2025 IN REVIEW

The San Francisco 49ers finished the 2025 season with a 12-5 record, which included a 3-0 start and wins in six of their last seven regular season games. Head coach Kyle Shanahan led his team to its fifth playoff appearance since 2017, as San Francisco defeated the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFC Wild Card Round. Shanahan's 12 regular season wins gave him 82 in his career, which are the third-most by a head coach in franchise history.

The 2025 49ers featured two Associated Press First-Team All-Pro selections in FB Kyle Juszczyk and RB Christian McCaffrey and an AP Second-Team All-Pro selection in T Trent Williams. The team also boasted six selections to the 2026 Pro Bowl in LB Luke Gifford (special teamer), Juszczyk, TE George Kittle, McCaffrey, LS Jon Weeks and Williams.

On offense, San Francisco finished with top-10 marks in multiple categories. The 49ers offense ranked first in third down conversion percentage (49.8%), third in average first downs per game (22.3), fifth in average passing yards per game (244.5), tied for fifth in red zone touchdown efficiency (65.2%), seventh in total yards (5,974), tied for seventh in average yards per game (351.4) and 10th in average points per game (25.7). The unit also registered 379 total first downs, the third-most in the NFL, and 237 passing first downs, which led the NFL and marked the most in a single season in franchise history.

The offensive unit was led by RB Christian McCaffrey, who registered 311 carries for 1,202 yards and 10 touchdowns on the ground to go along with 102 receptions for 924 yards and seven touchdowns through the air. McCaffrey led the team in rushing yards, receiving yards and rushing touchdowns, while his 413 total touches were the most in the NFL. McCaffrey also ranked in the top three in the NFL in yards from scrimmage (2,126 - second) and total touchdowns (17 - third) and led all NFL running backs in receptions, receiving yards, receiving touchdowns and receiving first downs (48). The passing attack also featured WR Jauan Jennings, who added 55 receptions for 643 yards and a career-high nine touchdowns, and Kittle, who finished the season with 57 receptions for 628 yards and seven touchdowns. In nine starts on the season, QB Brock Purdy completed 197 of his 284 passing attempts (69.4%) for 2,167 yards and 20 touchdowns with a passer rating of 100.5. QB Mac Jones started eight games in relief and led the team to five wins by completing 201 of his 289 passing attempts (69.6%) for 2,151 yards and 13 touchdowns with a career high passer rating of 97.4. Jones' 69.6% completion percentage also marked a career high.

Despite losing key leaders for a good portion of the season, San Francisco's defensive unit finished the season tied for fifth in fumble recoveries (nine), 11th in rushing yards per game allowed (107.8) and 13th in average points per game allowed (21.8). The defense was led by LB Dee Winters, who registered a career-high 101 tackles, five passes defensed and one interception, which he returned for a touchdown. LB Tatum Bethune added a career-high 91 tackles to go along with 1.0 sack and four passes defensed. The defensive line was anchored by DL Bryce Huff and DL Clelin Ferrell, who tied for the team lead with 4.0 sacks each. Rookie DB Upton Stout finished with 82 tackles, five passes defensed and 1.0 sack, as his 82 tackles were the seventh-most among rookies in the NFL.

The special teams unit featured K Eddy Piñeiro, who signed with the team early in the season and converted on 28 of his 29 field goal attempts (96.6%) and 34 of his 38 extra point attempts (89.5%). Piñeiro shared the lead for the highest field goal percentage in the NFL (minimum 25 attempts) and finished with the second-highest field goal percentage in a single season in franchise history. San Francisco's return unit was led by WR Skyy Moore, who registered 1,050 kick return yards, the seventh-most in the NFL, and averaged 26.9 yards per kickoff return, ranking fifth in the NFL. Moore also ranked in the top five in punt return yards (417 - fourth) and average yards per punt return (12.3 - fifth). Gifford finished with 21 special teams tackles, tied for the ninth-most in the NFL.

After clinching the sixth seed in the NFC playoffs, the 49ers defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 23-19, in the Wild Card Round. THE HEAD COACH

Kyle Shanahan was named the 20th head coach of the San Francisco 49ers on February 6, 2017. Over the last nine seasons, he has posted an 82-67 record (9-5 in the postseason) and led the 49ers to three NFC West Division Titles (2019 & 2022-23), four trips to the NFC Championship Game and appearances in Super Bowl LIV and LVIII. He completed his ninth season with the 49ers after spending the previous two seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Atlanta Falcons. Shanahan has 22 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine seasons as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington Redskins (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09). In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), and six as head coach of the 49ers (2019, 2021-25), Shanahan has directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained. In 2019, Shanahan led the 49ers to NFC West and Conference titles en route to a trip to Super Bowl LIV, winning Coach of the Year honors by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101. Two years later, Shanahan guided the team to its second NFC Championship Game in two seasons (2021). In 2022, Shanahan led the 49ers to 12-consecutive wins after a 3-4 start, a second NFC West Division Title in four seasons and the team's second-consecutive appearance in the NFC Championship Game. In 2023, Shanahan guided the 49ers to their second-consecutive NFC West Division title, their eighth NFC Championship victory and an appearance in Super Bowl LVIII. In 2025, Shanahan led the 49ers to a 12-5 regular season record and a Wild Card victory against the Philadelphia Eagles.

LB CURTIS ROBINSON 49ERS 2025 CLUB WINNER FOR THE WALTER PAYTON NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

MAN OF THE YEAR

The San Francisco 49ers announced LB Curtis Robinson as the team's club winner for the 2025 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award, marking his second-consecutive nomination for one of the NFL's most prestigious awards. Named after the late Hall of Fame running back of the Chicago Bears, the award is given annually to a player demonstrating outstanding community service activities off the field, as well as excellence on the field.

The 49ers signed Robinson as a free agent during the 2021 season after he spent 11 weeks with the Denver Broncos. Over his five-year career, Robinson has solidified himself as a true team player, willing to step up whenever the team calls upon him. He has graciously stepped into a special teams and backup linebacker role while continually encouraging his teammates and staying ready for when his number is called. Since joining the league, Robinson has appeared in 29 games, registering 40 tackles, one pass defensed and 12 special teams tackles. After a season ending injury in 2024, Robinson spent the remainder of the 2024 season and the 2025 offseason rehabbing while still showing up for his teammates and the community around him. In 2025, Robinson made the 53-man roster and played a leadership role in both the linebacker room and on special teams.

Throughout his career, Robinson has been a community pillar, signing up for weekly 49ers volunteer events, no matter the cause, asking "what more can I do?" Robinson has supported cancer survivors and military members through the NFL's Crucial Catch and Salute to Service, raised awareness for animal rescues through visits at the Humane Society and participated in the annual Puppy Bowl as a player ambassador. Understanding the socioeconomic disparities leading to food insecurity and homelessness in the Bay Area, Robinson puts particular emphasis on supporting under-resourced families to ensure all have the support to succeed. He distributed food, clothing and resources to over fifty nonprofits throughout the holiday season and visits the local Boys & Girls Club often to empower the youth from the local Title I school.

