then-single-season career highs in tackles for loss and sacks.

It marked the first time since 1971 that the Colts finished in the top five in run defense and the first time since 2007 that Indianapolis ranked in the top 10 in total defense.

Pivotal to Indianapolis' success against the run was the performance of the interior defensive line spearheaded by defensive tackles Buckner and Stewart. In his first season with the Colts, Buckner totaled 58 tackles (37 solo), 10.0 tackles for loss, 9.5 sacks, three passes defensed, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Raich served on the Detroit Lions' coaching staff as defensive assistant/defensive ends coach (2015-17) and defensive quality control coach (2014). From 2014-17, the Lions defense ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in total yards per game (340.3, 10th), rushing yards per game (100.3, eighth) and number of games in which opponents were held to 20 points or less (34, tied for sixth).

Ed Dodds enters his ninth season with the Colts and his eighth as assistant general manager after serving the 2017 campaign as vice president of player personnel. He will embark on his 23rd year in the NFL. Dodds spent 10 seasons (2007-2016) with the Seattle Seahawks prior to joining the Colts.

During the 2025 offseason, he assisted General Manager Chris Ballard with multiple moves to strengthen the team heading into the season. Indianapolis signed cornerback Charvarius Ward, safety Camryn Bynum and quarterback Daniel Jones at the start of the new league year. In the 2025 NFL Draft, the Colts made eight selections – most notably first round draft pick tight end Tyler Warren. Warren won the 2024 John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end and placed seventh in Heisman Trophy voting.

In 2024, Dodds helped construct a team that finished with an 8-9 record with two Second Team All-Pro selections (linebacker Zaire Franklin and guard Quenton Nelson) and three Pro Bowl honorees (Franklin, Nelson and running back Jonathan Taylor).

The team finished 9-8 in 2023, while playing the majority of the games with their backup quarterback and unrestricted free agent pickup, Gardner Minshew II. Indianapolis had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including defensive tackle DeForest Buckner, center Ryan Kelly, Nelson and Minshew II.

Following the 2022 season, Dodds played a role in the in-depth coaching search that ended with former Philadelphia Eagles Offensive Coordinator Shane Steichen. Steichen brought 13 seasons of coaching experience and helped lead the Eagles to an NFC Championship and Super Bowl appearance as their offensive coordinator in 2022.

In 2021, the Colts recorded top 10 finishes in points per game (26.5), rushing offense (149.4 yards per game) and defensive takeaways (33). Taylor, a 2020 second round draft choice, became the first Colts player to lead the NFL in rushing (1,811 yards) since Edgerrin James in 2000. Indianapolis tied for first in the NFL with five Associated Press All-Pro selections and led the league with seven players named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2020, Indianapolis made an AFC Wild Card appearance following an 11-5 regular season record. The Colts won six of their last eight games to clinch the final playoff spot in the AFC.

In the 2019 offseason, Dodds assisted in signing two free agents while helping select a 10-player draft class – seven defensive selections and three offensive picks.

The Colts started the 2018 season with a 1-5 record, but won nine of their last 10 games to clinch a postseason berth. Indianapolis became the third team in NFL history to start the season with a 1-5 mark and reach the playoffs.

During the 2018 offseason, Dodds assisted in signing several free agents while helping to select an 11-player draft class. Among those signed in free agency were defensive end Denico Autry, tight end Eric Ebron and guard Matt Slauson. The 2018 draft class was spearheaded by Nelson and linebacker Shaquille Leonard, who joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers (Chicago Bears, 1965) as the second pair of rookie teammates to be selected First Team All-Pro since The Associated Press started selecting All-Pro teams in 1940. Nelson was also selected to the Pro Bowl and Leonard was named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Dodds served as Seattle's senior personnel executive from 2014-16 and was responsible for evaluating both college and pro talent. As a national scout, he evaluated the south central region and overtook an expanded role of cross checking other regions. Dodds spent nine seasons in Seattle's college scouting department after serving in the pro personnel department in 2007.

Dodds was part of a staff that was responsible for drafting franchise players in center Max Unger, safeties Earl Thomas and Kam Chancellor, cornerback Richard Sherman, quarterback Russell Wilson and linebackers Bruce Irvin and Bobby Wagner. The success of these draft selections culminated in the team's first championship with a Super Bowl XLVIII victory over the Denver Broncos. Seattle reached Super Bowl XLIX the following year, but fell to the New England Patriots. During his tenure with Seattle, Dodds was part of six winning seasons, five NFC West championships and 10 playoff wins in addition to two Super Bowl appearances.

THE TRANSITION

Alie-Cox grew up playing both football and basketball, but his opportunities in high school came on the hardwood, not the gridiron. After transferring to Middleburg (Va.) Academy, a school that didn't field a football team, he excelled on the basketball court and accepted a scholarship to play at VCU. In college, he starred as a forward for the Rams and became an accomplished shot blocker, posting the second-most blocks in school history (255). His athletic, 6-5, 267-pound frame with a 7-1 wingspan also caught the attention of NFL scouts and even players like Jason Witten. "I always told myself if I ever had the chance to go play football again, I would probably take the opportunity to do it," Alie-Cox said

EMULATING MOSS

Alie-Cox was a football fanatic as a youngster. "I liked football more than basketball growing up as a kid. All I did was watch football. Me and my brothers played tackle football, one-on-one in the yard all the time," Alie-Cox said. He grew up idolizing his favorite player, wide receiver Randy Moss. Now as a pro tight end, Alie-Cox still tries to emulate Moss' game. "I like going over people, catching the ball, 'Mossin' people," said Alie-Cox.