With "bridging the gap for others" serving as his personal mission statement, social justice is a platform that Robinson gravitates toward. He's helped distribute over 4,100 books highlighting DEI through the 49ers Read for Justice initiative, promoted minority owned small businesses while sharing the Bay Area's connections to the civil rights movement during a cultural tour for youth, mentored over 100 minority students representing several social justice grant partners and visited with justice-impacted individuals at San Quentin State Rehabilitation Center, shining a light on the human side of the justice system. While every cause area is a worthy one to Robinson, the constant thread is to pay it forward to those who need it most.

BOBB McKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979," Walsh said. "He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements."

SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

Since the start of the 1980 season, the San Francisco 49ers have established themselves as one of the NFL's most dominant franchises.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back-to-back 2-14 seasons in 1978-79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.

GOLDMINE

- During his time at Sierra College and later Arizona State, Aiyuk was known for his work ethic on and off the field. Ben Noonan, who coached Aiyuk at Sierra College, found Aiyuk in the weight room constantly, improving his squat from 275 pounds coming out of high school to 500 pounds by May 2017. That drive carried over to the practice field, where Aiyuk routinely stayed for 30 minutes after every practice working on routes in the Rocklin heat. "It gets up to a good 110 degrees, and then he's out there until the daylight is gone with the quarterbacks after a four-hour day," Noonan said. "And demanding that the quarterbacks stay, you know, whether their arm was falling off or not."

AIYUK'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His last name is pronounced EYE-yook.
- Though he stands at 6-foot-0, Aiyuk recorded an 81-inch wingspan, equivalent to 6-foot-9.
- Only the second alum from a Northern Nevada high school to become a first-round NFL draft pick. Former DT Shawn Knight (Reed HS, NV) was drafted by the New Orleans Saints 11th overall in the 1987 NFL Draft.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Though he grew up in Nevada, Aiyuk has roots in Northern California. He attended Sierra (Rocklin, CA) College from 2016-17, where the 49ers spent training camp from 1981-1997. Additionally, Aiyuk began supporting the 49ers at a young age, thanks to his mom. "My mom's been a huge 49ers fan her whole life, so that kind of bled on me a little bit when I was younger," said Aiyuk. When he got the call informing him that he would be a member of the team, Aiyuk realized a childhood dream that he wasn't sure would come true. "There were a lot of people telling me before today and all week that it was going to happen. So, it's crazy that it actually did happen."

ROBERT BEAL JR.

DL × GEORGIA

51

6-4 × 250 × 8.18.99 × DULUTH, GA × 3RD YEAR × ACQUIRED D-5B IN '23

GOLDMINE

- Despite leading the Bulldogs in sacks in 2021, Beal decided to return to Georgia for his final year of eligibility in pursuit of a second-consecutive National Championship. The move paid off as Georgia finished the 2022 season a perfect 15-0 culminated by a 65-7 victory over Texas Christian in the National Championship, which was the largest margin of victory and the most points scored in a College Football Playoff or Bowl Championship Series title game. Beal registered 3 tackles and 1.0 sack of former Horned Frogs and former Los Angeles Chargers QB Max Duggan and became forever engrained in college football history as part of the only team in CFP history to win back-to-back National Championships.

- Although he was born and raised in Georgia, Beal is a lifelong 49ers fan. When asked who his favorite 49er was he cited former First-Team All-Pro and 49ers DL Aldon Smith. "I used to watch him day in, day out," said Beal. Like Smith who boasts a 83 7/8-inch wingspan, Beal uses his length to his advantage on the field. However, Beal's 83 1/2-inch wingspan does not come with the same advantages when shopping. "I was born with long arms. I can't really fit any shirt comfortably," said Beal. "It's either too long and my arms stick out the bottom of the shirt or the shirt will be too big. It's kind of crazy."

BEAL JR.'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Goes by "RJ." When he was young, also earned the nickname "Tank" because he had a big head compared to his small frame.
- Joined NFL DL Cameron Heyward, TE Connor Heyward, OL Orlando Brown Jr., DE Kingsley Enagbare and CB Bradley Roby as one of six active NFL players that attended Peachtree Ridge (Duluth, GA) HS.
- Initially wanted to be a WR as he grew up idolizing NFL WR Julio Jones.

GOLDMINE

- Many athletes come from a family of other athletes. For Bethune, the case was different. He comes from a family of academics. Bethune's parents are both educators, but the person who set the precedent for this line of work that runs in his family was his great-aunt, Mary McLeod Bethune, who founded Bethune-Cookman University. Originally an all-girls school, the historically black college was founded in 1904 in Florida. The rich history of education in his family was passed on to Bethune as well. "I came from a family where education was a huge thing," Bethune said. "[The main goal is] to get my degree and make sure my grades are straight. And that's always the main focus. Growing up, school was always the priority."

BETHUNE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Both of his parents work in education with his father, Gregory, being a longtime principal at Miami Central and current administrator for the Miami-Dade County Public Schools. His mother, Shovon, is a guidance counselor at Miami Jackson High.
- Was the recipient of the Monk Bonasorte Award in 2022 at Florida State, given to the defensive player who displays the most heart on the field.

- Participated in many 49ers community events throughout his tenure, including the Annual Community Day, helping pack more than 31,000 nutritious meals in collaboration with Feeding Children Anywhere. The meals, along with groceries and backpacks, were distributed to those most in need in East San Jose.

- Bosa's father, John, a former Miami Dolphin, encouraged sons Nick and Joey to try other sports like tennis, golf and baseball. However, Nick only had one sport in mind, and he let his parents know it. "Nick threw temper tantrums," John said. After successfully convincing his parents to let him play football, Nick gave everything he had to the sport. Even as a kid on the field, he wasn't afraid to speak his mind. Early in his football career, Cheryl watched from the sideline at practice as Nick approached a coach. "I find out later they'd put Nick with the offense," she recalled. "And he walked up to this guy, totally by himself, tugged on his shirt and said, 'I don't want to play offense. I want to play defense."

- In June of 2020, Bourne, through the Bourne Blessed Foundation, teamed up with the TAP Foundation to bring 100,000 pounds of fresh fruit and vegetables to East San Jose, one of the hardest hit areas affected by COVID-19 in Santa Clara County. Families received three boxes of food each by passing through a drive-thru system that was put in place to allow for social distancing. "We really wanted to provide the right nutrition because many people don't have access to food right now and money is tight. The main reason was to give healthy food to those in need."
- During the 2020 offseason, Bourne returned to his home state of Oregon to organize a meet and greet with fans and auction off raffles to benefit the Bourne Blessed Autism Foundation. "My uncles have autism and they are just happy about life. They used to watch me when I was younger and they just used to do everything I wanted as an athlete. They took me to go shoot hoops or go to the field," said Bourne. "Those two guys, I just love them to death so that is why we started it."

AWARDS & HONORS

2022: Bobb McKittrick Award, 49ers Community Relations Family Award
2024: Bobb McKittrick Award

2025 HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped allow zero sacks on 39 pass attempts by QB Mac Jones vs. LAR (11/9).
- Helped allow zero sacks on 32 pass attempts by QB Brock Purdy vs. Car. (11/24).

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during the 2018 season. Brendel represented the foundation, "Living for Zachary," named for former high school teammate Zachary Schraw, who passed away in 2009 on the Plano East High School football field. He died suddenly of cardiac arrest. "If there was an AED (automated external defibrillator) nearby, it could have saved Zachary's life, might have brought his heart back to life," Brendel said. "The foundation is trying to make sure the next time that happens, a life can be saved."