SMART MAN

Alie-Cox credits his college basketball coach, Shaka Smart, with helping him develop as person and as an athlete. Smart pushed him to graduate with higher than a 3.0 GPA. Alie-Cox met this goal in only three years before completing a master's program. Smart also helped Alie-Cox in the toughness and confidence departments. "I was good, but I couldn't do it for long spurts," Alie-Cox said. "He really challenged me, and I think that's helped me getting to this point, being able to fight through fatigue and focused in on being mentally tough." Alie-Cox would have to scream at the top of his lungs every time he entered Coach Smart's office. "It was his way of instilling confidence in me. I'm not a person that talks, so we'd do little things like that."

SMALL TOWN KID

Bortolini was a small-town kid with big-time football dreams. A native of Kewaunee, Wis., he grew up in the town with a population of only 2,800 people, leaving less than 80 students to form his high school graduating class. Bortolini aspired to play football on Saturdays at the collegiate level and made that a reality when he stayed within the state borders to play at Wisconsin. He is now just the third player to make it to the league from Kewaunee, following in the footsteps of tight ends Colin Cochart (2011) and Jack Novak (1975-77). Cochart is now his mentor.

JUST LIKE A MOVIE

On and off the field, Bynum knows a thing or two about being the main character. Even his love story with his wife, Lalaine, reads like a blockbuster movie script: the two met in 2022 while Bynum and his family were traveling in Dubai and were married just a year later. But, with Lalaine living in the Philippines – where Bynum's mother is from – she needed a U.S. visa to join him in the states. After two unsuccessful applications, Bynum brought national attention to their situation during a postgame interview following a standout performance in the Vikings' 2023 win over the 49ers. Thanks to help from Minnesota's senators, who heard Bynum's on-air plea, Lalaine's third application was approved. Just three weeks later, she was in New Orleans to watch Bynum play in person for the first time. The pair welcomed their first child, baby girl Laila Glo Bynum, in May of 2025.

UNDERSIZED TO UNSTOPPABLE

Growing up, Bynum was never the biggest kid on the field – or even in the room. He knew that in order to achieve his NFL dreams, he'd have to work 10 times harder than most, and that's why you could often find high-school Bynum training at 5 a.m. before class started. He'd be in the weight room, on uphill runs or even doing drills without a football so that he could build a strong foundation to offset his lack of size. Eventually, with proper nutrition and some luck from a late growth spurt, the Corona, Calif. native surged in size. But it was the skills and discipline from those early mornings that helped him surpass his peers. Bynum says the challenges he faced only made him a better performer, and he still carries that relentless work ethic today.

He tallied another interception in Week 2 vs. DEN, and it marked the first time in his career he has recorded a pick in back-to-back games. JOY IN HIS JOURNEY

Ebukam's path to Indianapolis is one of the many things that he takes great pride in. Born on the banks of the Nile River just behind the Nile and the Congo as the youngest of seven siblings, Ebukam saw his family immigrate to the United States at different times in search of new opportunities. His father sent for Ebukam to make the journey himself when he was only nine. While all Ebukam knew was soccer, his athleticism flashed and after some convincing, he found his way to the football field. After a successful collegiate career at Eastern Washington, the 2025 season marks his ninth in the NFL. Ebukam also founded the T&S Foundation, named after his parents who provided him with everything he needed to get to where he is today, with the mission to fulfill basic humanitarian needs for the people of Nigeria.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR NOMINEE

Franklin was selected as the Colts' 2023 Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee. Through his hands-on work within his hometown of Philadelphia, Franklin has inspired and impacted the youth of the city. Most notably, his foundation, Shelice's Angels, created in honor of his late mother and grandmother, works to offer young women opportunities and resources to aid them in building self-esteem and become equipped to one day pursue a professional career. The organization hosted its fourth Annual Business Academy in June 2024, a two-day event for 30 hand-selected students from middle schools across the city of Philadelphia to learn the ins and outs of business from industry leaders and participate in a strategic business simulation. Franklin's community work is nothing new of late however, as in 2018 and 2019, he collaborated with the Colts, Philly's Finest and French Toast, a school uniform outfitter, to donate a uniform to every child in kindergarten through fifth grade (over 300 students) at Kenderton School, located in North Philadelphia.

WON'T LOOK BACK

Franklin's mother, Shelice, dropped out of college as a junior to raise him and made a promise to herself that Zaire would be the first one in the family to earn a college degree. For years, she suffered from a recurring brain tumor on the occipital nerve at the base of her brain and eventually died from heart failure in February of 2013. Roughly two months later, his grandmother and other primary caretaker, Juanita Highsmith-Bailey, died from sepsis-induced kidney failure. Despite the adversity, Franklin persevered and was able to land a scholarship and excel both on the football field and in the classroom. In 2017, he fulfilled his mother's promise and graduated from Syracuse University with a degree in finance – even doing so a semester early.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Franklin's legacy at Syracuse University transcends the game of football, as he is one of the best leaders the school has ever produced. He became the first sophomore football player to be named a captain at Syracuse since the 1940s and was the first player to be a three-time Orange captain since 1896. He served as the president of his fraternity, Omega Psi Phi, and organized community-driven initiatives for the group that included donating 100-plus new backpacks filled with school supplies to children in need. In 2016, Franklin helped organize and lead a campus-wide discussion, 'Real Men Real Talk: Locker Room Talk Edition,' to open up dialogue on the role men can play in preventing sexual violence and how athletes can contribute positively to society. "Anything to give back to the less fortunate and helping kids in Philly or Indy is something I want to do."

SHELICE'S ANGELS

Franklin is not only a productive member on the field, being named a captain for five consecutive seasons (2020-24), but also carries his impact off the field. Organized in 2019 and named after his mother, Shelice's Angels aims to help the youth see the many opportunities available to them outside of their current environments. From food drives to uniform drives, Franklin has provided for his community in more ways than one. Two of his career-focused excursions included taking a group of young girls to HB Sports & Entertainment where they received a tour and had the opportunity to meet influential females in the sports world including Brittanie Boyd (Then Senior Vice President, Marketing, Philadelphia 76ers) and Natasha Moody (Then Senior Vice President, Business Operations, Prudential Center). He also took a group of middle school girls with an interest in coding to the Google headquarters in New York City where they participated in a Q&A session led by a panel of female Google team members and learned about opportunities that could be available to them. Most recently, Franklin and Shelice's Angels partnered with the Colts to host a Financial Literacy Summit in which 30 kids between the ages of 12-16 were taught the basic fundamentals of budgeting, investing and borrowing. At the end of the initiative, each student received a newly created savings account and $250 from Franklin to start their financial journey.

HIS BIGGEST MOTIVATION

Gallimore and his father have a relationship that not many can understand. His father, Carlton, is diabetic. He's gradually losing his vision. Gallimore has been helping out his dad for as long as he can remember – helping him get around the house when he's home and being what he likes to call a 'seeing-eye dog'. Witnessing his dad's strength and resilience first-hand has had a profound impact on Gallimore's life, and that's one of the reasons he's dedicated to spreading awareness of the disease. He's partnered with Diabetes Canada for the NFL's My Cause My Cleats Initiative many times throughout his career, and continues to attend events and show support for those affected, as well as their families.

BROTHERLY LOVE

Gallimore's two older brothers were the first people he called after signing with Miami in March of 2024, but it's a wonder he didn't mix up their contacts in his phone. Their names, Gary (GAIR-ee) and Garry (GARR-ee), differ by just one letter. Gallimore says he used to get jealous of the older two as a kid, but eventually came to appreciate that his own name made him stand out. Fun fact: the only other Neville he's ever met was a stranger he bumped into while shopping at Men's Wearhouse.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

Gardner's nickname dates back to his earliest football days. When he was just six years old, his little league coach took his nickname, A1 – his first initial combined with his number – further, dubbing him 'A1 Sauce Sweet Feet Gardner.' The name stuck, eventually being shortened to just 'Sauce.' Now, it's more than a name – Gardner says it's almost like a persona, helping him with his confidence level on the field. When he was drafted in the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the New York Jets, Gardner wore a massive 'SAUCE' diamond chain, as well as a necklace with a small bottle capable of actually holding sauce.

YOUR NEW FAVORITE HOLIDAY

July 3 has officially been declared as DJ Giddens Day, if you hail from his hometown of Junction City, Kan. A zero-star recruit out of Junction City High School, Giddens was a hidden gem, until he caught the eye of Kansas State head coach Chris Kleiman when Giddens played against his son in high school. In addition to his performances on the field, Giddens' dedication to supporting community efforts, charity events and youth football camps in Junction City also inspired the honor. Giddens attended his hometown's commission meeting after rookie minicamp in April when the mayor officially proclaimed the new holiday.

MILITARY DISCIPLINE

Gould's strict work ethic and disciplined mindset is a direct reflection of his military upbringing. His mother, Stacy Johnson, served as a master sergeant in the Army for 20 years, including deployments to Iraq and Cuba when Gould was young. As a single mom in the military, she instilled high standards of toughness in him and his older sister, resulting in a 'don't quit' mentality, which led him to overcome adversity both on and off the field. It was his mother who convinced him to honor his commitment to Oregon State after two years and put the work in for more playing time opposed to transferring.

HE'S BACK

There was a time when many thought Latu's football career was over, but he was never one of them. After enduring a neck injury in 2020 while playing at Washington, the program made the decision for him to medically retire after undergoing surgery. Yet, his sheer passion for the game never wavered as he completed physical therapy rehab on his own with the continuous support and encouragement from his mother, Kerry. From sending him videos of rehab on Instagram to securing a visit with Dr. Robert Watkins, she was there every step of the way. Despite wanting to continue football, Latu began playing club rugby at Washington, receiving an offer to play professionally overseas with the Seattle Seawolves, but declined to return to football. After getting medical clearance, he transferred to UCLA for two seasons to finish his collegiate campaign.

MOM'S TWO WORDS

Before Leonard puts on the pads, he always reads his pre-game text from his mom, Heather. Her encouraging words? 'You suck!' It's a tradition dating back to when the Fairhope, Ala. native was in high school and needed a switch up from getting praise for his play on the field. Though it may sound harsh, it's Heather's way of saying she's behind Leonard every step of the way. The two-word mantra didn't stick solely to the Leonards, though: Heather appeared on College Gameday in 2023 to give the entire crew bracelets with the phrase.

A FAMILY MAN

Lewis was the male leader in his household growing up. His father wasn't around and Lewis took on the responsibility of being a role model to his three younger brothers. He would always go to their games when he could and offer advice to them. When he left home to go to Ohio State, his family adapted and still managed to stay close. He decided to host his draft party back home in Pinetops, N.C. with friends and family. After he got the call from the Colts, he even made sure to FaceTime his brother to make sure he was included in the family photo celebrating the occasion.

DOWN THE STRETCH

What is something interesting about you that most people may not know: I have a twin sister.

What is one thing you couldn"t live without: God

What was your "Welcome to the NFL" moment: The first day I was in New England, Tom Brady spoke to me. He knew my name, he introduced himself, so it felt pretty cool coming from Tom Brady. You don't really think you're anyone as a rookie.

What are your hobbies outside of football: Photography and doing spontaneous things, whether that's going downtown and taking pictures or just hanging out. I like to get to know people. I enjoy doing digital art and illustrations.