BRENDEL'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Growing up, Brendel's family was involved in local musical theater. During a production of "Annie," Brendel's dad, Bill, played "Daddy Warbucks," his mom was the musical director and Lauren and Jake played two background actors. "Jake was the dancer. The kid could dance and sing," said Bill.
- Enjoys fishing, particularly for bass, bluegills and walleye.
- Spent much of his childhood participating in various sports, such as football, basketball, baseball, lacrosse, wrestling and was a competitive swimmer in the backstroke and breaststroke.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- As a senior at UCLA in 2015, Brendel and his teammates suited up to play in their senior game at the Rose Bowl. He was joined by his entire family, including older sister, Lauren. Lauren had officially made captain in the Air Force the week before, and decided to skip her ceremonial pinning in order to watch her brother play. "It was great to have her there, especially being Military Appreciation Day," Jake said. "She loved every single aspect of it." Lauren, through her various assignments in the Air Force, was forced to miss a majority of her brother's games, but knew she wanted to be there for this one. "My feeling was, I'll be pinned for major, the next promotion, and then my family can be there," Lauren said. "Senior night was a one and only type thing for Jake. I couldn't miss that ceremony."

- Brown has a unique nickname, 'Tig'. "It started from Winnie the Pooh," Brown said. "When I was a baby, I used to bounce around a lot, not even a year old on my mom's lap, and she started calling me Tigger the Tiger. As I got older, it started to stick with me, and I just like, 'You know what? Let's chop a couple of letters off, call me Tig. Everybody start calling me Tig and it's just been like my real name. It's been a substitute for my real name since I was a baby."
- Brown teamed up with Chicago Bears S Jaquan Brisker in the secondary at both Lackawanna Community College (Scranton, PA) and Penn State. "They brought about as much attention to Lackawanna College in a week that's probably ever happened in this school's history," Lackawanna head coach Mark Duda said after each came up with an interception in a 2021 win over Wisconsin. "Having them together, it was like poetry in motion watching them play off of each other," said Penn State defensive coordinator Anthony Poindexter. "You could tell they had played somewhere together. They just had this chemistry, man. They knew what the other was doing."

DL × CENTRAL FLORIDA

93

6-2 × 310 × 10.2.98 × PENSACOLA, FL × 4TH YEAR × ACQUIRED D-6B IN '22

2025 HIGHLIGHTS

- Registered a 0.5 sack of Rams QB Matthew Stafford vs. LAR (11/9), which marked his first of the season and 1.5 in his career.

GOLDMINE

- Davis credits his coaches at West Florida (Pensacola, FL) Tech, Rhett Summerford and Harry Lees, for his development on defense. "I came in with wide receiver dreams and they shut that down quick," Davis recalled. "They said, 'you'll be a good high school receiver, but you're going to be a Division I linebacker.' I had dreams of playing D1, so when he told me that, he really shut down my receiver dreams. But looking back, it was the best decision that I ever made. Those guys are two of the biggest reasons I'm here today."

DAVIS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- First name is pronounced kuh-LEE-uh.
- Named to AAC All-Academic Team twice (2017 & 2020) at UCF.
- Played ILB at West Florida Tech (Pensacola, FL) HS. Was ranked the 41st ILB in the nation as a senior, and received three stars from ESPN.
- Became third Knight to be a member of the 49ers, joining former FB Bruce Miller and former DT Leger Douzable, and the second Knight to be drafted by the team (Miller - 7th round in 2011).

JORDAN ELLIOTT

DL × MISSOURI

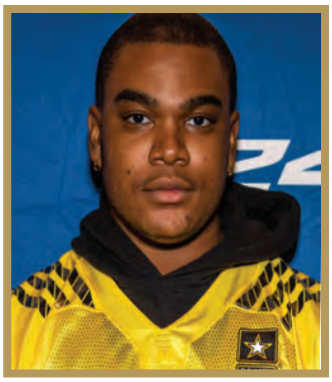
92

6-4 × 303 × 11.23.97 × HOUSTON, TX × 6TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '24

2025 HIGHLIGHTS

- Registered 1 tackle and blocked a Rams PAT at LAR (10/2), which marked the 2nd blocked PAT of his career.

GOLDMINE



- When Elliott first started playing football as a child, he was a running back. In his first game, he led his team to a victory by scoring four touchdowns. "I wasn't necessarily big, weight wise, but I was tall when I was a kid." Elliott said, "They didn't see me as a D-lineman at that time. I was just a dominant running back. I was fast, I could run, I could juke people, run you over." As he grew, it was undeniable that he would be more dominant on the other side of the ball, as a lineman. He made the switch and hasn't looked back since.

ELLIOTT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In his free time, enjoys producing music. After retiring from the NFL, he plans to pursue a career in music full-time.
- In high school, was selected to participate in the 2016 U.S. Army All-American Bowl.

"Something that's been life-changing for me is my parents serving in the military," Ferrell said. GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Ferrell's path to the NFL presented some significant obstacles that he had to overcome. When he was 14 years old, his father passed away from cancer, creating a confusing time in his life. "I became a little bit rebellious just because I was confused on the situation," Ferrell said. "It's hard dealing with somebody who was so steady in your life, and now they're just completely gone." Ferrell credits his mother, Faye, his siblings and his experiences at Benedictine (Richmond, VA) College Prepatory, the military academy he attended for high school, for keeping him on track and creating an opportunity for him to excel in sports. "Eventually, I became a very good student, a very good person and a role model." Ferrell said.

- Before becoming one of the best defensive linemen in Clemson's history, Ferrell began his college career recovering from an ACL injury that he suffered prior to his senior year of high school. He sat on the sidelines and watched his team win a state championship and then watched Clemson from the sidelines his freshman year. "It was a tough process," Ferrell said. "There were ups and there were downs and there was some times where I was confused." When Ferrell returned to the field two years and five days later, he never looked back, starting every game in college before eventually being drafted 4th overall in the 2019 NFL Draft.

AWARDS & HONORS

2019: NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 14)

GOLDMINE

- Gross-Matos has a very strong family unit. One of the driving factors of this closeness is the loss of close loved ones they've experienced. When Yetur was two years old, his father, Michael, tragically passed away in a boating accident after saving Yetur's life. Eight years later, at the age of 10, Yetur's older brother, Chelal, passed away after being struck by lightning. These experiences, one of which he was not old enough to remember, have shaped him into the man he is today. They've allowed him to see just how important family is.
- He has an incredibly close relationship with his parents Sakinah and Robert Matos. They have always been supportive of everything he has done, especially football.

GROSS-MATOS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Name is pronounced yee-TOUR gross MAH-tos.
- Goes by the nickname 'Yee.'
- Due to his love for video games, Gross-Matos is interested in information technology and the ability to build PCs.

GOLDMINE

- When a deadly tornado hit Tennessee in March of 2020, Jennings turned his scheduled autograph session into a donation drop off benefiting those affected by the tornado. "Just to be able to go down there and help," said Jennings, "It means a lot because this is a place that helped build who I am today. I had just gotten to Knoxville from the Combine and to wake up and see that call about the tornado and see the devastation that's happened, it broke my heart." In addition to signing autographs and talking to young fans, Jennings organized donations to go toward the community. "A lot of people are contacting me and they're like, 'What can we do?'" Jennings said. "And I'm like, 'Just bring donations. I'll take care of the rest.' It just means a lot to be able to just come out here and help the community."

- Coming from a family of athletes, Jennings grew up with a competitive spirit. Older sister, Alexis, played collegiate basketball at Kentucky and South Carolina, collecting Second-Team All-SEC honors as a senior with the Gamecocks in 2018-19. "We were always outside going to the playgrounds or to the local YMCA to play against people," said Alexis. "We pretty much played anything and everything. We just loved to be outside doing anything that had to do with sports."

JENNINGS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His first name is pronounced juh-WAHN.
- In addition to football, Jennings played basketball at Blackman (Murfreesboro, TN) HS.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Jennings followed in the footsteps of his father, Bennie, who was a four-year letterman on the University of North Alabama's football team from 1987-90. The First-Team All-American registered 29 catches for 456 yards and four touchdowns as a senior. His athletic prowess earned him a spot in UNA's Hall of Fame for football.

GOLDMINE

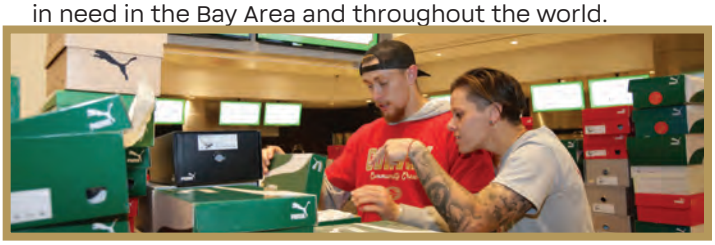
- Kittle, along with Kansas City Chiefs TE Travis Kelce, created a TE summit near Nashville, TN. More than 45 TEs gathered to share tips, workouts and advice in 2021. The annual event nearly doubled in size it's second year with roughly 90 participants.
- Kittle is an avid fan of the WWE. In May of 2017, he took time to visit the Black and Brave Wrestling Academy in Iowa, which is co-owned by one of Kittle's favorite wrestlers, WWE superstar Seth Rollins. At a pro wrestling event on the same weekend, Kittle got to live out one of his dreams and get into the ring, where he delivered a Stone Cold Stunner, a move made famous by his favorite wrestler of all-time, Steve Austin. "I felt like a kid," Kittle said.

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope in December of 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Kittle and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.



- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event in September of 2018. Kittle and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

- The 49ers hosted the third annual Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health in October of 2019, featuring cancer warriors representing all cancers as they modeled apparel donated by Levi's. Kittle and his teammates were paired with each of the warriors to share their stories of strength and courage.

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Kittle represented this cause with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. The Pat Tillman Foundation unites and empowers military veterans and spouses as the next generation of public and private sector leaders committed to service beyond self.

- During the 2020 NFL Combine, Kittle teamed up with Rich Eisen in support of the Run Rich Run event. Each combine, Eisen runs the 40-yard dash to raise money for St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital. Kittle joined Eisen, with the assistance of Von, a St. Jude's patient, and Jerry Rice, in timing his 40-yard dash. George then presented a $10,000 donation to St. Jude's on behalf of him and his wife, Claire. "I'm just such a fan of Rich and that he does that every year through St. Jude's," Kittle said. "I'm a big fan of the Iowa Children's Hospital. I'm just a fan of that, any time I can give back to help kids, they deserve it."

- Kittle partnered with the Jessie Rees Foundation to pass out JoyJars filled with toys and games at a local children's hospital. Kittle spearheaded the event and was joined by several of his teammates including, TE Ross Dwelley and LB Fred Warner who helped him spread holiday cheer and lift the spirits of everyone they met.

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. Kittle and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Kittle represented TAPS, saying, "I play for the fallen heroes and their families."

CHASE LUCAS

CB × ARIZONA STATE

26

5-11 × 184 × 3.4.97 × CHANDLER, AZ × 4TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '24

GOLDMINE

- Lucas understands the value of family and having a strong support system. His family has been integral to his success, both on and off the field. "My family is everything to me," Lucas said. "My mom, grandparents, my aunt, they all did everything for me." His aunt, Tara, was a major source of motivation for him. She was like a second mother to him. He works hard every day to make her proud, because while she was alive, Tara was his biggest cheerleader along with his mother, Valerie. "I'm very proud of my aunt for the legacy she built here on this earth. I want to dedicate everything I have done, everything I accomplish from here on out to her."
- Along with Tara, he would consider Valerie to be the most influential person in his life because she raised him as a single mother. Being close to home and making sure his mother could attend as many games as possible, is the reason he ultimately decided to attend Arizona State over other schools he was heavily recruited by. This support system is the reason Chase has gotten to where he is today.

LUCAS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Played WR all throughout high school, made the switch to corner in his senior year and saw his potential grow in that position.
- Enjoys spending time doing outdoor activities, specifically fishing and hunting.
- Has two rottweilers at home: Royce and Blue.

GOLDMINE

- McCaffrey founded the Christian McCaffrey Foundation shortly after entering the NFL. The foundation's mission is to serve as a catalyst for the community and country by supporting those who sacrifice daily for the benefit of many. We show up for our servicemen and women for standing at the front of the most critical challenges of our time. Since it's inception, McCaffrey's foundation has expanded beyond the military. In addition to working to prevent veteran suicide, the foundation supports front line workers, serves underserved youth and provides support to children undergoing medical treatment.

- His foundation's Logan Project strives to connect children going through medical treatment through gaming in honor of Logan Hale, a fan of McCaffrey who passed away after a battle with cancer in 2021. "I found out he had been buried in my jersey, and I just kind of broke down. That hit me like a ton of bricks. "I found out he wanted to do this while he was going through what he was going through. I was extremely determined to make that happen." After reading Hale's obituary, which mentioned his video game dream, McCaffrey decided to put his vision into action. "I know Logan would be over the moon, to see this actually come true," Hale's mother, Kristina, said. "But most of all because his favorite player, the person he admired the most, is making it come true."
- McCaffrey returns home to Denver annually each June to help staff his father's Dare to Play football camp. Dare to Play partners with the Global Down Syndrome Foundation to ensure people with Down Syndrome have the ability to play the game of football. McCaffrey has been a counselor at Dare to Play since he was a freshman in high school in 2010. Since then, the camp has given hundreds of people with down syndrome an opportunity to play.

AWARDS & HONORS

2025: Perry/Yonamine Unity Award, Bob McKittrick Award

2025 HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped allow zero sacks on 39 pass attempts by QB Mac Jones vs. LAR (11/9).
- Helped allow zero sacks on 32 pass attempts by QB Brock Purdy vs. Car. (11/24).

GOLDMINE

- McKivitz is a lover of outdoor activities, as he frequently spends his time with his dad, Matt, fishing and hunting, for deer, ducks and squirrels. "It was really my dad that got me into it," said McKivitz. "He's got me into everything in the outdoors, really. That's me and dad's time, the outdoor time. I'm just lucky to have that type of figure to learn from and that's kind of what I love most about the outdoors." Matt is known for creating unique hats from the animals the two of them have hunted. The elder McKivitz is famous for being seen sporting one at each of West Virginia's home games.