Did you have any unique jobs growing up: I worked at the pool store in Valdosta every summer in college. I worked in the chlorine room and I was basically like a little chemist, I like to say. I tested people's chlorine water to see the pH and stuff like that.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR x3

Moore II earned his third Walter Payton Man of the Year nomination in 2025. One of the most prestigious awards in the NFL, the honor is given to one player from each team that displays great performance on the field and a dedication to serving their community off the field – and the list of Moore II's outreaches isn't a short one. This season, instead of spending his weekly day off relaxing, Moore II spends time teaching a life skills class to eighth graders at Cardinal Ritter High School. He's also a heavily involved board member of A Kid Again, an organization that helps provide experiences for kids battling serious illnesses, as well as supporting their families. His previous nominations came in 2021 and again in 2024, when he had a huge hand in helping his hometown of Valdosta, Ga. recover from being hit by Hurricane Helene that fall. "I got a huge commitment to the community that'll never waver," Moore II, Indianapolis' only three-time nominee, says. "But it's an honor to represent this organization, as well as the city, in this space."

MOORE II LIFE THAN FOOTBALL

Moore II has always been adamant about giving back to his hometown of Valdosta, Ga. So, when Hurricane Helene, a Category 4 storm, made landfall near there in September of 2024, he knew he had to step in. Through his Love One Foundation and the help of his mom and sisters who still live in Georgia, Moore II teamed up with a family friend and his restaurant, Big Nick's BBQ & Juke Joint, to help feed thousands of people just 48 hours after the city was hit hard by the storm, leaving them without power and with severe damage.

2X DPOTW

In 2020, Moore II earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 14 at LV after he compiled five solo tackles, one forced fumble, one pass defensed and a one-handed interception. His interception in the second quarter came in the end zone and stalled a Raiders' red zone drive, while his forced fumble occurred in the fourth quarter. His two turnovers resulted in scoring drives for Indianapolis. He became the fourth Colts player to earn the honor in the 2020 season.

In 2023, Moore II earned his second-career AFC Defensive Player of the Week honor. In Week 9 at CAR, he totaled eight tackles (seven solo), two passes defensed and two interceptions returned for touchdowns. He is the first player in franchise history to record two interception returns for a touchdown in a single game and became the ninth NFL player to accomplish that feat since at least 2000. His 115 interception return yards are the most by a Colts player in a single game since at least 1960.

THE MOORE YOU CAN DO

Moore II's talent and creativity transcends outside the field. He is a self-taught photographer and designer who enjoys capturing the world around him from his own perspective. "I really love landscapes because it's not man-made. But I do love architecture because you do see what man can create. It goes hand in hand. I like to point something out and try to get my own angle on it because everybody has different types of perception."

HELPING IN A TIME OF NEED

During Moore II's rookie year, he was driving home from a community event when the car in front of him ran over a dog that was running into the street. Moore II got out of his car to help and promptly invited the dog and its owner, Max, into the car to go to the closest vet hospital. The dog suffered a broken pelvis, but the first vet they visited wasn't able to assist and recommended one that could perform surgery. Moore II took them to the other vet where the surgery done and saved the dog. Max and Moore II still keep in contact to this day and Max has even made it out to a Colts game on Moore II's behalf. Moore II attended Max's wedding on June 4, 2021.

3X FIRST TEAM ALL-PRO

Nelson was named Associated Press First Team All-Pro for the third consecutive season in 2020. Nelson became the first player in franchise history to be selected Associated Press First Team All-Pro in his first three seasons. He also became the first offensive lineman and the fifth player since the 1970 NFL/AFL merger to be named Associated Press First Team All-Pro in his first three seasons, joining Barry Sanders, Keith Jackson, Lawrence Taylor and Earl Campbell. Nelson is the first Colts player to earn Associated Press First Team All-Pro honors in three consecutive seasons since Peyton Manning (2003-05). He has the most total All-Pro selections and the most First Team All-Pro selections by a guard in franchise history.

FIRST TIME SINCE 1965

Nelson and Shaquille Leonard were both named AP First Team All-Pro in 2018. Nelson and Leonard joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers (Chicago, 1965) as the second pair of rookie teammates to be selected First Team All-Pro since the Associated Press started selecting All-Pro teams in 1940. Nelson started all 16 games at left guard and played all 1,136 of the Colts' offensive snaps in 2018. He was part of an offensive line that allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL (18.0) and had the lowest sacks allowed per pass attempt rate (2.7 percent). Nelson assisted with an offense that ranked in the top-10 in points per games (27.1, fifth), yards per game (386.2, seventh) and passing yards per game (278.8, sixth). From Weeks 5-12, quarterback Andrew Luck attempted 239 passes without being sacked, which was the third-longest streak in NFL history. Nelson also helped pave the way for running back Marlon Mack to register four 100-yard rushing games in 2018.

7X PRO BOWLER

Nelson has been selected to seven consecutive Pro Bowls (2018-24) to start his career, becoming the first Colt to do so. He joined Richmond Webb and Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Thomas as the only offensive linemen in NFL history to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first seven seasons in the NFL. Among active players, Nelson has the second-longest streak of Pro Bowls to begin an NFL career, following Miami Dolphins wide receiver Tyreek Hill (eight years).

BORN FOR THE BIG STAGE

Nelson has always been big. He was born at 10 pounds and 10 ounces and continued growing from there. He was so big that when he played Pop Warner football, he played with kids two years older than him and was forced to lose 20 pounds before each season. Nelson was referenced by his Notre Dame teammates as a refrigerator.

A PATH LESS TRAVELED

Becoming a standout football player is hard enough, but imagine being a father at the same time. Ogletree was 16 years old when he had his son, Andrew Jr., who was actually born during one of Ogletree's games. Ogletree was warming up when he heard that his girlfriend was giving birth two months before the due date so he went to the hospital, saw Andrew Jr. be born, and returned for the second half of his football game. As Ogletree earned a half-scholarship to Findlay and worked his way to Youngstown State, he had Andrew Jr. watching his every move and being his biggest supporter.

AN IMPROBABLE JOURNEY

Paye's family has gone through a lot for him to have the opportunity to play in the NFL. Paye's mother, Agnes, grew up in Liberia, but when she was 12 years old, a civil war broke out and the area became very unsafe. Her father had his house burned down, and she wasn't able to even check on him because of the war going on. Agnes moved the family when Paye was six months old from the Republic of Guinea to the Lockwood projects in Providence, R.I. Paye started playing football and decided to attend Bishop Hendricken, where former NFL player Will Blackmon played high school football. But, private school didn't come cheap, and Agnes would have to work two or even three jobs to cover the expenses. Paye had to convince his mom to let him attend because he felt that if he went there, received good grades and starred on the field, he would have a good chance to land a scholarship to play football collegiately. Paye made it all worth it, earning Rhode Island's Gatorade Player of the Year award in 2016, as well as being named Rhode Island's Defensive Player of the Year by USA Today. He was a part of four state championship teams en route to earning scholarship offers from many Division I programs. Paye ended up at Michigan, where he registered 100 tackles (56 solo), 23.5 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks, setting him up to be a first-round draft pick. In an interview right after he was drafted, Paye was able to express his gratitude to his mother for helping him get where he is, saying, "She's done working. She's retired."

PAYE IT FORWARD

While in college, one of Paye's teammates, Adam Shibley, had an idea to help under-served youth sports teams. He created the non-profit, TUFF (The Uniform Funding Foundation), that raises money to supply uniforms to underprivileged youth sports teams. Paye served as a board member, specifically the multicultural and player relations director throughout college. On draft night, Paye decided to release a 1-of-1 NFT (non-fungible token) that people could bid on with all proceeds going to TUFF. He also signed four pairs of limited-edition Jordan cleats that were up for auction benefiting TUFF.

ALWAYS CARRYING MOTIVATION

Paye is a goal-driven man, and always wants to make sure he is staying focused on the prize. He has achieved the goal of making it to the NFL, but he is far from done. Paye has had the same wallet since sixth grade with a notecard that keeps him motivated. Some of the quotes on it are: "Nothing worth having comes easy," "Nothing will get in the way of me achieving my dreams," "Work hard and take care of my family," "God gives his toughest battles to his strongest soldiers" and "Remember when you wanted what you currently have." He also carries another notecard that includes different things he is thankful for, including his mom, his brothers, his coaches, his teammates, his athletic ability, his education, his close friends, the things he has and then his life. Paye says, "Those keep me grounded, keep me humble and remind me where I came from."

INDY THROUGH AND THROUGH

Pinter has spent his entire life in the great state of Indiana. He grew up in South Bend and attended John Adams High School before accepting his only Division I scholarship offer from Ball State in Muncie, Ind. After a successful career at Ball State and earning First Team All-MAC honors in 2019, Pinter became the first player from South Bend drafted since Charles Swann in 1992. He enjoys playing professionally in the only state he knows. "I mean this state means a lot to me. I've lived here my whole life, I have played football here my whole life. So, to have the opportunity to stay here and stay around a bunch of people who helped me get to his point is – really, I can't put it into words. I mean I am so excited."

MR. VERSATILE

Pinter came into his freshman year at Ball State expecting to play tight end all four years. In high school, he tallied 46 receptions for 792 yards at tight end. After redshirting his freshman year in Muncie, he spent two seasons at tight end and totaled nine receptions for 56 yards and one touchdown. His coach came to him to see if he was willing to make the switch to tackle, and Pinter was all for it. He started all 24 games combined the next two seasons at right tackle while earning First Team All-MAC honors and Ball State's John Magnabosco award, which is given to the most outstanding player, in 2019. He is happy with the switch and knows it helped him get to the NFL. "I mean I love offensive line. It fits me well and it definitely helped me get to this point."

PITTMAN FARMS

A native of Los Angeles, the farm life was something unfamiliar to Pittman Jr. But in deciding with his family to make Indiana their home for the future, buying a farm became more than just an idea or a hobby, but a new lifestyle. Fully embracing Indiana, Pittman Farms includes everything from horses, cows, chickens, goats and dogs to even an alpaca, emu and beehives. The farm life has become a grounding experience for Pittman Jr., being a constant for him amidst the grind of the season. Despite the extra work added from the upkeep of the animals and property, he credits the early rising and steady chore schedule in helping him perform on the field by creating a humbled, in-touch mindset.

A FAMILY BUSINESS

Pittman Jr. had a front-row seat to what it takes to make it to the NFL. His father, Michael Pittman Sr., played in the NFL for the Cardinals, Buccaneers and Broncos for a combined 11 seasons and accumulated 5,627 rushing yards and 3,512 receiving yards. He also won Super Bowl XXXVII with the Bucs. Pittman Jr. leaned on his dad for advice throughout his journey to the NFL. "It's just awesome to have him because he's pretty much coached me up my whole life about the NFL, dealing with coaches, locker-room life and basically teaching me to be a football player throughout my whole life," Pittman Jr. said. His dad also always knew he would be a wide receiver. "He predicted that I was going to be a receiver because when I was in high school I played linebacker, I played safety and I played running back. So not until my junior year of high school is when I really started playing wideout. Then my freshman year when I was struggling, he told me that one day that I was going to be one of the top wideouts and I ended up being a finalist for the Biletnikoff."