- This past offseason, McKivitz hosted a youth athlete empowerment camp in San Francisco called The Trenches. The focus of the camp was for mental and emotional resilience and football development of high school linemen. McKivitz is passionate about the community around him in the Bay and has dedicated his extensive time to the people around him in this area.

McKIVITZ'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In addition to playing football, McKivitz was a four-year basketball player at Union Local (Jacobsburg, OH) HS, earning all-state honors as a senior in 2014.
- Didn't participate in organized football until he enrolled at Union Local before his sophomore year of high school in 2012.
- He caught his first fish, a bluegill, at age 3. McKivitz notes that the largest fish he's ever caught was an 8-pounder which he caught in the Summer of 2019.
- Is a fan of country music, citing Kenny Chesney and the Zac Brown Band among his favorites.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- While the Mountaineers were on a bye in September of 2019, McKivitz returned to his former high school, Union Local, in Ohio to be honored at the homecoming game. The Jets retired McKivitz's number 53 in a pregame ceremony, an honor that McKivitz doesn't take lightly. "It was huge. At the time I didn't really understand the meaning of it. But now, once you look back on it, that number will never see the field again. It's a pretty big honor for me." Former Union Local offensive line coach Brion Schiappa echoed the sentiment, saying, "We're all just so proud of what Colton has accomplished, and it meant a great deal to honor him in that way."

GOLDMINE

- Okuayinonu, a native of Monrovia, Liberia, did not grow up playing football and dreaming of being an NFL player. Instead, he grew up loving the game of soccer, a much more prevalent sport in his home country.
- At the age of 12, he and his family fled from Liberia to the United States to escape the country's civil war, settling in Lowell, Massachusetts. Even after immigrating to the US, his love of American football took a bit longer to develop. It wasn't until his junior year of high school that his cousin introduced him to the game. "I actually quite hated football when I first started playing," Okuayinonu said. "I tried it out my junior year of high school, but I didn't really like it. So, I ended up quitting I think three or four games into the season and went back to playing soccer."
- He decided to give football another try during his senior year, which is when he began to take it seriously and ultimately fell in love with the sport. Okuayinonu instantly found success on the field and decided that he would work hard to play professionally.

OKUAYINONU'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Is of Liberian and Nigerian descent.
- Last name is pronounced oh-koo-WAH-new.
- Okuayinonu has his mother's middle name 'Deakonti' tattooed on his right forearm. In his native language, Bassa, the word means 'Everything has time.' He has used this phrase to remain motivated during difficult times in his life, including the ups and downs of playing professional football.

2025 HIGHLIGHTS

- Registered 4 recepts. for a team-high 108 yds. at Sea. (9/7).
- Notched 8 recepts. for a team-high 117 yds. vs. Arz. (9/21), marking his 2nd game of the season with 100-or-more rec. yards and the 3rd of his career.

GOLDMINE

- Pearsall has been playing sports for as long as he can remember. But his love for football did not start with him throwing around the ball with his father, Rick Sr., instead, it started with somethihg much smaller, Skittles. As a toddler, Pearsall loved to run around and was very fast. His father took notice and thought it would be a good idea to get him involved in sports. "I wanted to show him how to catch with his hands from the get-go. No body catches," said Rick Sr. "So I had a pile of Skittles. I told him, 'Every time you catch it with your hands, you get a Skittle, but you can't eat it, yet. It's going to go in this pile. And if you catch it with your body or drop it, I'm taking your Skittle from you.' So he'd be happy every time he got a Skittle. But when I took it away from him, he'd cry and he'd get really frustrated. And I'd encourage him, 'Hey, just catch with your hands, and you'll get more.'" This motivation proved to be successful in the long run, as Pearsall quickly caught on and developed a strong love for football.

PEARSALL'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Has a French Bulldog named Yogi.
- Has three sisters: Paige, Victoria and Isabella.
- Set the Arizona High School 6A single-game receiving yards record with 342 yards as a junior in 2017.

GOLDMINE

- Every offseason, Piñeiro returns to his home town to spend time with his family and train for the season. In the summer of 2024, he and his family started a kicking camp called Kick Pro Academy for young athletes in Miami, FL. When he spoke about the camp, Piñeiro said, "We do it completely for free. I'm hoping I'm paving the way, and can teach and tell those kids, 'Hey, you have a shot too.' And that soccer translates into kicking. And if soccer doesn't work out, kick. I always tell kids, 'If you don't get a scholarship in soccer, which is very hard to get, you have a shot to get it in football. So try both.'"

GOLDMINE

- When playing paintball in the desert with his Perry (Gilbert, AZ) HS teammates in May 2017, Purdy suffered a punctured left hand from a Saguaro Cactus. "It's something that everyone's done," Purdy said on the game in the desert. "It's one of those group things that you do to build chemistry." The team-building exercise forced Perry's starting QB to miss spring ball headed into his senior season. However, Purdy was largely unfazed by the injury to his non-throwing hand as the Queen Creek, AZ native threw for 4,405 yds. and 57 TDs that fall en route to winning Arizona Gatorade Player of the Year.

- Hosted a series of youth camps around Virginia during the summer of 2025. The camps included a series of motivational lectures, skill-building stations, competitve contests, awards and hands-on football activities. "I remember when I was their age, I used to go to camps and, you know, star players camps and stuff. And it was so exciting that, you know, just me coming and giving back, you know, having an opportunity to give back and was seeing these kids light up and seeing these parents and stuff this. So it's all to not bring their kids out in 100 degrees to just come out here and get some work with me. I really appreciate it" said Robinson Jr.

He was an all-state baseball player in addition to participating in track and long jump. For one season, Taylor played tennis with his quarterback as his doubles partner and the two were state runners-up that year.
- While playing defensive back in high school, Taylor hit an opponent with such ferocity that he broke the receiver's jaw.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Taylor and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. "The USO strengthens America's military service members by keeping them connected to family, home and country, throughout their service to the nation," said Taylor.

- As part of the 49ers annual Thanksgiving celebrations, Taylor and his teammates visited Cityteam San Jose to serve a holiday feast to over 300 people in need. Guests enjoyed turkey along with all of the usual holiday sides, while getting to know the 49ers.

- In April of 2018, Taylor and his teammates attended the eighth annual Prom at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital San Francisco in Mission Bay, with more than 200 teen patients and their friends. Patients and 49ers players enjoyed a fun-filled "Vintage Circus" prom with photo booths, music, dancing, dining and more. This special evening allowed patients to participate in a milestone that they may miss as a result of sickness.

- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took park in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Taylor and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

GOLDMINE

- When Williams was young, he and his family lost his paternal grandfather, John L. Hawkins, due to Type 2 diabetes. It affected Williams deeply, saying, "Not being able to build that relationship with my grandfather, sometimes I still think about it." To honor his memory and expand the awareness and prevention of diabetes, Williams began to serve as an ambassador for the American Diabetes Association in 2014, and has done so ever since in order to help others focus on the importance of wellness in life. "As we all know, it affects a lot of Americans, not just around the world, but in America we have almost 30 million people living with the disease," Williams said. "It's almost catastrophic, and it can be without the right awareness. Obviously, I lost my grandfather at a young age to this disease, so I have a special interest in working with the ADA every year. To me, I feel like it's something that I have to do," Williams said. "I owe it to my family and to myself to do."

WILLIAMS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Was the 49ers 2020 and 2021 Garry Niver Award winner, presented annually by the San Francisco Chapter of the Pro Football Writers of America to a 49ers player for his cooperation and professionalism in helping the writers do their jobs.
- Honored in his hometown of Longview, Texas, with "Trent Williams Day" on May 12, 2010 to celebrate his selection in the NFL Draft.
- In 2016, Williams partnered with Nike in order donate over 1,000 shoes to give to each elementary school campus in his hometown of Longview, Texas, for kids who are in need.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- In July of 2022, EA Sports named Williams the first OL to be rated 99 overall in the Madden franchise since NFL Hall of Fame T Walter Jones in 2007.
- During Week 13 of the 2020 season, 49ers players wore custom cleats as a part of the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Williams and his teammates highlighted their respective causes, with Williams representing the DFSP Foundation.

- In May of 2017, Williams returned to his roots as he walked through the Lobo Stadium tunnel at his alma mater of Longview High School. Williams returned to Texas to partake in a ceremony held by the school for the 2006 Longview graduate in conjunction with the football team's Green-White Game in order to retire his No. 71 jersey. He became the second former player to have his jersey number retired in the school's history. "It's a surreal feeling," Williams said. "Never in my wildest dreams did I ever imagine getting my jersey retired, especially at a high school like this that's rich in tradition in football. To know that I've done enough in my career, and I feel like I've got a lot left to do, to have my jersey retired, it's a blessing."

- Throughout his career, Williams has made it a priority to assist and help those who shaped him in his younger years. In 2015, Williams donated $25,000 to his high school alma mater to help fund EKG screening for every member of the football program. He has also donated a new locker room, new shoes for elementary students and Christmas gifts for those in need in his hometown of Longview, Texas. "This is home," his mother, Veronica, said. "Trent loves giving back to the community here. When it's involving children, that's his first love." Williams' former high school coach, John King, added, "The money he's given our football program, our athletic program, our high school, the at-risk kids throughout the district and in this community, he's never forgotten home. He's done a lot of things that haven't gotten recognition. Just a tremendous person."
- In June of 2018, Williams hosted the 5th Life and Skills Camp, also known as Silverback football camp, at Lobo Stadium in his hometown of Longview, Texas. Williams hosted more than 100 athletes during the afternoon with assistance from Los Angeles Rams LB Travin Howard, who also attended Longview High School, as well as other volunteer coaches. Williams enjoys being able to give back to his community, and said, "This is where I grew up, the place that birthed me. Anytime I get a chance to come back and connect with the community, I love it."

GOLDMINE

- Willis' position coach at Oklahoma was Joe John Finley, a former 49ers TE who played for the team from 2008-10. "The first thing that comes to my mind when I think about Brayden is just that dog mentality. You come across a bunch of great football players in your life and one thing they all have in common is they all have that killer mentality. He took that into every part of his life, he was the hardest worker on the team, and he was a leader through his actions," Finley remarked when asked about Willis and his work ethic. "He wore out our jugs machine, I think he caught 10,000 balls the last two summers that he was here. And thats a lot of balls to catch over the summer in addition to all of those things we ask those guys to do, go to class, their workouts, and seven on seven, routes on air, all that good stuff. He actually caught 10,000 per summer which is unbelievable."

WILLIS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Has one sister, Grace, who plays soccer at Texas State.
- Earned the nickname "Weight Room Willy" in college for his work ethic and strength in the weight room.
- Used to host an Oklahoma football podcast with his former teammate, Jeremiah Hall, called "The Podcast on the Prairie."

GOLDMINE

- While at Burton (TX) HS, Winters was a jack of all trades. He starred in baseball, basketball and track & field in addition to football. On the gridiron, Winters played QB, RB, WR, DB and P as well as his current position of LB.
- Winters and linebackers coach Johnny Holland share a bond over growing up in small East Texas towns. Winters is a native of Burton, whose population is a mere 283, while Holland's hometown of Hempstead is a bit larger with a population of 6,028. The two are just 20 minutes apart and despite their size, the two tiny towns have produced a pair of NFL LBs. "I think Coach Holland is a great guy," Winters said when asked about his new position coach. "He's definitely going to be himself, and I think he just is a great coach, and he's going to put you in the best position to make plays, and that's what you want as a player."

WINTERS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Primarily played WR at Burton (TX) HS and registered over 1,100 yds. and 18 TDs during his high school career.
- Was named the College Football Playoff Semifinal Defensive Most Valuable Player after registering 7 tackles, 3.0 TFLs, 1 PD and 1 INT, which he returned for a 29-yd. TD in a win over Michigan to advance to the National Championship.

After a defensive penalty negated a three–n–out, Seattle took the ball down the field to set up a 7–yd. RB Kenneth Walker III TD run to go up 24–6 before halftime. The 49ers opened the second half with the ball, driving into Seattle territory before QB Brock Purdy took a 14–yd. sack on 4th down, allowing the Seahawks to take over in San Francisco territory. Seattle moved the ball down to the San Francisco 6–yardline before the Niners defense forced a 24–yd. FG. On the next drive, LB Ernest Jones IV intercepted a QB Brock Purdy pass intended for TE Luke Farrell, setting up their offense with a drive culminating in a 15–yd. RB Kenneth Walker III TD run. On the ensuing drive, the Niners failed to convert on 4th down, allowing Seattle to take over deep in San Francisco territory and set up a 6–yd. RB Kenneth Walker III TD run. The 49ers then drove the ball into Seattle territory before DL DeMarcus Lawrence sacked QB Brock Purdy and forced a fumble recovered by S Nick Emmanwori. The teams then exchanged punts until time expired and the Seahawks took the playoff win.

NOTES: S Malik Mustapha registered 8 tackles and 1.0 sack of Seahawks QB Sam Darnold on the night, marking the first sack of his postseason career…DL C.J. QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six–yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six–point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13–play, 89–yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock. Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22–of–35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark posted eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

January 24 at Silverdome

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20–0 lead at the half and held on for a 26–21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship. Montana scored on a one–yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12–play, 92–yard drive that resulted in an 11–yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14–of–22 passes for 157 yards. Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards. The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach. LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

Mark Moseley connected on a 25–yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24–21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium. The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21–0 deficit with 21 fourth–quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five–yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76–yard bomb to pull within seven at 21–14. Washington went three–and–out on their next possession, which led to another Montana–to–Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, Washington would launch a six–minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season. Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27–of–48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown. DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and LBs Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