TAKING A DIFFERENT ROUTE

Raimann didn't know the game of American football existed until he was 13 years old. He was fascinated by the game and decided he wanted to pursue it. Raimann tried out for the Vienna Vikings as a 14-year-old, which is similar to a local club team. He trained with the team, which has a program similar to what European soccer clubs do with different levels for different age groups. He played wide receiver and learned the game. As a junior in high school, Raimann was a foreign exchange student and spent the year in Delton, Mich. He played tight end and defensive end that season before returning to Austria. Raimann gained enough recognition to receive interest from Central Michigan. After completing a six-month military service obligation in Austria, he returned to Michigan to continue his football career and the rest is history.

SECOND TEAM ALL-PRO

In 2020 and 2021, Rhodes earned Associated Press All-Pro accolades (2020, Second Team; 2021, First Team) after he handled long snapping duties. In 2020, Rhodes and safety George Odum became the first Indianapolis special teams players to earn All-Pro recognition since 2014 when kicker Adam Vinatieri and punter Pat McAfee were each named First Team All-Pro. Wide receiver Ashton Dulin joined Rhodes in 2021 as All-Pro selections.

CONVERTING TO LONG SNAPPER

In 2016, Rhodes competed as a linebacker, mainly on special teams. The following season, the Colts moved Rhodes to long snapper. Transitioning to a new position can be challenging and he was certainly welcomed to the position during the team's first preseason game where Indianapolis was punting out of its own end zone. Rhodes successfully made the adjustment and assisted kicker Adam Vinatieri and punter Rigoberto Sanchez to impactful campaigns in 2017. He snapped for Vinatieri to convert 29-of-34 field goals (85.3) and 22-of-24 extra points for 109 points on the season. Sanchez totaled 84 punts for 3,764 yards, a 44.8 average, a 42.6 net average and 28 kicks pinned inside the 20-yard line. He was named to the 2017 PFWA All-Rookie team, set franchise rookie records for total punts and punt yards and set the NFL record for net punting average by a rookie punter.

FAMILY INSPIRATION

Rhodes has been inspired by his father, Doug Rhodes, who battled brain cancer. "They gave my dad six weeks to live, and we're over a decade now. Pretty powerful." Rhodes helped raise awareness for the disease by participating in the My Cause My Cleats during both the 2017 and 2018 seasons. He wore green and orange cleats to support the National Brain Tumor Society.

DOWN THE STRETCH

Who was your childhood sports idol: Ronaldinho, for sure. Just the way he danced with the ball and scored his free kicks. I'd love to meet him some day.

What are your hobbies off the field: Playing pool, fishing and playing/watching soccer.

What is the weirdest food you've ever tried: Musubi. It is super popular in Hawaii – kind of what hot dogs and corn dogs are to the mainland. It's a little block that's half rice and half sausage. I tried it, but it was a one-time thing for me.

If you could have lunch with three people, who would they be: Ronaldinho, Adam Vinatieri and Lionel Messi

Pregame ritual: I say a prayer of thanks.

What is your proudest moment outside of football: Graduating from the University of Hawaii in the spring of 2018. I had to take online classes to get it done.

What is your most memorable game played: Playing in the Buffalo snow as a rookie and having a punt stick at the one-yard line.

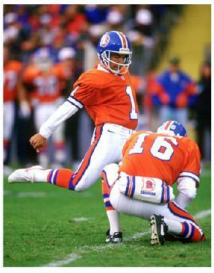
2020 ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD WINNER

The Wednesday before Thanksgiving in 2020, Sanchez had a normal practice, but something didn't feel right. He usually is one to play through any aches and pains, but he mentioned it to a special teams coach who pointed him to the medical staff. They recommended doing MRIs, and then something completely unexpected was found. Sanchez was informed he had a cancerous tumor, and that it needed to be removed. Even though he was shocked by this unexpected turn, he still went on to play the game against the Titans the following Sunday because he didn't want to let his teammates down. He had surgery the following Tuesday to remove the tumor, and days after that the doctors informed him that it hadn't spread and he was cancer free. He missed two games, but was able to return and finish the season with the team. Sanchez was voted as the Colts' Ed Block Courage Award winner for the way he attacked the entire process. "I've always admired the people around the league who have made the list and I'm blessed to be one of the 32 recipients," Sanchez said. "I'm thankful for everyone who categorized me for this distinguished award. Just know, to always keep going and be the change."

SURPASSING ELAM

At Hawaii, Sanchez served as the team's punter, placekicker and kickoff specialist. In the 2016 season, he went a perfect 13-of-13 on his field goal attempts (100.0 percent), breaking the school's single-season mark set by Jason Elam in 1989 (90.9 percent). Sanchez's career mark of 87.5 percent on field goals topped Elam's former record of 79.0 percent and Sanchez's career 44.8 punting average leapfrogged Elam's former record of 43.5 yards per punt.

Before starting an NFL career that spanned 15 seasons and included three Associated Press First Team All-Pro honors and two Super Bowl championships, Elam scored the third-most points in NCAA history (397) and tied for the second-most field goals made (79). In the NFL, Elam notched a then-record 63-yard field goal and owns nearly every career kicking record in Denver Broncos history.



FORK IN THE ROAD

While soccer was Sanchez's first love, he obliged to a friend's request to give football a try. After converting a 30-yard field goal attempt on his first ever kick in practice as a high school sophomore, Sanchez propelled a football career that left him with a major decision to make prior to entering college. With opportunities to play either soccer or football at the junior college level, Sanchez passed on pursuing his first love and pursued a football career that has since seen him excel at the NCAA FBS and NFL levels. As a high school student, Sanchez set numerous goals to push him and drive him to excellence, both in the classroom and in athletics. When Sanchez, a captain at Hamilton (Calif.) High School, was progressing as a promising soccer player, he set a goal to represent the U.S. in the 2018 FIFA World Cup in Russia. He specifically targeted the 2018 FIFA World Cup in Russia because he felt it would give him enough time to develop and make an impression to the United States Men's National Team, but his soccer dreams shifted to football ambitions by the end of his high school career.