Super Bowl XXIII
January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium
(Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23–of–36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last. The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41–yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34–yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3–3 tie. The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown. It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31–yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40–yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10–yard touchdown. An 11–play, 46–yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46–yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16–13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight–yard line. What happened next is legendary. Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27–yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10–yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early. Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven–yard gain into a 72–yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard touchdown pass and the rout was on. Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17–of–24 passes for 241 yards. QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49–26 win over San Diego. San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four–yard run and an 11–yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44–yard scoring strike. Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51–yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13–play, 78–yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one–yard touchdown plunge to make it 14–7 after one quarter of play. The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70–yard drive that culminated with a five–yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight–yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31–yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28–10. The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42–10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine–yard blast up the middle, and a 15–yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven–yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27–17 at 3Com Park. A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one–year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11–6. Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44–yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three–yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13–yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21–yard field goal with two minutes remaining. The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21–10. On the 14–play drive, Young was 9–of–10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27–10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two–yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game. Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40–yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team–high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14–0 in the NFC Wild Card Game. Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round. Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10–play, 74–yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine–yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt. Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven–yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five–yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone–blitz coverage. The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one–handed catch that resulted in a 36–yard gain. He scored on a three–yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage. Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14–of–21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing. The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason–record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Packers 35, 49ers 14
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 4 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35–14 in a game that featured 34–degree weather (with a wind chill of nine–degrees) and driving rain. It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71–yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four–yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14–0. San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21–0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight–yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21–7 at the half. On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28–14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11–yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game. Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19–of–36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team–high 36 yards receiving. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All–Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

49ers 38, Vikings 22
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career–high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38–22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park. In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21–of–30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown. San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7–0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66–yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14–7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one–yard plunge. The game–breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone. In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34–yard field goal to build the lead to 24–7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24–14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second–year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one–yard run. CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

Packers 23, 49ers 10
NFC Championship
January 11 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23–10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park. The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10–play, 76–yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19–yard field goal. Favre completed three–of–four passes for 37 yards in the series. Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27–yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10–0. San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48–yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10–yard line. The drive resulted in a 28–yard field goal by K Gary Anderson. Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40–yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43–yard field goal to make the halftime score 13–3. After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16–3 on a 25–yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five–yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23–3. San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97–yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972. Young completed 23–of–38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team–high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43. Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

49ers 30, Packers 27
NFC Wild Card
January 3 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25–yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30–27. On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23–yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19–yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7–3 lead. Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two–yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out to take a 17–10 halftime lead. The third quarter opened with Favre being pressured into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score. The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career–long 48–yard field goal from Richey. In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48–yard kick with a 37–yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20–20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40–yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23–20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11–yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine–play, 89–yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27–23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game. The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24–yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. On the final play, Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25–yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

Falcons 20, 49ers 18
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 9 at Georgia Dome
(Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL–leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20–18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome. San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground. Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two–yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7–0 lead. Atlanta increased its lead to 14–0 when Anderson finished off a 34–yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven–play, 82–yard drive. San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine–play, 80–yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36–yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14–10 game at the half with a 36–yard field goal as time expired. The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29–yard field goal. Leading 17–10, Andersen added another 32–yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10–point edge with 10:33 remaining. San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13–play, 87–yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight–yard touchdown run. A two–point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20–18 with 2:57 left. After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four–yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired. After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game–high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

Packers 25, 49ers 15
NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard–fought 25–15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field. With a game–time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five–yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6–0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19–yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34–yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6–0. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6–of–9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst had a two–yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15–play, 86–yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7–6 halftime lead. On their first possession of the second half, the Packers moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight–yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26–yard field goal for the 9–7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19–yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two–point conversion failed and the score remained 15–7. Two series later, the 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14–yard touchdown strike and again on the two–point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10–play, 45–yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45–yard field goal to push the score to 18–15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven–yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight–play, 93–yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine–yard touchdown run and the 25–15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13–yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25–15 victory.

49ers 39, Giants 38
NFC Wild Card
January 5 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24–point playoff hole, the 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39–38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game. The 49ers trailed 38–14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two–point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens. The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle. Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Garcia finished the day 27–of–44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14–yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards. Collins was 29–of–43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving. San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive—right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score. After Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass and a two–point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14–yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25–yard field goal with 7:49 left. Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42–yard field goal with 3:01 left. Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25–yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

Buccaneers 31, 49ers 6
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium
(Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31–6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium. The 49ers trailed 28–6 heading into halftime and although the defense held Tampa Bay to only three points in the second half, San Francisco was held scoreless en route to the Buccaneers victory. Tampa Bay started the scoring with a two–yard touchdown run by FB Mike Alstott on a 12–play, 74–yard drive. San Francisco answered with a 12–play, 63–yard drive capped by a 24–yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. The highlight of the drive was a 30–yard pitch and catch by WR Tai Streets from QB Jeff Garcia. Tampa Bay exploded for 21 points in the second quarter, highlighted by two touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson. Johnson connected on a 20–yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius and a 12–yard pass to TE Rickey Dudley. In between the two scores, Chandler kicked his second field goal of the game for San Francisco, this time from 40 yards out. 49ers 36, Saints 32
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 14 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

A 14–yd. TD pass from Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis with 0:09 left in the game capped off one of the most memorable games in postseason history, as the 49ers defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. Powered by Smith, who threw for 299 yds., three TDs and added another one on the ground, the 49ers triumphed in its first playoff game in nine years, moving within one win of the Super Bowl. The Niners scored on their second drive of the game, on a 49–yd. TD pass from Smith to Davis. On the Saints next drive, QB Drew Brees committed his first postseason INT in five years, thanks to S Dashon Goldson, giving San Francisco the football deep in New Orleans' territory. Scoring on a TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, Smith took advantage of the costly turnover, making the score 14–0. On the ensuing kickoff return, S Madieu Williams stripped the ball away from Saints WR Courtney Roby and the loose ball was recovered by LB Blake Costanzo. The takeaway led to a 25–yd. FG by K David Akers. The Saints answered, scoring two TDs before half time, on a 14–yd. pass to TE Jimmy Graham and a 25–yd. pass to WR Marques Colston, making the score 17–14 at the half. San Francisco scored the only points of the 3rd qtr. on a 41–yd. FG by David Akers. The 4th qtr. started out with each team trading FGs. Then would come the four lead changes in the last five minutes of the game. New Orleans struck first on a 44–yd. TD pass to RB Darren Sproles, with 4:02 left on the clock. With the 49ers trailing 24–23, down for the first time in the entire game, Smith scored on a 28–yd. rushing TD. A missed two–point conversion put the 49ers up 29–24 with just 2:11 remaining. Brees took the lead back on a 66–yd. score to TE Jimmy Graham with 1:37 left. RB Darren Sproles then made a catch out of the backfield for the two–point conversion to give the Saints a 32–29 advantage. Facing elimination, Smith connected with Davis twice on their final drive, with the last throw jetting through double coverage for a game–winning 14–yd. TD.

Giants 20, 49ers 17 (OT)
NFC Championship
January 22 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, `Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue–collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain–soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73–yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34–yd. line. On 3rd–and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10–play, 69–yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6–yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3–play, 54–yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24–yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17–yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40–yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game–tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season–ending 31–yd. FG through the uprights.