HISPANIC HERITAGE

Sanchez grew up in his household speaking Spanish with his mom and dad and is still fluent in the language today. He still tries to speak it today, and communicates in Spanish with his wife here and there. He tries to keep up with it because he wants to teach it to his kids. Both of his parents are from Mexico and when they were around the age of 15, they came to the United States. His mom is from Guanajuato and his dad is from Michoacán. Being one of a few players with a hispanic heritage, he says it motivates him and he is proud to represent them. At the Colts Hispanic Heritage Month Youth Football Camp in 2018, he was excited to engage with the kids. "I was talking to them in English and then started talking to them in Spanish and asked who spoke Spanish. They all raised their hands and it was a pretty cool thing to watch. They were all excited to talk with me in Spanish."

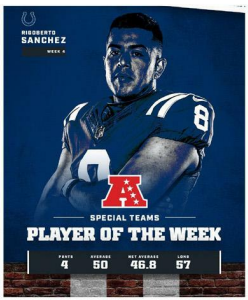
AFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK | 2024

Sanchez was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for Week 6 of 2024. In the Colts' 20-17 win against the Tennessee Titans, Sanchez registered five punts for 271 yards (54.2 avg./48.4 net avg.) with three pinned inside the 20-yard line. He set a single-game career-high in punting average (minimum three punts). Sanchez pinned Tennessee at its own three-yard line late in the fourth quarter to help preserve the victory. This marks his third Player of the Week honors (Weeks 4 and 7 in 2021), which is the most by a punter in Colts history.

FROM BUTTE TO THE BIG LEAGUES

Sanchez is not the only Chico, Calif., native to go through Butte College en route to launching a professional sports career. Sanchez attended Hamilton (Calif.) High School and his graduation class was only 73 students. The only other professional athlete to ever come out of Hamilton is Kyle Lohse, who split 16 Major League Baseball seasons with Minnesota, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Milwaukee and Texas. Like Sanchez, Lohse went from Hamilton to Butte College, a junior college that participates in the California Community College Athletic Association. Roughly 12 miles from Hamilton lays Pleasant Valley High School, which produced Jets quarterback Aaron Rodgers. Rodgers also attended Butte College to keep his professional sports ambitions alive. Following their tenures at Butte, Sanchez transferred to the University of Hawaii, Rodgers transferred to the University of California and Lohse entered the MLB.



2X AFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK | 2021

In 2021, Sanchez has earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice for his performances in Week 4 at Miami and Week 7 at San Francisco. In Week 7, he registered a 79-yard punt, which is the longest punt in franchise history. Sanchez became the first Indianapolis player to earn multiple AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in the same season since Adam Vinatieri in 2013 (Weeks 11 and 17).

GROVER THE MECHANIC

When Stewart's not pushing around offensive linemen on the football field, he loves to be tinkering under the hood of an old car. "I love working on cars," Stewart said. "I used to always watch my dad work on cars, and I said, 'I need to figure out how to work on those just in case I have problems.'" But Stewart has taken his mechanical interest beyond just the ability to make a needed repair. He worked on a Ford F-250 Lariat during the 2018 offseason.

THREE-POINT STANCE SPRINTER

Believe it or not, Stewart dabbled in some sprinting in high school. He was a thrower on the track & field team but had surprising quickness for a big man. After sizing up the competition at one meet, Stewart decided he could take the field. "I was just checking out the guys and I was like, 'Yeah, I know I'm faster than them,'" he said. His coach gave him the go-ahead to give it a shot. "Everybody was looking at me on the start line. I didn't know how to use the blocks, so I got in a three-point stance. I want to say I was in first after the first 50 (meters), but towards the end they were passing by me. But I still came in third place."

A KID FROM CAMILLA

Stewart is a self-proclaimed "country boy" from the small town of Camilla, Ga. (population around 5,000). He's proud of his unlikely journey from a tiny community to the NFL and wants to help those that come after him. "It means a lot to me, because I'm opening doors to younger guys and the guys from back home," Stewart said. "They see me and I tell them, 'It doesn't matter where you're from. It's all about the hard work you put in and the decisions you make.' I want to say the biggest thing I did was make better decisions. Coming from there, I just tell the guys, 'Just keep your head up, stay focused on the goal.' I stayed focused and look what happened."

MAKING A TOUGH CALL

After breaking the New Jersey high school single-season rushing record and being a standout in track and field, Taylor had the tough decision to make on his next step. He had interest from many schools, including Wisconsin, Rutgers, Yale, Harvard and Army. He originally committed to Rutgers to stay closer to home, before decommiting and deciding on Wisconsin. However, the chance to go to an Ivy League school like Harvard or Yale was not lost on him. He even visited Yale three times in the process.

A LATE BLOOMER

Thomas II was one of the smaller players on the football team, let alone the school as a freshman in high school. He was 5-3 and 130 pounds as a freshman before gaining nearly 35 pounds and eight inches of height during his high school career. Thomas II started gaining attention of colleges as a senior, and decided on Yale because they had a good football program, but he also wanted a school that had a great academic program. Even though he was playing Division I football, he wasn't done growing. Thomas II sprouted up to 6-2, 200 pounds, as a senior at Yale and played multiple positions, including defensive back and linebacker. He compares his growth spurt to NBA player Anthony Davis, who gained nearly 10 inches of height during his high school career before starring at Kentucky.