49ers 45, Packers 31
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

With the win against the Green Bay Packers, the San Francisco 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the second year in a row, marking the first time San Francisco has reached the NFC Championship Game in consecutive seasons since 1992–94. The Packers got off to a quick start after QB Colin Kaepernick threw an INT on just the fourth play of the game that was returned for a TD by Packers CB Sam Shields. Kaepernick responded immediately like he had all season and turned in one of the best performances by a 49ers QB in franchise history. Kaepernick led the offense on an 8–play, 80–yd. drive that he capped off with a 20–yd. TD run to tie the score at 7 apiece early in the 1st qtr. The team converted on two 3rd and longs on the drive, setting the tone for the day by finishing 8 of 13 on 3rd down (62%). With 11:52 remaining in the 2nd qtr., Green Bay WR Jeremy Ross muffed a punt that was recovered by S C.J. Spillman at the Packers 9–yd. line. The takeaway led to a 12–yd. TD pass from Kaepernick to WR Michael Crabtree just three plays later. On the ensuing Green Bay possession, CB Tarell Brown picked off QB Aaron Rodgers pass and returned his 2nd career postseason INT. The Kaepernick to Crabtree connection continued to be successful as they connected for a 20–yd. TD strike, making the score 21–14. Crabtree led the team with 9 recepts. for 119 yds. and 2 TDs on the day. On the third play of San Francisco's second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick kept the ball on a zone read around the right side and dashed 56–yds. to the end zone for his 2nd rushing TD of the game. The 56–yd. TD run marked the longest run by a QB in franchise postseason history and the 3rd longest overall. Kaepernick also set the NFL single–game record for a QB with 181 rushing yds. on 16 carries. RB Frank Gore finished off the following drive on the first play of the 4th qtr., punching it in from 2 yds. out, stretching the 49ers lead to 38–24. Gore notched his first career 100–yd. game in the postseason, rushing for 119 yds. on 23 carries. The 49ers became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100–yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100–yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game. RB Anthony Dixon found the end zone on a 2–yd. TD run to finish off the 11–play, 93–yd. drive to make the score 45–24. San Francisco rushed for 323 yds. on the night, setting the franchise single–game postseason rushing record.

49ers 28, Falcons 24
NFC Championship
January 20 at Georgia Dome
(Atlanta, GA)

The 49ers started slow, spotting Atlanta a 17–0 lead after the Falcons scored on their first three possessions. On San Francisco's third possession the 49ers offense began to click. TE Vernon Davis hauled in a pinpoint pass from QB Colin Kaepernick for 27 yds. down to the Atlanta 15–yd. line. Davis had 3, 25+ yd. recepts. in the game, giving him 9 in 4 postseason games, which ranks 2nd in 49ers postseason history, trailing only WR Jerry Rice (14, 25+ yd. recepts. in 23 games). Two plays following Davis' catch, the 49ers got on the scoreboard with a 15–yd. TD run by RB LaMichael James. It was James' first–career TD. The 49ers next possession began on their own 18–yd. line with 6:24 remaining in the 2nd qtr. Vernon Davis stepped up once again, accounting for 48–yds. on 3 recepts., including a 4–yd. TD catch to finish the drive and pull the 49ers within 3, as the score read 14–17 at the 2–minute warning. Davis' 5 career postseason TDs rank t–4th in franchise history. With the Falcons scoring right before the half, it was important the 49ers came out of halftime with an answer, and answer they did. Kaepernick marched the 49ers offense right down the field, driving 82 yds. on 7 plays capped off on a 5–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore to make the score 21–24 with 10:51 remaining in the 3rd qtr. The San Francisco defense also had answers, forcing turnovers on the Falcons first two possessions of the 2nd half. CB Chris Culliver picked–off QB Matt Ryan and LB Aldon Smith recovered a muffed snap to stymie the Falcons offense during the 3rd qtr. With 11:59 left in the 4th qtr. WR Ted Ginn returned a Matt Bosher punt 20 yds. to the Atlanta 38–yd. line, giving the 49ers offense good starting field position. San Francisco's physical offensive line began to take over and wear down the Atlanta defense, opening big holes for Gore, James and RB Anthony Dixon as they gained all but 8 yds. on the go–ahead drive. Gore registered his 2nd TD run of the game on a 9–yd. burst to the end zone to give San Francisco the lead 28–24 with 8:27 remaining in the game. The Falcons took over after the Gore TD and sustained a 14–play drive down to the 49ers 10–yd. line. On the 14th play of the drive, the Falcons faced a 4th and 4 with 1:13 remaining. WR Roddy White was unable to hang onto the ball due to LB NaVorro Bowman's blanketing defense. The Falcons got the ball back following an Andy Lee punt and had one last shot with :06 ticks left on the clock, but CB Perrish Cox tackled WR Julio Jones at San Francisco's 35–yd. line before he could attempt a lateral as the clock struck :00. The 17–point comeback led by Kaepernick was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship (2006 – Indianapolis trailed New England by 18 points).

Ravens 34, 49ers 31
Super Bowl XLVII
February 3 at Superdome
(New Orleans, LA)

The San Francisco 49ers and the Baltimore Ravens squared off in one of the most extraordinary Super Bowls where two brothers squared off as head coaches. The 49ers found themselves facing an early deficit, which would eventually be too much to overcome. Early in the 1st qtr., San Francisco answered a Ravens TD drive with a scoring drive of their own as QB Colin Kaepernick engineered a 12–play 62–yd. drive that was finished off by K David Akers' 36–yd. FG, making the score 7–3. After 2 more TD passes by QB Joe Flacco, the 49ers found themselves in a 21–3 hole with 1:45 left in the 2nd qtr. Kaepernick showed poise and led the 2–minute drill efficiently by completing 4 of 5 pass atts. for 56 yds. to move the 49ers into FG position. Akers added 3 more points with a 27–yd. FG as time expired in the half with San Francisco trailing Baltimore 21–6. Following a Ravens kickoff return for a TD to open the 2nd half, the Superdome went dark with 13:28 remaining in the 3rd qtr. A power failure at 7:38 p.m. CT caused a 30–minute delay and was not resolved until 8:08 p.m. On the Niners' next possession, Kaepernick tossed a 31–yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, making the score 28–13. San Francisco forced Baltimore into a 3–and–out with a sack by LB Ahmad Brooks on 3rd–and–10. P Sam Koch's 43–yd. punt was returned 32 yds. by WR Ted Ginn Jr., setting up the 49ers offense to takeover at the Ravens 20–yd. line. Two plays later, RB Frank Gore capitalized on the short field with a 6–yd. TD run. On the second play of Baltimore's ensuing possession, CB Tarell Brown forced and recovered a fumble that he jarred loose from RB Ray Rice on the Ravens' 24–yd. line. The takeaway led to a 34–yd. FG by Akers, his 3rd of the game. With their next possession, WR Randy Moss hauled in a 32–yd. recept., followed by a 21–yd. run by Gore, which led to a 15–yd. TD run by Kaepernick. An incomplete pass on the 2–point try made the score 31–29 with the Ravens still hanging on as San Francisco continued its fierce comeback. Kaepernick's 15–yd. TD run marked the longest TD run by a QB in Super Bowl history. With 4:23 remaining in the game, Baltimore's K Justin Tucker tacked on a 38–yd. FG to extend their lead to 34–29. A 24–yd. completion to Crabtree and a 33–yd. rush by Gore put the 49ers offense in position for the go–ahead TD with 2:39 remaining, on the Ravens' 7–yd. line. The 49ers were unable to get into the end zone and turned the ball over on downs. After taking a safety to run the game clock down to :04, the Ravens were forced to punt to the 49ers. Ginn returned the kickoff 31–yds.to the 50–yd. line as time expired for the last play of the game.

San Francisco turned the takeaway into points when Dawson made a 33–yd. FG with 4:38 remaining in the 1st qtr.