ON CAPITOL HILL

After Travis was selected in the fourth round of the 2025 NFL Draft, he received an interesting shoutout: from a U.S. Senator. Travis, a Minneapolis native, actually spent some time on Capitol Hill the summer after his sophomore year at Princeton when he interned for Minnesota Senator Amy Klobuchar. While in Washington, Travis would wake up at 5 a.m. to work out before heading to the office, where he'd compile news clips, answer phones and help fulfill constituent requests. Travis says the position helped him gain a 'grinders win' mentality, and he was even able to note some similarities with football and what happens on the Hill. After his football career is finished, Travis hopes to go to law school.

FULL CIRCLE

The first time Tuimoloau trained with a Colt was long before he was drafted. In high school, the Edgewood, Wash. native was one of few invited to train at Ford Sports Performance in Seattle, and there, he met none other than his now-teammate Zaire Franklin. The two bonded quickly – both sporting the number 44 – and Tuimoloau still uses the lessons he learned about intentionality and focus he learned at only 16 years old, today. "It's crazy now that I'm entering into this new door that I'm able to play alongside him," Tuimoloau said. "Full circle."

HARDWOOD TO GRIDIRON

Tuimoloau may be a standout player on the defensive line, but before that, he was a go-to on the court. Coming from a basketball family – Tuimoloau's mom, aunt and sister all played collegiate basketball – he received offers from a number of Division I schools. He even met with then-Buckeye basketball coach Chris Holtmann during his recruitment process with the hopes of becoming a dual-sport athlete at Ohio State, before ultimately deciding to stick to football. Back in his EYBL days, Tuimoloau was half of a one-two punch with 2022 No. 1 overall NBA Draft pick and current member of the Orlando Magic, Paolo Banchero.

STARTING OFF STRONG

Warren was named the Pepsi Zero Sugar Rookie of the Week for Week 2 of 2025. In the Colts' 29-28 win over Denver, Warren tallied four receptions for 79 yards (19.8 avg.), marking the highest single-game receiving average by a Colts rookie tight end since Dallas Clark in Week 11 of 2003. Warren totaled 11 receptions through Weeks 1 and 2 of 2025, placing him first in Colts history and fourth in league history for the most receptions by a rookie tight end through the first two games of their career.

WHATEVER, WHEREVER

First-round draft pick Warren may have won the Mackey Award in 2024 for being college football's best tight end, but he's been known to play multiple positions on the field: quarterback, wide receiver and even center, to name a few. The Mechanicsville, Va. native was also an all-state punter in high school, as well as a standout on the baseball diamond and basketball court. Funny enough, Warren caught the eye of Penn State head coach James Franklin and his coaching staff after sending out some of his basketball-dunking highlights.

The Colts earned their first victory in a season opener dating back to 2013 after defeating the Miami Dolphins, 33-8, at Lucas Oil Stadium on a day where late Colts Owner Jim Irsay was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor. Indianapolis scored on all seven of its offensive possessions in the win and became the first team since at least 1978 to score on every offensive drive of a game. The Colts defense recorded three takeaways and 3.0 sacks and shutout the Dolphins in the first three quarters before allowing a touchdown at the 6:21 mark of the final stanza. Daniel Jones made his first start with the Colts and completed 22-of-29 passes for 272 yards and one touchdown for a 115.9 passer rating while adding 26 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns. He set a single-game career-high for first half passing yards (197) and became one of five NFL players with 250-plus passing yards and two-plus rushing touchdowns in a season opener. Michael Pittman Jr. led the team with 80 receiving yards and one touchdown while Jonathan Taylor paced the Colts in rushing with 18 carries for 71 yards. Defensively, Cam Bynum and Laiatu Latu contributed with interceptions while Nick Cross led the team with six tackles and 1.0 sack. Spencer Shrader was 4-of-4 on field goal attempts and 3-of-3 on PATs for 15 points against the Dolphins.

The Indianapolis Colts defeated the Denver Broncos at Lucas Oil Stadium, 29-28, to start the season 2-0 for the first time since 2009. It also marks the first time the Colts have started a season with back-to-back home wins since 1960. Indy scored 13 points on their first three possessions of the game becoming the first team in NFL history to score on each of their first 10 offensive possessions of a season. Denver's defense found equal success in the first half, posting three touchdowns to take a 21-20 halftime lead. The Broncos opened the third quarter with a five-yard rushing touchdown from J.K. Dobbins to increase their lead to eight. The Colts responded with two Spencer Shrader field goals (36 and 28 yards) to cut Denver's lead to two with 8:33 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Broncos then drove 61 yards on 10 plays on their next possession, but missed a field goal, giving Indy a chance to win the game. With three seconds remaining, Shrader lined up for a 60-yard field goal but missed it wide right. A Denver leveraging penalty on the play gave Shrader another chance from 45 yards which he converted for the win. Quarterback Daniel Jones completed 23-of-34 passes for 316 yards and one touchdown. He also added a one-yard rushing touchdown. This marked the first time he recorded back-to-back games of over 270 passing yards since Weeks 16 and 17 of 2019. Running back Jonathan Taylor tallied 25 carries for 165 yards, along with two receptions for 50 yards and one touchdown. It marked Taylor's fifth career game with over 200 scrimmage yards and at least one scrimmage touchdown, tying Edgerrin James for the most in Colts history. Tight end Tyler Warren registered four receptions for 79 yards. He passed Coby Fleener (eight) for the most receptions by a Colts rookie tight end within their first two career games in team history. Warren's combined 11 receptions through the first two weeks ranks tied for fourth among all tight ends through their first two career games in NFL history. Defensively, safety Nick Cross co-led the team with seven tackles (five solo) and one pass defensed. Kicker Spencer Shrader converted 5-of-5 field goals and two extra points for a career-high 17 points.
